CREATIVE ARTS • BASIC 1

Illustrated learning workbook

Visual Arts + Performing Arts | Explore • Make • Display • Appreciate

20 illustrated lessons · 5 Play and 10 Challenge questions for every lesson · practical teacher observation tasks

Learners explore ideas, make or compose a work, share it, and describe what they would improve. Videos are in the multimedia eBook and offline interactive course; their matching three-step visuals appear on the printed pages.

LESSON 01 • Find Stories in Cloth

Visual Arts / Explore / Basic 1

Your mission

Today you will notice how art can carry cultural meaning. You will create a motif study using a patterned fabric scrap, paper and crayons.

Do it in three steps

1. Look at a cloth pattern and point to its repeated marks.
2. Sketch two repeated shapes from the cloth onto paper.
3. Add one personal variation and explain what it represents.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with our own local community; use simple lines, familiar objects and one short practice.

Level-up art task

Ask a family member for one safe, respectful example of pattern in daily life. Tell your class what you noticed.

Safety and kindness

Ask before touching another person’s cloth.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a labelled pattern sketch and shape and meaning. Also try this: compare the pattern with a friend’s observation.

PLAY • Find Stories in Cloth

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about our own local community, which materials are listed for “Find Stories in Cloth”?

   A. a class composition, simple programme and safe stage area

   B. a patterned fabric scrap, paper and crayons

   C. hands, a soft drum or a safe plastic container

   D. paper, pencils, coloured pencils and a ruler

2. In work about our own local community, which observation or preparation starts “Find Stories in Cloth”?

   A. Choose finished works and give each a title label.

   B. Agree on the order of songs, dance or drama items.

   C. Describe visible lines, colours, textures and shapes.

   D. Look at a cloth pattern and point to its repeated marks.

3. In work about our own local community, what will the learner create or perform in “Find Stories in Cloth”?

   A. a short dance composition

   B. a recycled collage

   C. a public message poster

   D. a motif study

4. In work about our own local community, which artistic element is the main focus of “Find Stories in Cloth”?

   A. staging

   B. composition

   C. gesture

   D. pattern

5. In work about our own local community, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Find Stories in Cloth”?

   A. a labelled pattern sketch

   B. a rehearsed scene with understandable roles

   C. a fixed paper collage

   D. a readable community poster

CHALLENGE • Find Stories in Cloth

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about our own local community, after the opening action in “Find Stories in Cloth”, what is the second step?

A. Connect them with a pause and a change of direction.

B. Draw the outline using simple curved lines.

C. Test the colours in small labelled boxes.

D. Sketch two repeated shapes from the cloth onto paper.

7. In work about our own local community, which closing action completes the three-stage “Find Stories in Cloth” activity?

A. Practise taking turns as leader and responding group.

B. Perform the pulse with a partner, starting and stopping together.

C. Show your gesture sequence while a friend identifies the story.

D. Add one personal variation and explain what it represents.

8. In work about our own local community, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Find Stories in Cloth”?

A. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

B. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

C. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

D. Ask before touching another person’s cloth.

9. In work about our own local community, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Find Stories in Cloth”?

A. compose a simple shared musical phrase

B. reuse materials while arranging an image

C. notice how art can carry cultural meaning

D. revise a work thoughtfully

10. In work about our own local community, for whom is the finished “Find Stories in Cloth” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. classmates

B. a person who is never shown the work

C. only the teacher’s desk

D. the materials supplier only

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Find Stories in Cloth

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about our own local community, when assessing “Find Stories in Cloth”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. evidence and kindness

B. expression and clarity

C. shape and meaning

D. shape and function

12. In work about our own local community, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Find Stories in Cloth”?

A. ask classmates what action the poster encourages

B. use feedback to improve one repeat performance

C. invite a partner to lead the next four beats

D. compare the pattern with a friend’s observation

13. In work about our own local community, which cultural or geographic context guides “Find Stories in Cloth” at Basic 1?

A. an unrelated invented setting

B. a distant place not discussed in class

C. only an overseas example without local evidence

D. our own local community

14. In work about our own local community, when you explain “Find Stories in Cloth” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a review that ignores the work entirely

B. a guess about pattern without checking the finished work

C. a labelled pattern sketch, supported by what you noticed or changed

D. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

15. In work about our own local community, which reason best supports revising your “Find Stories in Cloth” work after feedback?

A. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

B. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

C. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

D. to improve shape and meaning

Artist’s reflection

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 02 • Hear the Community Beat

Performing Arts / Explore / Basic 1

Your mission

Today you will recognise pulse and respectful listening. You will create a rhythmic echo using hands, a soft drum or a safe plastic container.

Do it in three steps

1. Listen to a short local rhythm and count its pulses.
2. Echo the pulse by tapping softly four times.
3. Perform the pulse with a partner, starting and stopping together.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with our own local community; use simple lines, familiar objects and one short practice.

Level-up art task

Ask a family member for one safe, respectful example of pulse in daily life. Tell your class what you noticed.

Safety and kindness

Keep the sound comfortable for nearby listeners.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a steady four-pulse performance and steady timing. Also try this: invite a partner to lead the next four beats.

PLAY • Hear the Community Beat

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about our own local community, which materials are listed for “Hear the Community Beat”?

   A. hands, a soft drum or a safe plastic container

   B. crayons, scrap paper and a drawing sheet

   C. a patterned fabric scrap, paper and crayons

   D. a short community story and an open safe space

2. In work about our own local community, which observation or preparation starts “Hear the Community Beat”?

   A. Choose a character and identify one important action.

   B. Write or say a short call about caring for people or places.

   C. Roll a smooth ball of soft material.

   D. Listen to a short local rhythm and count its pulses.

3. In work about our own local community, what will the learner create or perform in “Hear the Community Beat”?

   A. a revised artwork

   B. a recycled collage

   C. a rhythmic echo

   D. a two-part song plan

4. In work about our own local community, which artistic element is the main focus of “Hear the Community Beat”?

   A. appreciation

   B. colour

   C. repetition

   D. pulse

5. In work about our own local community, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Hear the Community Beat”?

   A. a steady four-pulse performance

   B. a three-gesture story

   C. a reasoned art observation

   D. an over-under paper mat

CHALLENGE • Hear the Community Beat

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about our own local community, after the opening action in “Hear the Community Beat”, what is the second step?

A. Record one strength in timing, expression or teamwork.

B. Echo the pulse by tapping softly four times.

C. Test the colours in small labelled boxes.

D. Arrange pieces on cardboard before applying glue.

7. In work about our own local community, which closing action completes the three-stage “Hear the Community Beat” activity?

A. Smooth the rim and show how the finished bowl can stand.

B. Repeat the sequence and straighten the finished pattern.

C. Show your gesture sequence while a friend identifies the story.

D. Perform the pulse with a partner, starting and stopping together.

8. In work about our own local community, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Hear the Community Beat”?

A. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

B. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

C. Keep the sound comfortable for nearby listeners.

D. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

9. In work about our own local community, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Hear the Community Beat”?

A. recognise pulse and respectful listening

B. represent a place through organised sounds

C. use voice, space and roles to tell a story

D. coordinate movement with music

10. In work about our own local community, for whom is the finished “Hear the Community Beat” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. a person who is never shown the work

B. the materials supplier only

C. only the teacher’s desk

D. listening group

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Hear the Community Beat

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about our own local community, when assessing “Hear the Community Beat”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. steady timing

B. even walls and balance

C. improvement and cooperation

D. regular pattern

12. In work about our own local community, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Hear the Community Beat”?

A. invite a classmate to describe a favourite visible detail

B. ask classmates what action the poster encourages

C. invite a partner to lead the next four beats

D. compare narrow and wide pot openings

13. In work about our own local community, which cultural or geographic context guides “Hear the Community Beat” at Basic 1?

A. an unrelated invented setting

B. only an overseas example without local evidence

C. our own local community

D. a distant place not discussed in class

14. In work about our own local community, when you explain “Hear the Community Beat” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

B. a steady four-pulse performance, supported by what you noticed or changed

C. a review that ignores the work entirely

D. a guess about pulse without checking the finished work

15. In work about our own local community, which reason best supports revising your “Hear the Community Beat” work after feedback?

A. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

B. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

C. to improve steady timing

D. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

Artist’s reflection

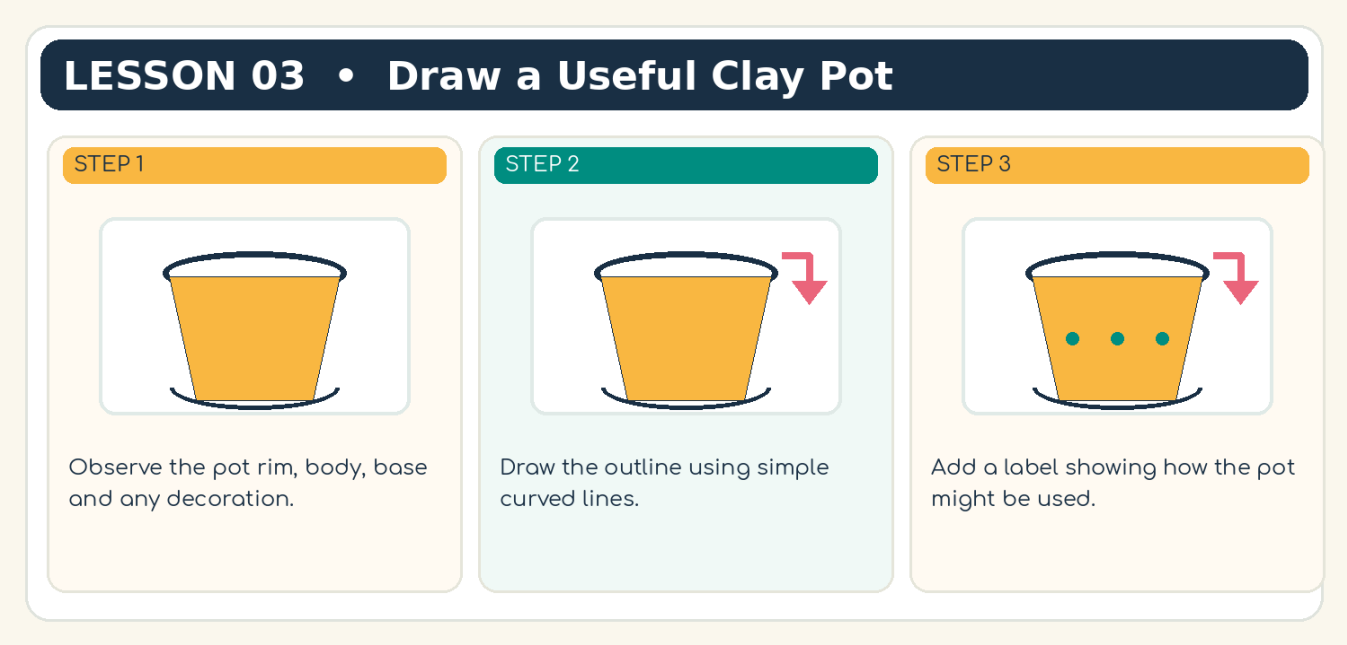

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 03 • Draw a Useful Clay Pot

Visual Arts / Explore / Basic 1

Your mission

Today you will connect the form of a useful object to its function. You will create a functional pot sketch using a picture or safe sample of a clay pot, pencil and paper.

Do it in three steps

1. Observe the pot rim, body, base and any decoration.
2. Draw the outline using simple curved lines.
3. Add a label showing how the pot might be used.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with our own local community; use simple lines, familiar objects and one short practice.

Level-up art task

Ask a family member for one safe, respectful example of form in daily life. Tell your class what you noticed.

Safety and kindness

Do not handle fragile or heavy pots without adult help.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for an annotated pot drawing and shape and function. Also try this: compare narrow and wide pot openings.

PLAY • Draw a Useful Clay Pot

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about our own local community, which materials are listed for “Draw a Useful Clay Pot”?

   A. a short original dialogue and simple safe props

   B. completed learner artworks, labels and removable tape

   C. a picture or safe sample of a clay pot, pencil and paper

   D. an open space and a gentle drum pulse

2. In work about our own local community, which observation or preparation starts “Draw a Useful Clay Pot”?

   A. List three sounds heard in the chosen setting.

   B. Listen to a short local rhythm and count its pulses.

   C. Observe the pot rim, body, base and any decoration.

   D. Write or say a short call about caring for people or places.

3. In work about our own local community, what will the learner create or perform in “Draw a Useful Clay Pot”?

   A. a short dance composition

   B. a short drama scene

   C. a functional pot sketch

   D. a sound story

4. In work about our own local community, which artistic element is the main focus of “Draw a Useful Clay Pot”?

   A. form

   B. volume

   C. composition

   D. pulse

5. In work about our own local community, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Draw a Useful Clay Pot”?

   A. a reasoned art observation

   B. a readable community poster

   C. a stable pinched bowl

   D. an annotated pot drawing

CHALLENGE • Draw a Useful Clay Pot

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about our own local community, after the opening action in “Draw a Useful Clay Pot”, what is the second step?

A. Choose one change that supports the artwork’s purpose.

B. Pass one strip over then under the base strips.

C. Try three gestures that communicate the action without words.

D. Draw the outline using simple curved lines.

7. In work about our own local community, which closing action completes the three-stage “Draw a Useful Clay Pot” activity?

A. Add a label showing how the pot might be used.

B. Suggest one useful change and say how to rehearse it.

C. Perform the phrase twice with control and enough personal space.

D. Smooth the rim and show how the finished bowl can stand.

8. In work about our own local community, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Draw a Useful Clay Pot”?

A. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

B. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

C. Do not handle fragile or heavy pots without adult help.

D. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

9. In work about our own local community, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Draw a Useful Clay Pot”?

A. connect the form of a useful object to its function

B. reuse materials while arranging an image

C. appreciate work using evidence

D. use art to communicate a helpful message

10. In work about our own local community, for whom is the finished “Draw a Useful Clay Pot” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. the materials supplier only

B. study group

C. only the teacher’s desk

D. a person who is never shown the work

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Draw a Useful Clay Pot

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about our own local community, when assessing “Draw a Useful Clay Pot”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. timing and safe space

B. composition and care

C. shape and function

D. shape and meaning

12. In work about our own local community, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Draw a Useful Clay Pot”?

A. use feedback to improve one repeat performance

B. ask classmates what action the poster encourages

C. compare narrow and wide pot openings

D. invite a partner to lead the next four beats

13. In work about our own local community, which cultural or geographic context guides “Draw a Useful Clay Pot” at Basic 1?

A. a distant place not discussed in class

B. only an overseas example without local evidence

C. our own local community

D. an unrelated invented setting

14. In work about our own local community, when you explain “Draw a Useful Clay Pot” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a guess about form without checking the finished work

B. a review that ignores the work entirely

C. an annotated pot drawing, supported by what you noticed or changed

D. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

15. In work about our own local community, which reason best supports revising your “Draw a Useful Clay Pot” work after feedback?

A. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

B. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

C. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

D. to improve shape and function

Artist’s reflection

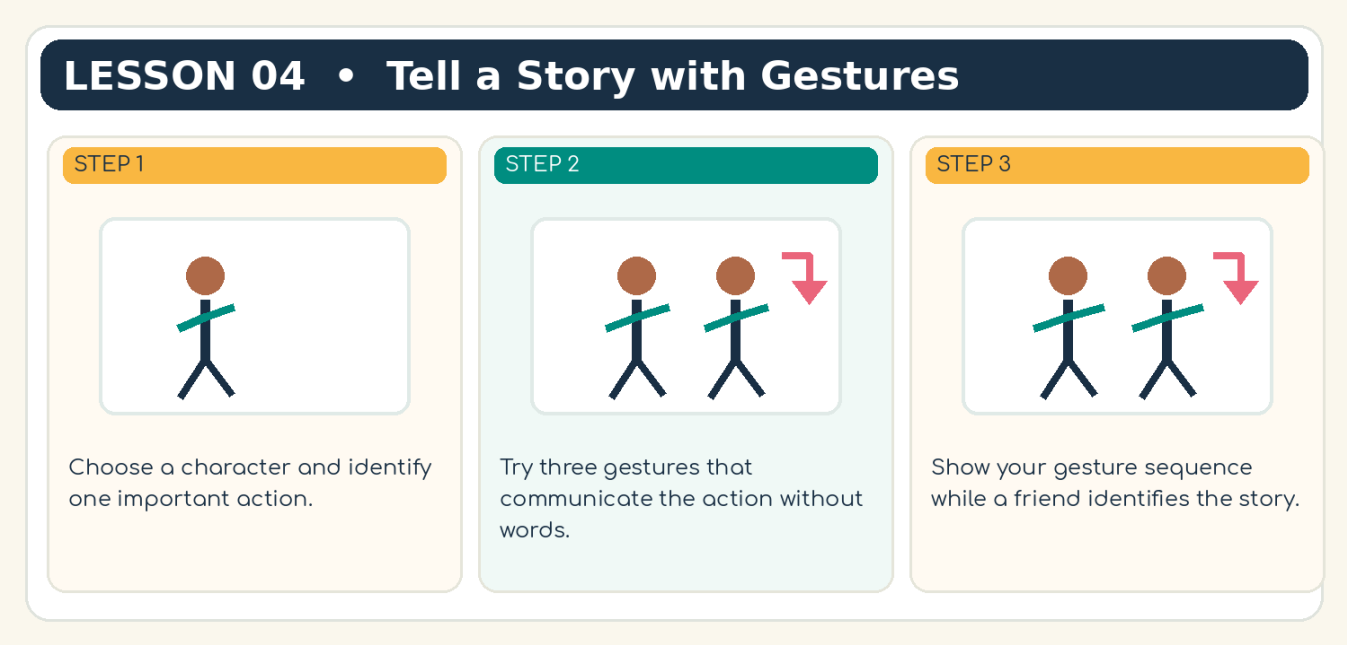

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 04 • Tell a Story with Gestures

Performing Arts / Explore / Basic 1

Your mission

Today you will communicate ideas through body movement. You will create a silent story using a short community story and an open safe space.

Do it in three steps

1. Choose a character and identify one important action.
2. Try three gestures that communicate the action without words.
3. Show your gesture sequence while a friend identifies the story.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with our own local community; use simple lines, familiar objects and one short practice.

Level-up art task

Ask a family member for one safe, respectful example of gesture in daily life. Tell your class what you noticed.

Safety and kindness

Use an open space and avoid pushing or sudden jumps.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a three-gesture story and expression and clarity. Also try this: swap roles between performer and audience.

PLAY • Tell a Story with Gestures

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about our own local community, which materials are listed for “Tell a Story with Gestures”?

   A. clean scrap paper, glue, cardboard and blunt scissors

   B. a short community story and an open safe space

   C. one short class performance and a two-column note

   D. a patterned fabric scrap, paper and crayons

2. In work about our own local community, which observation or preparation starts “Tell a Story with Gestures”?

   A. Listen to a short local rhythm and count its pulses.

   B. Choose a character and identify one important action.

   C. Describe visible lines, colours, textures and shapes.

   D. Choose three colours that suit your chosen message.

3. In work about our own local community, what will the learner create or perform in “Tell a Story with Gestures”?

   A. an artwork response

   B. a recycled collage

   C. a silent story

   D. a public message poster

4. In work about our own local community, which artistic element is the main focus of “Tell a Story with Gestures”?

   A. gesture

   B. colour

   C. reflection

   D. pattern

5. In work about our own local community, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Tell a Story with Gestures”?

   A. an improved final performance

   B. a rehearsed scene with understandable roles

   C. a three-gesture story

   D. a repeatable beat grid and performance

CHALLENGE • Tell a Story with Gestures

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about our own local community, after the opening action in “Tell a Story with Gestures”, what is the second step?

A. Practise lines with clear facial expression and turn-taking.

B. Try three gestures that communicate the action without words.

C. Record one strength in timing, expression or teamwork.

D. Connect them with a pause and a change of direction.

7. In work about our own local community, which closing action completes the three-stage “Tell a Story with Gestures” activity?

A. Act the scene once and revise a confusing gesture.

B. Make the change and explain how the second version improved.

C. Show your gesture sequence while a friend identifies the story.

D. Suggest one useful change and say how to rehearse it.

8. In work about our own local community, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Tell a Story with Gestures”?

A. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

B. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

C. Use an open space and avoid pushing or sudden jumps.

D. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

9. In work about our own local community, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Tell a Story with Gestures”?

A. revise a work thoughtfully

B. represent a place through organised sounds

C. communicate ideas through body movement

D. explore repeated structure through weaving

10. In work about our own local community, for whom is the finished “Tell a Story with Gestures” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. a person who is never shown the work

B. class audience

C. only the teacher’s desk

D. the materials supplier only

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Tell a Story with Gestures

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about our own local community, when assessing “Tell a Story with Gestures”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. shape and function

B. sequence and expression

C. expression and clarity

D. clear purposeful revision

12. In work about our own local community, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Tell a Story with Gestures”?

A. compare the pattern with a friend’s observation

B. swap roles between performer and audience

C. ask classmates what action the poster encourages

D. show which reused material became the focal point

13. In work about our own local community, which cultural or geographic context guides “Tell a Story with Gestures” at Basic 1?

A. only an overseas example without local evidence

B. our own local community

C. an unrelated invented setting

D. a distant place not discussed in class

14. In work about our own local community, when you explain “Tell a Story with Gestures” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a guess about gesture without checking the finished work

B. a three-gesture story, supported by what you noticed or changed

C. a review that ignores the work entirely

D. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

15. In work about our own local community, which reason best supports revising your “Tell a Story with Gestures” work after feedback?

A. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

B. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

C. to improve expression and clarity

D. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

Artist’s reflection

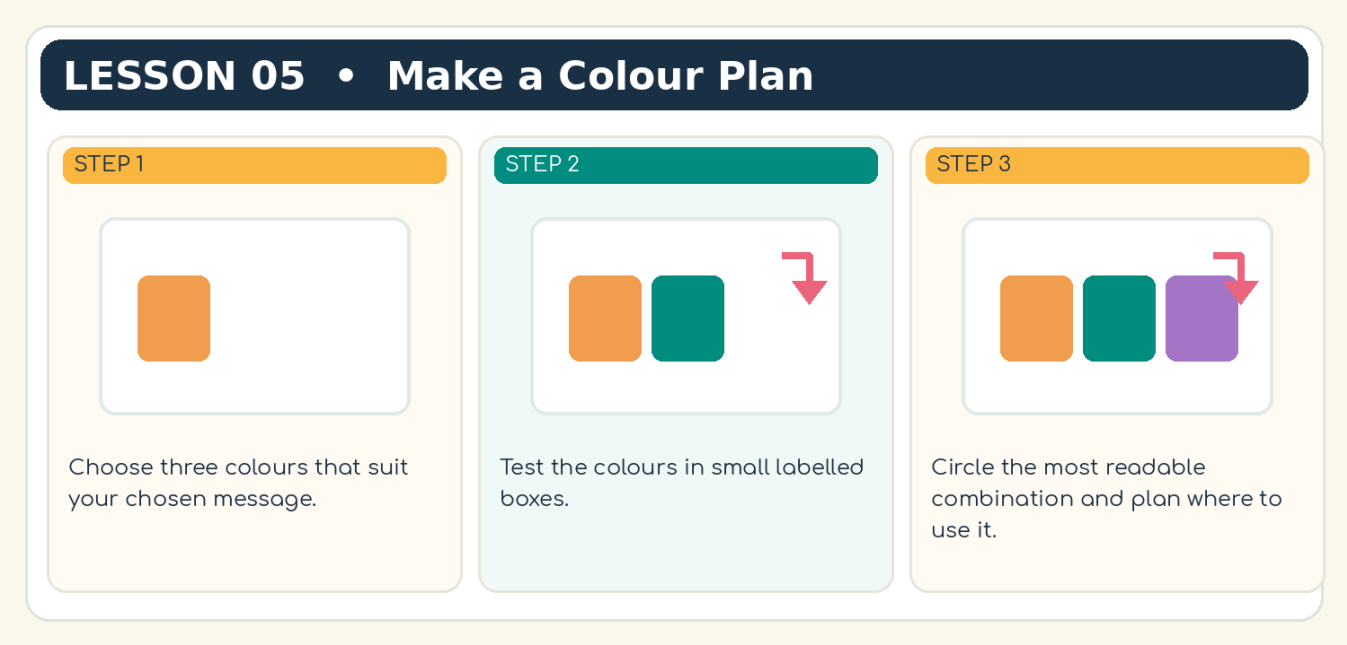

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 05 • Make a Colour Plan

Visual Arts / Plan / Basic 1

Your mission

Today you will select colours intentionally. You will create a colour plan using crayons, scrap paper and a drawing sheet.

Do it in three steps

1. Choose three colours that suit your chosen message.
2. Test the colours in small labelled boxes.
3. Circle the most readable combination and plan where to use it.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with our own local community; use simple lines, familiar objects and one short practice.

Level-up art task

Ask a family member for one safe, respectful example of colour in daily life. Tell your class what you noticed.

Safety and kindness

Keep crayons off the floor to prevent slips.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a labelled colour test and contrast and choice. Also try this: ask a partner which colour is easiest to see.

PLAY • Make a Colour Plan

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about our own local community, which materials are listed for “Make a Colour Plan”?

   A. completed learner artworks, labels and removable tape

   B. a class composition, simple programme and safe stage area

   C. crayons, scrap paper and a drawing sheet

   D. hands, a soft drum or a safe plastic container

2. In work about our own local community, which observation or preparation starts “Make a Colour Plan”?

   A. Read or listen to one helpful comment on the draft.

   B. Observe the pot rim, body, base and any decoration.

   C. Sort clean paper by colour and select pieces for your picture.

   D. Choose three colours that suit your chosen message.

3. In work about our own local community, what will the learner create or perform in “Make a Colour Plan”?

   A. a revised artwork

   B. a sound story

   C. a woven paper mat

   D. a colour plan

4. In work about our own local community, which artistic element is the main focus of “Make a Colour Plan”?

   A. colour

   B. gesture

   C. reflection

   D. call and response

5. In work about our own local community, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Make a Colour Plan”?

   A. a call and its matching response

   B. a labelled colour test

   C. an improved final performance

   D. a reasoned art observation

CHALLENGE • Make a Colour Plan

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about our own local community, after the opening action in “Make a Colour Plan”, what is the second step?

A. Sketch two repeated shapes from the cloth onto paper.

B. Test the colours in small labelled boxes.

C. Draw the outline using simple curved lines.

D. Connect them with a pause and a change of direction.

7. In work about our own local community, which closing action completes the three-stage “Make a Colour Plan” activity?

A. Circle the most readable combination and plan where to use it.

B. Perform the pulse with a partner, starting and stopping together.

C. Add a few large readable words and check the layout.

D. Present the item and thank the audience at the end.

8. In work about our own local community, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Make a Colour Plan”?

A. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

B. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

C. Keep crayons off the floor to prevent slips.

D. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

9. In work about our own local community, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Make a Colour Plan”?

A. build and repeat a rhythmic pattern

B. select colours intentionally

C. shape a useful object from malleable material

D. use evidence to discuss a performance

10. In work about our own local community, for whom is the finished “Make a Colour Plan” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. the materials supplier only

B. only the teacher’s desk

C. a person who is never shown the work

D. design partner

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Make a Colour Plan

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about our own local community, when assessing “Make a Colour Plan”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. even walls and balance

B. contrast and choice

C. message and readability

D. evidence and kindness

12. In work about our own local community, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Make a Colour Plan”?

A. teach your phrase to one partner without collisions

B. ask a partner which colour is easiest to see

C. invite a classmate to describe a favourite visible detail

D. compare two interpretations with evidence

13. In work about our own local community, which cultural or geographic context guides “Make a Colour Plan” at Basic 1?

A. our own local community

B. a distant place not discussed in class

C. an unrelated invented setting

D. only an overseas example without local evidence

14. In work about our own local community, when you explain “Make a Colour Plan” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a review that ignores the work entirely

B. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

C. a guess about colour without checking the finished work

D. a labelled colour test, supported by what you noticed or changed

15. In work about our own local community, which reason best supports revising your “Make a Colour Plan” work after feedback?

A. to improve contrast and choice

B. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

C. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

D. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

Artist’s reflection

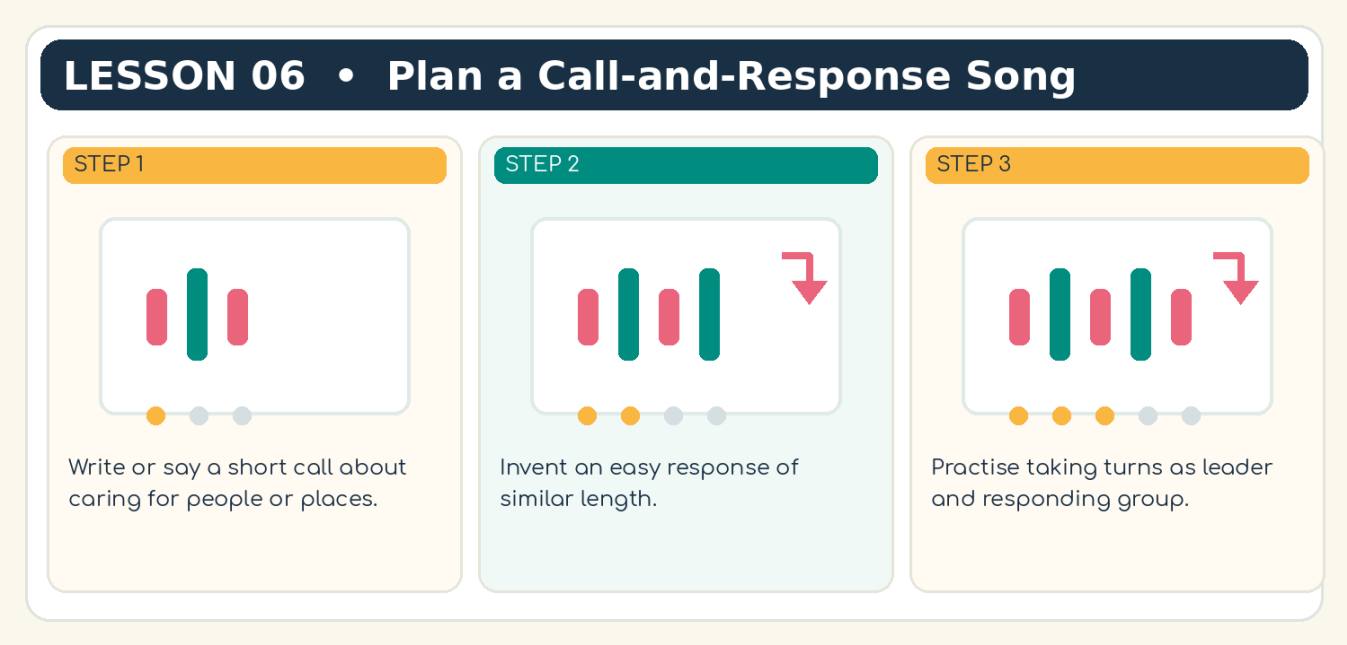

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 06 • Plan a Call-and-Response Song

Performing Arts / Plan / Basic 1

Your mission

Today you will compose a simple shared musical phrase. You will create a two-part song plan using voice and a short original two-line phrase.

Do it in three steps

1. Write or say a short call about caring for people or places.
2. Invent an easy response of similar length.
3. Practise taking turns as leader and responding group.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with our own local community; use simple lines, familiar objects and one short practice.

Level-up art task

Ask a family member for one safe, respectful example of call and response in daily life. Tell your class what you noticed.

Safety and kindness

Sing at a comfortable volume; do not strain the voice.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a call and its matching response and clear turns. Also try this: let a second group test whether the response is easy to learn.

PLAY • Plan a Call-and-Response Song

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about our own local community, which materials are listed for “Plan a Call-and-Response Song”?

   A. a patterned fabric scrap, paper and crayons

   B. voice and a short original two-line phrase

   C. an open space and a gentle drum pulse

   D. two contrasting paper colours and pre-cut strips

2. In work about our own local community, which observation or preparation starts “Plan a Call-and-Response Song”?

   A. Write or say a short call about caring for people or places.

   B. Describe visible lines, colours, textures and shapes.

   C. Mark four beat spaces with dots on paper.

   D. Choose three colours that suit your chosen message.

3. In work about our own local community, what will the learner create or perform in “Plan a Call-and-Response Song”?

   A. a two-part song plan

   B. a pinch pot

   C. a short feedback note

   D. a body-percussion pattern

4. In work about our own local community, which artistic element is the main focus of “Plan a Call-and-Response Song”?

   A. composition

   B. call and response

   C. form

   D. pulse

5. In work about our own local community, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Plan a Call-and-Response Song”?

   A. a call and its matching response

   B. a three-part soundscape

   C. a reasoned art observation

   D. an improved final performance

CHALLENGE • Plan a Call-and-Response Song

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about our own local community, after the opening action in “Plan a Call-and-Response Song”, what is the second step?

A. Invent an easy response of similar length.

B. Record one strength in timing, expression or teamwork.

C. Choose one change that supports the artwork’s purpose.

D. Draw the outline using simple curved lines.

7. In work about our own local community, which closing action completes the three-stage “Plan a Call-and-Response Song” activity?

A. Practise taking turns as leader and responding group.

B. Perform the pattern twice and check for a steady pulse.

C. Give one evidence-based compliment and one possible improvement.

D. Suggest one useful change and say how to rehearse it.

8. In work about our own local community, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Plan a Call-and-Response Song”?

A. Sing at a comfortable volume; do not strain the voice.

B. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

C. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

D. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

9. In work about our own local community, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Plan a Call-and-Response Song”?

A. compose a simple shared musical phrase

B. use evidence to discuss a performance

C. communicate ideas through body movement

D. strengthen performance through reflection

10. In work about our own local community, for whom is the finished “Plan a Call-and-Response Song” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. only the teacher’s desk

B. the materials supplier only

C. a person who is never shown the work

D. singing team

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Plan a Call-and-Response Song

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about our own local community, when assessing “Plan a Call-and-Response Song”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. even walls and balance

B. expression and clarity

C. steady timing

D. clear turns

12. In work about our own local community, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Plan a Call-and-Response Song”?

A. invite peers to guess the setting from the sounds

B. ask a partner which colour is easiest to see

C. let a second group test whether the response is easy to learn

D. teach your phrase to one partner without collisions

13. In work about our own local community, which cultural or geographic context guides “Plan a Call-and-Response Song” at Basic 1?

A. only an overseas example without local evidence

B. a distant place not discussed in class

C. an unrelated invented setting

D. our own local community

14. In work about our own local community, when you explain “Plan a Call-and-Response Song” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

B. a call and its matching response, supported by what you noticed or changed

C. a guess about call and response without checking the finished work

D. a review that ignores the work entirely

15. In work about our own local community, which reason best supports revising your “Plan a Call-and-Response Song” work after feedback?

A. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

B. to improve clear turns

C. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

D. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

Artist’s reflection

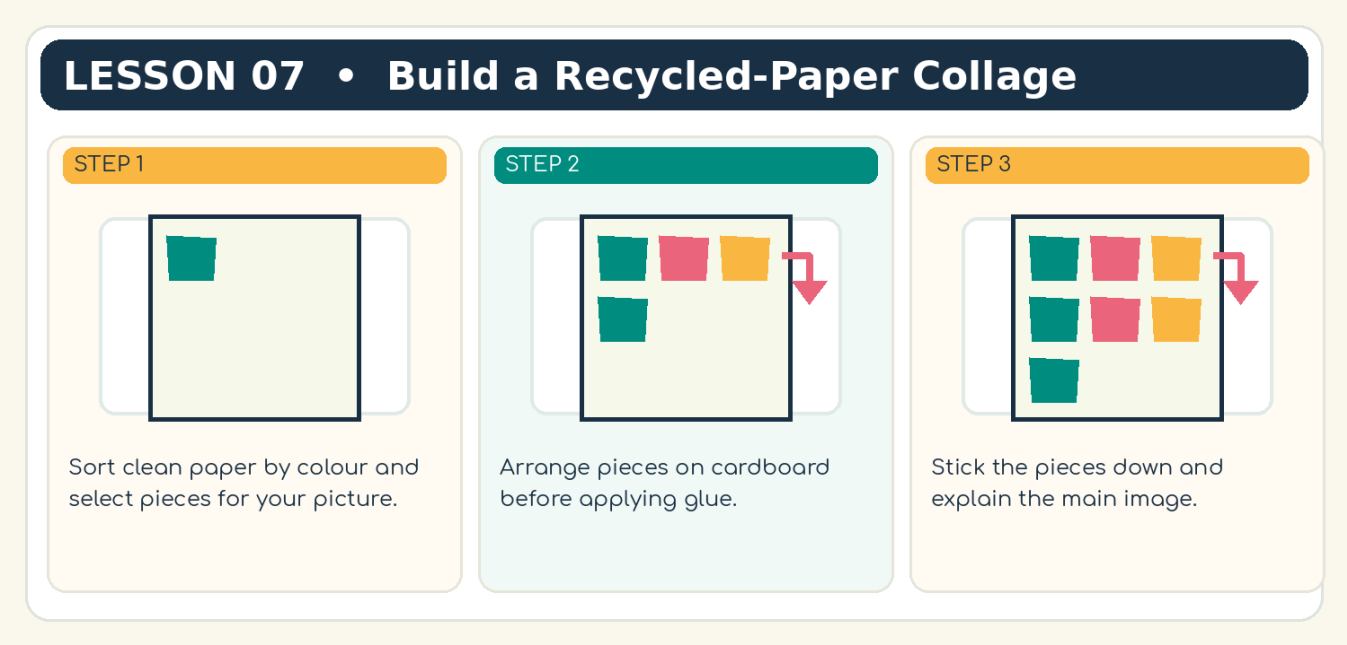

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 07 • Build a Recycled-Paper Collage

Visual Arts / Make / Basic 1

Your mission

Today you will reuse materials while arranging an image. You will create a recycled collage using clean scrap paper, glue, cardboard and blunt scissors.

Do it in three steps

1. Sort clean paper by colour and select pieces for your picture.
2. Arrange pieces on cardboard before applying glue.
3. Stick the pieces down and explain the main image.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with our own local community; use simple lines, familiar objects and one short practice.

Level-up art task

Ask a family member for one safe, respectful example of composition in daily life. Tell your class what you noticed.

Safety and kindness

Use blunt scissors with supervision and never collect dirty waste.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a fixed paper collage and composition and care. Also try this: show which reused material became the focal point.

PLAY • Build a Recycled-Paper Collage

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about our own local community, which materials are listed for “Build a Recycled-Paper Collage”?

   A. clean scrap paper, glue, cardboard and blunt scissors

   B. a short community story and an open safe space

   C. a class composition, simple programme and safe stage area

   D. a patterned fabric scrap, paper and crayons

2. In work about our own local community, which observation or preparation starts “Build a Recycled-Paper Collage”?

   A. List three sounds heard in the chosen setting.

   B. Sort clean paper by colour and select pieces for your picture.

   C. Read or listen to one helpful comment on the draft.

   D. Observe the pot rim, body, base and any decoration.

3. In work about our own local community, what will the learner create or perform in “Build a Recycled-Paper Collage”?

   A. a recycled collage

   B. a silent story

   C. a restaged performance

   D. a short feedback note

4. In work about our own local community, which artistic element is the main focus of “Build a Recycled-Paper Collage”?

   A. rhythm

   B. volume

   C. composition

   D. staging

5. In work about our own local community, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Build a Recycled-Paper Collage”?

   A. a labelled pattern sketch

   B. a fixed paper collage

   C. a three-part soundscape

   D. a repeatable beat grid and performance

CHALLENGE • Build a Recycled-Paper Collage

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about our own local community, after the opening action in “Build a Recycled-Paper Collage”, what is the second step?

A. Arrange pieces on cardboard before applying glue.

B. Connect them with a pause and a change of direction.

C. Try three gestures that communicate the action without words.

D. Echo the pulse by tapping softly four times.

7. In work about our own local community, which closing action completes the three-stage “Build a Recycled-Paper Collage” activity?

A. Stick the pieces down and explain the main image.

B. Smooth the rim and show how the finished bowl can stand.

C. Repeat the sequence and straighten the finished pattern.

D. Give one evidence-based compliment and one possible improvement.

8. In work about our own local community, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Build a Recycled-Paper Collage”?

A. Use blunt scissors with supervision and never collect dirty waste.

B. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

C. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

D. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

9. In work about our own local community, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Build a Recycled-Paper Collage”?

A. reuse materials while arranging an image

B. shape a useful object from malleable material

C. coordinate movement with music

D. build and repeat a rhythmic pattern

10. In work about our own local community, for whom is the finished “Build a Recycled-Paper Collage” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. a person who is never shown the work

B. gallery visitors

C. the materials supplier only

D. only the teacher’s desk

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Build a Recycled-Paper Collage

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about our own local community, when assessing “Build a Recycled-Paper Collage”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. clear turns

B. shape and function

C. expression and clarity

D. composition and care

12. In work about our own local community, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Build a Recycled-Paper Collage”?

A. invite peers to guess the setting from the sounds

B. invite the original reviewer to compare the two versions

C. use feedback to improve one repeat performance

D. show which reused material became the focal point

13. In work about our own local community, which cultural or geographic context guides “Build a Recycled-Paper Collage” at Basic 1?

A. a distant place not discussed in class

B. an unrelated invented setting

C. only an overseas example without local evidence

D. our own local community

14. In work about our own local community, when you explain “Build a Recycled-Paper Collage” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a review that ignores the work entirely

B. a guess about composition without checking the finished work

C. a fixed paper collage, supported by what you noticed or changed

D. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

15. In work about our own local community, which reason best supports revising your “Build a Recycled-Paper Collage” work after feedback?

A. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

B. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

C. to improve composition and care

D. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

Artist’s reflection

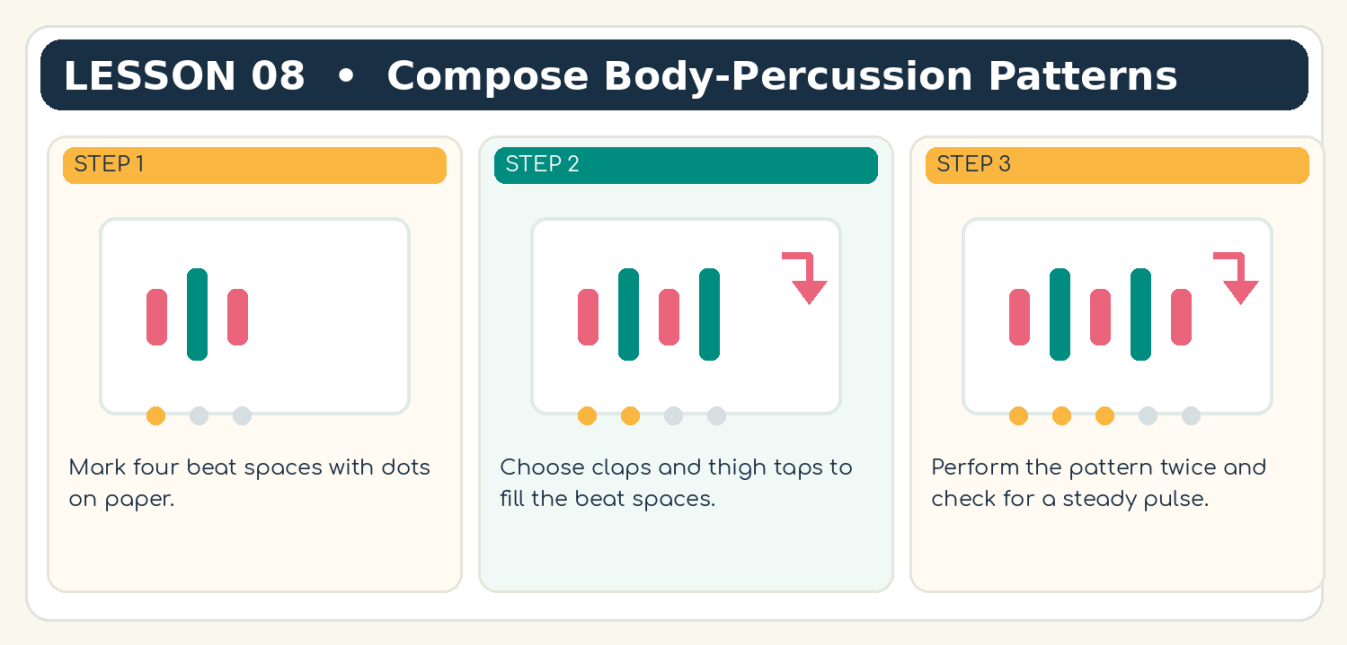

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 08 • Compose Body-Percussion Patterns

Performing Arts / Make / Basic 1

Your mission

Today you will build and repeat a rhythmic pattern. You will create a body-percussion pattern using hands, feet and a written beat grid.

Do it in three steps

1. Mark four beat spaces with dots on paper.
2. Choose claps and thigh taps to fill the beat spaces.
3. Perform the pattern twice and check for a steady pulse.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with our own local community; use simple lines, familiar objects and one short practice.

Level-up art task

Ask a family member for one safe, respectful example of rhythm in daily life. Tell your class what you noticed.

Safety and kindness

Tap gently and leave space between performers.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a repeatable beat grid and performance and sequence and control. Also try this: ask a partner to clap the pattern from your grid.

PLAY • Compose Body-Percussion Patterns

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about our own local community, which materials are listed for “Compose Body-Percussion Patterns”?

A. hands, feet and a written beat grid

B. an open space and a gentle drum pulse

C. hands, a soft drum or a safe plastic container

D. a short community story and an open safe space

2. In work about our own local community, which observation or preparation starts “Compose Body-Percussion Patterns”?

A. Choose a character and identify one important action.

B. Choose one clear message about a community need.

C. Choose three colours that suit your chosen message.

D. Mark four beat spaces with dots on paper.

3. In work about our own local community, what will the learner create or perform in “Compose Body-Percussion Patterns”?

A. a recycled collage

B. a short dance composition

C. a pinch pot

D. a body-percussion pattern

4. In work about our own local community, which artistic element is the main focus of “Compose Body-Percussion Patterns”?

A. gesture

B. call and response

C. pattern

D. rhythm

5. In work about our own local community, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Compose Body-Percussion Patterns”?

A. a coordinated class performance

B. a fixed paper collage

C. a three-gesture story

D. a repeatable beat grid and performance

CHALLENGE • Compose Body-Percussion Patterns

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about our own local community, after the opening action in “Compose Body-Percussion Patterns”, what is the second step?

A. Choose claps and thigh taps to fill the beat spaces.

B. Connect them with a pause and a change of direction.

C. Test the colours in small labelled boxes.

D. Sketch two repeated shapes from the cloth onto paper.

7. In work about our own local community, which closing action completes the three-stage “Compose Body-Percussion Patterns” activity?

A. Add a few large readable words and check the layout.

B. Perform the pattern twice and check for a steady pulse.

C. Perform the sounds in order to represent morning, afternoon or evening.

D. Smooth the rim and show how the finished bowl can stand.

8. In work about our own local community, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Compose Body-Percussion Patterns”?

A. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

B. Tap gently and leave space between performers.

C. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

D. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

9. In work about our own local community, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Compose Body-Percussion Patterns”?

A. compose a simple shared musical phrase

B. use voice, space and roles to tell a story

C. connect the form of a useful object to its function

D. build and repeat a rhythmic pattern

10. In work about our own local community, for whom is the finished “Compose Body-Percussion Patterns” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. a person who is never shown the work

B. the materials supplier only

C. only the teacher’s desk

D. peer musicians

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Compose Body-Percussion Patterns

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about our own local community, when assessing “Compose Body-Percussion Patterns”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. clear turns

B. specific respectful feedback

C. composition and care

D. sequence and control

12. In work about our own local community, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Compose Body-Percussion Patterns”?

A. name one place you see a similar pattern in daily life

B. compare two interpretations with evidence

C. teach your phrase to one partner without collisions

D. ask a partner to clap the pattern from your grid

13. In work about our own local community, which cultural or geographic context guides “Compose Body-Percussion Patterns” at Basic 1?

A. an unrelated invented setting

B. a distant place not discussed in class

C. our own local community

D. only an overseas example without local evidence

14. In work about our own local community, when you explain “Compose Body-Percussion Patterns” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a repeatable beat grid and performance, supported by what you noticed or changed

B. a review that ignores the work entirely

C. a guess about rhythm without checking the finished work

D. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

15. In work about our own local community, which reason best supports revising your “Compose Body-Percussion Patterns” work after feedback?

A. to improve sequence and control

B. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

C. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

D. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

Artist’s reflection

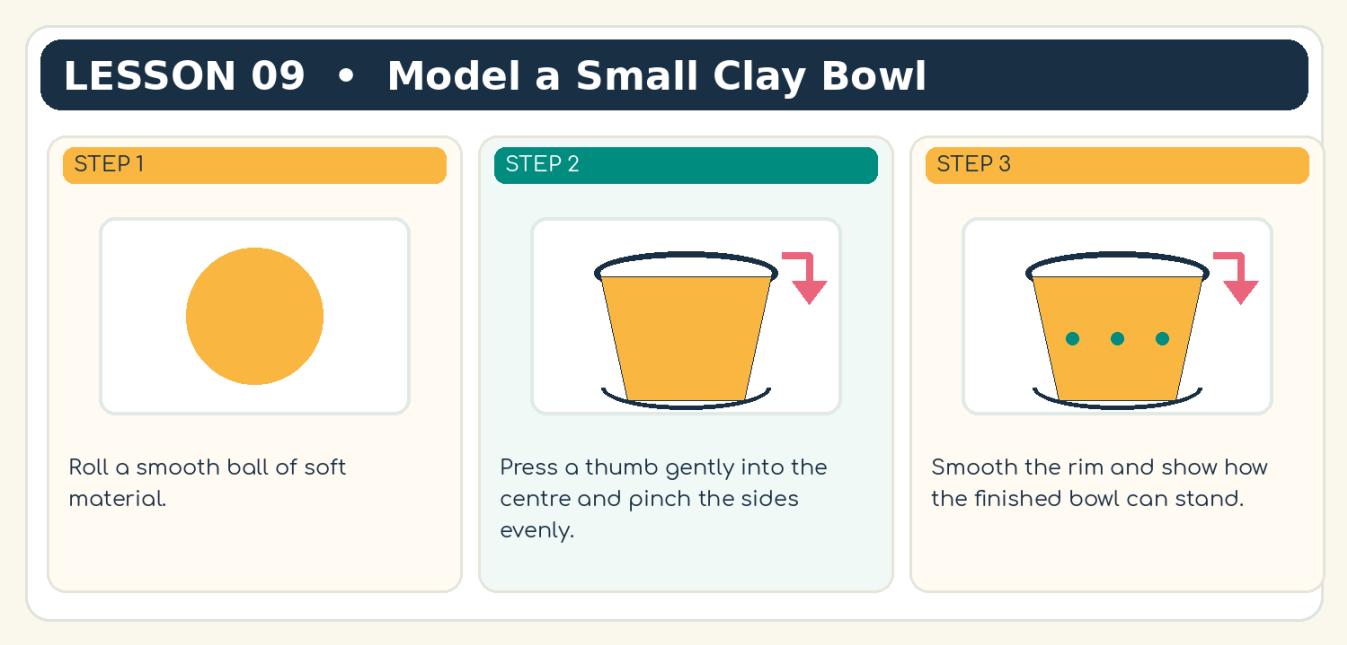

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 09 • Model a Small Clay Bowl

Visual Arts / Make / Basic 1

Your mission

Today you will shape a useful object from malleable material. You will create a pinch pot using soft modelling clay or dough and a washable work mat.

Do it in three steps

1. Roll a smooth ball of soft material.
2. Press a thumb gently into the centre and pinch the sides evenly.
3. Smooth the rim and show how the finished bowl can stand.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with our own local community; use simple lines, familiar objects and one short practice.

Level-up art task

Ask a family member for one safe, respectful example of volume in daily life. Tell your class what you noticed.

Safety and kindness

Do not eat modelling material; wash hands after use.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a stable pinched bowl and even walls and balance. Also try this: compare the rim before and after smoothing.

PLAY • Model a Small Clay Bowl

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about our own local community, which materials are listed for “Model a Small Clay Bowl”?

   A. clean scrap paper, glue, cardboard and blunt scissors

   B. a class composition, simple programme and safe stage area

   C. soft modelling clay or dough and a washable work mat

   D. completed learner artworks, labels and removable tape

2. In work about our own local community, which observation or preparation starts “Model a Small Clay Bowl”?

   A. Listen to a short local rhythm and count its pulses.

   B. Write or say a short call about caring for people or places.

   C. Roll a smooth ball of soft material.

   D. Lay parallel paper strips on a desk as the base.

3. In work about our own local community, what will the learner create or perform in “Model a Small Clay Bowl”?

   A. a two-part song plan

   B. a pinch pot

   C. a short drama scene

   D. a functional pot sketch

4. In work about our own local community, which artistic element is the main focus of “Model a Small Clay Bowl”?

   A. repetition

   B. volume

   C. staging

   D. sound

5. In work about our own local community, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Model a Small Clay Bowl”?

   A. a three-gesture story

   B. an over-under paper mat

   C. a stable pinched bowl

   D. a labelled pattern sketch

CHALLENGE • Model a Small Clay Bowl

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about our own local community, after the opening action in “Model a Small Clay Bowl”, what is the second step?

A. Invent an easy response of similar length.

B. Choose claps and thigh taps to fill the beat spaces.

C. Say which details help communicate the artist’s idea.

D. Press a thumb gently into the centre and pinch the sides evenly.

7. In work about our own local community, which closing action completes the three-stage “Model a Small Clay Bowl” activity?

A. Present the item and thank the audience at the end.

B. Smooth the rim and show how the finished bowl can stand.

C. Add one personal variation and explain what it represents.

D. Perform the pattern twice and check for a steady pulse.

8. In work about our own local community, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Model a Small Clay Bowl”?

A. Do not eat modelling material; wash hands after use.

B. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

C. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

D. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

9. In work about our own local community, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Model a Small Clay Bowl”?

A. reuse materials while arranging an image

B. appreciate work using evidence

C. shape a useful object from malleable material

D. use evidence to discuss a performance

10. In work about our own local community, for whom is the finished “Model a Small Clay Bowl” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. art group

B. a person who is never shown the work

C. the materials supplier only

D. only the teacher’s desk

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Model a Small Clay Bowl

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about our own local community, when assessing “Model a Small Clay Bowl”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. improvement and cooperation

B. evidence and kindness

C. even walls and balance

D. timing and safe space

12. In work about our own local community, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Model a Small Clay Bowl”?

A. compare the rim before and after smoothing

B. ask classmates what action the poster encourages

C. invite the original reviewer to compare the two versions

D. record group decisions in a simple rehearsal journal

13. In work about our own local community, which cultural or geographic context guides “Model a Small Clay Bowl” at Basic 1?

A. only an overseas example without local evidence

B. an unrelated invented setting

C. our own local community

D. a distant place not discussed in class

14. In work about our own local community, when you explain “Model a Small Clay Bowl” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

B. a guess about volume without checking the finished work

C. a review that ignores the work entirely

D. a stable pinched bowl, supported by what you noticed or changed

15. In work about our own local community, which reason best supports revising your “Model a Small Clay Bowl” work after feedback?

A. to improve even walls and balance

B. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

C. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

D. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

Artist’s reflection

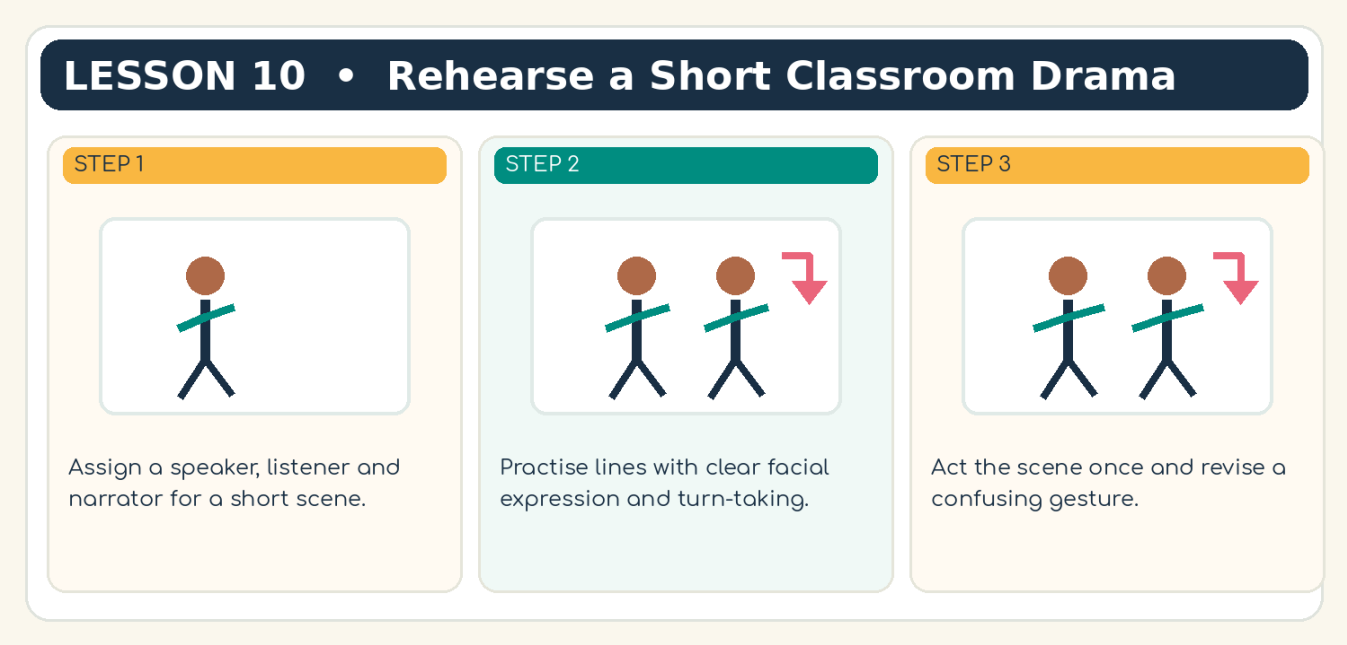

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 10 • Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama

Performing Arts / Make / Basic 1

Your mission

Today you will use voice, space and roles to tell a story. You will create a short drama scene using a short original dialogue and simple safe props.

Do it in three steps

1. Assign a speaker, listener and narrator for a short scene.
2. Practise lines with clear facial expression and turn-taking.
3. Act the scene once and revise a confusing gesture.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with our own local community; use simple lines, familiar objects and one short practice.

Level-up art task

Ask a family member for one safe, respectful example of drama in daily life. Tell your class what you noticed.

Safety and kindness

Keep props light and never imitate dangerous actions.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a rehearsed scene with understandable roles and clarity and teamwork. Also try this: perform the revised line for a second audience.

PLAY • Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about our own local community, which materials are listed for “Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama”?

A. a short original dialogue and simple safe props

B. soft modelling clay or dough and a washable work mat

C. a short community story and an open safe space

D. completed learner artworks, labels and removable tape

2. In work about our own local community, which observation or preparation starts “Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama”?

A. Choose a character and identify one important action.

B. Read or listen to one helpful comment on the draft.

C. Assign a speaker, listener and narrator for a short scene.

D. Roll a smooth ball of soft material.

3. In work about our own local community, what will the learner create or perform in “Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama”?

A. a recycled collage

B. a short feedback note

C. a short drama scene

D. an artwork response

4. In work about our own local community, which artistic element is the main focus of “Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama”?

A. drama

B. sound

C. repetition

D. appreciation

5. In work about our own local community, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama”?

A. a balanced performance review

B. a labelled and accessible classroom display

C. a rehearsed scene with understandable roles

D. a three-gesture story

CHALLENGE • Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about our own local community, after the opening action in “Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama”, what is the second step?

A. Echo the pulse by tapping softly four times.

B. Practise lines with clear facial expression and turn-taking.

C. Choose claps and thigh taps to fill the beat spaces.

D. Try three gestures that communicate the action without words.

7. In work about our own local community, which closing action completes the three-stage “Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama” activity?

A. Suggest one useful change and say how to rehearse it.

B. Add one personal variation and explain what it represents.

C. Act the scene once and revise a confusing gesture.

D. Perform the phrase twice with control and enough personal space.

8. In work about our own local community, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama”?

A. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

B. Keep props light and never imitate dangerous actions.

C. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

D. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

9. In work about our own local community, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama”?

A. recognise pulse and respectful listening

B. use voice, space and roles to tell a story

C. communicate ideas through body movement

D. share artworks with an audience

10. In work about our own local community, for whom is the finished “Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. class audience

B. only the teacher’s desk

C. a person who is never shown the work

D. the materials supplier only

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about our own local community, when assessing “Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. clarity and teamwork

B. even walls and balance

C. specific respectful feedback

D. sequence and control

12. In work about our own local community, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama”?

A. assign two pupils the role of hosts

B. invite a classmate to describe a favourite visible detail

C. perform the revised line for a second audience

D. compare two interpretations with evidence

13. In work about our own local community, which cultural or geographic context guides “Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama” at Basic 1?

A. only an overseas example without local evidence

B. a distant place not discussed in class

C. an unrelated invented setting

D. our own local community

14. In work about our own local community, when you explain “Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a guess about drama without checking the finished work

B. a rehearsed scene with understandable roles, supported by what you noticed or changed

C. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

D. a review that ignores the work entirely

15. In work about our own local community, which reason best supports revising your “Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama” work after feedback?

A. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

B. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

C. to improve clarity and teamwork

D. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

Artist’s reflection

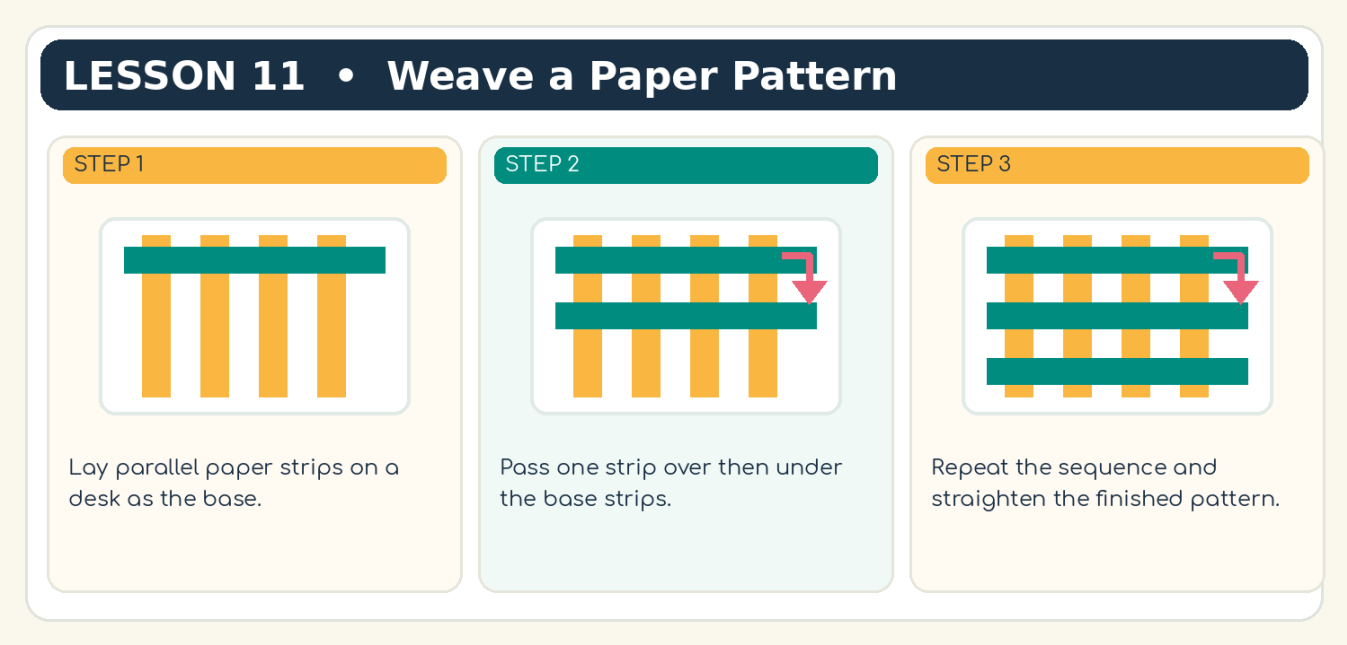

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 11 • Weave a Paper Pattern

Visual Arts / Make / Basic 1

Your mission

Today you will explore repeated structure through weaving. You will create a woven paper mat using two contrasting paper colours and pre-cut strips.

Do it in three steps

1. Lay parallel paper strips on a desk as the base.
2. Pass one strip over then under the base strips.
3. Repeat the sequence and straighten the finished pattern.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with our own local community; use simple lines, familiar objects and one short practice.

Level-up art task

Ask a family member for one safe, respectful example of repetition in daily life. Tell your class what you noticed.

Safety and kindness

Use pre-cut strips or blunt scissors with supervision.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for an over-under paper mat and regular pattern. Also try this: name one place you see a similar pattern in daily life.

PLAY • Weave a Paper Pattern

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about our own local community, which materials are listed for “Weave a Paper Pattern”?

   A. a patterned fabric scrap, paper and crayons

   B. a class composition, simple programme and safe stage area

   C. clean scrap paper, glue, cardboard and blunt scissors

   D. two contrasting paper colours and pre-cut strips

2. In work about our own local community, which observation or preparation starts “Weave a Paper Pattern”?

   A. Roll a smooth ball of soft material.

   B. Identify one timing or storytelling issue from feedback.

   C. Lay parallel paper strips on a desk as the base.

   D. Write or say a short call about caring for people or places.

3. In work about our own local community, what will the learner create or perform in “Weave a Paper Pattern”?

   A. a rhythmic echo

   B. a silent story

   C. a woven paper mat

   D. a mini exhibition

4. In work about our own local community, which artistic element is the main focus of “Weave a Paper Pattern”?

   A. staging

   B. movement

   C. repetition

   D. gesture

5. In work about our own local community, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Weave a Paper Pattern”?

   A. a fixed paper collage

   B. an over-under paper mat

   C. a stable pinched bowl

   D. a labelled and accessible classroom display

CHALLENGE • Weave a Paper Pattern

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about our own local community, after the opening action in “Weave a Paper Pattern”, what is the second step?

A. Pass one strip over then under the base strips.

B. Draw the outline using simple curved lines.

C. Arrange pieces on cardboard before applying glue.

D. Assign each sound to a gentle vocal or body action.

7. In work about our own local community, which closing action completes the three-stage “Weave a Paper Pattern” activity?

A. Restage the piece and explain the difference between the two versions.

B. Repeat the sequence and straighten the finished pattern.

C. Guide visitors to observe one artwork and ask a respectful question.

D. Practise taking turns as leader and responding group.

8. In work about our own local community, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Weave a Paper Pattern”?

A. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

B. Use pre-cut strips or blunt scissors with supervision.

C. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

D. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

9. In work about our own local community, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Weave a Paper Pattern”?

A. connect the form of a useful object to its function

B. explore repeated structure through weaving

C. shape a useful object from malleable material

D. coordinate movement with music

10. In work about our own local community, for whom is the finished “Weave a Paper Pattern” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. gallery visitors

B. the materials supplier only

C. only the teacher’s desk

D. a person who is never shown the work

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Weave a Paper Pattern

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about our own local community, when assessing “Weave a Paper Pattern”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. clarity and teamwork

B. sequence and control

C. regular pattern

D. clear purposeful revision

12. In work about our own local community, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Weave a Paper Pattern”?

A. ask a partner which colour is easiest to see

B. compare narrow and wide pot openings

C. ask a partner to clap the pattern from your grid

D. name one place you see a similar pattern in daily life

13. In work about our own local community, which cultural or geographic context guides “Weave a Paper Pattern” at Basic 1?

A. an unrelated invented setting

B. our own local community

C. only an overseas example without local evidence

D. a distant place not discussed in class

14. In work about our own local community, when you explain “Weave a Paper Pattern” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a review that ignores the work entirely

B. an over-under paper mat, supported by what you noticed or changed

C. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

D. a guess about repetition without checking the finished work

15. In work about our own local community, which reason best supports revising your “Weave a Paper Pattern” work after feedback?

A. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

B. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

C. to improve regular pattern

D. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

Artist’s reflection

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 12 • Create a Safe Dance Phrase

Performing Arts / Make / Basic 1

Your mission

Today you will coordinate movement with music. You will create a short dance composition using an open space and a gentle drum pulse.

Do it in three steps

1. Choose two safe steps that suit the chosen rhythm.
2. Connect them with a pause and a change of direction.
3. Perform the phrase twice with control and enough personal space.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with our own local community; use simple lines, familiar objects and one short practice.

Level-up art task

Ask a family member for one safe, respectful example of movement in daily life. Tell your class what you noticed.

Safety and kindness

Never force a jump, spin or movement that causes pain.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a repeatable dance phrase and timing and safe space. Also try this: teach your phrase to one partner without collisions.

PLAY • Create a Safe Dance Phrase

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about our own local community, which materials are listed for “Create a Safe Dance Phrase”?

   A. paper, pencils, coloured pencils and a ruler

   B. an open space and a gentle drum pulse

   C. completed learner artworks, labels and removable tape

   D. an earlier performance plan and feedback from classmates

2. In work about our own local community, which observation or preparation starts “Create a Safe Dance Phrase”?

   A. Lay parallel paper strips on a desk as the base.

   B. Roll a smooth ball of soft material.

   C. Choose three colours that suit your chosen message.

   D. Choose two safe steps that suit the chosen rhythm.

3. In work about our own local community, what will the learner create or perform in “Create a Safe Dance Phrase”?

   A. a functional pot sketch

   B. a short dance composition

   C. a pinch pot

   D. a woven paper mat

4. In work about our own local community, which artistic element is the main focus of “Create a Safe Dance Phrase”?

   A. movement

   B. drama

   C. rhythm

   D. form

5. In work about our own local community, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Create a Safe Dance Phrase”?

   A. a repeatable dance phrase

   B. a rehearsed scene with understandable roles

   C. a steady four-pulse performance

   D. a call and its matching response

CHALLENGE • Create a Safe Dance Phrase

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about our own local community, after the opening action in “Create a Safe Dance Phrase”, what is the second step?

A. Choose one change that supports the artwork’s purpose.

B. Place the works where viewers can see them without crowding.

C. Press a thumb gently into the centre and pinch the sides evenly.

D. Connect them with a pause and a change of direction.

7. In work about our own local community, which closing action completes the three-stage “Create a Safe Dance Phrase” activity?

A. Perform the phrase twice with control and enough personal space.

B. Suggest one useful change and say how to rehearse it.

C. Circle the most readable combination and plan where to use it.

D. Act the scene once and revise a confusing gesture.

8. In work about our own local community, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Create a Safe Dance Phrase”?

A. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

B. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

C. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

D. Never force a jump, spin or movement that causes pain.

9. In work about our own local community, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Create a Safe Dance Phrase”?

A. represent a place through organised sounds

B. use voice, space and roles to tell a story

C. coordinate movement with music

D. share artworks with an audience

10. In work about our own local community, for whom is the finished “Create a Safe Dance Phrase” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. the materials supplier only

B. class audience

C. a person who is never shown the work

D. only the teacher’s desk

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Create a Safe Dance Phrase

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about our own local community, when assessing “Create a Safe Dance Phrase”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. sequence and control

B. contrast and choice

C. even walls and balance

D. timing and safe space

12. In work about our own local community, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Create a Safe Dance Phrase”?

A. teach your phrase to one partner without collisions

B. invite a partner to lead the next four beats

C. invite peers to guess the setting from the sounds

D. ask a partner which colour is easiest to see

13. In work about our own local community, which cultural or geographic context guides “Create a Safe Dance Phrase” at Basic 1?

A. our own local community

B. a distant place not discussed in class

C. an unrelated invented setting

D. only an overseas example without local evidence

14. In work about our own local community, when you explain “Create a Safe Dance Phrase” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a guess about movement without checking the finished work

B. a review that ignores the work entirely

C. a repeatable dance phrase, supported by what you noticed or changed

D. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

15. In work about our own local community, which reason best supports revising your “Create a Safe Dance Phrase” work after feedback?

A. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

B. to improve timing and safe space

C. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

D. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

Artist’s reflection

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 13 • Design a Community-Care Poster

Visual Arts / Make / Basic 1

Your mission

Today you will use art to communicate a helpful message. You will create a public message poster using paper, pencils, coloured pencils and a ruler.

Do it in three steps

1. Choose one clear message about a community need.
2. Draw a bold image that supports the message.
3. Add a few large readable words and check the layout.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with our own local community; use simple lines, familiar objects and one short practice.

Level-up art task

Ask a family member for one safe, respectful example of visual communication in daily life. Tell your class what you noticed.

Safety and kindness

Use fictional names and do not display anyone’s private information.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a readable community poster and message and readability. Also try this: ask classmates what action the poster encourages.

PLAY • Design a Community-Care Poster

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about our own local community, which materials are listed for “Design a Community-Care Poster”?

A. a class composition, simple programme and safe stage area

B. paper, pencils, coloured pencils and a ruler

C. a picture or safe sample of a clay pot, pencil and paper

D. crayons, scrap paper and a drawing sheet

2. In work about our own local community, which observation or preparation starts “Design a Community-Care Poster”?

A. Assign a speaker, listener and narrator for a short scene.

B. Choose finished works and give each a title label.

C. Choose a character and identify one important action.

D. Choose one clear message about a community need.

3. In work about our own local community, what will the learner create or perform in “Design a Community-Care Poster”?

A. a mini exhibition

B. a sound story

C. a short drama scene

D. a public message poster

4. In work about our own local community, which artistic element is the main focus of “Design a Community-Care Poster”?

A. movement

B. staging

C. visual communication

D. repetition

5. In work about our own local community, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Design a Community-Care Poster”?

A. a readable community poster

B. a labelled pattern sketch

C. a repeatable beat grid and performance

D. a three-gesture story

CHALLENGE • Design a Community-Care Poster

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about our own local community, after the opening action in “Design a Community-Care Poster”, what is the second step?

A. Press a thumb gently into the centre and pinch the sides evenly.

B. Choose claps and thigh taps to fill the beat spaces.

C. Practise lines with clear facial expression and turn-taking.

D. Draw a bold image that supports the message.

7. In work about our own local community, which closing action completes the three-stage “Design a Community-Care Poster” activity?

A. Add a few large readable words and check the layout.

B. Practise taking turns as leader and responding group.

C. Restage the piece and explain the difference between the two versions.

D. Show your gesture sequence while a friend identifies the story.

8. In work about our own local community, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Design a Community-Care Poster”?

A. Use fictional names and do not display anyone’s private information.

B. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

C. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

D. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

9. In work about our own local community, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Design a Community-Care Poster”?

A. use art to communicate a helpful message

B. strengthen performance through reflection

C. coordinate movement with music

D. select colours intentionally

10. In work about our own local community, for whom is the finished “Design a Community-Care Poster” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. only the teacher’s desk

B. the materials supplier only

C. school community

D. a person who is never shown the work

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Design a Community-Care Poster

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about our own local community, when assessing “Design a Community-Care Poster”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. expression and clarity

B. clarity and teamwork

C. clear purposeful revision

D. message and readability

12. In work about our own local community, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Design a Community-Care Poster”?

A. ask classmates what action the poster encourages

B. swap roles between performer and audience

C. compare two interpretations with evidence

D. invite a partner to lead the next four beats

13. In work about our own local community, which cultural or geographic context guides “Design a Community-Care Poster” at Basic 1?

A. our own local community

B. an unrelated invented setting

C. a distant place not discussed in class

D. only an overseas example without local evidence

14. In work about our own local community, when you explain “Design a Community-Care Poster” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

B. a guess about visual communication without checking the finished work

C. a readable community poster, supported by what you noticed or changed

D. a review that ignores the work entirely

15. In work about our own local community, which reason best supports revising your “Design a Community-Care Poster” work after feedback?

A. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

B. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

C. to improve message and readability

D. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

Artist’s reflection

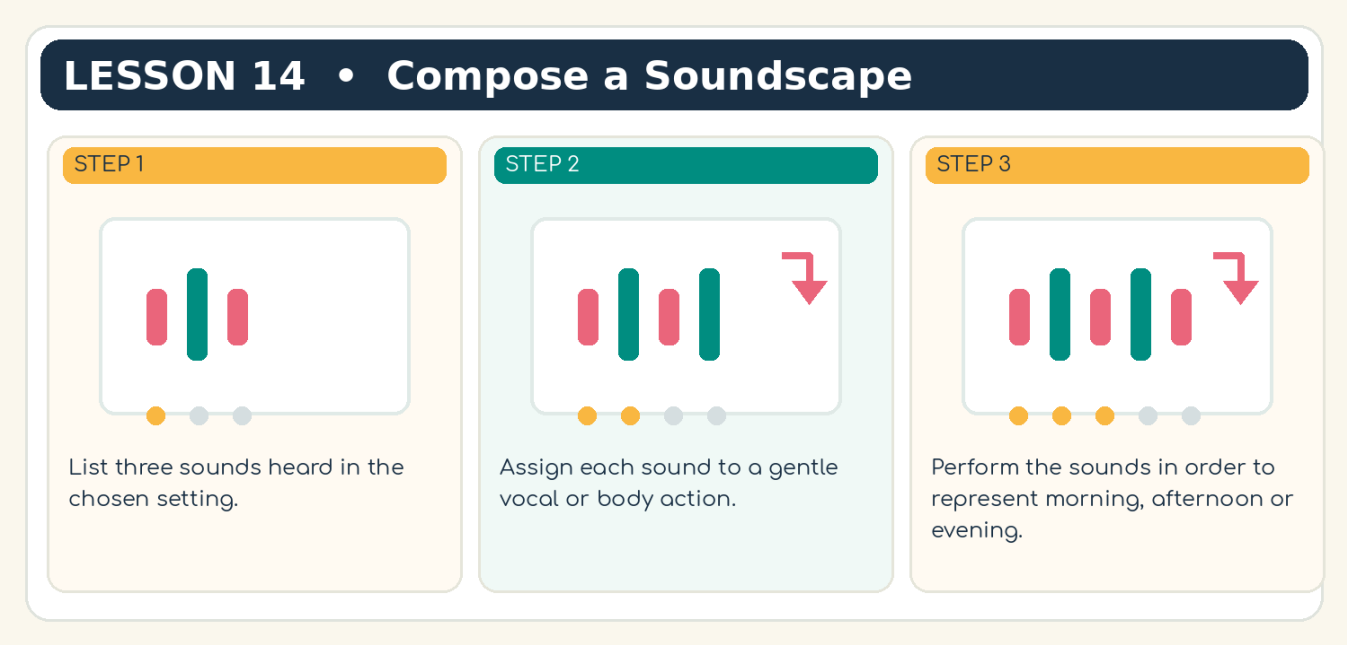

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 14 • Compose a Soundscape

Performing Arts / Make / Basic 1

Your mission

Today you will represent a place through organised sounds. You will create a sound story using voice, clapping and safe non-breakable sound makers.

Do it in three steps

1. List three sounds heard in the chosen setting.
2. Assign each sound to a gentle vocal or body action.
3. Perform the sounds in order to represent morning, afternoon or evening.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with our own local community; use simple lines, familiar objects and one short practice.

Level-up art task

Ask a family member for one safe, respectful example of sound in daily life. Tell your class what you noticed.

Safety and kindness

Avoid loud noises, glass objects and dangerous equipment.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a three-part soundscape and sequence and expression. Also try this: invite peers to guess the setting from the sounds.

PLAY • Compose a Soundscape

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about our own local community, which materials are listed for “Compose a Soundscape”?

   A. voice and a short original two-line phrase

   B. voice, clapping and safe non-breakable sound makers

   C. one displayed artwork and an observation note

   D. an earlier performance plan and feedback from classmates

2. In work about our own local community, which observation or preparation starts “Compose a Soundscape”?

   A. Roll a smooth ball of soft material.

   B. Identify one timing or storytelling issue from feedback.

   C. Describe visible lines, colours, textures and shapes.

   D. List three sounds heard in the chosen setting.

3. In work about our own local community, what will the learner create or perform in “Compose a Soundscape”?

   A. a sound story

   B. a short dance composition

   C. a restaged performance

   D. a colour plan

4. In work about our own local community, which artistic element is the main focus of “Compose a Soundscape”?

   A. composition

   B. call and response

   C. repetition

   D. sound

5. In work about our own local community, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Compose a Soundscape”?

   A. a steady four-pulse performance

   B. a three-part soundscape

   C. a before-and-after artwork comparison

   D. a labelled pattern sketch

CHALLENGE • Compose a Soundscape

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about our own local community, after the opening action in “Compose a Soundscape”, what is the second step?

A. Assign each sound to a gentle vocal or body action.

B. Choose claps and thigh taps to fill the beat spaces.

C. Invent an easy response of similar length.

D. Connect them with a pause and a change of direction.

7. In work about our own local community, which closing action completes the three-stage “Compose a Soundscape” activity?

A. Practise taking turns as leader and responding group.

B. Perform the sounds in order to represent morning, afternoon or evening.

C. Guide visitors to observe one artwork and ask a respectful question.

D. Repeat the sequence and straighten the finished pattern.

8. In work about our own local community, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Compose a Soundscape”?

A. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

B. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

C. Avoid loud noises, glass objects and dangerous equipment.

D. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

9. In work about our own local community, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Compose a Soundscape”?

A. coordinate movement with music

B. explore repeated structure through weaving

C. represent a place through organised sounds

D. reuse materials while arranging an image

10. In work about our own local community, for whom is the finished “Compose a Soundscape” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. class audience

B. the materials supplier only

C. a person who is never shown the work

D. only the teacher’s desk

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Compose a Soundscape

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about our own local community, when assessing “Compose a Soundscape”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. shape and meaning

B. sequence and expression

C. clear turns

D. evidence and kindness

12. In work about our own local community, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Compose a Soundscape”?

A. compare narrow and wide pot openings

B. let a second group test whether the response is easy to learn

C. invite peers to guess the setting from the sounds

D. invite the original reviewer to compare the two versions

13. In work about our own local community, which cultural or geographic context guides “Compose a Soundscape” at Basic 1?

A. a distant place not discussed in class

B. our own local community

C. only an overseas example without local evidence

D. an unrelated invented setting

14. In work about our own local community, when you explain “Compose a Soundscape” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a three-part soundscape, supported by what you noticed or changed

B. a guess about sound without checking the finished work

C. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

D. a review that ignores the work entirely

15. In work about our own local community, which reason best supports revising your “Compose a Soundscape” work after feedback?

A. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

B. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

C. to improve sequence and expression

D. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

Artist’s reflection

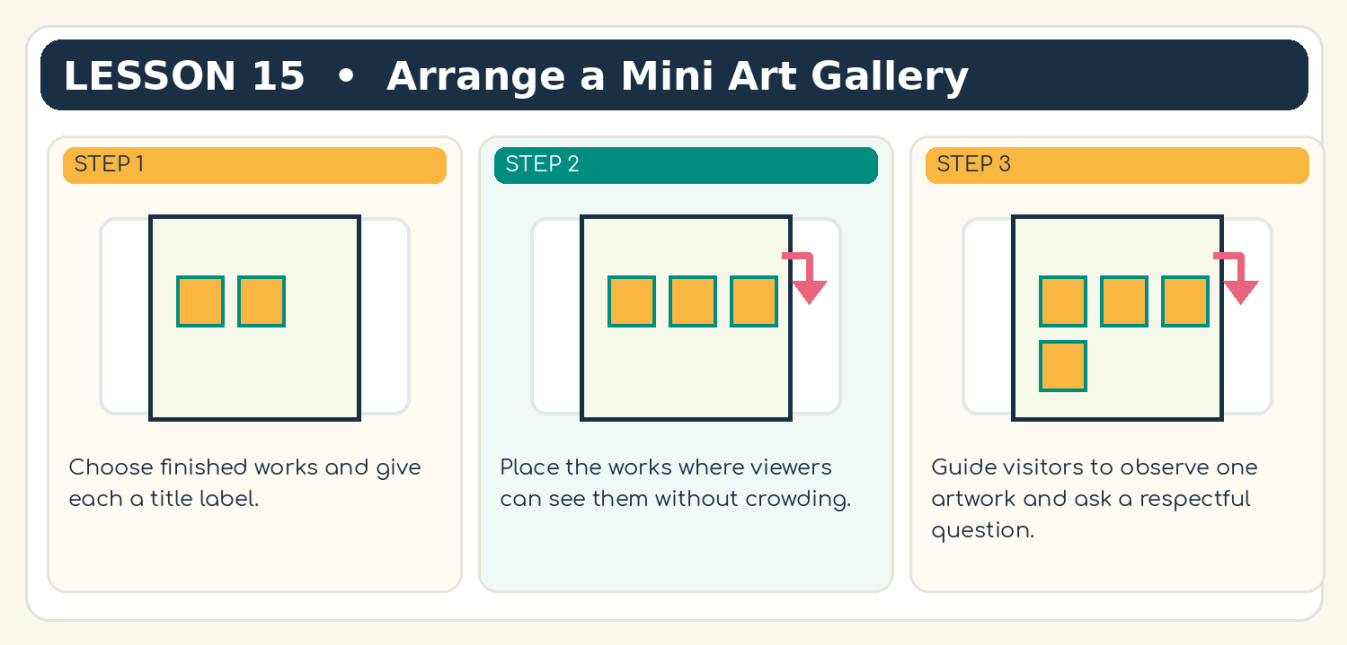

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 15 • Arrange a Mini Art Gallery

Visual Arts / Display / Basic 1

Your mission

Today you will share artworks with an audience. You will create a mini exhibition using completed learner artworks, labels and removable tape.

Do it in three steps

1. Choose finished works and give each a title label.
2. Place the works where viewers can see them without crowding.
3. Guide visitors to observe one artwork and ask a respectful question.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with our own local community; use simple lines, familiar objects and one short practice.

Level-up art task

Ask a family member for one safe, respectful example of presentation in daily life. Tell your class what you noticed.

Safety and kindness

Do not hang work near exits or use unsafe climbing equipment.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a labelled and accessible classroom display and organisation and care. Also try this: invite a classmate to describe a favourite visible detail.

PLAY • Arrange a Mini Art Gallery

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about our own local community, which materials are listed for “Arrange a Mini Art Gallery”?

   A. a patterned fabric scrap, paper and crayons

   B. voice and a short original two-line phrase

   C. a picture or safe sample of a clay pot, pencil and paper

   D. completed learner artworks, labels and removable tape

2. In work about our own local community, which observation or preparation starts “Arrange a Mini Art Gallery”?

   A. Agree on the order of songs, dance or drama items.

   B. Choose one clear message about a community need.

   C. Mark four beat spaces with dots on paper.

   D. Choose finished works and give each a title label.

3. In work about our own local community, what will the learner create or perform in “Arrange a Mini Art Gallery”?

   A. a woven paper mat

   B. a mini exhibition

   C. a recycled collage

   D. a short dance composition

4. In work about our own local community, which artistic element is the main focus of “Arrange a Mini Art Gallery”?

   A. presentation

   B. appreciation

   C. rhythm

   D. movement

5. In work about our own local community, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Arrange a Mini Art Gallery”?

   A. a labelled and accessible classroom display

   B. a coordinated class performance

   C. a stable pinched bowl

   D. an improved final performance

CHALLENGE • Arrange a Mini Art Gallery

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about our own local community, after the opening action in “Arrange a Mini Art Gallery”, what is the second step?

A. Choose claps and thigh taps to fill the beat spaces.

B. Rehearse a concrete change as a group.

C. Place the works where viewers can see them without crowding.

D. Try three gestures that communicate the action without words.

7. In work about our own local community, which closing action completes the three-stage “Arrange a Mini Art Gallery” activity?

A. Guide visitors to observe one artwork and ask a respectful question.

B. Show your gesture sequence while a friend identifies the story.

C. Circle the most readable combination and plan where to use it.

D. Add one personal variation and explain what it represents.

8. In work about our own local community, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Arrange a Mini Art Gallery”?

A. Do not hang work near exits or use unsafe climbing equipment.

B. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

C. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

D. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

9. In work about our own local community, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Arrange a Mini Art Gallery”?

A. use art to communicate a helpful message

B. compose a simple shared musical phrase

C. share artworks with an audience

D. recognise pulse and respectful listening

10. In work about our own local community, for whom is the finished “Arrange a Mini Art Gallery” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. a person who is never shown the work

B. gallery visitors

C. only the teacher’s desk

D. the materials supplier only

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Arrange a Mini Art Gallery

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about our own local community, when assessing “Arrange a Mini Art Gallery”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. message and readability

B. organisation and care

C. even walls and balance

D. steady timing

12. In work about our own local community, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Arrange a Mini Art Gallery”?

A. invite a classmate to describe a favourite visible detail

B. compare two interpretations with evidence

C. ask a partner which colour is easiest to see

D. show which reused material became the focal point

13. In work about our own local community, which cultural or geographic context guides “Arrange a Mini Art Gallery” at Basic 1?

A. an unrelated invented setting

B. only an overseas example without local evidence

C. a distant place not discussed in class

D. our own local community

14. In work about our own local community, when you explain “Arrange a Mini Art Gallery” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a guess about presentation without checking the finished work

B. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

C. a labelled and accessible classroom display, supported by what you noticed or changed

D. a review that ignores the work entirely

15. In work about our own local community, which reason best supports revising your “Arrange a Mini Art Gallery” work after feedback?

A. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

B. to improve organisation and care

C. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

D. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

Artist’s reflection

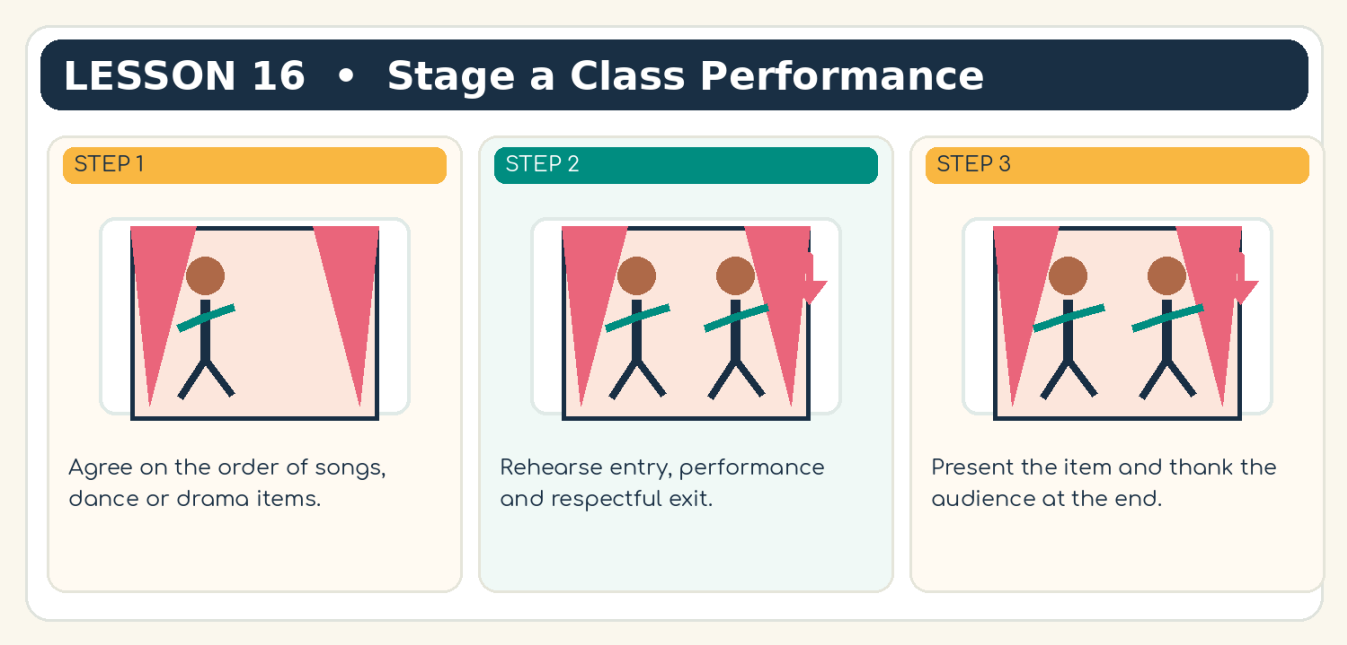

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 16 • Stage a Class Performance

Performing Arts / Display / Basic 1

Your mission

Today you will present performance work as a team. You will create a performance showcase using a class composition, simple programme and safe stage area.

Do it in three steps

1. Agree on the order of songs, dance or drama items.
2. Rehearse entry, performance and respectful exit.
3. Present the item and thank the audience at the end.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with our own local community; use simple lines, familiar objects and one short practice.

Level-up art task

Ask a family member for one safe, respectful example of staging in daily life. Tell your class what you noticed.

Safety and kindness

Check floor space, sound levels and exit paths.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a coordinated class performance and organisation and respect. Also try this: assign two pupils the role of hosts.

PLAY • Stage a Class Performance

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about our own local community, which materials are listed for “Stage a Class Performance”?

   A. a class composition, simple programme and safe stage area

   B. voice, clapping and safe non-breakable sound makers

   C. voice and a short original two-line phrase

   D. an earlier performance plan and feedback from classmates

2. In work about our own local community, which observation or preparation starts “Stage a Class Performance”?

   A. Agree on the order of songs, dance or drama items.

   B. Choose three colours that suit your chosen message.

   C. Sort clean paper by colour and select pieces for your picture.

   D. Roll a smooth ball of soft material.

3. In work about our own local community, what will the learner create or perform in “Stage a Class Performance”?

   A. a rhythmic echo

   B. a public message poster

   C. a two-part song plan

   D. a performance showcase

4. In work about our own local community, which artistic element is the main focus of “Stage a Class Performance”?

   A. composition

   B. sound

   C. staging

   D. repetition

5. In work about our own local community, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Stage a Class Performance”?

   A. a coordinated class performance

   B. a before-and-after artwork comparison

   C. a labelled colour test

   D. a three-gesture story

CHALLENGE • Stage a Class Performance

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about our own local community, after the opening action in “Stage a Class Performance”, what is the second step?

A. Sketch two repeated shapes from the cloth onto paper.

B. Rehearse a concrete change as a group.

C. Rehearse entry, performance and respectful exit.

D. Say which details help communicate the artist’s idea.

7. In work about our own local community, which closing action completes the three-stage “Stage a Class Performance” activity?

A. Suggest one useful change and say how to rehearse it.

B. Present the item and thank the audience at the end.

C. Circle the most readable combination and plan where to use it.

D. Perform the sounds in order to represent morning, afternoon or evening.

8. In work about our own local community, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Stage a Class Performance”?

A. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

B. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

C. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

D. Check floor space, sound levels and exit paths.

9. In work about our own local community, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Stage a Class Performance”?

A. strengthen performance through reflection

B. communicate ideas through body movement

C. present performance work as a team

D. select colours intentionally

10. In work about our own local community, for whom is the finished “Stage a Class Performance” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. invited audience

B. a person who is never shown the work

C. the materials supplier only

D. only the teacher’s desk

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Stage a Class Performance

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about our own local community, when assessing “Stage a Class Performance”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. organisation and respect

B. contrast and choice

C. message and readability

D. shape and function

12. In work about our own local community, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Stage a Class Performance”?

A. invite the original reviewer to compare the two versions

B. assign two pupils the role of hosts

C. ask classmates what action the poster encourages

D. compare narrow and wide pot openings

13. In work about our own local community, which cultural or geographic context guides “Stage a Class Performance” at Basic 1?

A. a distant place not discussed in class

B. only an overseas example without local evidence

C. our own local community

D. an unrelated invented setting

14. In work about our own local community, when you explain “Stage a Class Performance” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a coordinated class performance, supported by what you noticed or changed

B. a review that ignores the work entirely

C. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

D. a guess about staging without checking the finished work

15. In work about our own local community, which reason best supports revising your “Stage a Class Performance” work after feedback?

A. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

B. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

C. to improve organisation and respect

D. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

Artist’s reflection

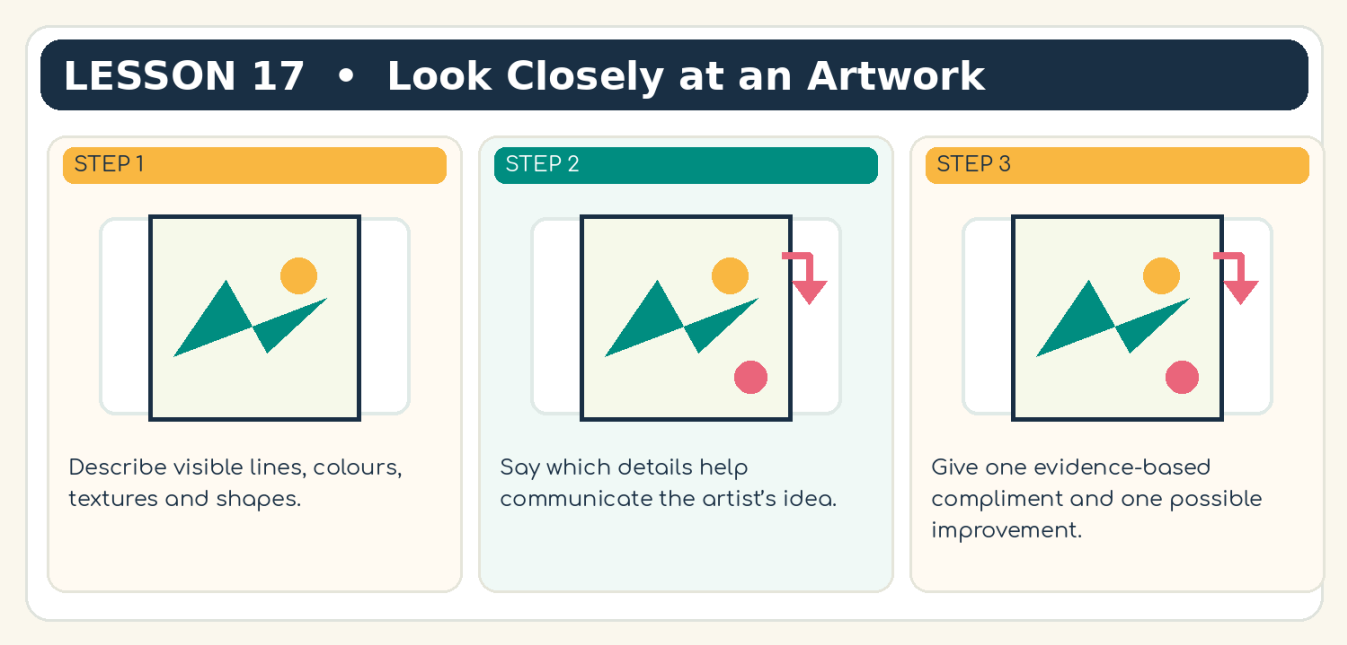

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 17 • Look Closely at an Artwork

Visual Arts / Appraise / Basic 1

Your mission

Today you will appreciate work using evidence. You will create an artwork response using one displayed artwork and an observation note.

Do it in three steps

1. Describe visible lines, colours, textures and shapes.
2. Say which details help communicate the artist's idea.
3. Give one evidence-based compliment and one possible improvement.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with our own local community; use simple lines, familiar objects and one short practice.

Level-up art task

Ask a family member for one safe, respectful example of appreciation in daily life. Tell your class what you noticed.

Safety and kindness

Discuss the artwork kindly, not the learner's personal traits.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a reasoned art observation and specific respectful feedback. Also try this: compare two interpretations with evidence.

PLAY • Look Closely at an Artwork

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about our own local community, which materials are listed for “Look Closely at an Artwork”?

   A. one displayed artwork and an observation note

   B. a short original dialogue and simple safe props

   C. a short community story and an open safe space

   D. hands, a soft drum or a safe plastic container

2. In work about our own local community, which observation or preparation starts “Look Closely at an Artwork”?

   A. Choose three colours that suit your chosen message.

   B. Choose finished works and give each a title label.

   C. List three sounds heard in the chosen setting.

   D. Describe visible lines, colours, textures and shapes.

3. In work about our own local community, what will the learner create or perform in “Look Closely at an Artwork”?

   A. a colour plan

   B. an artwork response

   C. a restaged performance

   D. a silent story

4. In work about our own local community, which artistic element is the main focus of “Look Closely at an Artwork”?

   A. gesture

   B. appreciation

   C. repetition

   D. pulse

5. In work about our own local community, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Look Closely at an Artwork”?

   A. an over-under paper mat

   B. a reasoned art observation

   C. a three-gesture story

   D. a fixed paper collage

CHALLENGE • Look Closely at an Artwork

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about our own local community, after the opening action in “Look Closely at an Artwork”, what is the second step?

A. Say which details help communicate the artist’s idea.

B. Choose one change that supports the artwork’s purpose.

C. Rehearse entry, performance and respectful exit.

D. Invent an easy response of similar length.

7. In work about our own local community, which closing action completes the three-stage “Look Closely at an Artwork” activity?

A. Restage the piece and explain the difference between the two versions.

B. Perform the pattern twice and check for a steady pulse.

C. Smooth the rim and show how the finished bowl can stand.

D. Give one evidence-based compliment and one possible improvement.

8. In work about our own local community, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Look Closely at an Artwork”?

A. Discuss the artwork kindly, not the learner’s personal traits.

B. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

C. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

D. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

9. In work about our own local community, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Look Closely at an Artwork”?

A. notice how art can carry cultural meaning

B. connect the form of a useful object to its function

C. coordinate movement with music

D. appreciate work using evidence

10. In work about our own local community, for whom is the finished “Look Closely at an Artwork” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. a person who is never shown the work

B. artist and classmates

C. the materials supplier only

D. only the teacher’s desk

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Look Closely at an Artwork

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about our own local community, when assessing “Look Closely at an Artwork”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. clear turns

B. composition and care

C. even walls and balance

D. specific respectful feedback

12. In work about our own local community, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Look Closely at an Artwork”?

A. swap roles between performer and audience

B. ask a partner which colour is easiest to see

C. compare two interpretations with evidence

D. teach your phrase to one partner without collisions

13. In work about our own local community, which cultural or geographic context guides “Look Closely at an Artwork” at Basic 1?

A. a distant place not discussed in class

B. only an overseas example without local evidence

C. an unrelated invented setting

D. our own local community

14. In work about our own local community, when you explain “Look Closely at an Artwork” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a review that ignores the work entirely

B. a guess about appreciation without checking the finished work

C. a reasoned art observation, supported by what you noticed or changed

D. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

15. In work about our own local community, which reason best supports revising your “Look Closely at an Artwork” work after feedback?

A. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

B. to improve specific respectful feedback

C. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

D. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

Artist’s reflection

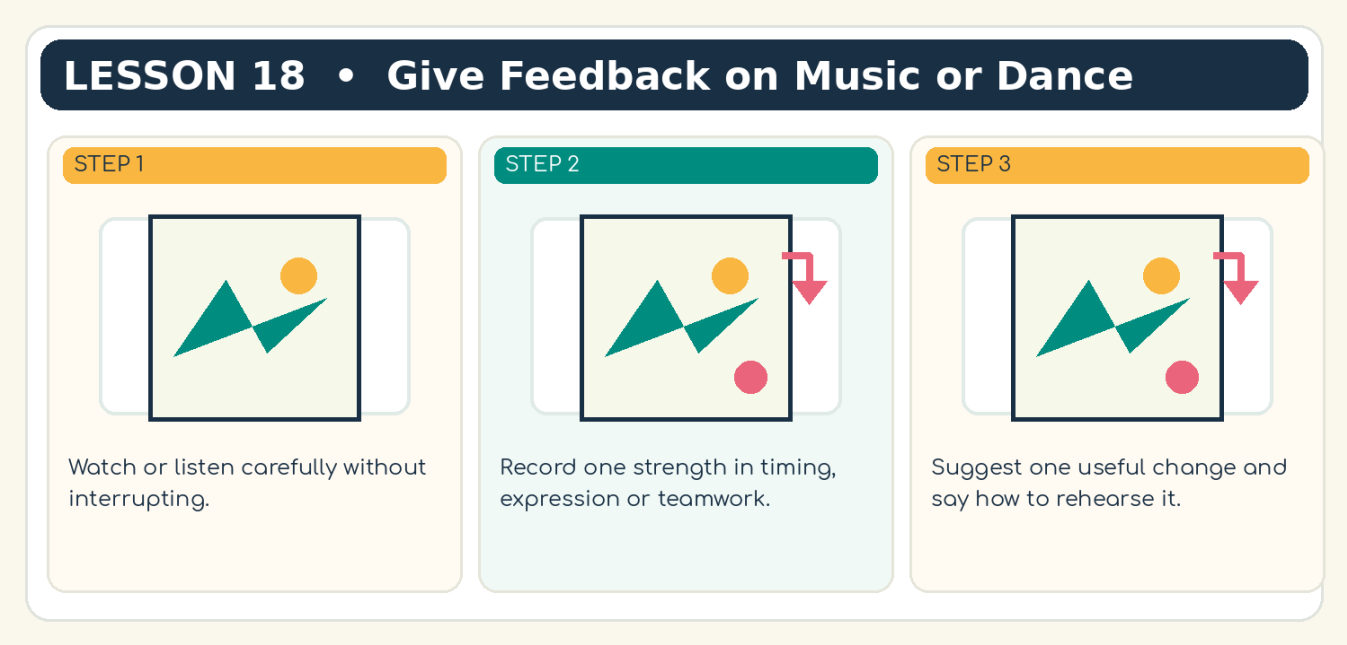

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 18 • Give Feedback on Music or Dance

Performing Arts / Appraise / Basic 1

Your mission

Today you will use evidence to discuss a performance. You will create a short feedback note using one short class performance and a two-column note.

Do it in three steps

1. Watch or listen carefully without interrupting.
2. Record one strength in timing, expression or teamwork.
3. Suggest one useful change and say how to rehearse it.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with our own local community; use simple lines, familiar objects and one short practice.

Level-up art task

Ask a family member for one safe, respectful example of performance appraisal in daily life. Tell your class what you noticed.

Safety and kindness

Respond respectfully and avoid personal insults.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a balanced performance review and evidence and kindness. Also try this: use feedback to improve one repeat performance.

PLAY • Give Feedback on Music or Dance

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about our own local community, which materials are listed for “Give Feedback on Music or Dance”?

A. a class composition, simple programme and safe stage area

B. hands, feet and a written beat grid

C. one short class performance and a two-column note

D. a short original dialogue and simple safe props

2. In work about our own local community, which observation or preparation starts “Give Feedback on Music or Dance”?

A. Watch or listen carefully without interrupting.

B. Roll a smooth ball of soft material.

C. Listen to a short local rhythm and count its pulses.

D. Read or listen to one helpful comment on the draft.

3. In work about our own local community, what will the learner create or perform in “Give Feedback on Music or Dance”?

A. a short dance composition

B. a functional pot sketch

C. a motif study

D. a short feedback note

4. In work about our own local community, which artistic element is the main focus of “Give Feedback on Music or Dance”?

A. colour

B. composition

C. performance appraisal

D. movement

5. In work about our own local community, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Give Feedback on Music or Dance”?

A. a repeatable dance phrase

B. a balanced performance review

C. a call and its matching response

D. a labelled colour test

CHALLENGE • Give Feedback on Music or Dance

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about our own local community, after the opening action in “Give Feedback on Music or Dance”, what is the second step?

A. Record one strength in timing, expression or teamwork.

B. Say which details help communicate the artist’s idea.

C. Connect them with a pause and a change of direction.

D. Place the works where viewers can see them without crowding.

7. In work about our own local community, which closing action completes the three-stage “Give Feedback on Music or Dance” activity?

A. Add one personal variation and explain what it represents.

B. Perform the sounds in order to represent morning, afternoon or evening.

C. Show your gesture sequence while a friend identifies the story.

D. Suggest one useful change and say how to rehearse it.

8. In work about our own local community, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Give Feedback on Music or Dance”?

A. Respond respectfully and avoid personal insults.

B. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

C. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

D. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

9. In work about our own local community, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Give Feedback on Music or Dance”?

A. share artworks with an audience

B. use evidence to discuss a performance

C. present performance work as a team

D. shape a useful object from malleable material

10. In work about our own local community, for whom is the finished “Give Feedback on Music or Dance” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. a person who is never shown the work

B. the materials supplier only

C. only the teacher’s desk

D. performers

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Give Feedback on Music or Dance

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about our own local community, when assessing “Give Feedback on Music or Dance”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. evidence and kindness

B. sequence and control

C. composition and care

D. improvement and cooperation

12. In work about our own local community, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Give Feedback on Music or Dance”?

A. invite a partner to lead the next four beats

B. let a second group test whether the response is easy to learn

C. perform the revised line for a second audience

D. use feedback to improve one repeat performance

13. In work about our own local community, which cultural or geographic context guides “Give Feedback on Music or Dance” at Basic 1?

A. an unrelated invented setting

B. a distant place not discussed in class

C. only an overseas example without local evidence

D. our own local community

14. In work about our own local community, when you explain “Give Feedback on Music or Dance” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a balanced performance review, supported by what you noticed or changed

B. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

C. a guess about performance appraisal without checking the finished work

D. a review that ignores the work entirely

15. In work about our own local community, which reason best supports revising your “Give Feedback on Music or Dance” work after feedback?

A. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

B. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

C. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

D. to improve evidence and kindness

Artist’s reflection

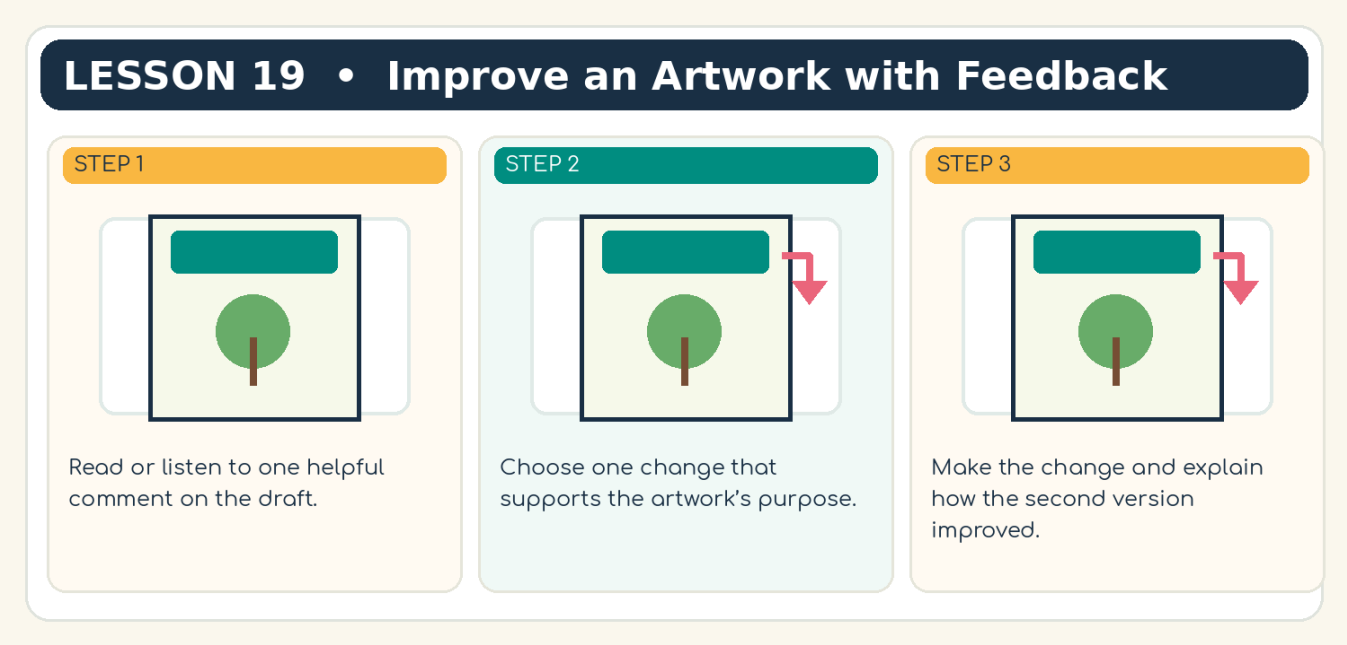

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 19 • Improve an Artwork with Feedback

Visual Arts / Appraise / Basic 1

Your mission

Today you will revise a work thoughtfully. You will create a revised artwork using a first draft, feedback note and drawing materials.

Do it in three steps

1. Read or listen to one helpful comment on the draft.
2. Choose one change that supports the artwork's purpose.
3. Make the change and explain how the second version improved.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with our own local community; use simple lines, familiar objects and one short practice.

Level-up art task

Ask a family member for one safe, respectful example of reflection in daily life. Tell your class what you noticed.

Safety and kindness

Keep the original to show growth; use tools safely.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a before-and-after artwork comparison and clear purposeful revision. Also try this: invite the original reviewer to compare the two versions.

PLAY • Improve an Artwork with Feedback

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about our own local community, which materials are listed for “Improve an Artwork with Feedback”?

A. clean scrap paper, glue, cardboard and blunt scissors

B. a first draft, feedback note and drawing materials

C. crayons, scrap paper and a drawing sheet

D. voice, clapping and safe non-breakable sound makers

2. In work about our own local community, which observation or preparation starts “Improve an Artwork with Feedback”?

A. Identify one timing or storytelling issue from feedback.

B. Choose a character and identify one important action.

C. Read or listen to one helpful comment on the draft.

D. Describe visible lines, colours, textures and shapes.

3. In work about our own local community, what will the learner create or perform in “Improve an Artwork with Feedback”?

A. a pinch pot

B. a revised artwork

C. a mini exhibition

D. a performance showcase

4. In work about our own local community, which artistic element is the main focus of “Improve an Artwork with Feedback”?

A. pulse

B. reflection

C. gesture

D. call and response

5. In work about our own local community, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Improve an Artwork with Feedback”?

A. a call and its matching response

B. a before-and-after artwork comparison

C. an improved final performance

D. a steady four-pulse performance

CHALLENGE • Improve an Artwork with Feedback

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about our own local community, after the opening action in “Improve an Artwork with Feedback”, what is the second step?

A. Choose claps and thigh taps to fill the beat spaces.

B. Choose one change that supports the artwork’s purpose.

C. Test the colours in small labelled boxes.

D. Rehearse a concrete change as a group.

7. In work about our own local community, which closing action completes the three-stage “Improve an Artwork with Feedback” activity?

A. Make the change and explain how the second version improved.

B. Act the scene once and revise a confusing gesture.

C. Perform the sounds in order to represent morning, afternoon or evening.

D. Add a few large readable words and check the layout.

8. In work about our own local community, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Improve an Artwork with Feedback”?

A. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

B. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

C. Keep the original to show growth; use tools safely.

D. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

9. In work about our own local community, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Improve an Artwork with Feedback”?

A. build and repeat a rhythmic pattern

B. revise a work thoughtfully

C. explore repeated structure through weaving

D. strengthen performance through reflection

10. In work about our own local community, for whom is the finished “Improve an Artwork with Feedback” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. a person who is never shown the work

B. the materials supplier only

C. only the teacher’s desk

D. peer reviewer

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Improve an Artwork with Feedback

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about our own local community, when assessing “Improve an Artwork with Feedback”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. sequence and expression

B. message and readability

C. clear purposeful revision

D. shape and function

12. In work about our own local community, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Improve an Artwork with Feedback”?

A. compare the rim before and after smoothing

B. use feedback to improve one repeat performance

C. swap roles between performer and audience

D. invite the original reviewer to compare the two versions

13. In work about our own local community, which cultural or geographic context guides “Improve an Artwork with Feedback” at Basic 1?

A. a distant place not discussed in class

B. only an overseas example without local evidence

C. an unrelated invented setting

D. our own local community

14. In work about our own local community, when you explain “Improve an Artwork with Feedback” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a review that ignores the work entirely

B. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

C. a before-and-after artwork comparison, supported by what you noticed or changed

D. a guess about reflection without checking the finished work

15. In work about our own local community, which reason best supports revising your “Improve an Artwork with Feedback” work after feedback?

A. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

B. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

C. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

D. to improve clear purposeful revision

Artist’s reflection

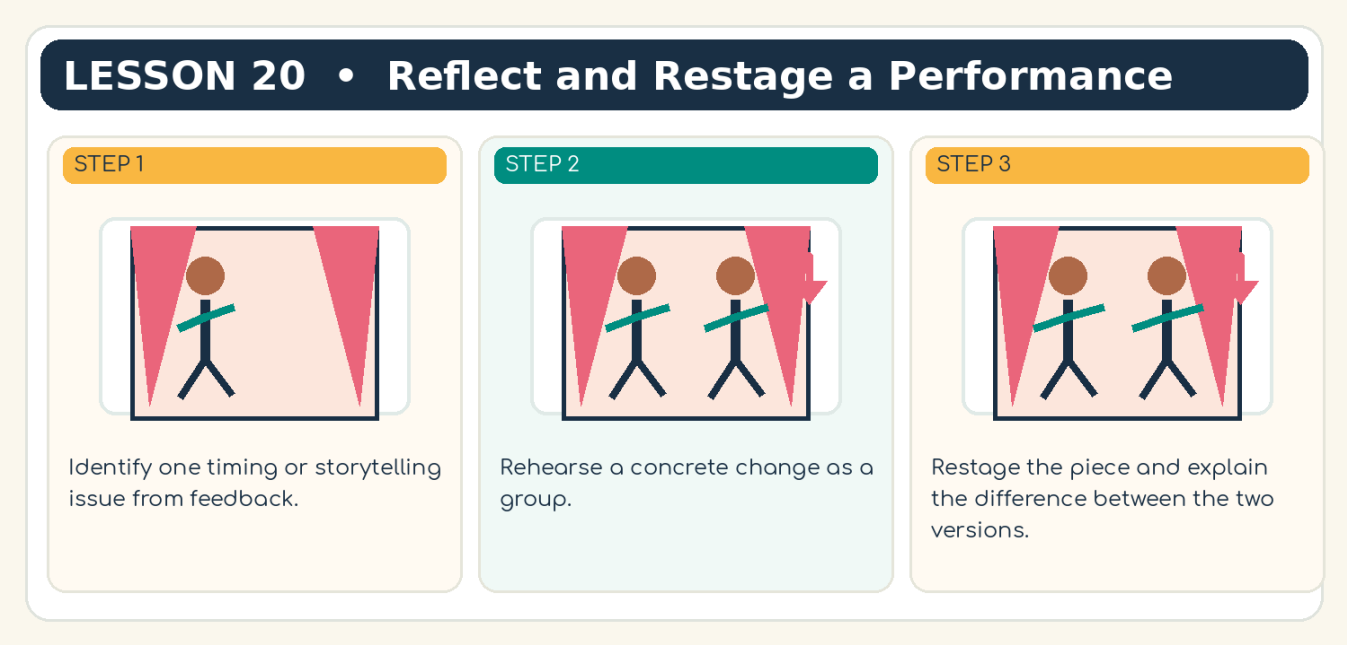

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 20 • Reflect and Restage a Performance

Performing Arts / Appraise / Basic 1

Your mission

Today you will strengthen performance through reflection. You will create a restaged performance using an earlier performance plan and feedback from classmates.

Do it in three steps

1. Identify one timing or storytelling issue from feedback.
2. Rehearse a concrete change as a group.
3. Restage the piece and explain the difference between the two versions.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with our own local community; use simple lines, familiar objects and one short practice.

Level-up art task

Ask a family member for one safe, respectful example of reflection in daily life. Tell your class what you noticed.

Safety and kindness

Warm up gently and respect each group member’s contribution.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for an improved final performance and improvement and cooperation. Also try this: record group decisions in a simple rehearsal journal.

PLAY • Reflect and Restage a Performance

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about our own local community, which materials are listed for “Reflect and Restage a Performance”?

A. hands, feet and a written beat grid

B. an earlier performance plan and feedback from classmates

C. a short original dialogue and simple safe props

D. paper, pencils, coloured pencils and a ruler

2. In work about our own local community, which observation or preparation starts “Reflect and Restage a Performance”?

A. Choose three colours that suit your chosen message.

B. Identify one timing or storytelling issue from feedback.

C. Mark four beat spaces with dots on paper.

D. List three sounds heard in the chosen setting.

3. In work about our own local community, what will the learner create or perform in “Reflect and Restage a Performance”?

A. a body-percussion pattern

B. a revised artwork

C. a restaged performance

D. a woven paper mat

4. In work about our own local community, which artistic element is the main focus of “Reflect and Restage a Performance”?

A. volume

B. reflection

C. visual communication

D. appreciation

5. In work about our own local community, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Reflect and Restage a Performance”?

A. a three-part soundscape

B. a fixed paper collage

C. an improved final performance

D. a balanced performance review

CHALLENGE • Reflect and Restage a Performance

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about our own local community, after the opening action in “Reflect and Restage a Performance”, what is the second step?

A. Choose claps and thigh taps to fill the beat spaces.

B. Rehearse a concrete change as a group.

C. Pass one strip over then under the base strips.

D. Say which details help communicate the artist’s idea.

7. In work about our own local community, which closing action completes the three-stage “Reflect and Restage a Performance” activity?

A. Practise taking turns as leader and responding group.

B. Repeat the sequence and straighten the finished pattern.

C. Perform the phrase twice with control and enough personal space.

D. Restage the piece and explain the difference between the two versions.

8. In work about our own local community, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Reflect and Restage a Performance”?

A. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

B. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

C. Warm up gently and respect each group member’s contribution.

D. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

9. In work about our own local community, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Reflect and Restage a Performance”?

A. connect the form of a useful object to its function

B. share artworks with an audience

C. compose a simple shared musical phrase

D. strengthen performance through reflection

10. In work about our own local community, for whom is the finished “Reflect and Restage a Performance” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. the materials supplier only

B. only the teacher’s desk

C. class audience

D. a person who is never shown the work

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Reflect and Restage a Performance

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about our own local community, when assessing “Reflect and Restage a Performance”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. sequence and expression

B. clear purposeful revision

C. timing and safe space

D. improvement and cooperation

12. In work about our own local community, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Reflect and Restage a Performance”?

A. compare the rim before and after smoothing

B. let a second group test whether the response is easy to learn

C. record group decisions in a simple rehearsal journal

D. invite the original reviewer to compare the two versions

13. In work about our own local community, which cultural or geographic context guides “Reflect and Restage a Performance” at Basic 1?

A. only an overseas example without local evidence

B. a distant place not discussed in class

C. an unrelated invented setting

D. our own local community

14. In work about our own local community, when you explain “Reflect and Restage a Performance” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. an improved final performance, supported by what you noticed or changed

B. a review that ignores the work entirely

C. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

D. a guess about reflection without checking the finished work

15. In work about our own local community, which reason best supports revising your “Reflect and Restage a Performance” work after feedback?

A. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

B. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

C. to improve improvement and cooperation

D. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

Artist’s reflection

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____