CREATIVE ARTS • BASIC 3

Illustrated learning workbook

Visual Arts + Performing Arts | Explore • Make • Display • Appreciate

20 illustrated lessons · 5 Play and 10 Challenge questions for every lesson · practical teacher observation tasks

Learners explore ideas, make or compose a work, share it, and describe what they would improve. Videos are in the multimedia eBook and offline interactive course; their matching three-step visuals appear on the printed pages.

LESSON 01 • African Art: Find Stories in Cloth

Visual Arts / Explore / Basic 3

Your mission

Today you will notice how art can carry cultural meaning. You will create a motif study using a patterned fabric scrap, paper and crayons.

Do it in three steps

1. Look at a cloth pattern and point to its repeated marks.
2. Sketch two repeated shapes from the cloth onto paper.
3. Add one personal variation and explain what it represents. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with communities across Africa; describe cultural similarities and differences across Africa.

Level-up art task

Compare a Ghanaian example with one other African tradition. Explain how you can be inspired by pattern while respecting each community's cultural meaning.

Safety and kindness

Ask before touching another person's cloth.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a labelled pattern sketch and shape and meaning. Also try this: compare the pattern with a friend's observation.

PLAY • African Art: Find Stories in Cloth

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about communities across Africa, which materials are listed for “African Art: Find Stories in Cloth”?

A. completed learner artworks, labels and removable tape

B. paper, pencils, coloured pencils and a ruler

C. a patterned fabric scrap, paper and crayons

D. two contrasting paper colours and pre-cut strips

2. In work about communities across Africa, which observation or preparation starts “African Art: Find Stories in Cloth”?

A. Roll a smooth ball of soft material.

B. Look at a cloth pattern and point to its repeated marks.

C. Assign a speaker, listener and narrator for a short scene.

D. Write or say a short call about caring for people or places.

3. In work about communities across Africa, what will the learner create or perform in “African Art: Find Stories in Cloth”?

A. a woven paper mat

B. a motif study

C. a revised artwork

D. a public message poster

4. In work about communities across Africa, which artistic element is the main focus of “African Art: Find Stories in Cloth”?

A. presentation

B. pattern

C. pulse

D. sound

5. In work about communities across Africa, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “African Art: Find Stories in Cloth”?

A. a labelled and accessible classroom display

B. a labelled pattern sketch

C. an annotated pot drawing

D. a reasoned art observation

CHALLENGE • African Art: Find Stories in Cloth

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about communities across Africa, after the opening action in “African Art: Find Stories in Cloth”, what is the second step?

A. Sketch two repeated shapes from the cloth onto paper.

B. Draw a bold image that supports the message.

C. Say which details help communicate the artist’s idea.

D. Press a thumb gently into the centre and pinch the sides evenly.

7. In work about communities across Africa, which closing action completes the three-stage “African Art: Find Stories in Cloth” activity?

A. Add one personal variation and explain what it represents. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

B. Guide visitors to observe one artwork and ask a respectful question.

C. Present the item and thank the audience at the end.

D. Practise taking turns as leader and responding group.

8. In work about communities across Africa, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “African Art: Find Stories in Cloth”?

A. Ask before touching another person’s cloth.

B. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

C. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

D. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

9. In work about communities across Africa, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “African Art: Find Stories in Cloth”?

A. notice how art can carry cultural meaning

B. recognise pulse and respectful listening

C. reuse materials while arranging an image

D. coordinate movement with music

10. In work about communities across Africa, for whom is the finished “African Art: Find Stories in Cloth” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. a person who is never shown the work

B. classmates

C. the materials supplier only

D. only the teacher’s desk

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • African Art: Find Stories in Cloth

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about communities across Africa, when assessing “African Art: Find Stories in Cloth”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. expression and clarity

B. evidence and kindness

C. composition and care

D. shape and meaning

12. In work about communities across Africa, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “African Art: Find Stories in Cloth”?

A. teach your phrase to one partner without collisions

B. show which reused material became the focal point

C. compare the pattern with a friend’s observation

D. invite a partner to lead the next four beats

13. In work about communities across Africa, which cultural or geographic context guides “African Art: Find Stories in Cloth” at Basic 3?

A. communities across Africa

B. a place invented by a movie

C. only a location outside Africa

D. a place not represented in the African examples

14. In work about communities across Africa, when you explain “African Art: Find Stories in Cloth” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

B. a guess about pattern without checking the finished work

C. a review that ignores the work entirely

D. a labelled pattern sketch, supported by what you noticed or changed

15. In work about communities across Africa, which reason best supports revising your “African Art: Find Stories in Cloth” work after feedback?

A. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

B. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

C. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

D. to improve shape and meaning

Artist’s reflection

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 02 • African Art: Hear the Community Beat

Performing Arts / Explore / Basic 3

Your mission

Today you will recognise pulse and respectful listening. You will create a rhythmic echo using hands, a soft drum or a safe plastic container.

Do it in three steps

1. Listen to a short local rhythm and count its pulses.
2. Echo the pulse by tapping softly four times.
3. Perform the pulse with a partner, starting and stopping together. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with communities across Africa; describe cultural similarities and differences across Africa.

Level-up art task

Compare a Ghanaian example with one other African tradition. Explain how you can be inspired by pulse while respecting each community's cultural meaning.

Safety and kindness

Keep the sound comfortable for nearby listeners.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a steady four-pulse performance and steady timing. Also try this: invite a partner to lead the next four beats.

PLAY • African Art: Hear the Community Beat

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about communities across Africa, which materials are listed for “African Art: Hear the Community Beat”?

A. voice and a short original two-line phrase

B. a patterned fabric scrap, paper and crayons

C. hands, a soft drum or a safe plastic container

D. an earlier performance plan and feedback from classmates

2. In work about communities across Africa, which observation or preparation starts “African Art: Hear the Community Beat”?

A. Lay parallel paper strips on a desk as the base.

B. Choose three colours that suit your chosen message.

C. Listen to a short local rhythm and count its pulses.

D. Read or listen to one helpful comment on the draft.

3. In work about communities across Africa, what will the learner create or perform in “African Art: Hear the Community Beat”?

A. a rhythmic echo

B. a recycled collage

C. a motif study

D. a short dance composition

4. In work about communities across Africa, which artistic element is the main focus of “African Art: Hear the Community Beat”?

A. drama

B. staging

C. pulse

D. presentation

5. In work about communities across Africa, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “African Art: Hear the Community Beat”?

A. a readable community poster

B. a fixed paper collage

C. a steady four-pulse performance

D. a repeatable dance phrase

CHALLENGE • African Art: Hear the Community Beat

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about communities across Africa, after the opening action in “African Art: Hear the Community Beat”, what is the second step?

A. Echo the pulse by tapping softly four times.

B. Practise lines with clear facial expression and turn-taking.

C. Rehearse a concrete change as a group.

D. Choose claps and thigh taps to fill the beat spaces.

7. In work about communities across Africa, which closing action completes the three-stage “African Art: Hear the Community Beat” activity?

A. Act the scene once and revise a confusing gesture.

B. Perform the pulse with a partner, starting and stopping together. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

C. Add a label showing how the pot might be used.

D. Make the change and explain how the second version improved.

8. In work about communities across Africa, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “African Art: Hear the Community Beat”?

A. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

B. Keep the sound comfortable for nearby listeners.

C. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

D. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

9. In work about communities across Africa, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “African Art: Hear the Community Beat”?

A. use evidence to discuss a performance

B. select colours intentionally

C. recognise pulse and respectful listening

D. notice how art can carry cultural meaning

10. In work about communities across Africa, for whom is the finished “African Art: Hear the Community Beat” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. only the teacher’s desk

B. the materials supplier only

C. a person who is never shown the work

D. listening group

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • African Art: Hear the Community Beat

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about communities across Africa, when assessing “African Art: Hear the Community Beat”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. even walls and balance

B. clear purposeful revision

C. clear turns

D. steady timing

12. In work about communities across Africa, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “African Art: Hear the Community Beat”?

A. invite peers to guess the setting from the sounds

B. invite the original reviewer to compare the two versions

C. swap roles between performer and audience

D. invite a partner to lead the next four beats

13. In work about communities across Africa, which cultural or geographic context guides “African Art: Hear the Community Beat” at Basic 3?

A. a place not represented in the African examples

B. only a location outside Africa

C. a place invented by a movie

D. communities across Africa

14. In work about communities across Africa, when you explain “African Art: Hear the Community Beat” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a review that ignores the work entirely

B. a guess about pulse without checking the finished work

C. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

D. a steady four-pulse performance, supported by what you noticed or changed

15. In work about communities across Africa, which reason best supports revising your “African Art: Hear the Community Beat” work after feedback?

A. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

B. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

C. to improve steady timing

D. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

Artist’s reflection

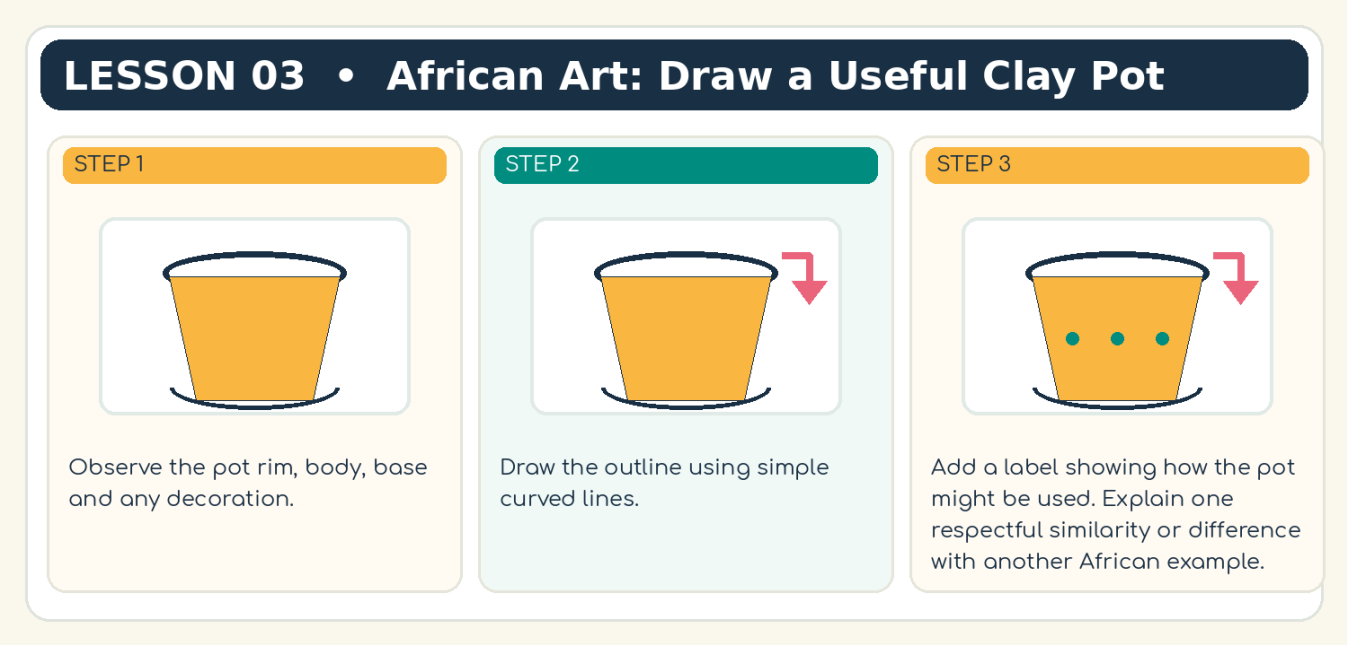

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 03 • African Art: Draw a Useful Clay Pot

Visual Arts / Explore / Basic 3

Your mission

Today you will connect the form of a useful object to its function. You will create a functional pot sketch using a picture or safe sample of a clay pot, pencil and paper.

Do it in three steps

1. Observe the pot rim, body, base and any decoration.

2. Draw the outline using simple curved lines.

3. Add a label showing how the pot might be used. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with communities across Africa; describe cultural similarities and differences across Africa.

Level-up art task

Compare a Ghanaian example with one other African tradition. Explain how you can be inspired by form while respecting each community's cultural meaning.

Safety and kindness

Do not handle fragile or heavy pots without adult help.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for an annotated pot drawing and shape and function. Also try this: compare narrow and wide pot openings.

PLAY • African Art: Draw a Useful Clay Pot

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about communities across Africa, which materials are listed for “African Art: Draw a Useful Clay Pot”?

A. a class composition, simple programme and safe stage area

B. soft modelling clay or dough and a washable work mat

C. clean scrap paper, glue, cardboard and blunt scissors

D. a picture or safe sample of a clay pot, pencil and paper

2. In work about communities across Africa, which observation or preparation starts “African Art: Draw a Useful Clay Pot”?

A. Watch or listen carefully without interrupting.

B. Observe the pot rim, body, base and any decoration.

C. Look at a cloth pattern and point to its repeated marks.

D. Sort clean paper by colour and select pieces for your picture.

3. In work about communities across Africa, what will the learner create or perform in “African Art: Draw a Useful Clay Pot”?

A. a motif study

B. a short feedback note

C. a colour plan

D. a functional pot sketch

4. In work about communities across Africa, which artistic element is the main focus of “African Art: Draw a Useful Clay Pot”?

A. volume

B. form

C. colour

D. repetition

5. In work about communities across Africa, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “African Art: Draw a Useful Clay Pot”?

A. a three-gesture story

B. a labelled and accessible classroom display

C. an annotated pot drawing

D. a balanced performance review

CHALLENGE • African Art: Draw a Useful Clay Pot

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about communities across Africa, after the opening action in “African Art: Draw a Useful Clay Pot”, what is the second step?

A. Invent an easy response of similar length.

B. Say which details help communicate the artist’s idea.

C. Rehearse a concrete change as a group.

D. Draw the outline using simple curved lines.

7. In work about communities across Africa, which closing action completes the three-stage “African Art: Draw a Useful Clay Pot” activity?

A. Add a label showing how the pot might be used. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

B. Suggest one useful change and say how to rehearse it.

C. Restage the piece and explain the difference between the two versions.

D. Circle the most readable combination and plan where to use it.

8. In work about communities across Africa, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “African Art: Draw a Useful Clay Pot”?

A. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

B. Do not handle fragile or heavy pots without adult help.

C. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

D. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

9. In work about communities across Africa, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “African Art: Draw a Useful Clay Pot”?

A. reuse materials while arranging an image

B. notice how art can carry cultural meaning

C. explore repeated structure through weaving

D. connect the form of a useful object to its function

10. In work about communities across Africa, for whom is the finished “African Art: Draw a Useful Clay Pot” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. study group

B. the materials supplier only

C. a person who is never shown the work

D. only the teacher’s desk

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • African Art: Draw a Useful Clay Pot

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about communities across Africa, when assessing “African Art: Draw a Useful Clay Pot”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. contrast and choice

B. even walls and balance

C. expression and clarity

D. shape and function

12. In work about communities across Africa, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “African Art: Draw a Useful Clay Pot”?

A. compare narrow and wide pot openings

B. compare the rim before and after smoothing

C. ask classmates what action the poster encourages

D. use feedback to improve one repeat performance

13. In work about communities across Africa, which cultural or geographic context guides “African Art: Draw a Useful Clay Pot” at Basic 3?

A. a place invented by a movie

B. only a location outside Africa

C. communities across Africa

D. a place not represented in the African examples

14. In work about communities across Africa, when you explain “African Art: Draw a Useful Clay Pot” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

B. a guess about form without checking the finished work

C. an annotated pot drawing, supported by what you noticed or changed

D. a review that ignores the work entirely

15. In work about communities across Africa, which reason best supports revising your “African Art: Draw a Useful Clay Pot” work after feedback?

A. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

B. to improve shape and function

C. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

D. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

Artist’s reflection

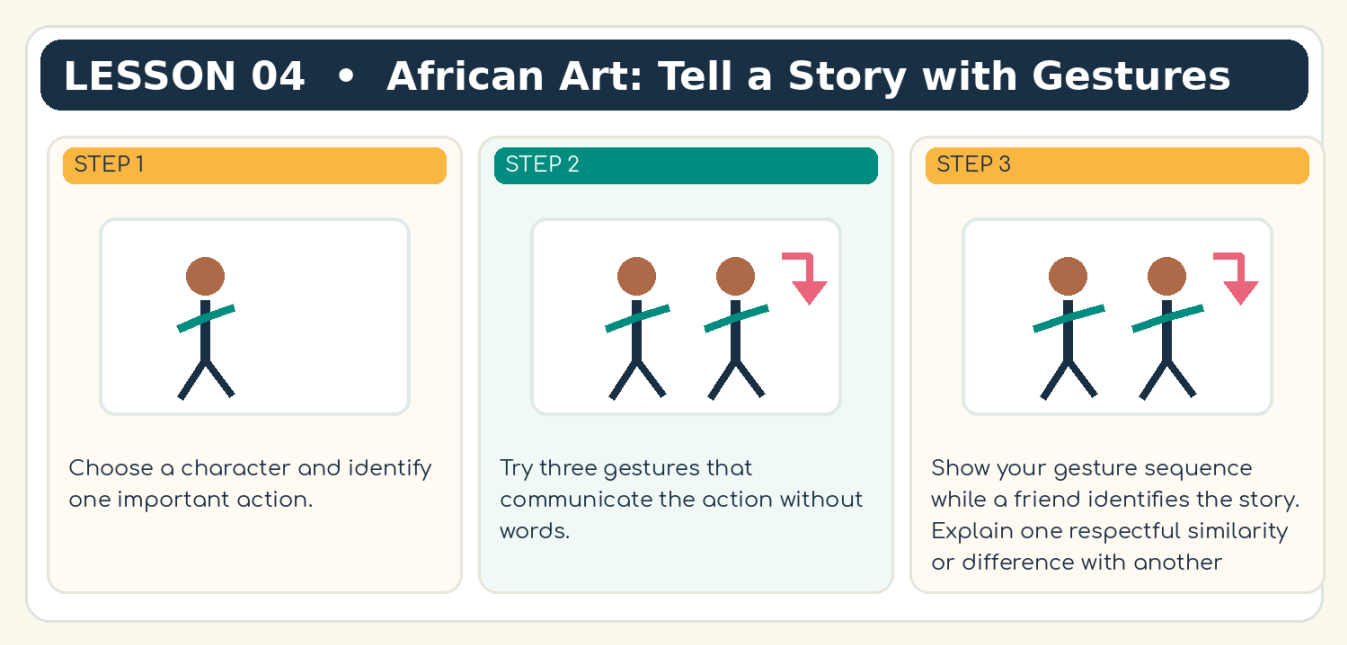

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 04 • African Art: Tell a Story with Gestures

Performing Arts / Explore / Basic 3

Your mission

Today you will communicate ideas through body movement. You will create a silent story using a short community story and an open safe space.

Do it in three steps

1. Choose a character and identify one important action.

2. Try three gestures that communicate the action without words.

3. Show your gesture sequence while a friend identifies the story. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with communities across Africa; describe cultural similarities and differences across Africa.

Level-up art task

Compare a Ghanaian example with one other African tradition. Explain how you can be inspired by gesture while respecting each community's cultural meaning.

Safety and kindness

Use an open space and avoid pushing or sudden jumps.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a three-gesture story and expression and clarity. Also try this: swap roles between performer and audience.

PLAY • African Art: Tell a Story with Gestures

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about communities across Africa, which materials are listed for “African Art: Tell a Story with Gestures”?

A. paper, pencils, coloured pencils and a ruler

B. a short community story and an open safe space

C. completed learner artworks, labels and removable tape

D. hands, feet and a written beat grid

2. In work about communities across Africa, which observation or preparation starts “African Art: Tell a Story with Gestures”?

A. Choose a character and identify one important action.

B. Assign a speaker, listener and narrator for a short scene.

C. List three sounds heard in the chosen setting.

D. Listen to a short local rhythm and count its pulses.

3. In work about communities across Africa, what will the learner create or perform in “African Art: Tell a Story with Gestures”?

A. a motif study

B. a silent story

C. a recycled collage

D. a woven paper mat

4. In work about communities across Africa, which artistic element is the main focus of “African Art: Tell a Story with Gestures”?

A. gesture

B. presentation

C. composition

D. drama

5. In work about communities across Africa, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “African Art: Tell a Story with Gestures”?

A. a three-gesture story

B. a fixed paper collage

C. a rehearsed scene with understandable roles

D. a coordinated class performance

CHALLENGE • African Art: Tell a Story with Gestures

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about communities across Africa, after the opening action in “African Art: Tell a Story with Gestures”, what is the second step?

A. Assign each sound to a gentle vocal or body action.

B. Rehearse a concrete change as a group.

C. Try three gestures that communicate the action without words.

D. Say which details help communicate the artist’s idea.

7. In work about communities across Africa, which closing action completes the three-stage “African Art: Tell a Story with Gestures” activity?

A. Show your gesture sequence while a friend identifies the story. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

B. Practise taking turns as leader and responding group.

C. Smooth the rim and show how the finished bowl can stand.

D. Guide visitors to observe one artwork and ask a respectful question.

8. In work about communities across Africa, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “African Art: Tell a Story with Gestures”?

A. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

B. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

C. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

D. Use an open space and avoid pushing or sudden jumps.

9. In work about communities across Africa, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “African Art: Tell a Story with Gestures”?

A. revise a work thoughtfully

B. connect the form of a useful object to its function

C. communicate ideas through body movement

D. strengthen performance through reflection

10. In work about communities across Africa, for whom is the finished “African Art: Tell a Story with Gestures” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. class audience

B. the materials supplier only

C. only the teacher’s desk

D. a person who is never shown the work

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • African Art: Tell a Story with Gestures

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about communities across Africa, when assessing “African Art: Tell a Story with Gestures”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. clear turns

B. steady timing

C. expression and clarity

D. even walls and balance

12. In work about communities across Africa, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “African Art: Tell a Story with Gestures”?

A. ask a partner which colour is easiest to see

B. compare the rim before and after smoothing

C. invite a partner to lead the next four beats

D. swap roles between performer and audience

13. In work about communities across Africa, which cultural or geographic context guides “African Art: Tell a Story with Gestures” at Basic 3?

A. only a location outside Africa

B. communities across Africa

C. a place invented by a movie

D. a place not represented in the African examples

14. In work about communities across Africa, when you explain “African Art: Tell a Story with Gestures” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a guess about gesture without checking the finished work

B. a review that ignores the work entirely

C. a three-gesture story, supported by what you noticed or changed

D. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

15. In work about communities across Africa, which reason best supports revising your “African Art: Tell a Story with Gestures” work after feedback?

A. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

B. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

C. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

D. to improve expression and clarity

Artist’s reflection

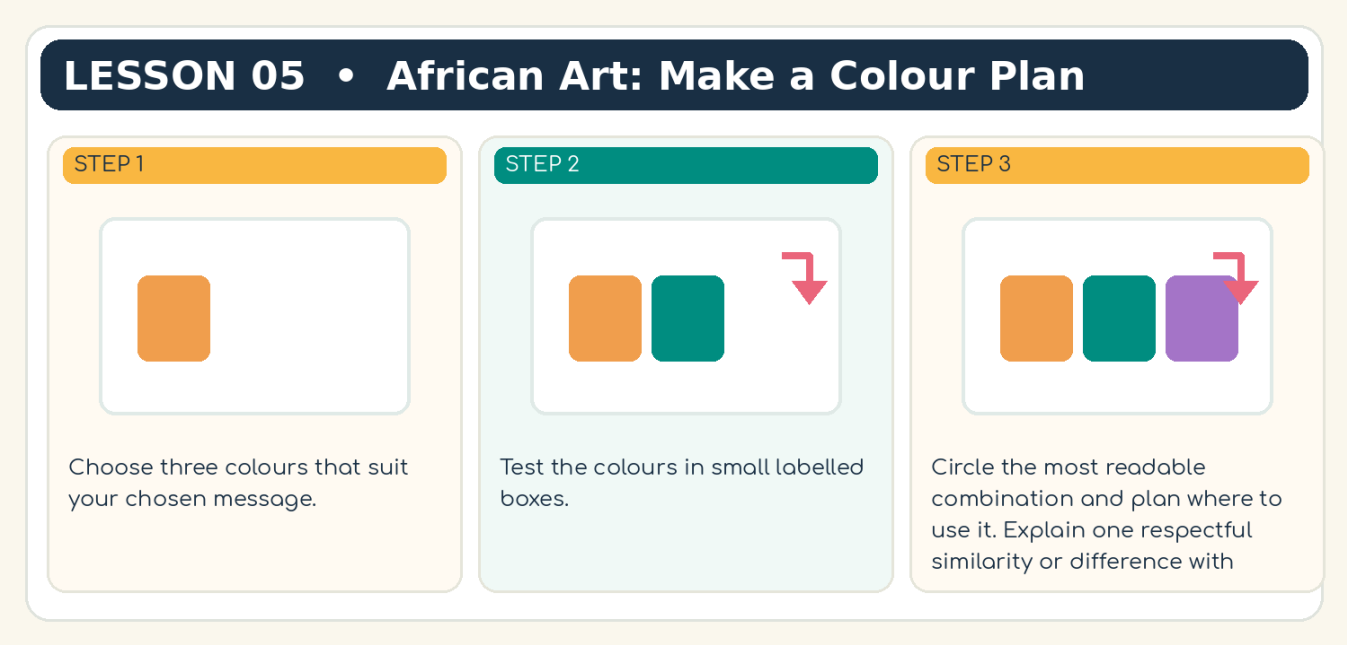

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 05 • African Art: Make a Colour Plan

Visual Arts / Plan / Basic 3

Your mission

Today you will select colours intentionally. You will create a colour plan using crayons, scrap paper and a drawing sheet.

Do it in three steps

1. Choose three colours that suit your chosen message.
2. Test the colours in small labelled boxes.
3. Circle the most readable combination and plan where to use it. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with communities across Africa; describe cultural similarities and differences across Africa.

Level-up art task

Compare a Ghanaian example with one other African tradition. Explain how you can be inspired by colour while respecting each community's cultural meaning.

Safety and kindness

Keep crayons off the floor to prevent slips.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a labelled colour test and contrast and choice. Also try this: ask a partner which colour is easiest to see.

PLAY • African Art: Make a Colour Plan

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about communities across Africa, which materials are listed for “African Art: Make a Colour Plan”?

A. a class composition, simple programme and safe stage area

B. crayons, scrap paper and a drawing sheet

C. clean scrap paper, glue, cardboard and blunt scissors

D. voice and a short original two-line phrase

2. In work about communities across Africa, which observation or preparation starts “African Art: Make a Colour Plan”?

A. List three sounds heard in the chosen setting.

B. Observe the pot rim, body, base and any decoration.

C. Choose three colours that suit your chosen message.

D. Write or say a short call about caring for people or places.

3. In work about communities across Africa, what will the learner create or perform in “African Art: Make a Colour Plan”?

A. a colour plan

B. a restaged performance

C. a revised artwork

D. a functional pot sketch

4. In work about communities across Africa, which artistic element is the main focus of “African Art: Make a Colour Plan”?

A. gesture

B. composition

C. movement

D. colour

5. In work about communities across Africa, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “African Art: Make a Colour Plan”?

A. a labelled and accessible classroom display

B. a labelled colour test

C. a repeatable dance phrase

D. a labelled pattern sketch

CHALLENGE • African Art: Make a Colour Plan

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about communities across Africa, after the opening action in “African Art: Make a Colour Plan”, what is the second step?

A. Test the colours in small labelled boxes.

B. Assign each sound to a gentle vocal or body action.

C. Choose claps and thigh taps to fill the beat spaces.

D. Sketch two repeated shapes from the cloth onto paper.

7. In work about communities across Africa, which closing action completes the three-stage “African Art: Make a Colour Plan” activity?

A. Add one personal variation and explain what it represents.

B. Guide visitors to observe one artwork and ask a respectful question.

C. Circle the most readable combination and plan where to use it. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

D. Suggest one useful change and say how to rehearse it.

8. In work about communities across Africa, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “African Art: Make a Colour Plan”?

A. Keep crayons off the floor to prevent slips.

B. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

C. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

D. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

9. In work about communities across Africa, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “African Art: Make a Colour Plan”?

A. select colours intentionally

B. connect the form of a useful object to its function

C. strengthen performance through reflection

D. use voice, space and roles to tell a story

10. In work about communities across Africa, for whom is the finished “African Art: Make a Colour Plan” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. the materials supplier only

B. design partner

C. only the teacher’s desk

D. a person who is never shown the work

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • African Art: Make a Colour Plan

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about communities across Africa, when assessing “African Art: Make a Colour Plan”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. contrast and choice

B. sequence and expression

C. sequence and control

D. regular pattern

12. In work about communities across Africa, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “African Art: Make a Colour Plan”?

A. show which reused material became the focal point

B. ask a partner which colour is easiest to see

C. swap roles between performer and audience

D. compare narrow and wide pot openings

13. In work about communities across Africa, which cultural or geographic context guides “African Art: Make a Colour Plan” at Basic 3?

A. a place invented by a movie

B. only a location outside Africa

C. a place not represented in the African examples

D. communities across Africa

14. In work about communities across Africa, when you explain “African Art: Make a Colour Plan” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a guess about colour without checking the finished work

B. a review that ignores the work entirely

C. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

D. a labelled colour test, supported by what you noticed or changed

15. In work about communities across Africa, which reason best supports revising your “African Art: Make a Colour Plan” work after feedback?

A. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

B. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

C. to improve contrast and choice

D. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

Artist’s reflection

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 06 • African Art: Plan a Call-and-Response Song

Performing Arts / Plan / Basic 3

Your mission

Today you will compose a simple shared musical phrase. You will create a two-part song plan using voice and a short original two-line phrase.

Do it in three steps

1. Write or say a short call about caring for people or places.
2. Invent an easy response of similar length.
3. Practise taking turns as leader and responding group. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with communities across Africa; describe cultural similarities and differences across Africa.

Level-up art task

Compare a Ghanaian example with one other African tradition. Explain how you can be inspired by call and response while respecting each community's cultural meaning.

Safety and kindness

Sing at a comfortable volume; do not strain the voice.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a call and its matching response and clear turns. Also try this: let a second group test whether the response is easy to learn.

PLAY • African Art: Plan a Call-and-Response Song

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about communities across Africa, which materials are listed for “African Art: Plan a Call-and-Response Song”?

A. voice, clapping and safe non-breakable sound makers

B. soft modelling clay or dough and a washable work mat

C. one short class performance and a two-column note

D. voice and a short original two-line phrase

2. In work about communities across Africa, which observation or preparation starts “African Art: Plan a Call-and-Response Song”?

A. Assign a speaker, listener and narrator for a short scene.

B. Write or say a short call about caring for people or places.

C. Sort clean paper by colour and select pieces for your picture.

D. Mark four beat spaces with dots on paper.

3. In work about communities across Africa, what will the learner create or perform in “African Art: Plan a Call-and-Response Song”?

A. a restaged performance

B. a short drama scene

C. a functional pot sketch

D. a two-part song plan

4. In work about communities across Africa, which artistic element is the main focus of “African Art: Plan a Call-and-Response Song”?

A. sound

B. rhythm

C. volume

D. call and response

5. In work about communities across Africa, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “African Art: Plan a Call-and-Response Song”?

A. a coordinated class performance

B. a call and its matching response

C. an improved final performance

D. a readable community poster

CHALLENGE • African Art: Plan a Call-and-Response Song

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about communities across Africa, after the opening action in “African Art: Plan a Call-and-Response Song”, what is the second step?

A. Try three gestures that communicate the action without words.

B. Invent an easy response of similar length.

C. Rehearse entry, performance and respectful exit.

D. Choose claps and thigh taps to fill the beat spaces.

7. In work about communities across Africa, which closing action completes the three-stage “African Art: Plan a Call-and-Response Song” activity?

A. Add a few large readable words and check the layout.

B. Practise taking turns as leader and responding group. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

C. Smooth the rim and show how the finished bowl can stand.

D. Give one evidence-based compliment and one possible improvement.

8. In work about communities across Africa, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “African Art: Plan a Call-and-Response Song”?

A. Sing at a comfortable volume; do not strain the voice.

B. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

C. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

D. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

9. In work about communities across Africa, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “African Art: Plan a Call-and-Response Song”?

A. compose a simple shared musical phrase

B. communicate ideas through body movement

C. reuse materials while arranging an image

D. strengthen performance through reflection

10. In work about communities across Africa, for whom is the finished “African Art: Plan a Call-and-Response Song” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. a person who is never shown the work

B. singing team

C. only the teacher’s desk

D. the materials supplier only

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • African Art: Plan a Call-and-Response Song

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about communities across Africa, when assessing “African Art: Plan a Call-and-Response Song”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. evidence and kindness

B. even walls and balance

C. improvement and cooperation

D. clear turns

12. In work about communities across Africa, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “African Art: Plan a Call-and-Response Song”?

A. compare two interpretations with evidence

B. let a second group test whether the response is easy to learn

C. show which reused material became the focal point

D. ask a partner to clap the pattern from your grid

13. In work about communities across Africa, which cultural or geographic context guides “African Art: Plan a Call-and-Response Song” at Basic 3?

A. a place not represented in the African examples

B. a place invented by a movie

C. only a location outside Africa

D. communities across Africa

14. In work about communities across Africa, when you explain “African Art: Plan a Call-and-Response Song” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a guess about call and response without checking the finished work

B. a call and its matching response, supported by what you noticed or changed

C. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

D. a review that ignores the work entirely

15. In work about communities across Africa, which reason best supports revising your “African Art: Plan a Call-and-Response Song” work after feedback?

A. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

B. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

C. to improve clear turns

D. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

Artist’s reflection

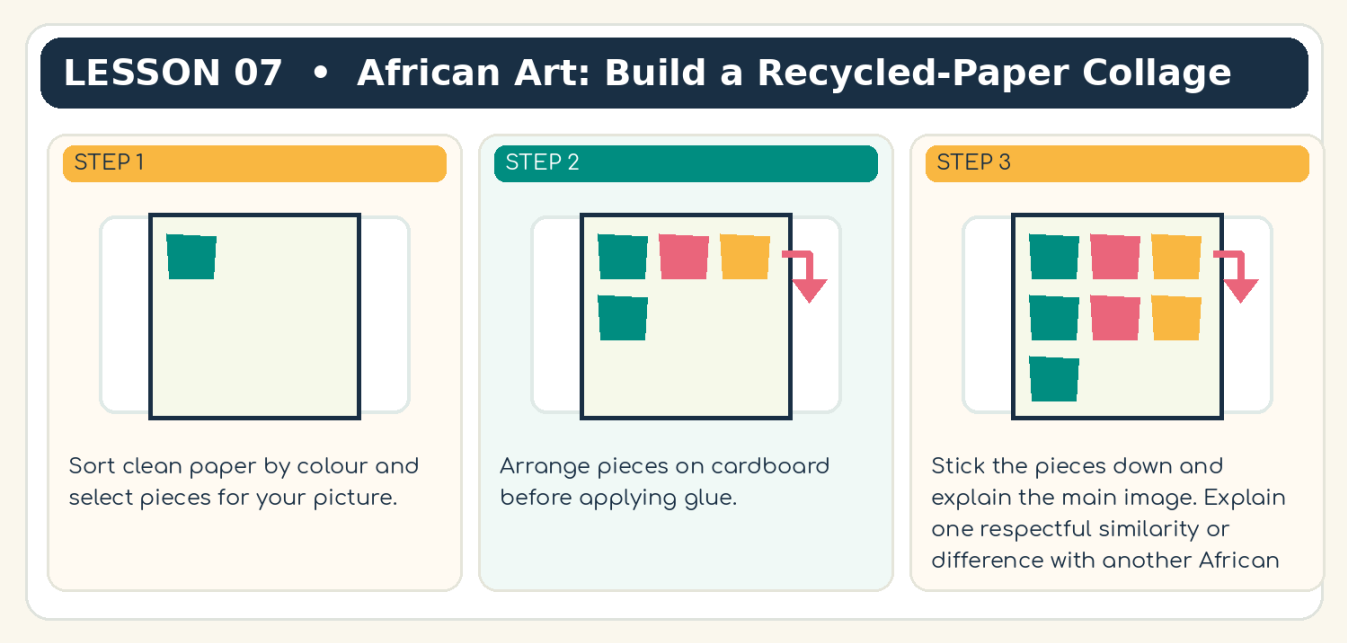

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 07 • African Art: Build a Recycled-Paper Collage

Visual Arts / Make / Basic 3

Your mission

Today you will reuse materials while arranging an image. You will create a recycled collage using clean scrap paper, glue, cardboard and blunt scissors.

Do it in three steps

1. Sort clean paper by colour and select pieces for your picture.
2. Arrange pieces on cardboard before applying glue.
3. Stick the pieces down and explain the main image. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with communities across Africa; describe cultural similarities and differences across Africa.

Level-up art task

Compare a Ghanaian example with one other African tradition. Explain how you can be inspired by composition while respecting each community's cultural meaning.

Safety and kindness

Use blunt scissors with supervision and never collect dirty waste.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a fixed paper collage and composition and care. Also try this: show which reused material became the focal point.

PLAY • African Art: Build a Recycled-Paper Collage

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about communities across Africa, which materials are listed for “African Art: Build a Recycled-Paper Collage”?

A. clean scrap paper, glue, cardboard and blunt scissors

B. one short class performance and a two-column note

C. voice and a short original two-line phrase

D. soft modelling clay or dough and a washable work mat

2. In work about communities across Africa, which observation or preparation starts “African Art: Build a Recycled-Paper Collage”?

A. Identify one timing or storytelling issue from feedback.

B. Mark four beat spaces with dots on paper.

C. Roll a smooth ball of soft material.

D. Sort clean paper by colour and select pieces for your picture.

3. In work about communities across Africa, what will the learner create or perform in “African Art: Build a Recycled-Paper Collage”?

A. a recycled collage

B. a two-part song plan

C. a silent story

D. a restaged performance

4. In work about communities across Africa, which artistic element is the main focus of “African Art: Build a Recycled-Paper Collage”?

A. sound

B. staging

C. reflection

D. composition

5. In work about communities across Africa, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “African Art: Build a Recycled-Paper Collage”?

A. a fixed paper collage

B. a three-part soundscape

C. a before-and-after artwork comparison

D. a labelled pattern sketch

CHALLENGE • African Art: Build a Recycled-Paper Collage

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about communities across Africa, after the opening action in “African Art: Build a Recycled-Paper Collage”, what is the second step?

A. Try three gestures that communicate the action without words.

B. Sketch two repeated shapes from the cloth onto paper.

C. Pass one strip over then under the base strips.

D. Arrange pieces on cardboard before applying glue.

7. In work about communities across Africa, which closing action completes the three-stage “African Art: Build a Recycled-Paper Collage” activity?

A. Stick the pieces down and explain the main image. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

B. Suggest one useful change and say how to rehearse it.

C. Add one personal variation and explain what it represents.

D. Guide visitors to observe one artwork and ask a respectful question.

8. In work about communities across Africa, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “African Art: Build a Recycled-Paper Collage”?

A. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

B. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

C. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

D. Use blunt scissors with supervision and never collect dirty waste.

9. In work about communities across Africa, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “African Art: Build a Recycled-Paper Collage”?

A. compose a simple shared musical phrase

B. notice how art can carry cultural meaning

C. reuse materials while arranging an image

D. use voice, space and roles to tell a story

10. In work about communities across Africa, for whom is the finished “African Art: Build a Recycled-Paper Collage” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. a person who is never shown the work

B. the materials supplier only

C. only the teacher’s desk

D. gallery visitors

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • African Art: Build a Recycled-Paper Collage

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about communities across Africa, when assessing “African Art: Build a Recycled-Paper Collage”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. steady timing

B. composition and care

C. even walls and balance

D. specific respectful feedback

12. In work about communities across Africa, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “African Art: Build a Recycled-Paper Collage”?

A. use feedback to improve one repeat performance

B. show which reused material became the focal point

C. record group decisions in a simple rehearsal journal

D. teach your phrase to one partner without collisions

13. In work about communities across Africa, which cultural or geographic context guides “African Art: Build a Recycled-Paper Collage” at Basic 3?

A. a place not represented in the African examples

B. only a location outside Africa

C. communities across Africa

D. a place invented by a movie

14. In work about communities across Africa, when you explain “African Art: Build a Recycled-Paper Collage” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a fixed paper collage, supported by what you noticed or changed

B. a guess about composition without checking the finished work

C. a review that ignores the work entirely

D. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

15. In work about communities across Africa, which reason best supports revising your “African Art: Build a Recycled-Paper Collage” work after feedback?

A. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

B. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

C. to improve composition and care

D. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

Artist’s reflection

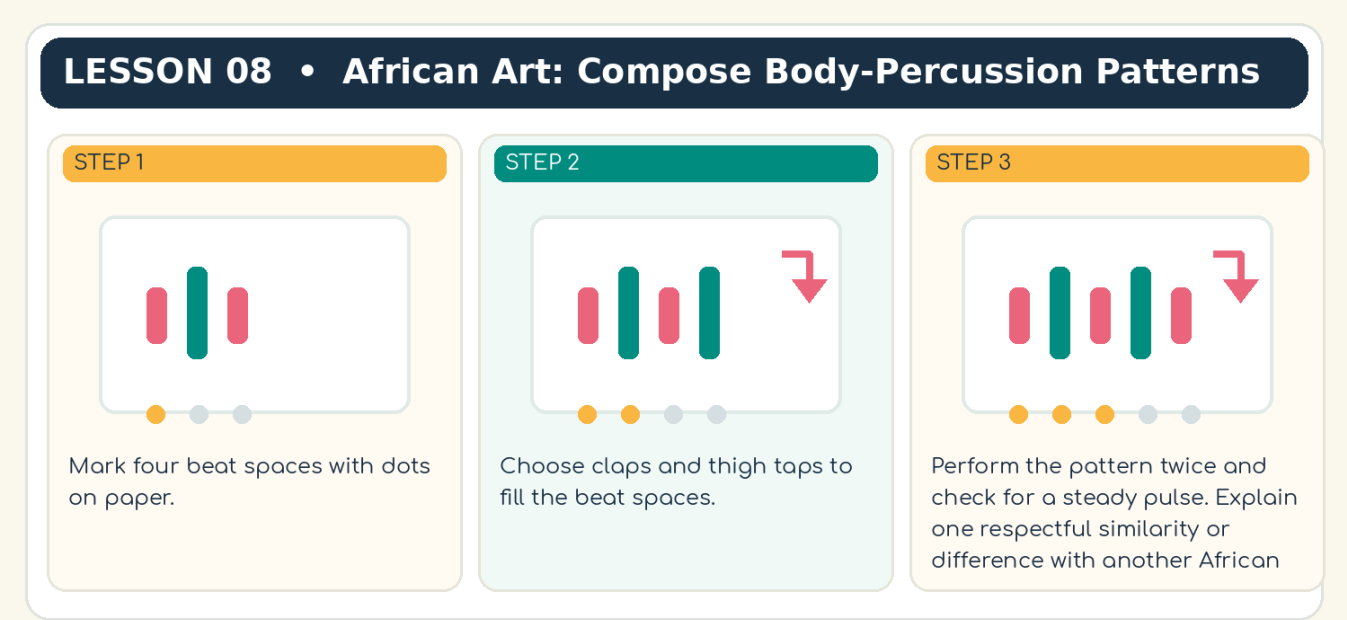

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 08 • African Art: Compose Body-Percussion Patterns

Performing Arts / Make / Basic 3

Your mission

Today you will build and repeat a rhythmic pattern. You will create a body-percussion pattern using hands, feet and a written beat grid.

Do it in three steps

1. Mark four beat spaces with dots on paper.
2. Choose claps and thigh taps to fill the beat spaces.
3. Perform the pattern twice and check for a steady pulse. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with communities across Africa; describe cultural similarities and differences across Africa.

Level-up art task

Compare a Ghanaian example with one other African tradition. Explain how you can be inspired by rhythm while respecting each community's cultural meaning.

Safety and kindness

Tap gently and leave space between performers.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a repeatable beat grid and performance and sequence and control. Also try this: ask a partner to clap the pattern from your grid.

PLAY • African Art: Compose Body-Percussion Patterns

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about communities across Africa, which materials are listed for “African Art: Compose Body-Percussion Patterns”?

A. an earlier performance plan and feedback from classmates

B. completed learner artworks, labels and removable tape

C. voice and a short original two-line phrase

D. hands, feet and a written beat grid

2. In work about communities across Africa, which observation or preparation starts “African Art: Compose Body-Percussion Patterns”?

A. Observe the pot rim, body, base and any decoration.

B. List three sounds heard in the chosen setting.

C. Choose finished works and give each a title label.

D. Mark four beat spaces with dots on paper.

3. In work about communities across Africa, what will the learner create or perform in “African Art: Compose Body-Percussion Patterns”?

A. a body-percussion pattern

B. a two-part song plan

C. a motif study

D. a short drama scene

4. In work about communities across Africa, which artistic element is the main focus of “African Art: Compose Body-Percussion Patterns”?

A. colour

B. rhythm

C. repetition

D. appreciation

5. In work about communities across Africa, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “African Art: Compose Body-Percussion Patterns”?

A. a three-gesture story

B. a repeatable beat grid and performance

C. a three-part soundscape

D. an improved final performance

CHALLENGE • African Art: Compose Body-Percussion Patterns

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about communities across Africa, after the opening action in “African Art: Compose Body-Percussion Patterns”, what is the second step?

A. Try three gestures that communicate the action without words.

B. Choose claps and thigh taps to fill the beat spaces.

C. Record one strength in timing, expression or teamwork.

D. Place the works where viewers can see them without crowding.

7. In work about communities across Africa, which closing action completes the three-stage “African Art: Compose Body-Percussion Patterns” activity?

A. Perform the pulse with a partner, starting and stopping together.

B. Perform the pattern twice and check for a steady pulse. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

C. Restage the piece and explain the difference between the two versions.

D. Add a few large readable words and check the layout.

8. In work about communities across Africa, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “African Art: Compose Body-Percussion Patterns”?

A. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

B. Tap gently and leave space between performers.

C. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

D. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

9. In work about communities across Africa, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “African Art: Compose Body-Percussion Patterns”?

A. compose a simple shared musical phrase

B. connect the form of a useful object to its function

C. build and repeat a rhythmic pattern

D. strengthen performance through reflection

10. In work about communities across Africa, for whom is the finished “African Art: Compose Body-Percussion Patterns” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. only the teacher’s desk

B. the materials supplier only

C. peer musicians

D. a person who is never shown the work

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • African Art: Compose Body-Percussion Patterns

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about communities across Africa, when assessing “African Art: Compose Body-Percussion Patterns”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. clear turns

B. contrast and choice

C. clear purposeful revision

D. sequence and control

12. In work about communities across Africa, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “African Art: Compose Body-Percussion Patterns”?

A. compare the rim before and after smoothing

B. compare two interpretations with evidence

C. ask a partner to clap the pattern from your grid

D. perform the revised line for a second audience

13. In work about communities across Africa, which cultural or geographic context guides “African Art: Compose Body-Percussion Patterns” at Basic 3?

A. communities across Africa

B. a place not represented in the African examples

C. only a location outside Africa

D. a place invented by a movie

14. In work about communities across Africa, when you explain “African Art: Compose Body-Percussion Patterns” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

B. a repeatable beat grid and performance, supported by what you noticed or changed

C. a guess about rhythm without checking the finished work

D. a review that ignores the work entirely

15. In work about communities across Africa, which reason best supports revising your “African Art: Compose Body-Percussion Patterns” work after feedback?

A. to improve sequence and control

B. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

C. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

D. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

Artist’s reflection

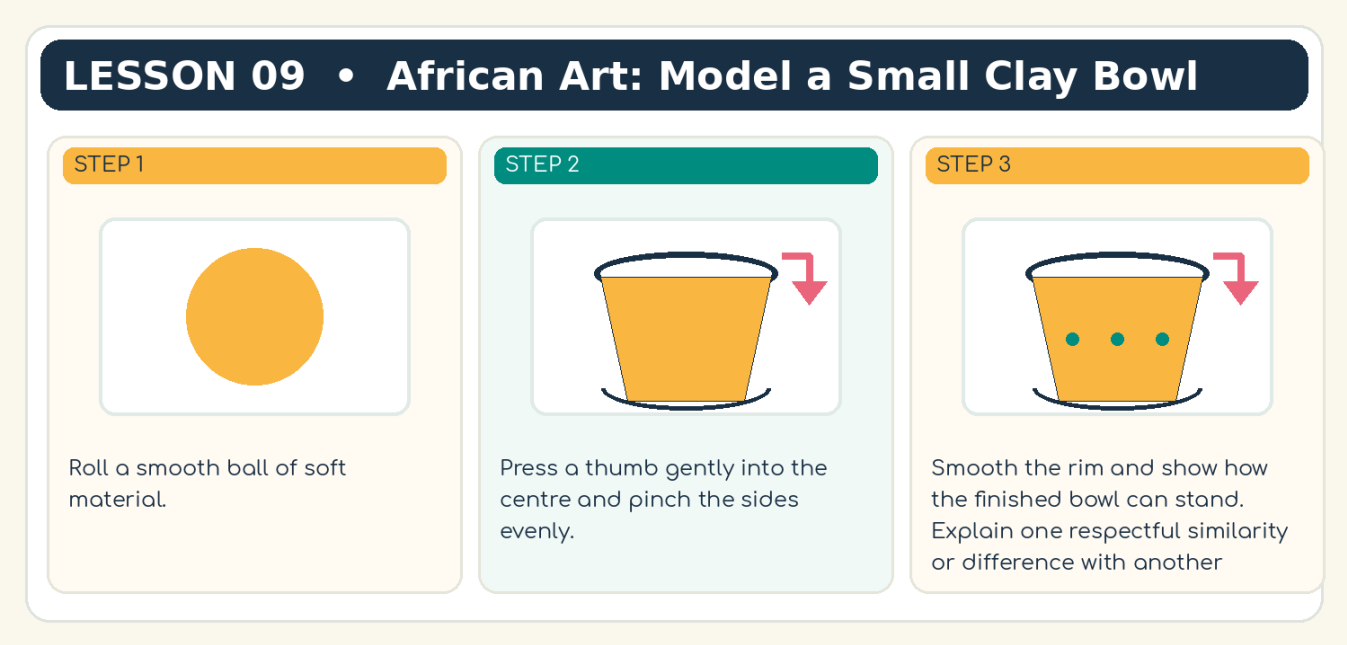

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 09 • African Art: Model a Small Clay Bowl

Visual Arts / Make / Basic 3

Your mission

Today you will shape a useful object from malleable material. You will create a pinch pot using soft modelling clay or dough and a washable work mat.

Do it in three steps

1. Roll a smooth ball of soft material.
2. Press a thumb gently into the centre and pinch the sides evenly.
3. Smooth the rim and show how the finished bowl can stand. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with communities across Africa; describe cultural similarities and differences across Africa.

Level-up art task

Compare a Ghanaian example with one other African tradition. Explain how you can be inspired by volume while respecting each community's cultural meaning.

Safety and kindness

Do not eat modelling material; wash hands after use.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a stable pinched bowl and even walls and balance. Also try this: compare the rim before and after smoothing.

PLAY • African Art: Model a Small Clay Bowl

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about communities across Africa, which materials are listed for “African Art: Model a Small Clay Bowl”?

   A. a short original dialogue and simple safe props

   B. one displayed artwork and an observation note

   C. an open space and a gentle drum pulse

   D. soft modelling clay or dough and a washable work mat

2. In work about communities across Africa, which observation or preparation starts “African Art: Model a Small Clay Bowl”?

   A. Choose one clear message about a community need.

   B. Roll a smooth ball of soft material.

   C. Choose finished works and give each a title label.

   D. Identify one timing or storytelling issue from feedback.

3. In work about communities across Africa, what will the learner create or perform in “African Art: Model a Small Clay Bowl”?

   A. a two-part song plan

   B. a functional pot sketch

   C. a restaged performance

   D. a pinch pot

4. In work about communities across Africa, which artistic element is the main focus of “African Art: Model a Small Clay Bowl”?

   A. staging

   B. gesture

   C. volume

   D. visual communication

5. In work about communities across Africa, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “African Art: Model a Small Clay Bowl”?

   A. a before-and-after artwork comparison

   B. a repeatable beat grid and performance

   C. an annotated pot drawing

   D. a stable pinched bowl

CHALLENGE • African Art: Model a Small Clay Bowl

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about communities across Africa, after the opening action in “African Art: Model a Small Clay Bowl”, what is the second step?

A. Press a thumb gently into the centre and pinch the sides evenly.

B. Practise lines with clear facial expression and turn-taking.

C. Place the works where viewers can see them without crowding.

D. Arrange pieces on cardboard before applying glue.

7. In work about communities across Africa, which closing action completes the three-stage “African Art: Model a Small Clay Bowl” activity?

A. Make the change and explain how the second version improved.

B. Smooth the rim and show how the finished bowl can stand. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

C. Perform the sounds in order to represent morning, afternoon or evening.

D. Restage the piece and explain the difference between the two versions.

8. In work about communities across Africa, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “African Art: Model a Small Clay Bowl”?

A. Do not eat modelling material; wash hands after use.

B. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

C. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

D. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

9. In work about communities across Africa, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “African Art: Model a Small Clay Bowl”?

A. appreciate work using evidence

B. present performance work as a team

C. represent a place through organised sounds

D. shape a useful object from malleable material

10. In work about communities across Africa, for whom is the finished “African Art: Model a Small Clay Bowl” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. a person who is never shown the work

B. only the teacher’s desk

C. art group

D. the materials supplier only

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • African Art: Model a Small Clay Bowl

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about communities across Africa, when assessing “African Art: Model a Small Clay Bowl”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. sequence and control

B. even walls and balance

C. shape and meaning

D. expression and clarity

12. In work about communities across Africa, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “African Art: Model a Small Clay Bowl”?

A. compare the rim before and after smoothing

B. invite the original reviewer to compare the two versions

C. ask a partner to clap the pattern from your grid

D. name one place you see a similar pattern in daily life

13. In work about communities across Africa, which cultural or geographic context guides “African Art: Model a Small Clay Bowl” at Basic 3?

A. a place invented by a movie

B. a place not represented in the African examples

C. communities across Africa

D. only a location outside Africa

14. In work about communities across Africa, when you explain “African Art: Model a Small Clay Bowl” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a guess about volume without checking the finished work

B. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

C. a review that ignores the work entirely

D. a stable pinched bowl, supported by what you noticed or changed

15. In work about communities across Africa, which reason best supports revising your “African Art: Model a Small Clay Bowl” work after feedback?

A. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

B. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

C. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

D. to improve even walls and balance

Artist’s reflection

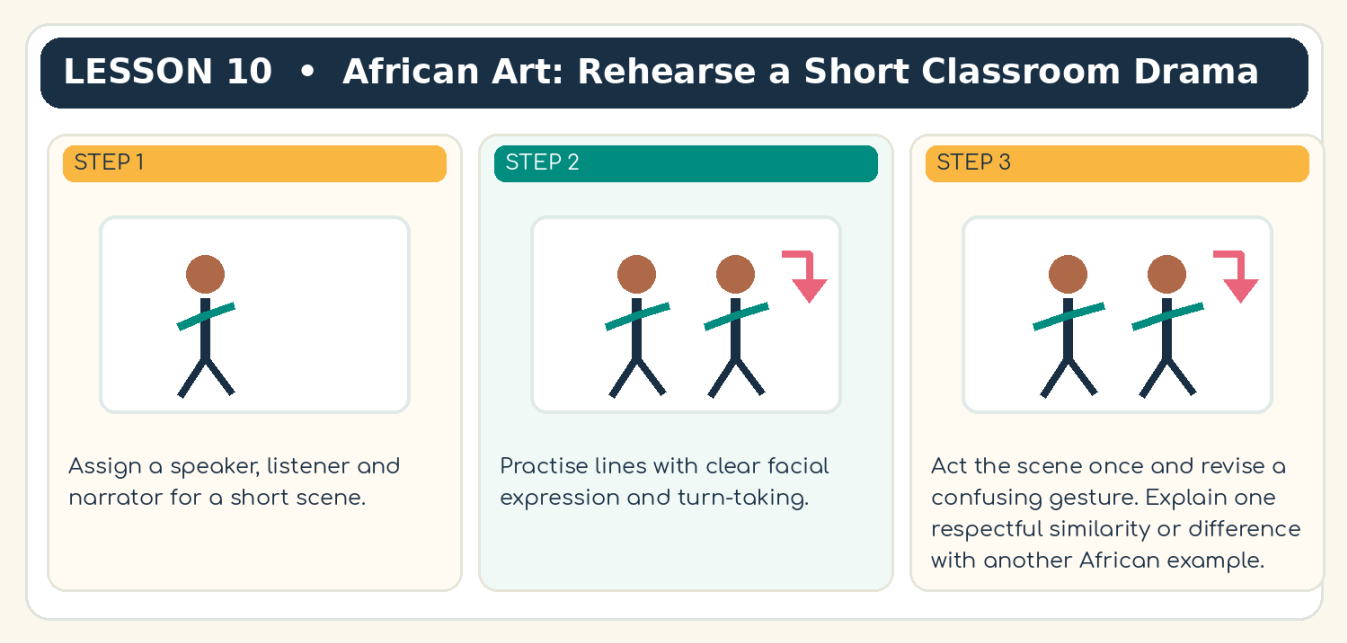

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 10 • African Art: Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama

Performing Arts / Make / Basic 3

Your mission

Today you will use voice, space and roles to tell a story. You will create a short drama scene using a short original dialogue and simple safe props.

Do it in three steps

1. Assign a speaker, listener and narrator for a short scene.
2. Practise lines with clear facial expression and turn-taking.
3. Act the scene once and revise a confusing gesture. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with communities across Africa; describe cultural similarities and differences across Africa.

Level-up art task

Compare a Ghanaian example with one other African tradition. Explain how you can be inspired by drama while respecting each community's cultural meaning.

Safety and kindness

Keep props light and never imitate dangerous actions.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a rehearsed scene with understandable roles and clarity and teamwork. Also try this: perform the revised line for a second audience.

PLAY • African Art: Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about communities across Africa, which materials are listed for “African Art: Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama”?

A. voice, clapping and safe non-breakable sound makers

B. crayons, scrap paper and a drawing sheet

C. a short original dialogue and simple safe props

D. voice and a short original two-line phrase

2. In work about communities across Africa, which observation or preparation starts “African Art: Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama”?

A. Read or listen to one helpful comment on the draft.

B. Choose a character and identify one important action.

C. Assign a speaker, listener and narrator for a short scene.

D. Write or say a short call about caring for people or places.

3. In work about communities across Africa, what will the learner create or perform in “African Art: Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama”?

A. a sound story

B. a performance showcase

C. a short drama scene

D. an artwork response

4. In work about communities across Africa, which artistic element is the main focus of “African Art: Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama”?

A. reflection

B. volume

C. rhythm

D. drama

5. In work about communities across Africa, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “African Art: Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama”?

A. a rehearsed scene with understandable roles

B. a labelled pattern sketch

C. an annotated pot drawing

D. an improved final performance

CHALLENGE • African Art: Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about communities across Africa, after the opening action in “African Art: Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama”, what is the second step?

A. Pass one strip over then under the base strips.

B. Echo the pulse by tapping softly four times.

C. Invent an easy response of similar length.

D. Practise lines with clear facial expression and turn-taking.

7. In work about communities across Africa, which closing action completes the three-stage “African Art: Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama” activity?

A. Perform the phrase twice with control and enough personal space.

B. Circle the most readable combination and plan where to use it.

C. Practise taking turns as leader and responding group.

D. Act the scene once and revise a confusing gesture. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

8. In work about communities across Africa, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “African Art: Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama”?

A. Keep props light and never imitate dangerous actions.

B. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

C. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

D. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

9. In work about communities across Africa, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “African Art: Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama”?

A. reuse materials while arranging an image

B. recognise pulse and respectful listening

C. notice how art can carry cultural meaning

D. use voice, space and roles to tell a story

10. In work about communities across Africa, for whom is the finished “African Art: Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. a person who is never shown the work

B. class audience

C. only the teacher’s desk

D. the materials supplier only

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • African Art: Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about communities across Africa, when assessing “African Art: Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. clear turns

B. improvement and cooperation

C. clarity and teamwork

D. organisation and respect

12. In work about communities across Africa, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “African Art: Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama”?

A. perform the revised line for a second audience

B. ask a partner which colour is easiest to see

C. ask a partner to clap the pattern from your grid

D. compare the rim before and after smoothing

13. In work about communities across Africa, which cultural or geographic context guides “African Art: Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama” at Basic 3?

A. only a location outside Africa

B. communities across Africa

C. a place not represented in the African examples

D. a place invented by a movie

14. In work about communities across Africa, when you explain “African Art: Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a guess about drama without checking the finished work

B. a rehearsed scene with understandable roles, supported by what you noticed or changed

C. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

D. a review that ignores the work entirely

15. In work about communities across Africa, which reason best supports revising your “African Art: Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama” work after feedback?

A. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

B. to improve clarity and teamwork

C. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

D. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

Artist’s reflection

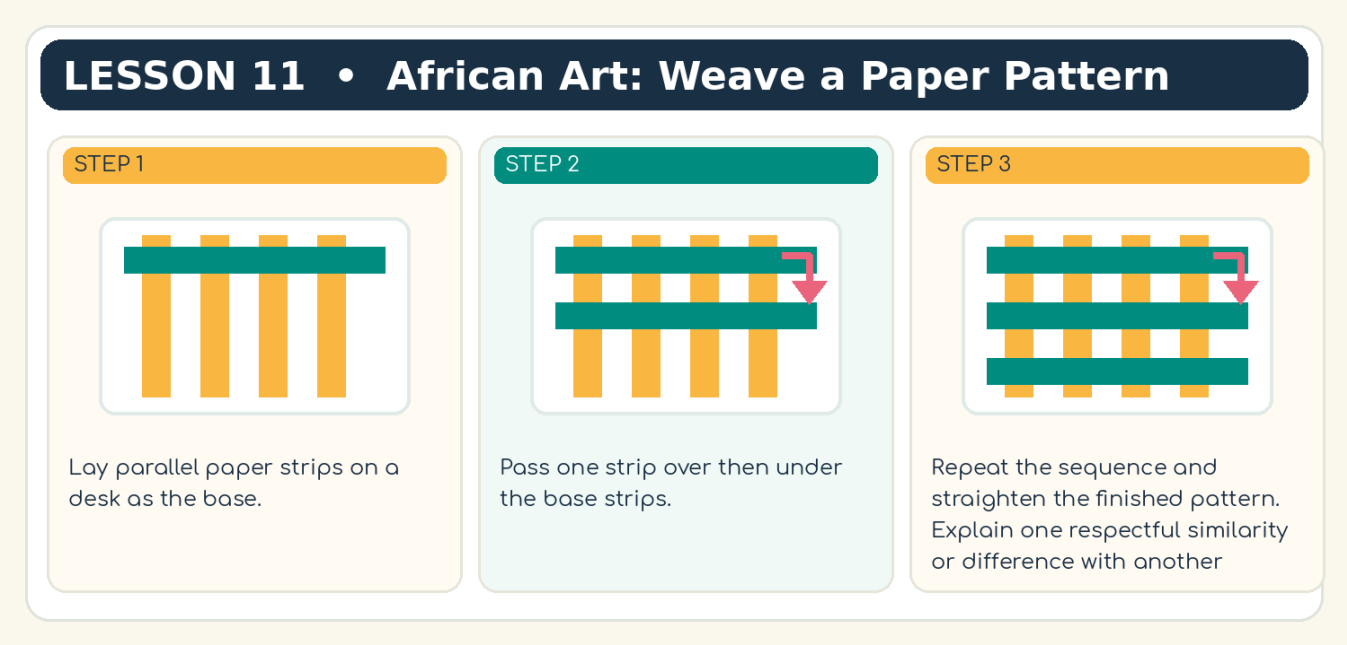

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 11 • African Art: Weave a Paper Pattern

Visual Arts / Make / Basic 3

Your mission

Today you will explore repeated structure through weaving. You will create a woven paper mat using two contrasting paper colours and pre-cut strips.

Do it in three steps

1. Lay parallel paper strips on a desk as the base.
2. Pass one strip over then under the base strips.
3. Repeat the sequence and straighten the finished pattern. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with communities across Africa; describe cultural similarities and differences across Africa.

Level-up art task

Compare a Ghanaian example with one other African tradition. Explain how you can be inspired by repetition while respecting each community's cultural meaning.

Safety and kindness

Use pre-cut strips or blunt scissors with supervision.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for an over-under paper mat and regular pattern. Also try this: name one place you see a similar pattern in daily life.

PLAY • African Art: Weave a Paper Pattern

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about communities across Africa, which materials are listed for “African Art: Weave a Paper Pattern”?

A. voice and a short original two-line phrase

B. two contrasting paper colours and pre-cut strips

C. a short community story and an open safe space

D. completed learner artworks, labels and removable tape

2. In work about communities across Africa, which observation or preparation starts “African Art: Weave a Paper Pattern”?

A. Lay parallel paper strips on a desk as the base.

B. Assign a speaker, listener and narrator for a short scene.

C. Sort clean paper by colour and select pieces for your picture.

D. Agree on the order of songs, dance or drama items.

3. In work about communities across Africa, what will the learner create or perform in “African Art: Weave a Paper Pattern”?

A. a rhythmic echo

B. a recycled collage

C. a woven paper mat

D. a motif study

4. In work about communities across Africa, which artistic element is the main focus of “African Art: Weave a Paper Pattern”?

A. movement

B. repetition

C. reflection

D. gesture

5. In work about communities across Africa, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “African Art: Weave a Paper Pattern”?

A. a repeatable dance phrase

B. a labelled colour test

C. a rehearsed scene with understandable roles

D. an over-under paper mat

CHALLENGE • African Art: Weave a Paper Pattern

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about communities across Africa, after the opening action in “African Art: Weave a Paper Pattern”, what is the second step?

A. Pass one strip over then under the base strips.

B. Sketch two repeated shapes from the cloth onto paper.

C. Choose claps and thigh taps to fill the beat spaces.

D. Try three gestures that communicate the action without words.

7. In work about communities across Africa, which closing action completes the three-stage “African Art: Weave a Paper Pattern” activity?

A. Guide visitors to observe one artwork and ask a respectful question.

B. Repeat the sequence and straighten the finished pattern. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

C. Circle the most readable combination and plan where to use it.

D. Add one personal variation and explain what it represents.

8. In work about communities across Africa, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “African Art: Weave a Paper Pattern”?

A. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

B. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

C. Use pre-cut strips or blunt scissors with supervision.

D. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

9. In work about communities across Africa, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “African Art: Weave a Paper Pattern”?

A. build and repeat a rhythmic pattern

B. communicate ideas through body movement

C. connect the form of a useful object to its function

D. explore repeated structure through weaving

10. In work about communities across Africa, for whom is the finished “African Art: Weave a Paper Pattern” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. gallery visitors

B. only the teacher’s desk

C. a person who is never shown the work

D. the materials supplier only

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • African Art: Weave a Paper Pattern

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about communities across Africa, when assessing “African Art: Weave a Paper Pattern”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. clarity and teamwork

B. sequence and expression

C. regular pattern

D. steady timing

12. In work about communities across Africa, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “African Art: Weave a Paper Pattern”?

A. invite the original reviewer to compare the two versions

B. name one place you see a similar pattern in daily life

C. swap roles between performer and audience

D. perform the revised line for a second audience

13. In work about communities across Africa, which cultural or geographic context guides “African Art: Weave a Paper Pattern” at Basic 3?

A. communities across Africa

B. only a location outside Africa

C. a place invented by a movie

D. a place not represented in the African examples

14. In work about communities across Africa, when you explain “African Art: Weave a Paper Pattern” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

B. a guess about repetition without checking the finished work

C. an over-under paper mat, supported by what you noticed or changed

D. a review that ignores the work entirely

15. In work about communities across Africa, which reason best supports revising your “African Art: Weave a Paper Pattern” work after feedback?

A. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

B. to improve regular pattern

C. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

D. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

Artist’s reflection

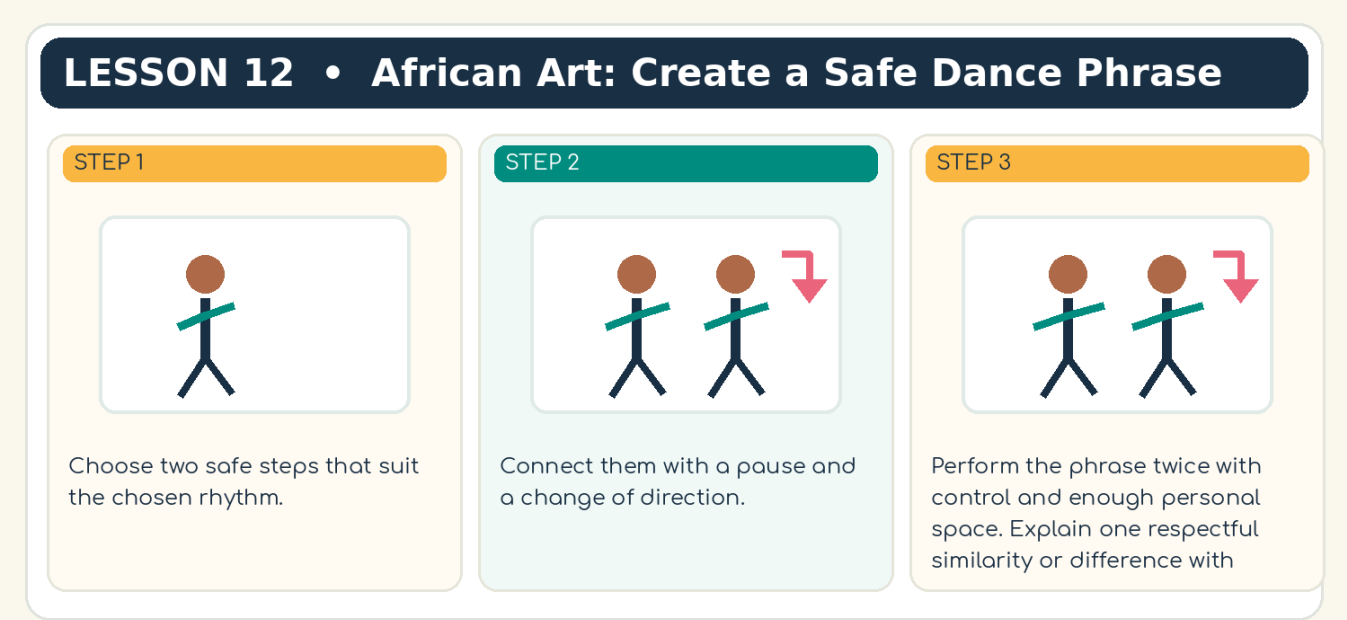

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 12 • African Art: Create a Safe Dance Phrase

Performing Arts / Make / Basic 3

Your mission

Today you will coordinate movement with music. You will create a short dance composition using an open space and a gentle drum pulse.

Do it in three steps

1. Choose two safe steps that suit the chosen rhythm.
2. Connect them with a pause and a change of direction.
3. Perform the phrase twice with control and enough personal space. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with communities across Africa; describe cultural similarities and differences across Africa.

Level-up art task

Compare a Ghanaian example with one other African tradition. Explain how you can be inspired by movement while respecting each community's cultural meaning.

Safety and kindness

Never force a jump, spin or movement that causes pain.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a repeatable dance phrase and timing and safe space. Also try this: teach your phrase to one partner without collisions.

PLAY • African Art: Create a Safe Dance Phrase

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about communities across Africa, which materials are listed for “African Art: Create a Safe Dance Phrase”?

A. an open space and a gentle drum pulse

B. a patterned fabric scrap, paper and crayons

C. clean scrap paper, glue, cardboard and blunt scissors

D. a short community story and an open safe space

2. In work about communities across Africa, which observation or preparation starts “African Art: Create a Safe Dance Phrase”?

A. Choose one clear message about a community need.

B. Identify one timing or storytelling issue from feedback.

C. List three sounds heard in the chosen setting.

D. Choose two safe steps that suit the chosen rhythm.

3. In work about communities across Africa, what will the learner create or perform in “African Art: Create a Safe Dance Phrase”?

A. a body-percussion pattern

B. a short dance composition

C. a silent story

D. a functional pot sketch

4. In work about communities across Africa, which artistic element is the main focus of “African Art: Create a Safe Dance Phrase”?

A. pattern

B. gesture

C. movement

D. visual communication

5. In work about communities across Africa, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “African Art: Create a Safe Dance Phrase”?

A. a labelled and accessible classroom display

B. an annotated pot drawing

C. a repeatable dance phrase

D. a labelled pattern sketch

CHALLENGE • African Art: Create a Safe Dance Phrase

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about communities across Africa, after the opening action in “African Art: Create a Safe Dance Phrase”, what is the second step?

A. Connect them with a pause and a change of direction.

B. Choose one change that supports the artwork’s purpose.

C. Sketch two repeated shapes from the cloth onto paper.

D. Echo the pulse by tapping softly four times.

7. In work about communities across Africa, which closing action completes the three-stage “African Art: Create a Safe Dance Phrase” activity?

A. Perform the sounds in order to represent morning, afternoon or evening.

B. Add one personal variation and explain what it represents.

C. Perform the phrase twice with control and enough personal space. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

D. Present the item and thank the audience at the end.

8. In work about communities across Africa, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “African Art: Create a Safe Dance Phrase”?

A. Never force a jump, spin or movement that causes pain.

B. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

C. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

D. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

9. In work about communities across Africa, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “African Art: Create a Safe Dance Phrase”?

A. connect the form of a useful object to its function

B. appreciate work using evidence

C. explore repeated structure through weaving

D. coordinate movement with music

10. In work about communities across Africa, for whom is the finished “African Art: Create a Safe Dance Phrase” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. only the teacher’s desk

B. a person who is never shown the work

C. the materials supplier only

D. class audience

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • African Art: Create a Safe Dance Phrase

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about communities across Africa, when assessing “African Art: Create a Safe Dance Phrase”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. timing and safe space

B. organisation and care

C. sequence and expression

D. composition and care

12. In work about communities across Africa, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “African Art: Create a Safe Dance Phrase”?

A. teach your phrase to one partner without collisions

B. compare the pattern with a friend’s observation

C. use feedback to improve one repeat performance

D. let a second group test whether the response is easy to learn

13. In work about communities across Africa, which cultural or geographic context guides “African Art: Create a Safe Dance Phrase” at Basic 3?

A. a place invented by a movie

B. a place not represented in the African examples

C. only a location outside Africa

D. communities across Africa

14. In work about communities across Africa, when you explain “African Art: Create a Safe Dance Phrase” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

B. a guess about movement without checking the finished work

C. a review that ignores the work entirely

D. a repeatable dance phrase, supported by what you noticed or changed

15. In work about communities across Africa, which reason best supports revising your “African Art: Create a Safe Dance Phrase” work after feedback?

A. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

B. to improve timing and safe space

C. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

D. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

Artist’s reflection

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 13 • African Art: Design a Community-Care Poster

Visual Arts / Make / Basic 3

Your mission

Today you will use art to communicate a helpful message. You will create a public message poster using paper, pencils, coloured pencils and a ruler.

Do it in three steps

1. Choose one clear message about a community need.
2. Draw a bold image that supports the message.
3. Add a few large readable words and check the layout. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with communities across Africa; describe cultural similarities and differences across Africa.

Level-up art task

Compare a Ghanaian example with one other African tradition. Explain how you can be inspired by visual communication while respecting each community's cultural meaning.

Safety and kindness

Use fictional names and do not display anyone's private information.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a readable community poster and message and readability. Also try this: ask classmates what action the poster encourages.

PLAY • African Art: Design a Community-Care Poster

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about communities across Africa, which materials are listed for “African Art: Design a Community-Care Poster”?

A. an earlier performance plan and feedback from classmates

B. one displayed artwork and an observation note

C. hands, feet and a written beat grid

D. paper, pencils, coloured pencils and a ruler

2. In work about communities across Africa, which observation or preparation starts “African Art: Design a Community-Care Poster”?

A. Mark four beat spaces with dots on paper.

B. Choose a character and identify one important action.

C. Choose one clear message about a community need.

D. Choose three colours that suit your chosen message.

3. In work about communities across Africa, what will the learner create or perform in “African Art: Design a Community-Care Poster”?

A. a functional pot sketch

B. an artwork response

C. a public message poster

D. a woven paper mat

4. In work about communities across Africa, which artistic element is the main focus of “African Art: Design a Community-Care Poster”?

A. pattern

B. visual communication

C. performance appraisal

D. gesture

5. In work about communities across Africa, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “African Art: Design a Community-Care Poster”?

A. a repeatable dance phrase

B. a labelled and accessible classroom display

C. a readable community poster

D. a before-and-after artwork comparison

CHALLENGE • African Art: Design a Community-Care Poster

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about communities across Africa, after the opening action in “African Art: Design a Community-Care Poster”, what is the second step?

A. Rehearse a concrete change as a group.

B. Draw a bold image that supports the message.

C. Press a thumb gently into the centre and pinch the sides evenly.

D. Rehearse entry, performance and respectful exit.

7. In work about communities across Africa, which closing action completes the three-stage “African Art: Design a Community-Care Poster” activity?

A. Act the scene once and revise a confusing gesture.

B. Stick the pieces down and explain the main image.

C. Show your gesture sequence while a friend identifies the story.

D. Add a few large readable words and check the layout. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

8. In work about communities across Africa, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “African Art: Design a Community-Care Poster”?

A. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

B. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

C. Use fictional names and do not display anyone’s private information.

D. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

9. In work about communities across Africa, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “African Art: Design a Community-Care Poster”?

A. revise a work thoughtfully

B. use art to communicate a helpful message

C. coordinate movement with music

D. connect the form of a useful object to its function

10. In work about communities across Africa, for whom is the finished “African Art: Design a Community-Care Poster” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. school community

B. the materials supplier only

C. only the teacher’s desk

D. a person who is never shown the work

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • African Art: Design a Community-Care Poster

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about communities across Africa, when assessing “African Art: Design a Community-Care Poster”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. steady timing

B. expression and clarity

C. message and readability

D. sequence and expression

12. In work about communities across Africa, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “African Art: Design a Community-Care Poster”?

A. ask classmates what action the poster encourages

B. invite peers to guess the setting from the sounds

C. invite a partner to lead the next four beats

D. compare the rim before and after smoothing

13. In work about communities across Africa, which cultural or geographic context guides “African Art: Design a Community-Care Poster” at Basic 3?

A. a place invented by a movie

B. a place not represented in the African examples

C. communities across Africa

D. only a location outside Africa

14. In work about communities across Africa, when you explain “African Art: Design a Community-Care Poster” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a review that ignores the work entirely

B. a guess about visual communication without checking the finished work

C. a readable community poster, supported by what you noticed or changed

D. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

15. In work about communities across Africa, which reason best supports revising your “African Art: Design a Community-Care Poster” work after feedback?

A. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

B. to improve message and readability

C. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

D. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

Artist’s reflection

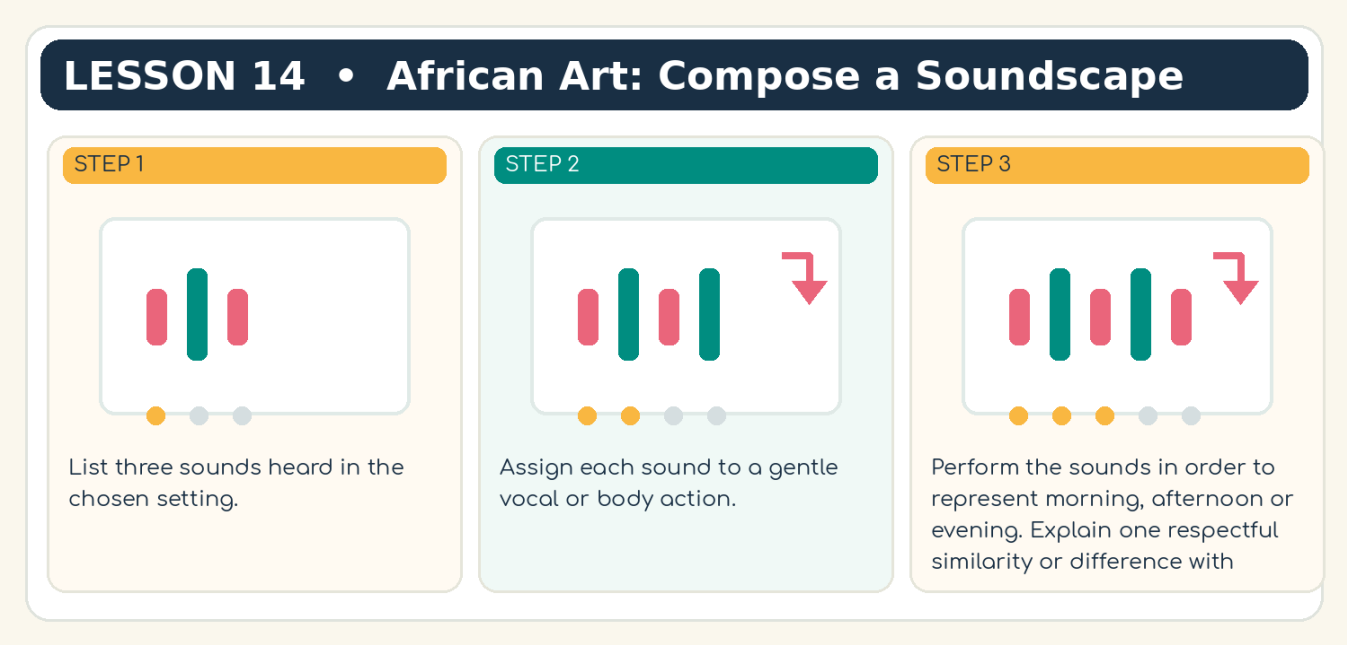

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 14 • African Art: Compose a Soundscape

Performing Arts / Make / Basic 3

Your mission

Today you will represent a place through organised sounds. You will create a sound story using voice, clapping and safe non-breakable sound makers.

Do it in three steps

1. List three sounds heard in the chosen setting.
2. Assign each sound to a gentle vocal or body action.
3. Perform the sounds in order to represent morning, afternoon or evening. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with communities across Africa; describe cultural similarities and differences across Africa.

Level-up art task

Compare a Ghanaian example with one other African tradition. Explain how you can be inspired by sound while respecting each community's cultural meaning.

Safety and kindness

Avoid loud noises, glass objects and dangerous equipment.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a three-part soundscape and sequence and expression. Also try this: invite peers to guess the setting from the sounds.

PLAY • African Art: Compose a Soundscape

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about communities across Africa, which materials are listed for “African Art: Compose a Soundscape”?

A. a class composition, simple programme and safe stage area

B. voice, clapping and safe non-breakable sound makers

C. voice and a short original two-line phrase

D. a picture or safe sample of a clay pot, pencil and paper

2. In work about communities across Africa, which observation or preparation starts “African Art: Compose a Soundscape”?

A. List three sounds heard in the chosen setting.

B. Mark four beat spaces with dots on paper.

C. Agree on the order of songs, dance or drama items.

D. Listen to a short local rhythm and count its pulses.

3. In work about communities across Africa, what will the learner create or perform in “African Art: Compose a Soundscape”?

A. a revised artwork

B. a short dance composition

C. a functional pot sketch

D. a sound story

4. In work about communities across Africa, which artistic element is the main focus of “African Art: Compose a Soundscape”?

A. sound

B. call and response

C. form

D. pattern

5. In work about communities across Africa, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “African Art: Compose a Soundscape”?

A. a labelled and accessible classroom display

B. a coordinated class performance

C. a three-part soundscape

D. a labelled colour test

CHALLENGE • African Art: Compose a Soundscape

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about communities across Africa, after the opening action in “African Art: Compose a Soundscape”, what is the second step?

A. Try three gestures that communicate the action without words.

B. Assign each sound to a gentle vocal or body action.

C. Choose one change that supports the artwork’s purpose.

D. Test the colours in small labelled boxes.

7. In work about communities across Africa, which closing action completes the three-stage “African Art: Compose a Soundscape” activity?

A. Suggest one useful change and say how to rehearse it.

B. Perform the sounds in order to represent morning, afternoon or evening. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

C. Perform the pattern twice and check for a steady pulse.

D. Practise taking turns as leader and responding group.

8. In work about communities across Africa, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “African Art: Compose a Soundscape”?

A. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

B. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

C. Avoid loud noises, glass objects and dangerous equipment.

D. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

9. In work about communities across Africa, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “African Art: Compose a Soundscape”?

A. reuse materials while arranging an image

B. represent a place through organised sounds

C. select colours intentionally

D. coordinate movement with music

10. In work about communities across Africa, for whom is the finished “African Art: Compose a Soundscape” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. class audience

B. only the teacher’s desk

C. a person who is never shown the work

D. the materials supplier only

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • African Art: Compose a Soundscape

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about communities across Africa, when assessing “African Art: Compose a Soundscape”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. contrast and choice

B. sequence and expression

C. shape and meaning

D. timing and safe space

12. In work about communities across Africa, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “African Art: Compose a Soundscape”?

A. invite peers to guess the setting from the sounds

B. ask classmates what action the poster encourages

C. ask a partner which colour is easiest to see

D. compare narrow and wide pot openings

13. In work about communities across Africa, which cultural or geographic context guides “African Art: Compose a Soundscape” at Basic 3?

A. communities across Africa

B. a place not represented in the African examples

C. only a location outside Africa

D. a place invented by a movie

14. In work about communities across Africa, when you explain “African Art: Compose a Soundscape” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a review that ignores the work entirely

B. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

C. a three-part soundscape, supported by what you noticed or changed

D. a guess about sound without checking the finished work

15. In work about communities across Africa, which reason best supports revising your “African Art: Compose a Soundscape” work after feedback?

A. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

B. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

C. to improve sequence and expression

D. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

Artist’s reflection

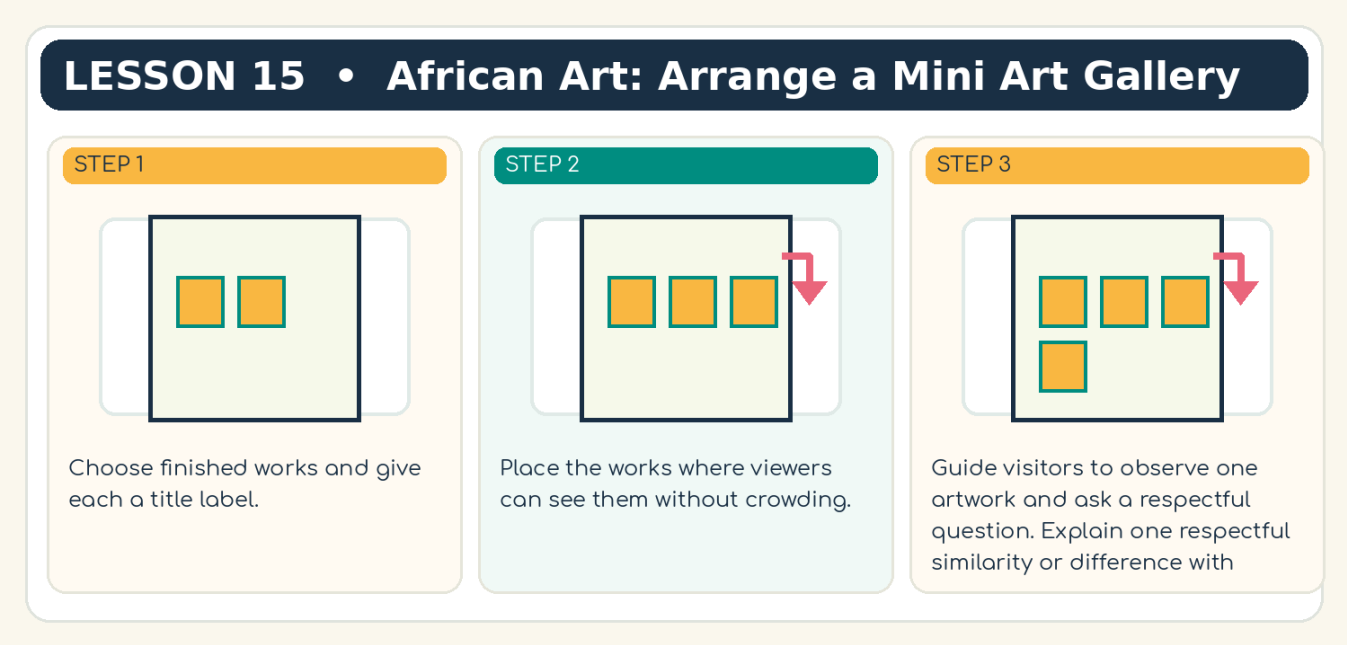

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 15 • African Art: Arrange a Mini Art Gallery

Visual Arts / Display / Basic 3

Your mission

Today you will share artworks with an audience. You will create a mini exhibition using completed learner artworks, labels and removable tape.

Do it in three steps

1. Choose finished works and give each a title label.
2. Place the works where viewers can see them without crowding.
3. Guide visitors to observe one artwork and ask a respectful question. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with communities across Africa; describe cultural similarities and differences across Africa.

Level-up art task

Compare a Ghanaian example with one other African tradition. Explain how you can be inspired by presentation while respecting each community's cultural meaning.

Safety and kindness

Do not hang work near exits or use unsafe climbing equipment.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a labelled and accessible classroom display and organisation and care. Also try this: invite a classmate to describe a favourite visible detail.

PLAY • African Art: Arrange a Mini Art Gallery

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about communities across Africa, which materials are listed for “African Art: Arrange a Mini Art Gallery”?

A. a short original dialogue and simple safe props

B. a short community story and an open safe space

C. one short class performance and a two-column note

D. completed learner artworks, labels and removable tape

2. In work about communities across Africa, which observation or preparation starts “African Art: Arrange a Mini Art Gallery”?

A. Mark four beat spaces with dots on paper.

B. Roll a smooth ball of soft material.

C. Choose finished works and give each a title label.

D. Watch or listen carefully without interrupting.

3. In work about communities across Africa, what will the learner create or perform in “African Art: Arrange a Mini Art Gallery”?

A. a mini exhibition

B. a recycled collage

C. a colour plan

D. a short dance composition

4. In work about communities across Africa, which artistic element is the main focus of “African Art: Arrange a Mini Art Gallery”?

A. repetition

B. presentation

C. composition

D. rhythm

5. In work about communities across Africa, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “African Art: Arrange a Mini Art Gallery”?

A. a rehearsed scene with understandable roles

B. a three-part soundscape

C. an improved final performance

D. a labelled and accessible classroom display

CHALLENGE • African Art: Arrange a Mini Art Gallery

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about communities across Africa, after the opening action in “African Art: Arrange a Mini Art Gallery”, what is the second step?

A. Place the works where viewers can see them without crowding.

B. Arrange pieces on cardboard before applying glue.

C. Pass one strip over then under the base strips.

D. Try three gestures that communicate the action without words.

7. In work about communities across Africa, which closing action completes the three-stage “African Art: Arrange a Mini Art Gallery” activity?

A. Guide visitors to observe one artwork and ask a respectful question. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

B. Perform the sounds in order to represent morning, afternoon or evening.

C. Suggest one useful change and say how to rehearse it.

D. Repeat the sequence and straighten the finished pattern.

8. In work about communities across Africa, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “African Art: Arrange a Mini Art Gallery”?

A. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

B. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

C. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

D. Do not hang work near exits or use unsafe climbing equipment.

9. In work about communities across Africa, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “African Art: Arrange a Mini Art Gallery”?

A. strengthen performance through reflection

B. compose a simple shared musical phrase

C. share artworks with an audience

D. present performance work as a team

10. In work about communities across Africa, for whom is the finished “African Art: Arrange a Mini Art Gallery” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. only the teacher’s desk

B. a person who is never shown the work

C. gallery visitors

D. the materials supplier only

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • African Art: Arrange a Mini Art Gallery

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about communities across Africa, when assessing “African Art: Arrange a Mini Art Gallery”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. sequence and control

B. organisation and care

C. sequence and expression

D. regular pattern

12. In work about communities across Africa, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “African Art: Arrange a Mini Art Gallery”?

A. show which reused material became the focal point

B. let a second group test whether the response is easy to learn

C. invite a classmate to describe a favourite visible detail

D. compare the rim before and after smoothing

13. In work about communities across Africa, which cultural or geographic context guides “African Art: Arrange a Mini Art Gallery” at Basic 3?

A. only a location outside Africa

B. a place not represented in the African examples

C. a place invented by a movie

D. communities across Africa

14. In work about communities across Africa, when you explain “African Art: Arrange a Mini Art Gallery” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a guess about presentation without checking the finished work

B. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

C. a review that ignores the work entirely

D. a labelled and accessible classroom display, supported by what you noticed or changed

15. In work about communities across Africa, which reason best supports revising your “African Art: Arrange a Mini Art Gallery” work after feedback?

A. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

B. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

C. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

D. to improve organisation and care

Artist’s reflection

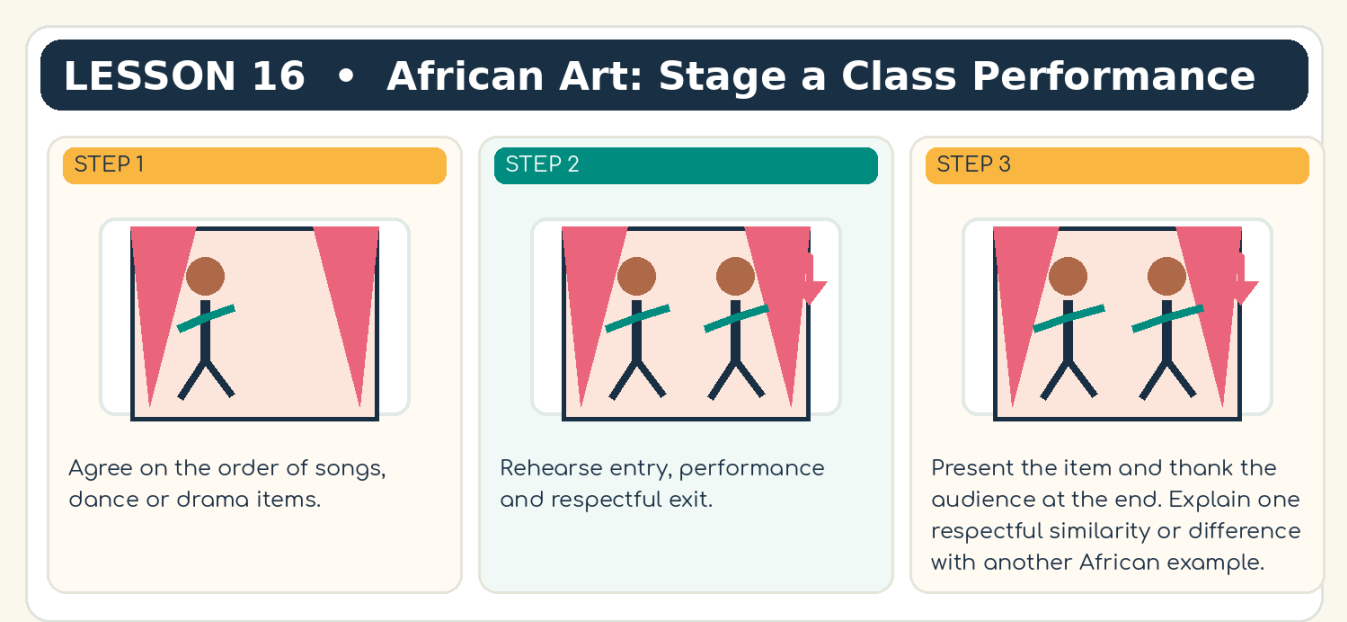

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 16 • African Art: Stage a Class Performance

Performing Arts / Display / Basic 3

Your mission

Today you will present performance work as a team. You will create a performance showcase using a class composition, simple programme and safe stage area.

Do it in three steps

1. Agree on the order of songs, dance or drama items.
2. Rehearse entry, performance and respectful exit.
3. Present the item and thank the audience at the end. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with communities across Africa; describe cultural similarities and differences across Africa.

Level-up art task

Compare a Ghanaian example with one other African tradition. Explain how you can be inspired by staging while respecting each community's cultural meaning.

Safety and kindness

Check floor space, sound levels and exit paths.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a coordinated class performance and organisation and respect. Also try this: assign two pupils the role of hosts.

PLAY • African Art: Stage a Class Performance

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about communities across Africa, which materials are listed for “African Art: Stage a Class Performance”?

A. a short original dialogue and simple safe props

B. hands, a soft drum or a safe plastic container

C. a patterned fabric scrap, paper and crayons

D. a class composition, simple programme and safe stage area

2. In work about communities across Africa, which observation or preparation starts “African Art: Stage a Class Performance”?

A. Write or say a short call about caring for people or places.

B. Lay parallel paper strips on a desk as the base.

C. Choose two safe steps that suit the chosen rhythm.

D. Agree on the order of songs, dance or drama items.

3. In work about communities across Africa, what will the learner create or perform in “African Art: Stage a Class Performance”?

A. a performance showcase

B. a two-part song plan

C. a restaged performance

D. a mini exhibition

4. In work about communities across Africa, which artistic element is the main focus of “African Art: Stage a Class Performance”?

A. form

B. sound

C. staging

D. movement

5. In work about communities across Africa, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “African Art: Stage a Class Performance”?

A. an annotated pot drawing

B. a call and its matching response

C. a repeatable dance phrase

D. a coordinated class performance

CHALLENGE • African Art: Stage a Class Performance

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about communities across Africa, after the opening action in “African Art: Stage a Class Performance”, what is the second step?

A. Invent an easy response of similar length.

B. Test the colours in small labelled boxes.

C. Connect them with a pause and a change of direction.

D. Rehearse entry, performance and respectful exit.

7. In work about communities across Africa, which closing action completes the three-stage “African Art: Stage a Class Performance” activity?

A. Restage the piece and explain the difference between the two versions.

B. Make the change and explain how the second version improved.

C. Perform the pattern twice and check for a steady pulse.

D. Present the item and thank the audience at the end. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

8. In work about communities across Africa, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “African Art: Stage a Class Performance”?

A. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

B. Check floor space, sound levels and exit paths.

C. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

D. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

9. In work about communities across Africa, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “African Art: Stage a Class Performance”?

A. connect the form of a useful object to its function

B. present performance work as a team

C. compose a simple shared musical phrase

D. represent a place through organised sounds

10. In work about communities across Africa, for whom is the finished “African Art: Stage a Class Performance” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. invited audience

B. a person who is never shown the work

C. the materials supplier only

D. only the teacher’s desk

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • African Art: Stage a Class Performance

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about communities across Africa, when assessing “African Art: Stage a Class Performance”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. organisation and respect

B. specific respectful feedback

C. expression and clarity

D. sequence and control

12. In work about communities across Africa, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “African Art: Stage a Class Performance”?

A. record group decisions in a simple rehearsal journal

B. assign two pupils the role of hosts

C. show which reused material became the focal point

D. ask a partner to clap the pattern from your grid

13. In work about communities across Africa, which cultural or geographic context guides “African Art: Stage a Class Performance” at Basic 3?

A. a place not represented in the African examples

B. only a location outside Africa

C. a place invented by a movie

D. communities across Africa

14. In work about communities across Africa, when you explain “African Art: Stage a Class Performance” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

B. a coordinated class performance, supported by what you noticed or changed

C. a guess about staging without checking the finished work

D. a review that ignores the work entirely

15. In work about communities across Africa, which reason best supports revising your “African Art: Stage a Class Performance” work after feedback?

A. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

B. to improve organisation and respect

C. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

D. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

Artist’s reflection

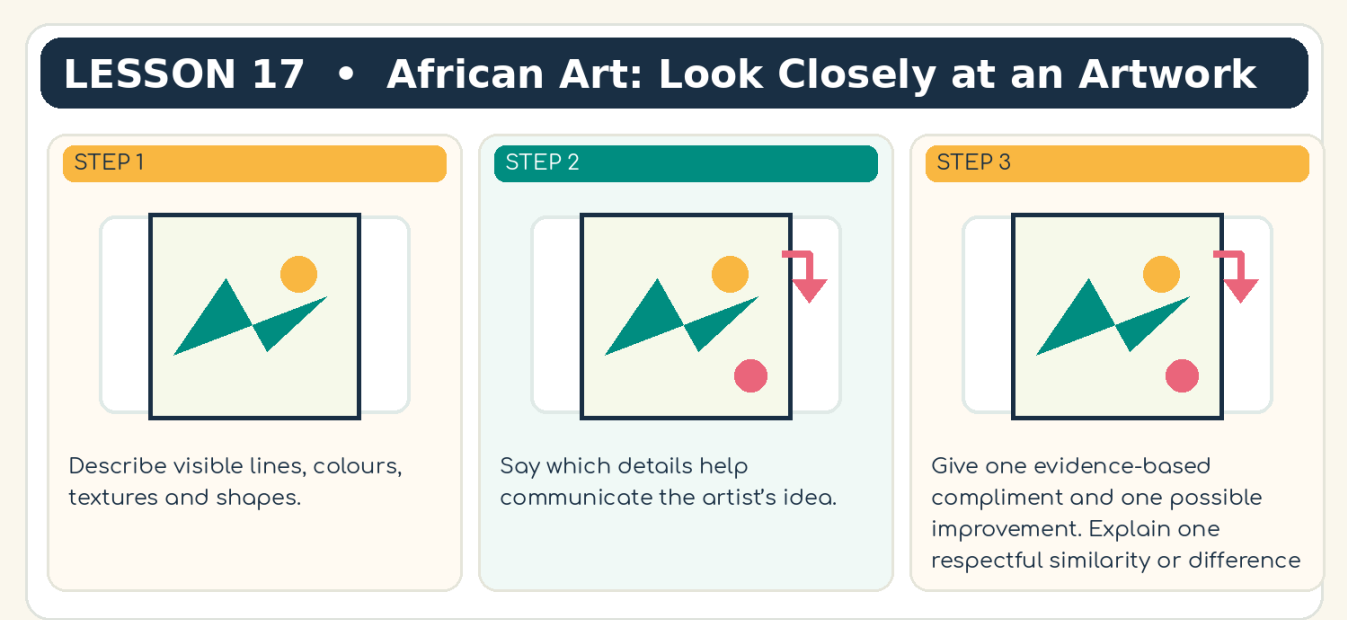

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 17 • African Art: Look Closely at an Artwork

Visual Arts / Appraise / Basic 3

Your mission

Today you will appreciate work using evidence. You will create an artwork response using one displayed artwork and an observation note.

Do it in three steps

1. Describe visible lines, colours, textures and shapes.
2. Say which details help communicate the artist's idea.
3. Give one evidence-based compliment and one possible improvement. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with communities across Africa; describe cultural similarities and differences across Africa.

Level-up art task

Compare a Ghanaian example with one other African tradition. Explain how you can be inspired by appreciation while respecting each community's cultural meaning.

Safety and kindness

Discuss the artwork kindly, not the learner's personal traits.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a reasoned art observation and specific respectful feedback. Also try this: compare two interpretations with evidence.

PLAY • African Art: Look Closely at an Artwork

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about communities across Africa, which materials are listed for “African Art: Look Closely at an Artwork”?

A. voice, clapping and safe non-breakable sound makers

B. a short original dialogue and simple safe props

C. crayons, scrap paper and a drawing sheet

D. one displayed artwork and an observation note

2. In work about communities across Africa, which observation or preparation starts “African Art: Look Closely at an Artwork”?

A. Write or say a short call about caring for people or places.

B. Describe visible lines, colours, textures and shapes.

C. Read or listen to one helpful comment on the draft.

D. Watch or listen carefully without interrupting.

3. In work about communities across Africa, what will the learner create or perform in “African Art: Look Closely at an Artwork”?

A. a functional pot sketch

B. a sound story

C. an artwork response

D. a two-part song plan

4. In work about communities across Africa, which artistic element is the main focus of “African Art: Look Closely at an Artwork”?

A. drama

B. presentation

C. repetition

D. appreciation

5. In work about communities across Africa, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “African Art: Look Closely at an Artwork”?

A. a call and its matching response

B. an annotated pot drawing

C. a reasoned art observation

D. a labelled pattern sketch

CHALLENGE • African Art: Look Closely at an Artwork

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about communities across Africa, after the opening action in “African Art: Look Closely at an Artwork”, what is the second step?

A. Echo the pulse by tapping softly four times.

B. Rehearse a concrete change as a group.

C. Invent an easy response of similar length.

D. Say which details help communicate the artist’s idea.

7. In work about communities across Africa, which closing action completes the three-stage “African Art: Look Closely at an Artwork” activity?

A. Show your gesture sequence while a friend identifies the story.

B. Repeat the sequence and straighten the finished pattern.

C. Give one evidence-based compliment and one possible improvement. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

D. Perform the sounds in order to represent morning, afternoon or evening.

8. In work about communities across Africa, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “African Art: Look Closely at an Artwork”?

A. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

B. Discuss the artwork kindly, not the learner’s personal traits.

C. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

D. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

9. In work about communities across Africa, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “African Art: Look Closely at an Artwork”?

A. reuse materials while arranging an image

B. communicate ideas through body movement

C. present performance work as a team

D. appreciate work using evidence

10. In work about communities across Africa, for whom is the finished “African Art: Look Closely at an Artwork” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. the materials supplier only

B. only the teacher’s desk

C. artist and classmates

D. a person who is never shown the work

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • African Art: Look Closely at an Artwork

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about communities across Africa, when assessing “African Art: Look Closely at an Artwork”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. regular pattern

B. specific respectful feedback

C. organisation and care

D. sequence and expression

12. In work about communities across Africa, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “African Art: Look Closely at an Artwork”?

A. compare narrow and wide pot openings

B. ask classmates what action the poster encourages

C. invite peers to guess the setting from the sounds

D. compare two interpretations with evidence

13. In work about communities across Africa, which cultural or geographic context guides “African Art: Look Closely at an Artwork” at Basic 3?

A. communities across Africa

B. only a location outside Africa

C. a place not represented in the African examples

D. a place invented by a movie

14. In work about communities across Africa, when you explain “African Art: Look Closely at an Artwork” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a guess about appreciation without checking the finished work

B. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

C. a reasoned art observation, supported by what you noticed or changed

D. a review that ignores the work entirely

15. In work about communities across Africa, which reason best supports revising your “African Art: Look Closely at an Artwork” work after feedback?

A. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

B. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

C. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

D. to improve specific respectful feedback

Artist’s reflection

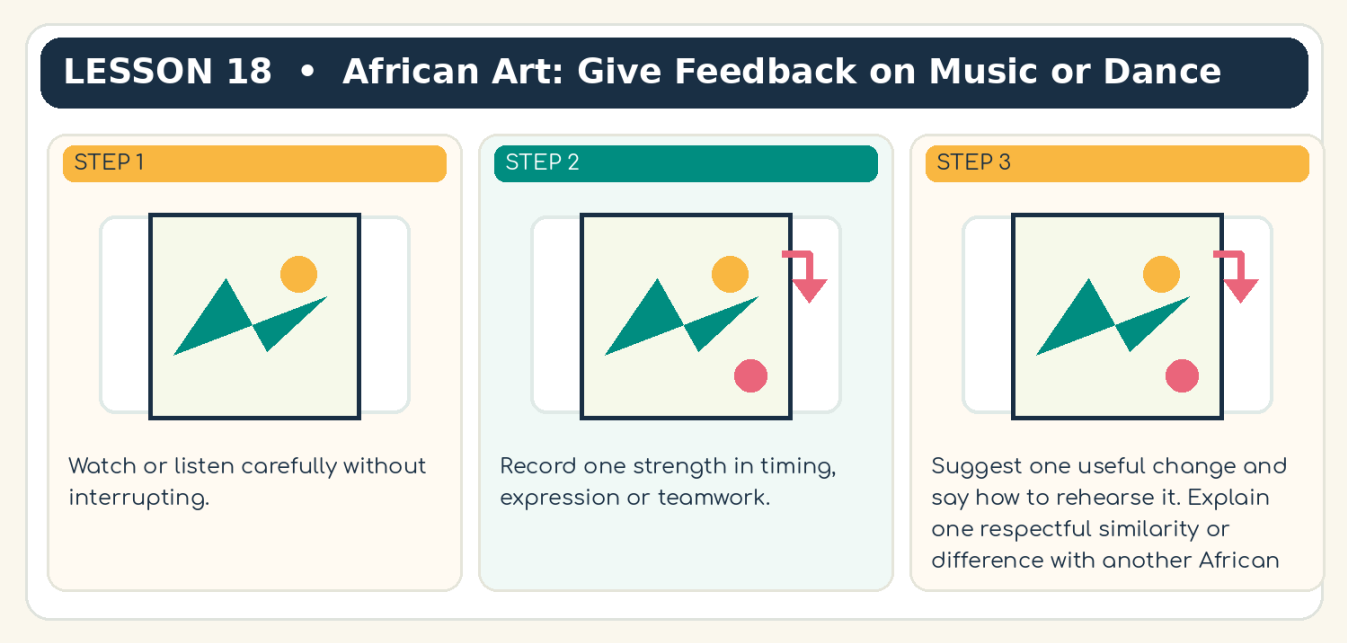

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 18 • African Art: Give Feedback on Music or Dance

Performing Arts / Appraise / Basic 3

Your mission

Today you will use evidence to discuss a performance. You will create a short feedback note using one short class performance and a two-column note.

Do it in three steps

1. Watch or listen carefully without interrupting.
2. Record one strength in timing, expression or teamwork.
3. Suggest one useful change and say how to rehearse it. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with communities across Africa; describe cultural similarities and differences across Africa.

Level-up art task

Compare a Ghanaian example with one other African tradition. Explain how you can be inspired by performance appraisal while respecting each community's cultural meaning.

Safety and kindness

Respond respectfully and avoid personal insults.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a balanced performance review and evidence and kindness. Also try this: use feedback to improve one repeat performance.

PLAY • African Art: Give Feedback on Music or Dance

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about communities across Africa, which materials are listed for “African Art: Give Feedback on Music or Dance”?

A. hands, a soft drum or a safe plastic container

B. one short class performance and a two-column note

C. a first draft, feedback note and drawing materials

D. a picture or safe sample of a clay pot, pencil and paper

2. In work about communities across Africa, which observation or preparation starts “African Art: Give Feedback on Music or Dance”?

A. Watch or listen carefully without interrupting.

B. Sort clean paper by colour and select pieces for your picture.

C. Choose finished works and give each a title label.

D. Agree on the order of songs, dance or drama items.

3. In work about communities across Africa, what will the learner create or perform in “African Art: Give Feedback on Music or Dance”?

A. a short feedback note

B. a performance showcase

C. a silent story

D. a recycled collage

4. In work about communities across Africa, which artistic element is the main focus of “African Art: Give Feedback on Music or Dance”?

A. presentation

B. pattern

C. performance appraisal

D. gesture

5. In work about communities across Africa, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “African Art: Give Feedback on Music or Dance”?

A. a repeatable dance phrase

B. a balanced performance review

C. a fixed paper collage

D. a labelled colour test

CHALLENGE • African Art: Give Feedback on Music or Dance

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about communities across Africa, after the opening action in “African Art: Give Feedback on Music or Dance”, what is the second step?

A. Assign each sound to a gentle vocal or body action.

B. Record one strength in timing, expression or teamwork.

C. Choose one change that supports the artwork’s purpose.

D. Arrange pieces on cardboard before applying glue.

7. In work about communities across Africa, which closing action completes the three-stage “African Art: Give Feedback on Music or Dance” activity?

A. Guide visitors to observe one artwork and ask a respectful question.

B. Add a few large readable words and check the layout.

C. Give one evidence-based compliment and one possible improvement.

D. Suggest one useful change and say how to rehearse it. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

8. In work about communities across Africa, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “African Art: Give Feedback on Music or Dance”?

A. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

B. Respond respectfully and avoid personal insults.

C. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

D. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

9. In work about communities across Africa, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “African Art: Give Feedback on Music or Dance”?

A. use evidence to discuss a performance

B. appreciate work using evidence

C. represent a place through organised sounds

D. revise a work thoughtfully

10. In work about communities across Africa, for whom is the finished “African Art: Give Feedback on Music or Dance” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. only the teacher’s desk

B. performers

C. a person who is never shown the work

D. the materials supplier only

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • African Art: Give Feedback on Music or Dance

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about communities across Africa, when assessing “African Art: Give Feedback on Music or Dance”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. evidence and kindness

B. expression and clarity

C. sequence and control

D. message and readability

12. In work about communities across Africa, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “African Art: Give Feedback on Music or Dance”?

A. use feedback to improve one repeat performance

B. teach your phrase to one partner without collisions

C. record group decisions in a simple rehearsal journal

D. invite peers to guess the setting from the sounds

13. In work about communities across Africa, which cultural or geographic context guides “African Art: Give Feedback on Music or Dance” at Basic 3?

A. a place invented by a movie

B. a place not represented in the African examples

C. communities across Africa

D. only a location outside Africa

14. In work about communities across Africa, when you explain “African Art: Give Feedback on Music or Dance” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a guess about performance appraisal without checking the finished work

B. a balanced performance review, supported by what you noticed or changed

C. a review that ignores the work entirely

D. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

15. In work about communities across Africa, which reason best supports revising your “African Art: Give Feedback on Music or Dance” work after feedback?

A. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

B. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

C. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

D. to improve evidence and kindness

Artist’s reflection

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 19 • African Art: Improve an Artwork with Feedback

Visual Arts / Appraise / Basic 3

Your mission

Today you will revise a work thoughtfully. You will create a revised artwork using a first draft, feedback note and drawing materials.

Do it in three steps

1. Read or listen to one helpful comment on the draft.
2. Choose one change that supports the artwork's purpose.
3. Make the change and explain how the second version improved. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with communities across Africa; describe cultural similarities and differences across Africa.

Level-up art task

Compare a Ghanaian example with one other African tradition. Explain how you can be inspired by reflection while respecting each community's cultural meaning.

Safety and kindness

Keep the original to show growth; use tools safely.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a before-and-after artwork comparison and clear purposeful revision. Also try this: invite the original reviewer to compare the two versions.

PLAY • African Art: Improve an Artwork with Feedback

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about communities across Africa, which materials are listed for “African Art: Improve an Artwork with Feedback”?

A. a short community story and an open safe space

B. an earlier performance plan and feedback from classmates

C. a first draft, feedback note and drawing materials

D. hands, a soft drum or a safe plastic container

2. In work about communities across Africa, which observation or preparation starts “African Art: Improve an Artwork with Feedback”?

A. Choose finished works and give each a title label.

B. List three sounds heard in the chosen setting.

C. Read or listen to one helpful comment on the draft.

D. Write or say a short call about caring for people or places.

3. In work about communities across Africa, what will the learner create or perform in “African Art: Improve an Artwork with Feedback”?

A. a revised artwork

B. an artwork response

C. a short feedback note

D. a sound story

4. In work about communities across Africa, which artistic element is the main focus of “African Art: Improve an Artwork with Feedback”?

A. performance appraisal

B. composition

C. reflection

D. pattern

5. In work about communities across Africa, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “African Art: Improve an Artwork with Feedback”?

A. a before-and-after artwork comparison

B. a stable pinched bowl

C. a labelled colour test

D. a fixed paper collage

CHALLENGE • African Art: Improve an Artwork with Feedback

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about communities across Africa, after the opening action in “African Art: Improve an Artwork with Feedback”, what is the second step?

A. Arrange pieces on cardboard before applying glue.

B. Practise lines with clear facial expression and turn-taking.

C. Choose one change that supports the artwork’s purpose.

D. Rehearse entry, performance and respectful exit.

7. In work about communities across Africa, which closing action completes the three-stage “African Art: Improve an Artwork with Feedback” activity?

A. Repeat the sequence and straighten the finished pattern.

B. Add a label showing how the pot might be used.

C. Practise taking turns as leader and responding group.

D. Make the change and explain how the second version improved. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

8. In work about communities across Africa, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “African Art: Improve an Artwork with Feedback”?

A. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

B. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

C. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

D. Keep the original to show growth; use tools safely.

9. In work about communities across Africa, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “African Art: Improve an Artwork with Feedback”?

A. present performance work as a team

B. coordinate movement with music

C. revise a work thoughtfully

D. shape a useful object from malleable material

10. In work about communities across Africa, for whom is the finished “African Art: Improve an Artwork with Feedback” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. peer reviewer

B. only the teacher’s desk

C. a person who is never shown the work

D. the materials supplier only

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • African Art: Improve an Artwork with Feedback

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about communities across Africa, when assessing “African Art: Improve an Artwork with Feedback”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. even walls and balance

B. clear turns

C. clarity and teamwork

D. clear purposeful revision

12. In work about communities across Africa, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “African Art: Improve an Artwork with Feedback”?

A. swap roles between performer and audience

B. invite the original reviewer to compare the two versions

C. let a second group test whether the response is easy to learn

D. use feedback to improve one repeat performance

13. In work about communities across Africa, which cultural or geographic context guides “African Art: Improve an Artwork with Feedback” at Basic 3?

A. a place invented by a movie

B. communities across Africa

C. a place not represented in the African examples

D. only a location outside Africa

14. In work about communities across Africa, when you explain “African Art: Improve an Artwork with Feedback” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a guess about reflection without checking the finished work

B. a before-and-after artwork comparison, supported by what you noticed or changed

C. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

D. a review that ignores the work entirely

15. In work about communities across Africa, which reason best supports revising your “African Art: Improve an Artwork with Feedback” work after feedback?

A. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

B. to improve clear purposeful revision

C. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

D. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

Artist’s reflection

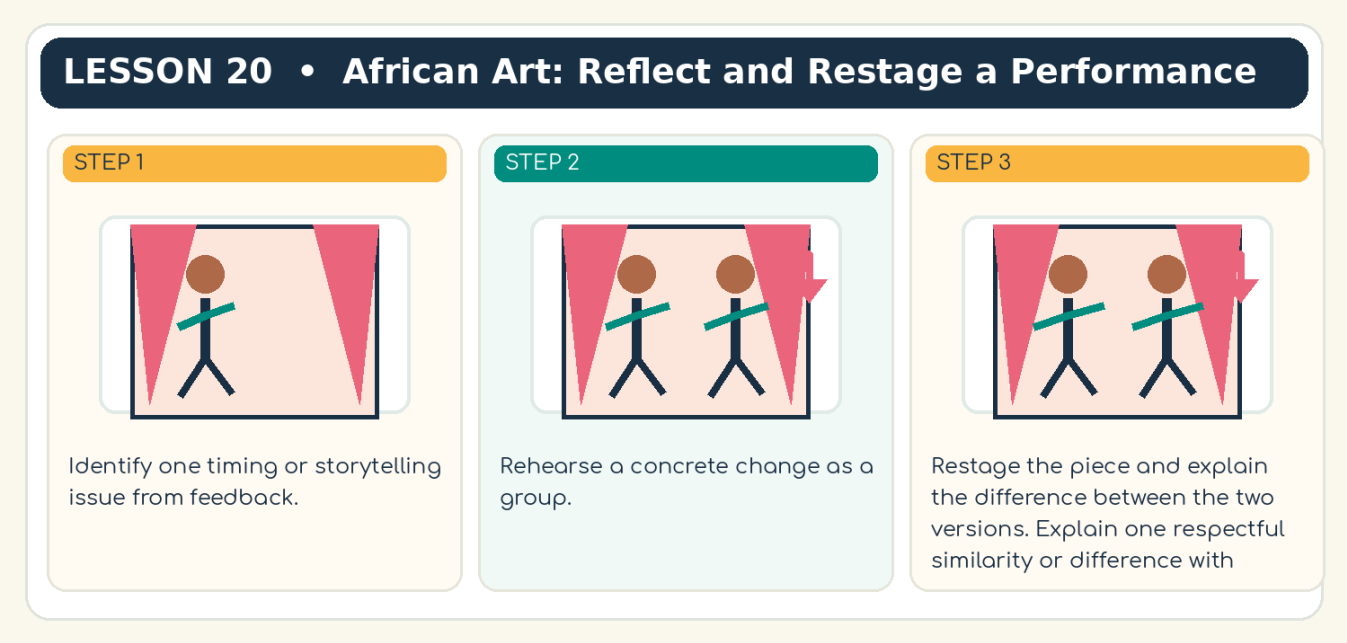

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 20 • African Art: Reflect and Restage a Performance

Performing Arts / Appraise / Basic 3

Your mission

Today you will strengthen performance through reflection. You will create a restaged performance using an earlier performance plan and feedback from classmates.

Do it in three steps

1. Identify one timing or storytelling issue from feedback.
2. Rehearse a concrete change as a group.
3. Restage the piece and explain the difference between the two versions. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with communities across Africa; describe cultural similarities and differences across Africa.

Level-up art task

Compare a Ghanaian example with one other African tradition. Explain how you can be inspired by reflection while respecting each community's cultural meaning.

Safety and kindness

Warm up gently and respect each group member's contribution.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for an improved final performance and improvement and cooperation. Also try this: record group decisions in a simple rehearsal journal.

PLAY • African Art: Reflect and Restage a Performance

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about communities across Africa, which materials are listed for “African Art: Reflect and Restage a Performance”?

A. an earlier performance plan and feedback from classmates

B. completed learner artworks, labels and removable tape

C. two contrasting paper colours and pre-cut strips

D. voice and a short original two-line phrase

2. In work about communities across Africa, which observation or preparation starts “African Art: Reflect and Restage a Performance”?

A. Lay parallel paper strips on a desk as the base.

B. Identify one timing or storytelling issue from feedback.

C. Describe visible lines, colours, textures and shapes.

D. Watch or listen carefully without interrupting.

3. In work about communities across Africa, what will the learner create or perform in “African Art: Reflect and Restage a Performance”?

A. a pinch pot

B. a short dance composition

C. a performance showcase

D. a restaged performance

4. In work about communities across Africa, which artistic element is the main focus of “African Art: Reflect and Restage a Performance”?

A. reflection

B. visual communication

C. pattern

D. colour

5. In work about communities across Africa, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “African Art: Reflect and Restage a Performance”?

A. a repeatable dance phrase

B. a labelled colour test

C. a coordinated class performance

D. an improved final performance

CHALLENGE • African Art: Reflect and Restage a Performance

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about communities across Africa, after the opening action in “African Art: Reflect and Restage a Performance”, what is the second step?

A. Practise lines with clear facial expression and turn-taking.

B. Rehearse a concrete change as a group.

C. Connect them with a pause and a change of direction.

D. Press a thumb gently into the centre and pinch the sides evenly.

7. In work about communities across Africa, which closing action completes the three-stage “African Art: Reflect and Restage a Performance” activity?

A. Restage the piece and explain the difference between the two versions. Explain one respectful similarity or difference with another African example.

B. Act the scene once and revise a confusing gesture.

C. Perform the phrase twice with control and enough personal space.

D. Suggest one useful change and say how to rehearse it.

8. In work about communities across Africa, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “African Art: Reflect and Restage a Performance”?

A. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

B. Warm up gently and respect each group member’s contribution.

C. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

D. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

9. In work about communities across Africa, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “African Art: Reflect and Restage a Performance”?

A. use voice, space and roles to tell a story

B. strengthen performance through reflection

C. communicate ideas through body movement

D. connect the form of a useful object to its function

10. In work about communities across Africa, for whom is the finished “African Art: Reflect and Restage a Performance” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. only the teacher’s desk

B. class audience

C. a person who is never shown the work

D. the materials supplier only

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • African Art: Reflect and Restage a Performance

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about communities across Africa, when assessing “African Art: Reflect and Restage a Performance”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. improvement and cooperation

B. contrast and choice

C. message and readability

D. timing and safe space

12. In work about communities across Africa, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “African Art: Reflect and Restage a Performance”?

A. invite a classmate to describe a favourite visible detail

B. record group decisions in a simple rehearsal journal

C. perform the revised line for a second audience

D. show which reused material became the focal point

13. In work about communities across Africa, which cultural or geographic context guides “African Art: Reflect and Restage a Performance” at Basic 3?

A. only a location outside Africa

B. a place invented by a movie

C. communities across Africa

D. a place not represented in the African examples

14. In work about communities across Africa, when you explain “African Art: Reflect and Restage a Performance” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. an improved final performance, supported by what you noticed or changed

B. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

C. a guess about reflection without checking the finished work

D. a review that ignores the work entirely

15. In work about communities across Africa, which reason best supports revising your “African Art: Reflect and Restage a Performance” work after feedback?

A. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

B. to improve improvement and cooperation

C. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

D. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

Artist’s reflection

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____