CREATIVE ARTS • BASIC 4

Illustrated learning workbook

Visual Arts + Performing Arts | Explore • Make • Display • Appreciate

20 illustrated lessons · 5 Play and 10 Challenge questions for every lesson · practical teacher observation tasks

Learners explore ideas, make or compose a work, share it, and describe what they would improve. Videos are in the multimedia eBook and offline interactive course; their matching three-step visuals appear on the printed pages.

LESSON 01 • Ghanaian Artists: Find Stories in Cloth

Visual Arts / Explore / Basic 4

Your mission

Today you will notice how art can carry cultural meaning. You will create a motif study using a patterned fabric scrap, paper and crayons.

Do it in three steps

1. Look at a cloth pattern and point to its repeated marks. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.
2. Sketch two repeated shapes from the cloth onto paper.
3. Add one personal variation and explain what it represents.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with selected artists and traditions in Ghana; study the purpose and style of a selected Ghanaian work before designing.

Level-up art task

Study one Ghanaian artist’s work selected by your teacher. Identify an artistic choice involving pattern, then create a personal variation rather than copying the finished artwork.

Safety and kindness

Ask before touching another person’s cloth.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a labelled pattern sketch and shape and meaning. Also try this: compare the pattern with a friend’s observation.

PLAY • Ghanaian Artists: Find Stories in Cloth

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which materials are listed for “Ghanaian Artists: Find Stories in Cloth”?

A. completed learner artworks, labels and removable tape

B. one short class performance and a two-column note

C. a patterned fabric scrap, paper and crayons

D. a short community story and an open safe space

2. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which observation or preparation starts “Ghanaian Artists: Find Stories in Cloth”?

A. Agree on the order of songs, dance or drama items.

B. Listen to a short local rhythm and count its pulses.

C. Roll a smooth ball of soft material.

D. Look at a cloth pattern and point to its repeated marks. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.

3. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, what will the learner create or perform in “Ghanaian Artists: Find Stories in Cloth”?

A. a motif study

B. a revised artwork

C. a recycled collage

D. a functional pot sketch

4. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which artistic element is the main focus of “Ghanaian Artists: Find Stories in Cloth”?

A. pattern

B. reflection

C. performance appraisal

D. drama

5. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Ghanaian Artists: Find Stories in Cloth”?

A. a readable community poster

B. a labelled pattern sketch

C. a repeatable dance phrase

D. a coordinated class performance

CHALLENGE • Ghanaian Artists: Find Stories in Cloth

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, after the opening action in “Ghanaian Artists: Find Stories in Cloth”, what is the second step?

A. Choose claps and thigh taps to fill the beat spaces.

B. Arrange pieces on cardboard before applying glue.

C. Say which details help communicate the artist’s idea.

D. Sketch two repeated shapes from the cloth onto paper.

7. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which closing action completes the three-stage “Ghanaian Artists: Find Stories in Cloth” activity?

A. Add one personal variation and explain what it represents.

B. Practise taking turns as leader and responding group.

C. Smooth the rim and show how the finished bowl can stand.

D. Stick the pieces down and explain the main image.

8. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Ghanaian Artists: Find Stories in Cloth”?

A. Ask before touching another person’s cloth.

B. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

C. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

D. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

9. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Ghanaian Artists: Find Stories in Cloth”?

A. notice how art can carry cultural meaning

B. revise a work thoughtfully

C. coordinate movement with music

D. use evidence to discuss a performance

10. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, for whom is the finished “Ghanaian Artists: Find Stories in Cloth” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. classmates

B. the materials supplier only

C. a person who is never shown the work

D. only the teacher’s desk

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Ghanaian Artists: Find Stories in Cloth

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when assessing “Ghanaian Artists: Find Stories in Cloth”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. steady timing

B. shape and meaning

C. shape and function

D. clear purposeful revision

12. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Ghanaian Artists: Find Stories in Cloth”?

A. ask classmates what action the poster encourages

B. compare the rim before and after smoothing

C. compare the pattern with a friend’s observation

D. show which reused material became the focal point

13. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which cultural or geographic context guides “Ghanaian Artists: Find Stories in Cloth” at Basic 4?

A. a made-up artist with no referenced work

B. selected artists and traditions in Ghana

C. a style not studied or observed

D. unrelated global art with no Ghanaian source

14. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when you explain “Ghanaian Artists: Find Stories in Cloth” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a guess about pattern without checking the finished work

B. a labelled pattern sketch, supported by what you noticed or changed

C. a review that ignores the work entirely

D. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

15. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which reason best supports revising your “Ghanaian Artists: Find Stories in Cloth” work after feedback?

A. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

B. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

C. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

D. to improve shape and meaning

Artist’s reflection

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 02 • Ghanaian Artists: Hear the Community Beat

Performing Arts / Explore / Basic 4

Your mission

Today you will recognise pulse and respectful listening. You will create a rhythmic echo using hands, a soft drum or a safe plastic container.

Do it in three steps

1. Listen to a short local rhythm and count its pulses. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.
2. Echo the pulse by tapping softly four times.
3. Perform the pulse with a partner, starting and stopping together.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with selected artists and traditions in Ghana; study the purpose and style of a selected Ghanaian work before designing.

Level-up art task

Study one Ghanaian artist's work selected by your teacher. Identify an artistic choice involving pulse, then create a personal variation rather than copying the finished artwork.

Safety and kindness

Keep the sound comfortable for nearby listeners.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a steady four-pulse performance and steady timing. Also try this: invite a partner to lead the next four beats.

PLAY • Ghanaian Artists: Hear the Community Beat

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which materials are listed for “Ghanaian Artists: Hear the Community Beat”?

A. completed learner artworks, labels and removable tape

B. a class composition, simple programme and safe stage area

C. hands, a soft drum or a safe plastic container

D. two contrasting paper colours and pre-cut strips

2. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which observation or preparation starts “Ghanaian Artists: Hear the Community Beat”?

A. Choose two safe steps that suit the chosen rhythm.

B. Write or say a short call about caring for people or places.

C. Sort clean paper by colour and select pieces for your picture.

D. Listen to a short local rhythm and count its pulses. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.

3. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, what will the learner create or perform in “Ghanaian Artists: Hear the Community Beat”?

A. a rhythmic echo

B. a short dance composition

C. a short feedback note

D. a revised artwork

4. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which artistic element is the main focus of “Ghanaian Artists: Hear the Community Beat”?

A. reflection

B. volume

C. pulse

D. appreciation

5. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Ghanaian Artists: Hear the Community Beat”?

A. a labelled colour test

B. a steady four-pulse performance

C. a labelled pattern sketch

D. a stable pinched bowl

CHALLENGE • Ghanaian Artists: Hear the Community Beat

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, after the opening action in “Ghanaian Artists: Hear the Community Beat”, what is the second step?

A. Record one strength in timing, expression or teamwork.

B. Practise lines with clear facial expression and turn-taking.

C. Assign each sound to a gentle vocal or body action.

D. Echo the pulse by tapping softly four times.

7. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which closing action completes the three-stage “Ghanaian Artists: Hear the Community Beat” activity?

A. Practise taking turns as leader and responding group.

B. Add a few large readable words and check the layout.

C. Show your gesture sequence while a friend identifies the story.

D. Perform the pulse with a partner, starting and stopping together.

8. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Ghanaian Artists: Hear the Community Beat”?

A. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

B. Keep the sound comfortable for nearby listeners.

C. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

D. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

9. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Ghanaian Artists: Hear the Community Beat”?

A. shape a useful object from malleable material

B. present performance work as a team

C. strengthen performance through reflection

D. recognise pulse and respectful listening

10. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, for whom is the finished “Ghanaian Artists: Hear the Community Beat” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. listening group

B. a person who is never shown the work

C. the materials supplier only

D. only the teacher’s desk

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Ghanaian Artists: Hear the Community Beat

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when assessing “Ghanaian Artists: Hear the Community Beat”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. steady timing

B. improvement and cooperation

C. organisation and respect

D. clarity and teamwork

12. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Ghanaian Artists: Hear the Community Beat”?

A. ask a partner which colour is easiest to see

B. invite a partner to lead the next four beats

C. compare the rim before and after smoothing

D. record group decisions in a simple rehearsal journal

13. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which cultural or geographic context guides “Ghanaian Artists: Hear the Community Beat” at Basic 4?

A. a style not studied or observed

B. selected artists and traditions in Ghana

C. a made-up artist with no referenced work

D. unrelated global art with no Ghanaian source

14. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when you explain “Ghanaian Artists: Hear the Community Beat” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

B. a guess about pulse without checking the finished work

C. a steady four-pulse performance, supported by what you noticed or changed

D. a review that ignores the work entirely

15. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which reason best supports revising your “Ghanaian Artists: Hear the Community Beat” work after feedback?

A. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

B. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

C. to improve steady timing

D. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

Artist’s reflection

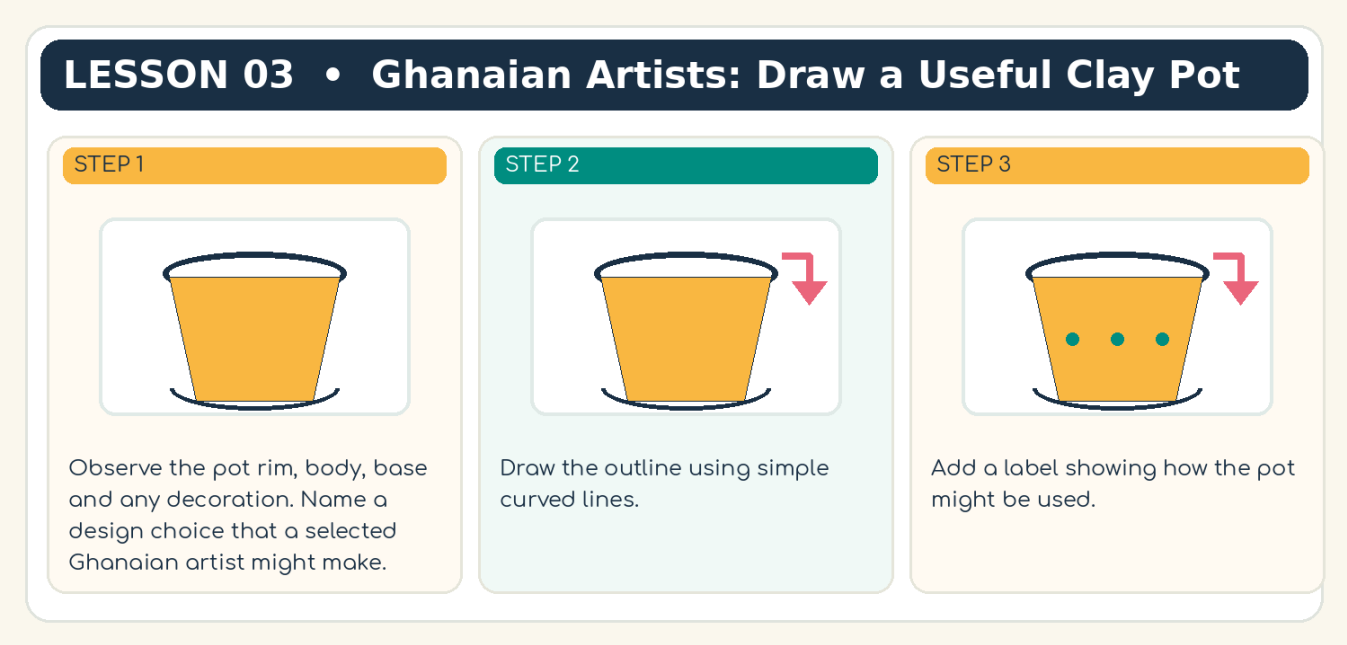

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 03 • Ghanaian Artists: Draw a Useful Clay Pot

Visual Arts / Explore / Basic 4

Your mission

Today you will connect the form of a useful object to its function. You will create a functional pot sketch using a picture or safe sample of a clay pot, pencil and paper.

Do it in three steps

1. Observe the pot rim, body, base and any decoration. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.
2. Draw the outline using simple curved lines.
3. Add a label showing how the pot might be used.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with selected artists and traditions in Ghana; study the purpose and style of a selected Ghanaian work before designing.

Level-up art task

Study one Ghanaian artist's work selected by your teacher. Identify an artistic choice involving form, then create a personal variation rather than copying the finished artwork.

Safety and kindness

Do not handle fragile or heavy pots without adult help.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for an annotated pot drawing and shape and function. Also try this: compare narrow and wide pot openings.

PLAY • Ghanaian Artists: Draw a Useful Clay Pot

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which materials are listed for “Ghanaian Artists: Draw a Useful Clay Pot”?

A. hands, a soft drum or a safe plastic container

B. a patterned fabric scrap, paper and crayons

C. voice and a short original two-line phrase

D. a picture or safe sample of a clay pot, pencil and paper

2. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which observation or preparation starts “Ghanaian Artists: Draw a Useful Clay Pot”?

A. Observe the pot rim, body, base and any decoration. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.

B. Choose a character and identify one important action.

C. Choose one clear message about a community need.

D. Assign a speaker, listener and narrator for a short scene.

3. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, what will the learner create or perform in “Ghanaian Artists: Draw a Useful Clay Pot”?

A. a functional pot sketch

B. a pinch pot

C. a restaged performance

D. a performance showcase

4. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which artistic element is the main focus of “Ghanaian Artists: Draw a Useful Clay Pot”?

A. composition

B. form

C. volume

D. colour

5. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Ghanaian Artists: Draw a Useful Clay Pot”?

A. an annotated pot drawing

B. an improved final performance

C. a labelled pattern sketch

D. a repeatable beat grid and performance

CHALLENGE • Ghanaian Artists: Draw a Useful Clay Pot

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, after the opening action in “Ghanaian Artists: Draw a Useful Clay Pot”, what is the second step?

A. Draw the outline using simple curved lines.

B. Practise lines with clear facial expression and turn-taking.

C. Rehearse a concrete change as a group.

D. Connect them with a pause and a change of direction.

7. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which closing action completes the three-stage “Ghanaian Artists: Draw a Useful Clay Pot” activity?

A. Act the scene once and revise a confusing gesture.

B. Give one evidence-based compliment and one possible improvement.

C. Add a label showing how the pot might be used.

D. Guide visitors to observe one artwork and ask a respectful question.

8. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Ghanaian Artists: Draw a Useful Clay Pot”?

A. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

B. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

C. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

D. Do not handle fragile or heavy pots without adult help.

9. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Ghanaian Artists: Draw a Useful Clay Pot”?

A. recognise pulse and respectful listening

B. connect the form of a useful object to its function

C. share artworks with an audience

D. compose a simple shared musical phrase

10. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, for whom is the finished “Ghanaian Artists: Draw a Useful Clay Pot” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. the materials supplier only

B. only the teacher’s desk

C. study group

D. a person who is never shown the work

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Ghanaian Artists: Draw a Useful Clay Pot

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when assessing “Ghanaian Artists: Draw a Useful Clay Pot”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. shape and function

B. contrast and choice

C. clear purposeful revision

D. clear turns

12. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Ghanaian Artists: Draw a Useful Clay Pot”?

A. compare the pattern with a friend’s observation

B. compare narrow and wide pot openings

C. record group decisions in a simple rehearsal journal

D. compare two interpretations with evidence

13. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which cultural or geographic context guides “Ghanaian Artists: Draw a Useful Clay Pot” at Basic 4?

A. a style not studied or observed

B. a made-up artist with no referenced work

C. unrelated global art with no Ghanaian source

D. selected artists and traditions in Ghana

14. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when you explain “Ghanaian Artists: Draw a Useful Clay Pot” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. an annotated pot drawing, supported by what you noticed or changed

B. a guess about form without checking the finished work

C. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

D. a review that ignores the work entirely

15. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which reason best supports revising your “Ghanaian Artists: Draw a Useful Clay Pot” work after feedback?

A. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

B. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

C. to improve shape and function

D. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

Artist’s reflection

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 04 • Ghanaian Artists: Tell a Story with Gestures

Performing Arts / Explore / Basic 4

Your mission

Today you will communicate ideas through body movement. You will create a silent story using a short community story and an open safe space.

Do it in three steps

1. Choose a character and identify one important action. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.
2. Try three gestures that communicate the action without words.
3. Show your gesture sequence while a friend identifies the story.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with selected artists and traditions in Ghana; study the purpose and style of a selected Ghanaian work before designing.

Level-up art task

Study one Ghanaian artist's work selected by your teacher. Identify an artistic choice involving gesture, then create a personal variation rather than copying the finished artwork.

Safety and kindness

Use an open space and avoid pushing or sudden jumps.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a three-gesture story and expression and clarity. Also try this: swap roles between performer and audience.

PLAY • Ghanaian Artists: Tell a Story with Gestures

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which materials are listed for “Ghanaian Artists: Tell a Story with Gestures”?

A. a class composition, simple programme and safe stage area

B. two contrasting paper colours and pre-cut strips

C. an earlier performance plan and feedback from classmates

D. a short community story and an open safe space

2. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which observation or preparation starts “Ghanaian Artists: Tell a Story with Gestures”?

A. Choose finished works and give each a title label.

B. Listen to a short local rhythm and count its pulses.

C. Read or listen to one helpful comment on the draft.

D. Choose a character and identify one important action. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.

3. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, what will the learner create or perform in “Ghanaian Artists: Tell a Story with Gestures”?

A. a two-part song plan

B. a rhythmic echo

C. a silent story

D. a mini exhibition

4. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which artistic element is the main focus of “Ghanaian Artists: Tell a Story with Gestures”?

A. repetition

B. gesture

C. pattern

D. sound

5. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Ghanaian Artists: Tell a Story with Gestures”?

A. a three-gesture story

B. a labelled and accessible classroom display

C. a labelled pattern sketch

D. a call and its matching response

CHALLENGE • Ghanaian Artists: Tell a Story with Gestures

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, after the opening action in “Ghanaian Artists: Tell a Story with Gestures”, what is the second step?

A. Echo the pulse by tapping softly four times.

B. Practise lines with clear facial expression and turn-taking.

C. Arrange pieces on cardboard before applying glue.

D. Try three gestures that communicate the action without words.

7. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which closing action completes the three-stage “Ghanaian Artists: Tell a Story with Gestures” activity?

A. Guide visitors to observe one artwork and ask a respectful question.

B. Make the change and explain how the second version improved.

C. Show your gesture sequence while a friend identifies the story.

D. Perform the pattern twice and check for a steady pulse.

8. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Ghanaian Artists: Tell a Story with Gestures”?

A. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

B. Use an open space and avoid pushing or sudden jumps.

C. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

D. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

9. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Ghanaian Artists: Tell a Story with Gestures”?

A. communicate ideas through body movement

B. revise a work thoughtfully

C. use art to communicate a helpful message

D. shape a useful object from malleable material

10. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, for whom is the finished “Ghanaian Artists: Tell a Story with Gestures” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. a person who is never shown the work

B. the materials supplier only

C. class audience

D. only the teacher’s desk

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Ghanaian Artists: Tell a Story with Gestures

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when assessing “Ghanaian Artists: Tell a Story with Gestures”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. contrast and choice

B. timing and safe space

C. sequence and control

D. expression and clarity

12. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Ghanaian Artists: Tell a Story with Gestures”?

A. compare two interpretations with evidence

B. show which reused material became the focal point

C. invite the original reviewer to compare the two versions

D. swap roles between performer and audience

13. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which cultural or geographic context guides “Ghanaian Artists: Tell a Story with Gestures” at Basic 4?

A. unrelated global art with no Ghanaian source

B. a made-up artist with no referenced work

C. selected artists and traditions in Ghana

D. a style not studied or observed

14. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when you explain “Ghanaian Artists: Tell a Story with Gestures” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a guess about gesture without checking the finished work

B. a three-gesture story, supported by what you noticed or changed

C. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

D. a review that ignores the work entirely

15. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which reason best supports revising your “Ghanaian Artists: Tell a Story with Gestures” work after feedback?

A. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

B. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

C. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

D. to improve expression and clarity

Artist’s reflection

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 05 • Ghanaian Artists: Make a Colour Plan

Visual Arts / Plan / Basic 4

Your mission

Today you will select colours intentionally. You will create a colour plan using crayons, scrap paper and a drawing sheet.

Do it in three steps

1. Choose three colours that suit your chosen message. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.
2. Test the colours in small labelled boxes.
3. Circle the most readable combination and plan where to use it.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with selected artists and traditions in Ghana; study the purpose and style of a selected Ghanaian work before designing.

Level-up art task

Study one Ghanaian artist's work selected by your teacher. Identify an artistic choice involving colour, then create a personal variation rather than copying the finished artwork.

Safety and kindness

Keep crayons off the floor to prevent slips.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a labelled colour test and contrast and choice. Also try this: ask a partner which colour is easiest to see.

PLAY • Ghanaian Artists: Make a Colour Plan

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which materials are listed for “Ghanaian Artists: Make a Colour Plan”?

A. one short class performance and a two-column note

B. crayons, scrap paper and a drawing sheet

C. a short community story and an open safe space

D. completed learner artworks, labels and removable tape

2. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which observation or preparation starts “Ghanaian Artists: Make a Colour Plan”?

A. Write or say a short call about caring for people or places.

B. Assign a speaker, listener and narrator for a short scene.

C. Choose one clear message about a community need.

D. Choose three colours that suit your chosen message. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.

3. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, what will the learner create or perform in “Ghanaian Artists: Make a Colour Plan”?

A. a pinch pot

B. a public message poster

C. a colour plan

D. a revised artwork

4. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which artistic element is the main focus of “Ghanaian Artists: Make a Colour Plan”?

A. presentation

B. colour

C. drama

D. pulse

5. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Ghanaian Artists: Make a Colour Plan”?

A. a steady four-pulse performance

B. a labelled pattern sketch

C. a stable pinched bowl

D. a labelled colour test

CHALLENGE • Ghanaian Artists: Make a Colour Plan

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, after the opening action in “Ghanaian Artists: Make a Colour Plan”, what is the second step?

A. Place the works where viewers can see them without crowding.

B. Test the colours in small labelled boxes.

C. Rehearse a concrete change as a group.

D. Say which details help communicate the artist’s idea.

7. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which closing action completes the three-stage “Ghanaian Artists: Make a Colour Plan” activity?

A. Circle the most readable combination and plan where to use it.

B. Add a label showing how the pot might be used.

C. Perform the phrase twice with control and enough personal space.

D. Act the scene once and revise a confusing gesture.

8. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Ghanaian Artists: Make a Colour Plan”?

A. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

B. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

C. Keep crayons off the floor to prevent slips.

D. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

9. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Ghanaian Artists: Make a Colour Plan”?

A. use art to communicate a helpful message

B. use voice, space and roles to tell a story

C. select colours intentionally

D. represent a place through organised sounds

10. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, for whom is the finished “Ghanaian Artists: Make a Colour Plan” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. a person who is never shown the work

B. design partner

C. only the teacher’s desk

D. the materials supplier only

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Ghanaian Artists: Make a Colour Plan

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when assessing “Ghanaian Artists: Make a Colour Plan”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. message and readability

B. contrast and choice

C. clear turns

D. composition and care

12. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Ghanaian Artists: Make a Colour Plan”?

A. use feedback to improve one repeat performance

B. assign two pupils the role of hosts

C. ask classmates what action the poster encourages

D. ask a partner which colour is easiest to see

13. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which cultural or geographic context guides “Ghanaian Artists: Make a Colour Plan” at Basic 4?

A. unrelated global art with no Ghanaian source

B. a style not studied or observed

C. a made-up artist with no referenced work

D. selected artists and traditions in Ghana

14. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when you explain “Ghanaian Artists: Make a Colour Plan” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

B. a guess about colour without checking the finished work

C. a review that ignores the work entirely

D. a labelled colour test, supported by what you noticed or changed

15. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which reason best supports revising your “Ghanaian Artists: Make a Colour Plan” work after feedback?

A. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

B. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

C. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

D. to improve contrast and choice

Artist’s reflection

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 06 • Ghanaian Artists: Plan a Call-and-Response Song

Performing Arts / Plan / Basic 4

Your mission

Today you will compose a simple shared musical phrase. You will create a two-part song plan using voice and a short original two-line phrase.

Do it in three steps

1. Write or say a short call about caring for people or places. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.
2. Invent an easy response of similar length.
3. Practise taking turns as leader and responding group.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with selected artists and traditions in Ghana; study the purpose and style of a selected Ghanaian work before designing.

Level-up art task

Study one Ghanaian artist's work selected by your teacher. Identify an artistic choice involving call and response, then create a personal variation rather than copying the finished artwork.

Safety and kindness

Sing at a comfortable volume; do not strain the voice.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a call and its matching response and clear turns. Also try this: let a second group test whether the response is easy to learn.

PLAY • Ghanaian Artists: Plan a Call-and-Response Song

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which materials are listed for “Ghanaian Artists: Plan a Call-and-Response Song”?

A. a short original dialogue and simple safe props

B. voice and a short original two-line phrase

C. a class composition, simple programme and safe stage area

D. one displayed artwork and an observation note

2. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which observation or preparation starts “Ghanaian Artists: Plan a Call-and-Response Song”?

A. Choose two safe steps that suit the chosen rhythm.

B. Write or say a short call about caring for people or places. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.

C. Identify one timing or storytelling issue from feedback.

D. Choose one clear message about a community need.

3. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, what will the learner create or perform in “Ghanaian Artists: Plan a Call-and-Response Song”?

A. a short drama scene

B. a public message poster

C. a sound story

D. a two-part song plan

4. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which artistic element is the main focus of “Ghanaian Artists: Plan a Call-and-Response Song”?

A. movement

B. call and response

C. rhythm

D. sound

5. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Ghanaian Artists: Plan a Call-and-Response Song”?

A. a three-gesture story

B. a coordinated class performance

C. a call and its matching response

D. an annotated pot drawing

CHALLENGE • Ghanaian Artists: Plan a Call-and-Response Song

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, after the opening action in “Ghanaian Artists: Plan a Call-and-Response Song”, what is the second step?

A. Invent an easy response of similar length.

B. Echo the pulse by tapping softly four times.

C. Sketch two repeated shapes from the cloth onto paper.

D. Pass one strip over then under the base strips.

7. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which closing action completes the three-stage “Ghanaian Artists: Plan a Call-and-Response Song” activity?

A. Perform the sounds in order to represent morning, afternoon or evening.

B. Restage the piece and explain the difference between the two versions.

C. Practise taking turns as leader and responding group.

D. Perform the phrase twice with control and enough personal space.

8. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Ghanaian Artists: Plan a Call-and-Response Song”?

A. Sing at a comfortable volume; do not strain the voice.

B. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

C. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

D. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

9. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Ghanaian Artists: Plan a Call-and-Response Song”?

A. present performance work as a team

B. compose a simple shared musical phrase

C. shape a useful object from malleable material

D. strengthen performance through reflection

10. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, for whom is the finished “Ghanaian Artists: Plan a Call-and-Response Song” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. singing team

B. the materials supplier only

C. only the teacher’s desk

D. a person who is never shown the work

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Ghanaian Artists: Plan a Call-and-Response Song

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when assessing “Ghanaian Artists: Plan a Call-and-Response Song”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. improvement and cooperation

B. composition and care

C. clear turns

D. steady timing

12. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Ghanaian Artists: Plan a Call-and-Response Song”?

A. ask a partner which colour is easiest to see

B. record group decisions in a simple rehearsal journal

C. compare the rim before and after smoothing

D. let a second group test whether the response is easy to learn

13. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which cultural or geographic context guides “Ghanaian Artists: Plan a Call-and-Response Song” at Basic 4?

A. unrelated global art with no Ghanaian source

B. selected artists and traditions in Ghana

C. a made-up artist with no referenced work

D. a style not studied or observed

14. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when you explain “Ghanaian Artists: Plan a Call-and-Response Song” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a review that ignores the work entirely

B. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

C. a guess about call and response without checking the finished work

D. a call and its matching response, supported by what you noticed or changed

15. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which reason best supports revising your “Ghanaian Artists: Plan a Call-and-Response Song” work after feedback?

A. to improve clear turns

B. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

C. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

D. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

Artist’s reflection

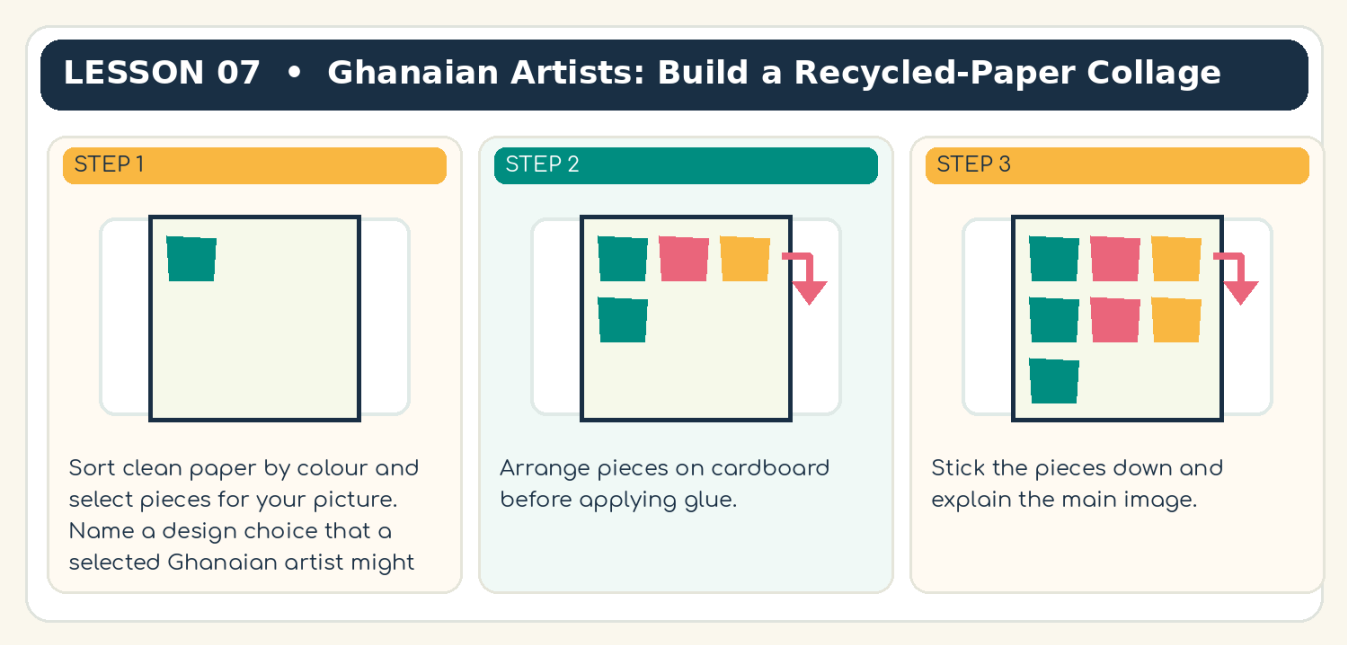

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 07 • Ghanaian Artists: Build a Recycled-Paper Collage

Visual Arts / Make / Basic 4

Your mission

Today you will reuse materials while arranging an image. You will create a recycled collage using clean scrap paper, glue, cardboard and blunt scissors.

Do it in three steps

1. Sort clean paper by colour and select pieces for your picture. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.

2. Arrange pieces on cardboard before applying glue.

3. Stick the pieces down and explain the main image.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with selected artists and traditions in Ghana; study the purpose and style of a selected Ghanaian work before designing.

Level-up art task

Study one Ghanaian artist's work selected by your teacher. Identify an artistic choice involving composition, then create a personal variation rather than copying the finished artwork.

Safety and kindness

Use blunt scissors with supervision and never collect dirty waste.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a fixed paper collage and composition and care. Also try this: show which reused material became the focal point.

PLAY • Ghanaian Artists: Build a Recycled-Paper Collage

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which materials are listed for “Ghanaian Artists: Build a Recycled-Paper Collage”?

A. one short class performance and a two-column note

B. clean scrap paper, glue, cardboard and blunt scissors

C. hands, a soft drum or a safe plastic container

D. a short community story and an open safe space

2. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which observation or preparation starts “Ghanaian Artists: Build a Recycled-Paper Collage”?

A. Lay parallel paper strips on a desk as the base.

B. Sort clean paper by colour and select pieces for your picture. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.

C. Describe visible lines, colours, textures and shapes.

D. Choose a character and identify one important action.

3. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, what will the learner create or perform in “Ghanaian Artists: Build a Recycled-Paper Collage”?

A. a performance showcase

B. a restaged performance

C. a recycled collage

D. a pinch pot

4. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which artistic element is the main focus of “Ghanaian Artists: Build a Recycled-Paper Collage”?

A. repetition

B. composition

C. sound

D. reflection

5. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Ghanaian Artists: Build a Recycled-Paper Collage”?

A. a call and its matching response

B. a coordinated class performance

C. a fixed paper collage

D. a rehearsed scene with understandable roles

CHALLENGE • Ghanaian Artists: Build a Recycled-Paper Collage

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, after the opening action in “Ghanaian Artists: Build a Recycled-Paper Collage”, what is the second step?

A. Test the colours in small labelled boxes.

B. Choose claps and thigh taps to fill the beat spaces.

C. Assign each sound to a gentle vocal or body action.

D. Arrange pieces on cardboard before applying glue.

7. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which closing action completes the three-stage “Ghanaian Artists: Build a Recycled-Paper Collage” activity?

A. Stick the pieces down and explain the main image.

B. Show your gesture sequence while a friend identifies the story.

C. Make the change and explain how the second version improved.

D. Present the item and thank the audience at the end.

8. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Ghanaian Artists: Build a Recycled-Paper Collage”?

A. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

B. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

C. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

D. Use blunt scissors with supervision and never collect dirty waste.

9. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Ghanaian Artists: Build a Recycled-Paper Collage”?

A. select colours intentionally

B. present performance work as a team

C. reuse materials while arranging an image

D. represent a place through organised sounds

10. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, for whom is the finished “Ghanaian Artists: Build a Recycled-Paper Collage” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. the materials supplier only

B. a person who is never shown the work

C. only the teacher’s desk

D. gallery visitors

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Ghanaian Artists: Build a Recycled-Paper Collage

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when assessing “Ghanaian Artists: Build a Recycled-Paper Collage”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. composition and care

B. organisation and care

C. sequence and control

D. clear purposeful revision

12. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Ghanaian Artists: Build a Recycled-Paper Collage”?

A. teach your phrase to one partner without collisions

B. compare the rim before and after smoothing

C. show which reused material became the focal point

D. use feedback to improve one repeat performance

13. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which cultural or geographic context guides “Ghanaian Artists: Build a Recycled-Paper Collage” at Basic 4?

A. a made-up artist with no referenced work

B. a style not studied or observed

C. selected artists and traditions in Ghana

D. unrelated global art with no Ghanaian source

14. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when you explain “Ghanaian Artists: Build a Recycled-Paper Collage” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a fixed paper collage, supported by what you noticed or changed

B. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

C. a guess about composition without checking the finished work

D. a review that ignores the work entirely

15. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which reason best supports revising your “Ghanaian Artists: Build a Recycled-Paper Collage” work after feedback?

A. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

B. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

C. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

D. to improve composition and care

Artist’s reflection

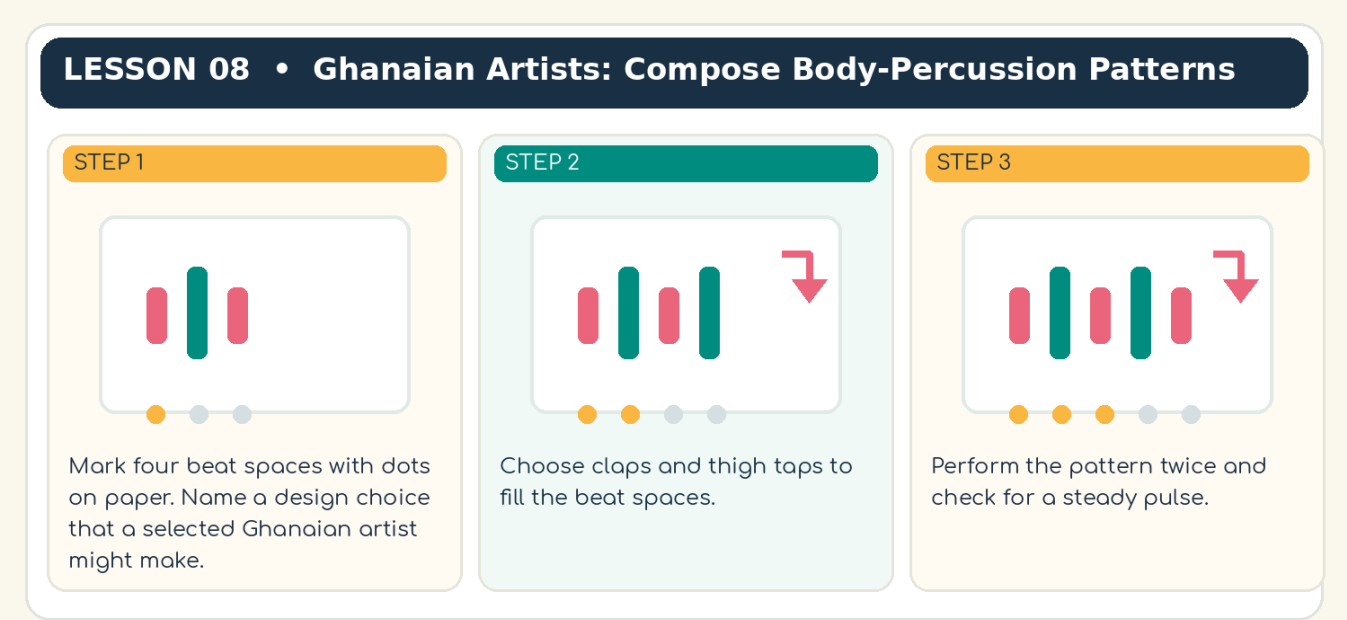

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 08 • Ghanaian Artists: Compose Body-Percussion Patterns

Performing Arts / Make / Basic 4

Your mission

Today you will build and repeat a rhythmic pattern. You will create a body-percussion pattern using hands, feet and a written beat grid.

Do it in three steps

1. Mark four beat spaces with dots on paper. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.
2. Choose claps and thigh taps to fill the beat spaces.
3. Perform the pattern twice and check for a steady pulse.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with selected artists and traditions in Ghana; study the purpose and style of a selected Ghanaian work before designing.

Level-up art task

Study one Ghanaian artist's work selected by your teacher. Identify an artistic choice involving rhythm, then create a personal variation rather than copying the finished artwork.

Safety and kindness

Tap gently and leave space between performers.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a repeatable beat grid and performance and sequence and control. Also try this: ask a partner to clap the pattern from your grid.

PLAY • Ghanaian Artists: Compose Body-Percussion Patterns

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which materials are listed for “Ghanaian Artists: Compose Body-Percussion Patterns”?

A. hands, feet and a written beat grid

B. crayons, scrap paper and a drawing sheet

C. an earlier performance plan and feedback from classmates

D. a first draft, feedback note and drawing materials

2. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which observation or preparation starts “Ghanaian Artists: Compose Body-Percussion Patterns”?

A. Watch or listen carefully without interrupting.

B. Read or listen to one helpful comment on the draft.

C. Choose finished works and give each a title label.

D. Mark four beat spaces with dots on paper. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.

3. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, what will the learner create or perform in “Ghanaian Artists: Compose Body-Percussion Patterns”?

A. a performance showcase

B. a body-percussion pattern

C. a colour plan

D. a sound story

4. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which artistic element is the main focus of “Ghanaian Artists: Compose Body-Percussion Patterns”?

A. staging

B. reflection

C. colour

D. rhythm

5. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Ghanaian Artists: Compose Body-Percussion Patterns”?

A. a rehearsed scene with understandable roles

B. a repeatable beat grid and performance

C. a steady four-pulse performance

D. a readable community poster

CHALLENGE • Ghanaian Artists: Compose Body-Percussion Patterns

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, after the opening action in “Ghanaian Artists: Compose Body-Percussion Patterns”, what is the second step?

A. Choose claps and thigh taps to fill the beat spaces.

B. Choose one change that supports the artwork’s purpose.

C. Arrange pieces on cardboard before applying glue.

D. Test the colours in small labelled boxes.

7. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which closing action completes the three-stage “Ghanaian Artists: Compose Body-Percussion Patterns” activity?

A. Perform the pattern twice and check for a steady pulse.

B. Repeat the sequence and straighten the finished pattern.

C. Give one evidence-based compliment and one possible improvement.

D. Add a label showing how the pot might be used.

8. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Ghanaian Artists: Compose Body-Percussion Patterns”?

A. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

B. Tap gently and leave space between performers.

C. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

D. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

9. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Ghanaian Artists: Compose Body-Percussion Patterns”?

A. build and repeat a rhythmic pattern

B. appreciate work using evidence

C. strengthen performance through reflection

D. compose a simple shared musical phrase

10. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, for whom is the finished “Ghanaian Artists: Compose Body-Percussion Patterns” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. a person who is never shown the work

B. only the teacher’s desk

C. the materials supplier only

D. peer musicians

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Ghanaian Artists: Compose Body-Percussion Patterns

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when assessing “Ghanaian Artists: Compose Body-Percussion Patterns”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. composition and care

B. specific respectful feedback

C. regular pattern

D. sequence and control

12. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Ghanaian Artists: Compose Body-Percussion Patterns”?

A. ask a partner to clap the pattern from your grid

B. compare the pattern with a friend’s observation

C. perform the revised line for a second audience

D. ask classmates what action the poster encourages

13. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which cultural or geographic context guides “Ghanaian Artists: Compose Body-Percussion Patterns” at Basic 4?

A. unrelated global art with no Ghanaian source

B. a style not studied or observed

C. a made-up artist with no referenced work

D. selected artists and traditions in Ghana

14. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when you explain “Ghanaian Artists: Compose Body-Percussion Patterns” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a repeatable beat grid and performance, supported by what you noticed or changed

B. a review that ignores the work entirely

C. a guess about rhythm without checking the finished work

D. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

15. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which reason best supports revising your “Ghanaian Artists: Compose Body-Percussion Patterns” work after feedback?

A. to improve sequence and control

B. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

C. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

D. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

Artist’s reflection

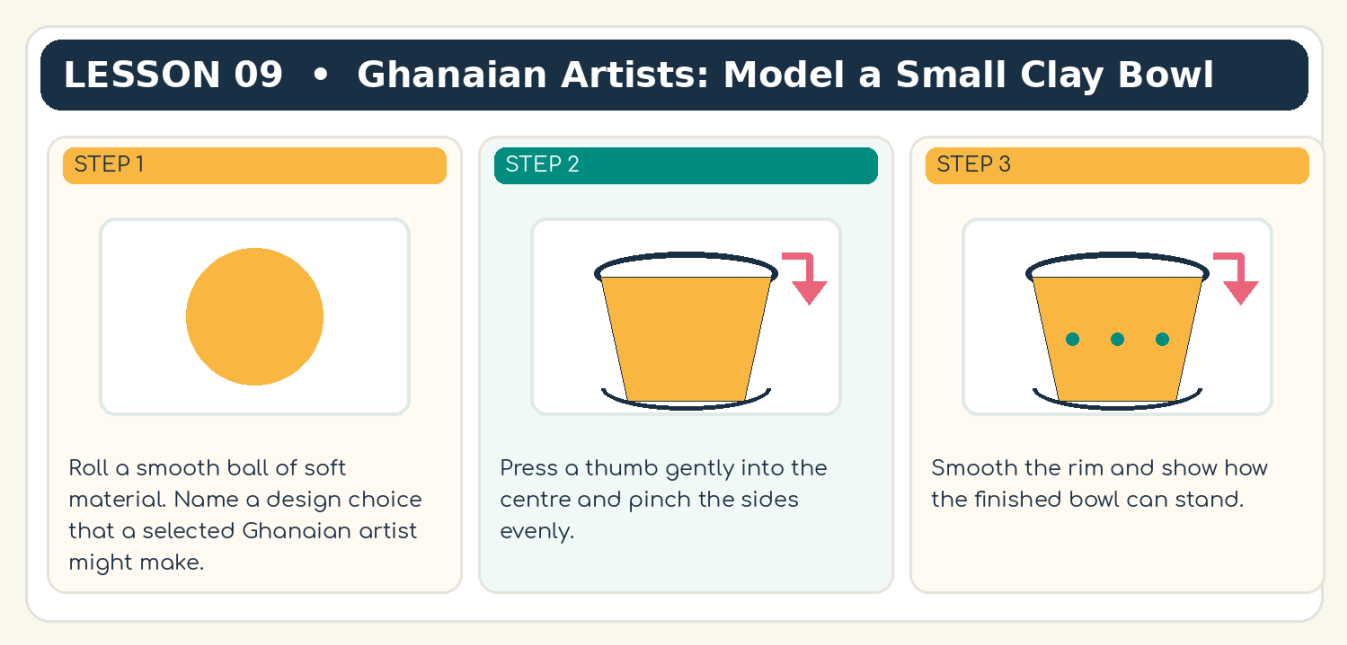

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 09 • Ghanaian Artists: Model a Small Clay Bowl

Visual Arts / Make / Basic 4

Your mission

Today you will shape a useful object from malleable material. You will create a pinch pot using soft modelling clay or dough and a washable work mat.

Do it in three steps

1. Roll a smooth ball of soft material. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.
2. Press a thumb gently into the centre and pinch the sides evenly.
3. Smooth the rim and show how the finished bowl can stand.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with selected artists and traditions in Ghana; study the purpose and style of a selected Ghanaian work before designing.

Level-up art task

Study one Ghanaian artist’s work selected by your teacher. Identify an artistic choice involving volume, then create a personal variation rather than copying the finished artwork.

Safety and kindness

Do not eat modelling material; wash hands after use.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a stable pinched bowl and even walls and balance. Also try this: compare the rim before and after smoothing.

PLAY • Ghanaian Artists: Model a Small Clay Bowl

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which materials are listed for “Ghanaian Artists: Model a Small Clay Bowl”?

A. soft modelling clay or dough and a washable work mat

B. voice and a short original two-line phrase

C. a first draft, feedback note and drawing materials

D. an earlier performance plan and feedback from classmates

2. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which observation or preparation starts “Ghanaian Artists: Model a Small Clay Bowl”?

A. Look at a cloth pattern and point to its repeated marks.

B. Describe visible lines, colours, textures and shapes.

C. Choose finished works and give each a title label.

D. Roll a smooth ball of soft material. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.

3. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, what will the learner create or perform in “Ghanaian Artists: Model a Small Clay Bowl”?

A. an artwork response

B. a restaged performance

C. a two-part song plan

D. a pinch pot

4. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which artistic element is the main focus of “Ghanaian Artists: Model a Small Clay Bowl”?

A. visual communication

B. volume

C. colour

D. pattern

5. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Ghanaian Artists: Model a Small Clay Bowl”?

A. a coordinated class performance

B. a stable pinched bowl

C. a readable community poster

D. an annotated pot drawing

CHALLENGE • Ghanaian Artists: Model a Small Clay Bowl

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, after the opening action in “Ghanaian Artists: Model a Small Clay Bowl”, what is the second step?

A. Draw the outline using simple curved lines.

B. Press a thumb gently into the centre and pinch the sides evenly.

C. Choose one change that supports the artwork’s purpose.

D. Assign each sound to a gentle vocal or body action.

7. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which closing action completes the three-stage “Ghanaian Artists: Model a Small Clay Bowl” activity?

A. Show your gesture sequence while a friend identifies the story.

B. Smooth the rim and show how the finished bowl can stand.

C. Perform the phrase twice with control and enough personal space.

D. Make the change and explain how the second version improved.

8. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Ghanaian Artists: Model a Small Clay Bowl”?

A. Do not eat modelling material; wash hands after use.

B. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

C. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

D. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

9. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Ghanaian Artists: Model a Small Clay Bowl”?

A. communicate ideas through body movement

B. shape a useful object from malleable material

C. use evidence to discuss a performance

D. represent a place through organised sounds

10. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, for whom is the finished “Ghanaian Artists: Model a Small Clay Bowl” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. art group

B. a person who is never shown the work

C. only the teacher’s desk

D. the materials supplier only

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Ghanaian Artists: Model a Small Clay Bowl

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when assessing “Ghanaian Artists: Model a Small Clay Bowl”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. clarity and teamwork

B. message and readability

C. regular pattern

D. even walls and balance

12. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Ghanaian Artists: Model a Small Clay Bowl”?

A. compare the rim before and after smoothing

B. perform the revised line for a second audience

C. record group decisions in a simple rehearsal journal

D. invite peers to guess the setting from the sounds

13. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which cultural or geographic context guides “Ghanaian Artists: Model a Small Clay Bowl” at Basic 4?

A. selected artists and traditions in Ghana

B. a made-up artist with no referenced work

C. unrelated global art with no Ghanaian source

D. a style not studied or observed

14. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when you explain “Ghanaian Artists: Model a Small Clay Bowl” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a guess about volume without checking the finished work

B. a review that ignores the work entirely

C. a stable pinched bowl, supported by what you noticed or changed

D. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

15. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which reason best supports revising your “Ghanaian Artists: Model a Small Clay Bowl” work after feedback?

A. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

B. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

C. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

D. to improve even walls and balance

Artist’s reflection

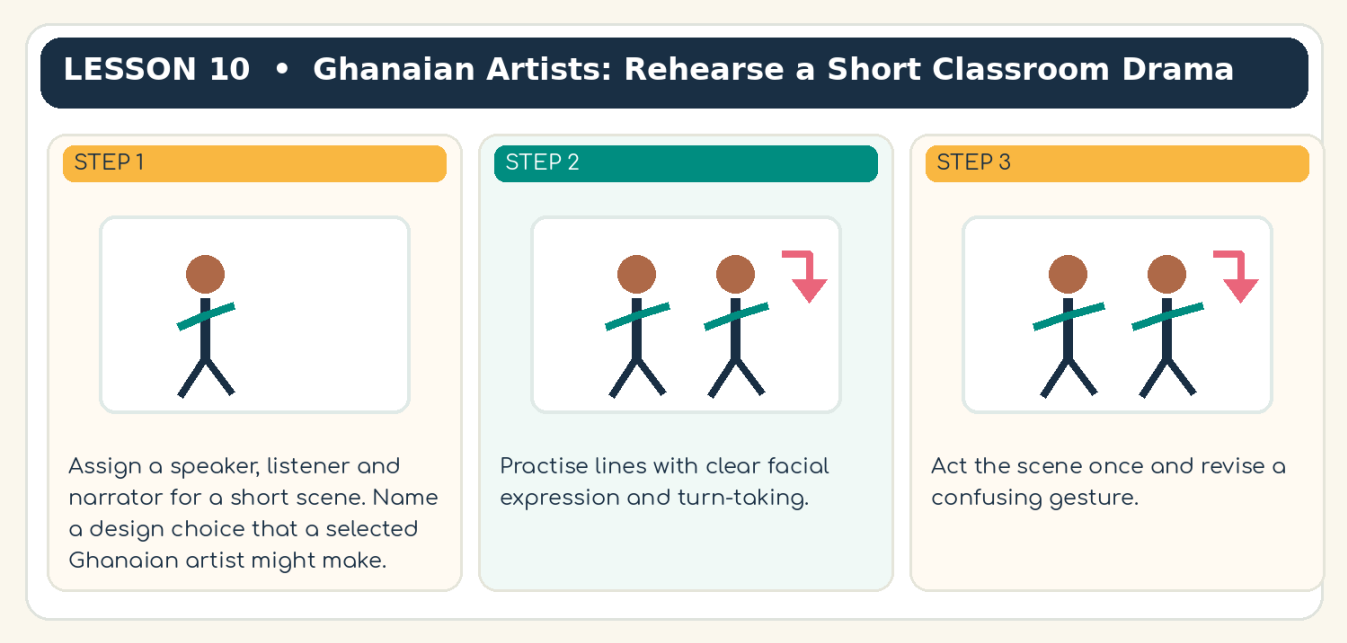

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 10 • Ghanaian Artists: Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama

Performing Arts / Make / Basic 4

Your mission

Today you will use voice, space and roles to tell a story. You will create a short drama scene using a short original dialogue and simple safe props.

Do it in three steps

1. Assign a speaker, listener and narrator for a short scene. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.
2. Practise lines with clear facial expression and turn-taking.
3. Act the scene once and revise a confusing gesture.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with selected artists and traditions in Ghana; study the purpose and style of a selected Ghanaian work before designing.

Level-up art task

Study one Ghanaian artist’s work selected by your teacher. Identify an artistic choice involving drama, then create a personal variation rather than copying the finished artwork.

Safety and kindness

Keep props light and never imitate dangerous actions.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a rehearsed scene with understandable roles and clarity and teamwork. Also try this: perform the revised line for a second audience.

PLAY • Ghanaian Artists: Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which materials are listed for “Ghanaian Artists: Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama”?

A. a short original dialogue and simple safe props

B. a patterned fabric scrap, paper and crayons

C. voice and a short original two-line phrase

D. one short class performance and a two-column note

2. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which observation or preparation starts “Ghanaian Artists: Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama”?

A. Sort clean paper by colour and select pieces for your picture.

B. Identify one timing or storytelling issue from feedback.

C. Assign a speaker, listener and narrator for a short scene. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.

D. List three sounds heard in the chosen setting.

3. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, what will the learner create or perform in “Ghanaian Artists: Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama”?

A. a short drama scene

B. a short feedback note

C. a sound story

D. a silent story

4. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which artistic element is the main focus of “Ghanaian Artists: Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama”?

A. rhythm

B. appreciation

C. drama

D. volume

5. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Ghanaian Artists: Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama”?

A. a call and its matching response

B. a steady four-pulse performance

C. a three-part soundscape

D. a rehearsed scene with understandable roles

CHALLENGE • Ghanaian Artists: Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, after the opening action in “Ghanaian Artists: Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama”, what is the second step?

A. Draw the outline using simple curved lines.

B. Invent an easy response of similar length.

C. Practise lines with clear facial expression and turn-taking.

D. Pass one strip over then under the base strips.

7. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which closing action completes the three-stage “Ghanaian Artists: Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama” activity?

A. Show your gesture sequence while a friend identifies the story.

B. Repeat the sequence and straighten the finished pattern.

C. Perform the phrase twice with control and enough personal space.

D. Act the scene once and revise a confusing gesture.

8. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Ghanaian Artists: Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama”?

A. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

B. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

C. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

D. Keep props light and never imitate dangerous actions.

9. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Ghanaian Artists: Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama”?

A. present performance work as a team

B. build and repeat a rhythmic pattern

C. use voice, space and roles to tell a story

D. use art to communicate a helpful message

10. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, for whom is the finished “Ghanaian Artists: Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. a person who is never shown the work

B. class audience

C. the materials supplier only

D. only the teacher’s desk

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Ghanaian Artists: Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when assessing “Ghanaian Artists: Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. expression and clarity

B. even walls and balance

C. clarity and teamwork

D. steady timing

12. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Ghanaian Artists: Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama”?

A. ask a partner to clap the pattern from your grid

B. perform the revised line for a second audience

C. assign two pupils the role of hosts

D. compare the pattern with a friend’s observation

13. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which cultural or geographic context guides “Ghanaian Artists: Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama” at Basic 4?

A. unrelated global art with no Ghanaian source

B. a style not studied or observed

C. selected artists and traditions in Ghana

D. a made-up artist with no referenced work

14. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when you explain “Ghanaian Artists: Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a guess about drama without checking the finished work

B. a rehearsed scene with understandable roles, supported by what you noticed or changed

C. a review that ignores the work entirely

D. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

15. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which reason best supports revising your “Ghanaian Artists: Rehearse a Short Classroom Drama” work after feedback?

A. to improve clarity and teamwork

B. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

C. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

D. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

Artist’s reflection

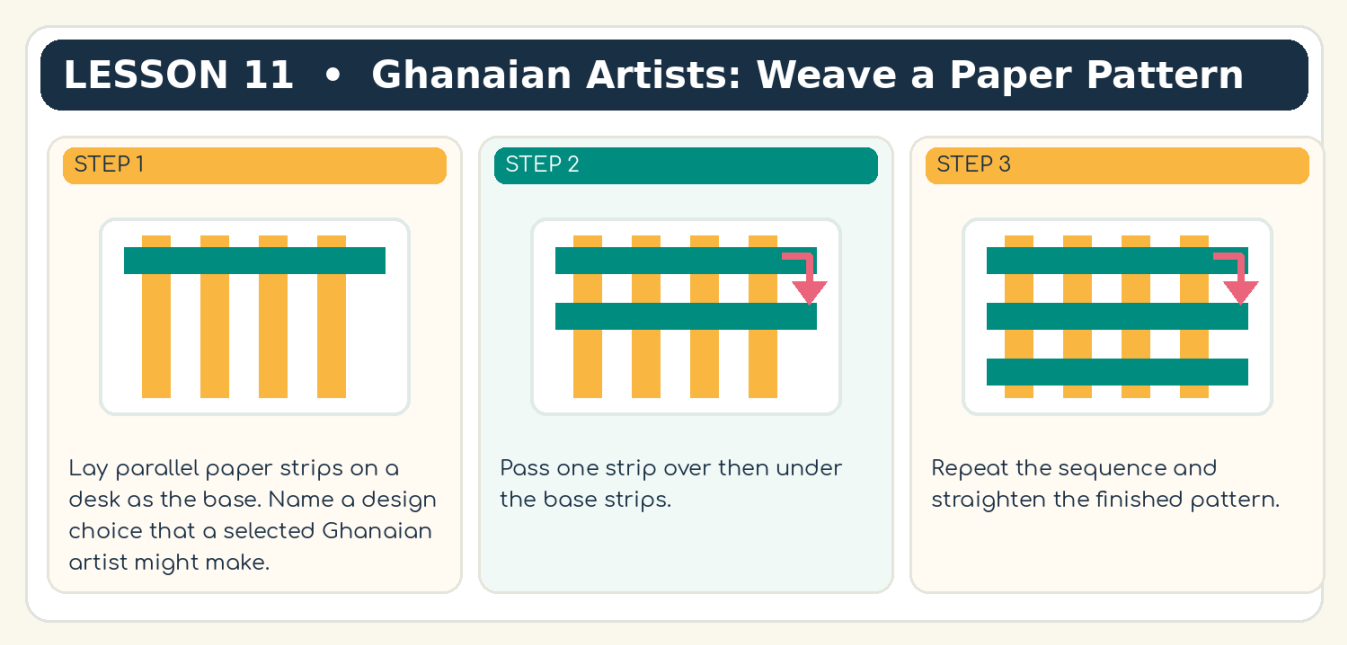

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 11 • Ghanaian Artists: Weave a Paper Pattern

Visual Arts / Make / Basic 4

Your mission

Today you will explore repeated structure through weaving. You will create a woven paper mat using two contrasting paper colours and pre-cut strips.

Do it in three steps

1. Lay parallel paper strips on a desk as the base. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.
2. Pass one strip over then under the base strips.
3. Repeat the sequence and straighten the finished pattern.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with selected artists and traditions in Ghana; study the purpose and style of a selected Ghanaian work before designing.

Level-up art task

Study one Ghanaian artist's work selected by your teacher. Identify an artistic choice involving repetition, then create a personal variation rather than copying the finished artwork.

Safety and kindness

Use pre-cut strips or blunt scissors with supervision.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for an over-under paper mat and regular pattern. Also try this: name one place you see a similar pattern in daily life.

PLAY • Ghanaian Artists: Weave a Paper Pattern

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which materials are listed for “Ghanaian Artists: Weave a Paper Pattern”?

A. two contrasting paper colours and pre-cut strips

B. an open space and a gentle drum pulse

C. one short class performance and a two-column note

D. one displayed artwork and an observation note

2. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which observation or preparation starts “Ghanaian Artists: Weave a Paper Pattern”?

A. Choose one clear message about a community need.

B. Lay parallel paper strips on a desk as the base. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.

C. Roll a smooth ball of soft material.

D. Choose a character and identify one important action.

3. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, what will the learner create or perform in “Ghanaian Artists: Weave a Paper Pattern”?

A. a public message poster

B. a performance showcase

C. a body-percussion pattern

D. a woven paper mat

4. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which artistic element is the main focus of “Ghanaian Artists: Weave a Paper Pattern”?

A. rhythm

B. reflection

C. repetition

D. drama

5. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Ghanaian Artists: Weave a Paper Pattern”?

A. a balanced performance review

B. a rehearsed scene with understandable roles

C. a stable pinched bowl

D. an over-under paper mat

CHALLENGE • Ghanaian Artists: Weave a Paper Pattern

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, after the opening action in “Ghanaian Artists: Weave a Paper Pattern”, what is the second step?

A. Rehearse a concrete change as a group.

B. Arrange pieces on cardboard before applying glue.

C. Assign each sound to a gentle vocal or body action.

D. Pass one strip over then under the base strips.

7. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which closing action completes the three-stage “Ghanaian Artists: Weave a Paper Pattern” activity?

A. Repeat the sequence and straighten the finished pattern.

B. Circle the most readable combination and plan where to use it.

C. Make the change and explain how the second version improved.

D. Add a few large readable words and check the layout.

8. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Ghanaian Artists: Weave a Paper Pattern”?

A. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

B. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

C. Use pre-cut strips or blunt scissors with supervision.

D. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

9. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Ghanaian Artists: Weave a Paper Pattern”?

A. use voice, space and roles to tell a story

B. represent a place through organised sounds

C. present performance work as a team

D. explore repeated structure through weaving

10. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, for whom is the finished “Ghanaian Artists: Weave a Paper Pattern” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. only the teacher’s desk

B. the materials supplier only

C. gallery visitors

D. a person who is never shown the work

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Ghanaian Artists: Weave a Paper Pattern

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when assessing “Ghanaian Artists: Weave a Paper Pattern”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. regular pattern

B. expression and clarity

C. timing and safe space

D. clarity and teamwork

12. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Ghanaian Artists: Weave a Paper Pattern”?

A. let a second group test whether the response is easy to learn

B. ask a partner which colour is easiest to see

C. teach your phrase to one partner without collisions

D. name one place you see a similar pattern in daily life

13. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which cultural or geographic context guides “Ghanaian Artists: Weave a Paper Pattern” at Basic 4?

A. a style not studied or observed

B. a made-up artist with no referenced work

C. selected artists and traditions in Ghana

D. unrelated global art with no Ghanaian source

14. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when you explain “Ghanaian Artists: Weave a Paper Pattern” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

B. a review that ignores the work entirely

C. an over-under paper mat, supported by what you noticed or changed

D. a guess about repetition without checking the finished work

15. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which reason best supports revising your “Ghanaian Artists: Weave a Paper Pattern” work after feedback?

A. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

B. to improve regular pattern

C. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

D. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

Artist’s reflection

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 12 • Ghanaian Artists: Create a Safe Dance Phrase

Performing Arts / Make / Basic 4

Your mission

Today you will coordinate movement with music. You will create a short dance composition using an open space and a gentle drum pulse.

Do it in three steps

1. Choose two safe steps that suit the chosen rhythm. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.
2. Connect them with a pause and a change of direction.
3. Perform the phrase twice with control and enough personal space.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with selected artists and traditions in Ghana; study the purpose and style of a selected Ghanaian work before designing.

Level-up art task

Study one Ghanaian artist's work selected by your teacher. Identify an artistic choice involving movement, then create a personal variation rather than copying the finished artwork.

Safety and kindness

Never force a jump, spin or movement that causes pain.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a repeatable dance phrase and timing and safe space. Also try this: teach your phrase to one partner without collisions.

PLAY • Ghanaian Artists: Create a Safe Dance Phrase

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which materials are listed for “Ghanaian Artists: Create a Safe Dance Phrase”?

A. voice, clapping and safe non-breakable sound makers

B. crayons, scrap paper and a drawing sheet

C. one displayed artwork and an observation note

D. an open space and a gentle drum pulse

2. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which observation or preparation starts “Ghanaian Artists: Create a Safe Dance Phrase”?

A. Choose two safe steps that suit the chosen rhythm. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.

B. Lay parallel paper strips on a desk as the base.

C. Look at a cloth pattern and point to its repeated marks.

D. Assign a speaker, listener and narrator for a short scene.

3. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, what will the learner create or perform in “Ghanaian Artists: Create a Safe Dance Phrase”?

A. a short drama scene

B. a sound story

C. a performance showcase

D. a short dance composition

4. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which artistic element is the main focus of “Ghanaian Artists: Create a Safe Dance Phrase”?

A. pulse

B. colour

C. form

D. movement

5. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Ghanaian Artists: Create a Safe Dance Phrase”?

A. a call and its matching response

B. a stable pinched bowl

C. a coordinated class performance

D. a repeatable dance phrase

CHALLENGE • Ghanaian Artists: Create a Safe Dance Phrase

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, after the opening action in “Ghanaian Artists: Create a Safe Dance Phrase”, what is the second step?

A. Connect them with a pause and a change of direction.

B. Echo the pulse by tapping softly four times.

C. Pass one strip over then under the base strips.

D. Choose claps and thigh taps to fill the beat spaces.

7. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which closing action completes the three-stage “Ghanaian Artists: Create a Safe Dance Phrase” activity?

A. Restage the piece and explain the difference between the two versions.

B. Perform the phrase twice with control and enough personal space.

C. Add a label showing how the pot might be used.

D. Show your gesture sequence while a friend identifies the story.

8. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Ghanaian Artists: Create a Safe Dance Phrase”?

A. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

B. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

C. Never force a jump, spin or movement that causes pain.

D. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

9. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Ghanaian Artists: Create a Safe Dance Phrase”?

A. use voice, space and roles to tell a story

B. recognise pulse and respectful listening

C. coordinate movement with music

D. use evidence to discuss a performance

10. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, for whom is the finished “Ghanaian Artists: Create a Safe Dance Phrase” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. class audience

B. only the teacher’s desk

C. the materials supplier only

D. a person who is never shown the work

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Ghanaian Artists: Create a Safe Dance Phrase

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when assessing “Ghanaian Artists: Create a Safe Dance Phrase”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. message and readability

B. shape and meaning

C. timing and safe space

D. evidence and kindness

12. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Ghanaian Artists: Create a Safe Dance Phrase”?

A. ask classmates what action the poster encourages

B. compare narrow and wide pot openings

C. compare the rim before and after smoothing

D. teach your phrase to one partner without collisions

13. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which cultural or geographic context guides “Ghanaian Artists: Create a Safe Dance Phrase” at Basic 4?

A. a made-up artist with no referenced work

B. selected artists and traditions in Ghana

C. unrelated global art with no Ghanaian source

D. a style not studied or observed

14. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when you explain “Ghanaian Artists: Create a Safe Dance Phrase” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a review that ignores the work entirely

B. a repeatable dance phrase, supported by what you noticed or changed

C. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

D. a guess about movement without checking the finished work

15. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which reason best supports revising your “Ghanaian Artists: Create a Safe Dance Phrase” work after feedback?

A. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

B. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

C. to improve timing and safe space

D. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

Artist’s reflection

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 13 • Ghanaian Artists: Design a Community-Care Poster

Visual Arts / Make / Basic 4

Your mission

Today you will use art to communicate a helpful message. You will create a public message poster using paper, pencils, coloured pencils and a ruler.

Do it in three steps

1. Choose one clear message about a community need. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.
2. Draw a bold image that supports the message.
3. Add a few large readable words and check the layout.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with selected artists and traditions in Ghana; study the purpose and style of a selected Ghanaian work before designing.

Level-up art task

Study one Ghanaian artist's work selected by your teacher. Identify an artistic choice involving visual communication, then create a personal variation rather than copying the finished artwork.

Safety and kindness

Use fictional names and do not display anyone's private information.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a readable community poster and message and readability. Also try this: ask classmates what action the poster encourages.

PLAY • Ghanaian Artists: Design a Community-Care Poster

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which materials are listed for “Ghanaian Artists: Design a Community-Care Poster”?

A. one short class performance and a two-column note

B. paper, pencils, coloured pencils and a ruler

C. one displayed artwork and an observation note

D. completed learner artworks, labels and removable tape

2. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which observation or preparation starts “Ghanaian Artists: Design a Community-Care Poster”?

A. Choose a character and identify one important action.

B. Listen to a short local rhythm and count its pulses.

C. Choose one clear message about a community need. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.

D. Choose finished works and give each a title label.

3. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, what will the learner create or perform in “Ghanaian Artists: Design a Community-Care Poster”?

A. a rhythmic echo

B. a short feedback note

C. a public message poster

D. a short drama scene

4. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which artistic element is the main focus of “Ghanaian Artists: Design a Community-Care Poster”?

A. composition

B. presentation

C. visual communication

D. performance appraisal

5. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Ghanaian Artists: Design a Community-Care Poster”?

A. a readable community poster

B. a before-and-after artwork comparison

C. a coordinated class performance

D. a three-part soundscape

CHALLENGE • Ghanaian Artists: Design a Community-Care Poster

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, after the opening action in “Ghanaian Artists: Design a Community-Care Poster”, what is the second step?

A. Draw a bold image that supports the message.

B. Choose claps and thigh taps to fill the beat spaces.

C. Try three gestures that communicate the action without words.

D. Pass one strip over then under the base strips.

7. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which closing action completes the three-stage “Ghanaian Artists: Design a Community-Care Poster” activity?

A. Perform the sounds in order to represent morning, afternoon or evening.

B. Perform the pattern twice and check for a steady pulse.

C. Present the item and thank the audience at the end.

D. Add a few large readable words and check the layout.

8. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Ghanaian Artists: Design a Community-Care Poster”?

A. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

B. Use fictional names and do not display anyone’s private information.

C. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

D. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

9. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Ghanaian Artists: Design a Community-Care Poster”?

A. recognise pulse and respectful listening

B. shape a useful object from malleable material

C. build and repeat a rhythmic pattern

D. use art to communicate a helpful message

10. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, for whom is the finished “Ghanaian Artists: Design a Community-Care Poster” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. school community

B. a person who is never shown the work

C. the materials supplier only

D. only the teacher’s desk

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Ghanaian Artists: Design a Community-Care Poster

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when assessing “Ghanaian Artists: Design a Community-Care Poster”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. shape and function

B. improvement and cooperation

C. steady timing

D. message and readability

12. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Ghanaian Artists: Design a Community-Care Poster”?

A. invite a classmate to describe a favourite visible detail

B. invite a partner to lead the next four beats

C. ask classmates what action the poster encourages

D. invite the original reviewer to compare the two versions

13. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which cultural or geographic context guides “Ghanaian Artists: Design a Community-Care Poster” at Basic 4?

A. unrelated global art with no Ghanaian source

B. selected artists and traditions in Ghana

C. a made-up artist with no referenced work

D. a style not studied or observed

14. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when you explain “Ghanaian Artists: Design a Community-Care Poster” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a guess about visual communication without checking the finished work

B. a review that ignores the work entirely

C. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

D. a readable community poster, supported by what you noticed or changed

15. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which reason best supports revising your “Ghanaian Artists: Design a Community-Care Poster” work after feedback?

A. to improve message and readability

B. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

C. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

D. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

Artist’s reflection

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 14 • Ghanaian Artists: Compose a Soundscape

Performing Arts / Make / Basic 4

Your mission

Today you will represent a place through organised sounds. You will create a sound story using voice, clapping and safe non-breakable sound makers.

Do it in three steps

1. List three sounds heard in the chosen setting. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.
2. Assign each sound to a gentle vocal or body action.
3. Perform the sounds in order to represent morning, afternoon or evening.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with selected artists and traditions in Ghana; study the purpose and style of a selected Ghanaian work before designing.

Level-up art task

Study one Ghanaian artist's work selected by your teacher. Identify an artistic choice involving sound, then create a personal variation rather than copying the finished artwork.

Safety and kindness

Avoid loud noises, glass objects and dangerous equipment.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a three-part soundscape and sequence and expression. Also try this: invite peers to guess the setting from the sounds.

PLAY • Ghanaian Artists: Compose a Soundscape

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which materials are listed for “Ghanaian Artists: Compose a Soundscape”?

A. a short community story and an open safe space

B. one short class performance and a two-column note

C. clean scrap paper, glue, cardboard and blunt scissors

D. voice, clapping and safe non-breakable sound makers

2. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which observation or preparation starts “Ghanaian Artists: Compose a Soundscape”?

A. Choose a character and identify one important action.

B. List three sounds heard in the chosen setting. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.

C. Observe the pot rim, body, base and any decoration.

D. Roll a smooth ball of soft material.

3. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, what will the learner create or perform in “Ghanaian Artists: Compose a Soundscape”?

A. a body-percussion pattern

B. a rhythmic echo

C. a pinch pot

D. a sound story

4. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which artistic element is the main focus of “Ghanaian Artists: Compose a Soundscape”?

A. gesture

B. appreciation

C. pattern

D. sound

5. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Ghanaian Artists: Compose a Soundscape”?

A. a reasoned art observation

B. an improved final performance

C. a repeatable dance phrase

D. a three-part soundscape

CHALLENGE • Ghanaian Artists: Compose a Soundscape

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, after the opening action in “Ghanaian Artists: Compose a Soundscape”, what is the second step?

A. Test the colours in small labelled boxes.

B. Assign each sound to a gentle vocal or body action.

C. Echo the pulse by tapping softly four times.

D. Choose claps and thigh taps to fill the beat spaces.

7. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which closing action completes the three-stage “Ghanaian Artists: Compose a Soundscape” activity?

A. Guide visitors to observe one artwork and ask a respectful question.

B. Perform the sounds in order to represent morning, afternoon or evening.

C. Act the scene once and revise a confusing gesture.

D. Suggest one useful change and say how to rehearse it.

8. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Ghanaian Artists: Compose a Soundscape”?

A. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

B. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

C. Avoid loud noises, glass objects and dangerous equipment.

D. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

9. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Ghanaian Artists: Compose a Soundscape”?

A. use voice, space and roles to tell a story

B. represent a place through organised sounds

C. coordinate movement with music

D. share artworks with an audience

10. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, for whom is the finished “Ghanaian Artists: Compose a Soundscape” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. only the teacher’s desk

B. the materials supplier only

C. a person who is never shown the work

D. class audience

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Ghanaian Artists: Compose a Soundscape

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when assessing “Ghanaian Artists: Compose a Soundscape”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. even walls and balance

B. sequence and expression

C. timing and safe space

D. specific respectful feedback

12. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Ghanaian Artists: Compose a Soundscape”?

A. compare the rim before and after smoothing

B. ask a partner which colour is easiest to see

C. teach your phrase to one partner without collisions

D. invite peers to guess the setting from the sounds

13. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which cultural or geographic context guides “Ghanaian Artists: Compose a Soundscape” at Basic 4?

A. a made-up artist with no referenced work

B. selected artists and traditions in Ghana

C. a style not studied or observed

D. unrelated global art with no Ghanaian source

14. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when you explain “Ghanaian Artists: Compose a Soundscape” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a review that ignores the work entirely

B. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

C. a guess about sound without checking the finished work

D. a three-part soundscape, supported by what you noticed or changed

15. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which reason best supports revising your “Ghanaian Artists: Compose a Soundscape” work after feedback?

A. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

B. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

C. to improve sequence and expression

D. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

Artist’s reflection

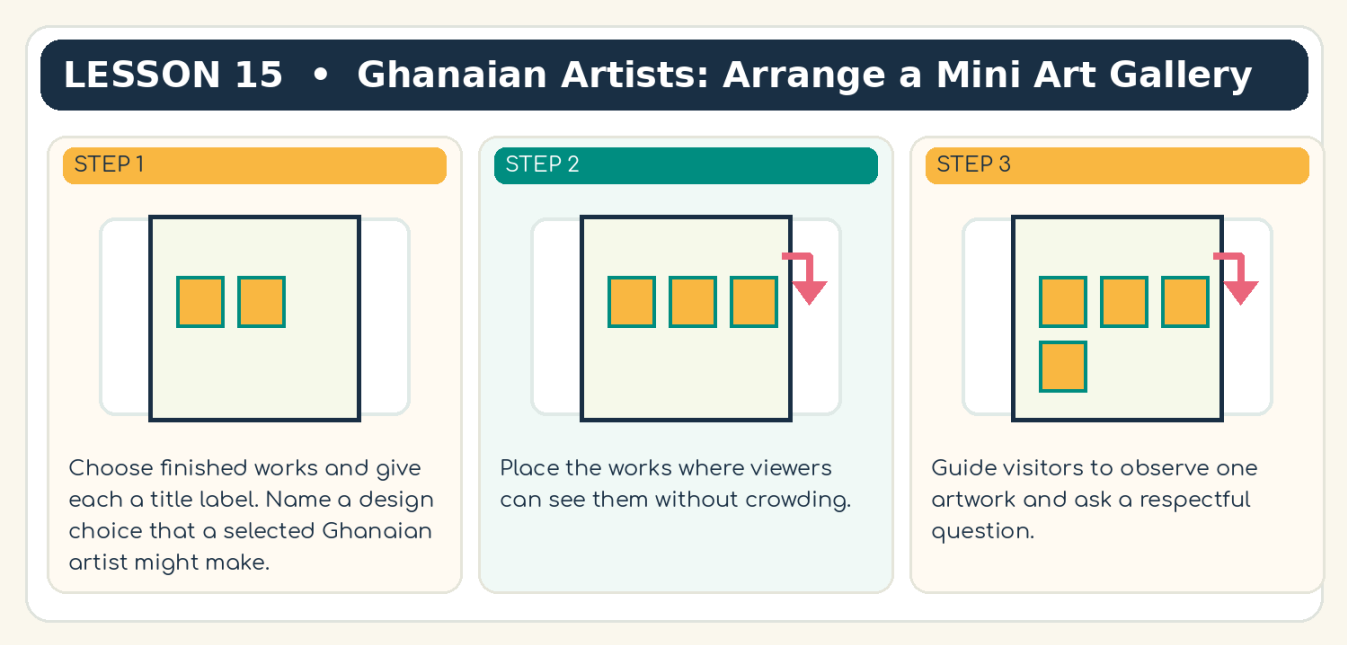

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 15 • Ghanaian Artists: Arrange a Mini Art Gallery

Visual Arts / Display / Basic 4

Your mission

Today you will share artworks with an audience. You will create a mini exhibition using completed learner artworks, labels and removable tape.

Do it in three steps

1. Choose finished works and give each a title label. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.
2. Place the works where viewers can see them without crowding.
3. Guide visitors to observe one artwork and ask a respectful question.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with selected artists and traditions in Ghana; study the purpose and style of a selected Ghanaian work before designing.

Level-up art task

Study one Ghanaian artist's work selected by your teacher. Identify an artistic choice involving presentation, then create a personal variation rather than copying the finished artwork.

Safety and kindness

Do not hang work near exits or use unsafe climbing equipment.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a labelled and accessible classroom display and organisation and care. Also try this: invite a classmate to describe a favourite visible detail.

PLAY • Ghanaian Artists: Arrange a Mini Art Gallery

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which materials are listed for “Ghanaian Artists: Arrange a Mini Art Gallery”?

A. paper, pencils, coloured pencils and a ruler

B. voice, clapping and safe non-breakable sound makers

C. an open space and a gentle drum pulse

D. completed learner artworks, labels and removable tape

2. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which observation or preparation starts “Ghanaian Artists: Arrange a Mini Art Gallery”?

A. Choose finished works and give each a title label. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.

B. Choose two safe steps that suit the chosen rhythm.

C. Lay parallel paper strips on a desk as the base.

D. Identify one timing or storytelling issue from feedback.

3. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, what will the learner create or perform in “Ghanaian Artists: Arrange a Mini Art Gallery”?

A. a short dance composition

B. a sound story

C. a mini exhibition

D. a short drama scene

4. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which artistic element is the main focus of “Ghanaian Artists: Arrange a Mini Art Gallery”?

A. presentation

B. pulse

C. pattern

D. gesture

5. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Ghanaian Artists: Arrange a Mini Art Gallery”?

A. a before-and-after artwork comparison

B. a three-gesture story

C. a labelled and accessible classroom display

D. a stable pinched bowl

CHALLENGE • Ghanaian Artists: Arrange a Mini Art Gallery

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, after the opening action in “Ghanaian Artists: Arrange a Mini Art Gallery”, what is the second step?

A. Try three gestures that communicate the action without words.

B. Place the works where viewers can see them without crowding.

C. Record one strength in timing, expression or teamwork.

D. Draw a bold image that supports the message.

7. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which closing action completes the three-stage “Ghanaian Artists: Arrange a Mini Art Gallery” activity?

A. Guide visitors to observe one artwork and ask a respectful question.

B. Give one evidence-based compliment and one possible improvement.

C. Act the scene once and revise a confusing gesture.

D. Present the item and thank the audience at the end.

8. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Ghanaian Artists: Arrange a Mini Art Gallery”?

A. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

B. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

C. Do not hang work near exits or use unsafe climbing equipment.

D. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

9. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Ghanaian Artists: Arrange a Mini Art Gallery”?

A. share artworks with an audience

B. revise a work thoughtfully

C. strengthen performance through reflection

D. coordinate movement with music

10. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, for whom is the finished “Ghanaian Artists: Arrange a Mini Art Gallery” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. the materials supplier only

B. gallery visitors

C. a person who is never shown the work

D. only the teacher’s desk

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Ghanaian Artists: Arrange a Mini Art Gallery

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when assessing “Ghanaian Artists: Arrange a Mini Art Gallery”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. regular pattern

B. timing and safe space

C. clear turns

D. organisation and care

12. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Ghanaian Artists: Arrange a Mini Art Gallery”?

A. invite a classmate to describe a favourite visible detail

B. teach your phrase to one partner without collisions

C. record group decisions in a simple rehearsal journal

D. name one place you see a similar pattern in daily life

13. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which cultural or geographic context guides “Ghanaian Artists: Arrange a Mini Art Gallery” at Basic 4?

A. a made-up artist with no referenced work

B. unrelated global art with no Ghanaian source

C. selected artists and traditions in Ghana

D. a style not studied or observed

14. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when you explain “Ghanaian Artists: Arrange a Mini Art Gallery” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a review that ignores the work entirely

B. a labelled and accessible classroom display, supported by what you noticed or changed

C. a guess about presentation without checking the finished work

D. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

15. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which reason best supports revising your “Ghanaian Artists: Arrange a Mini Art Gallery” work after feedback?

A. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

B. to improve organisation and care

C. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

D. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

Artist’s reflection

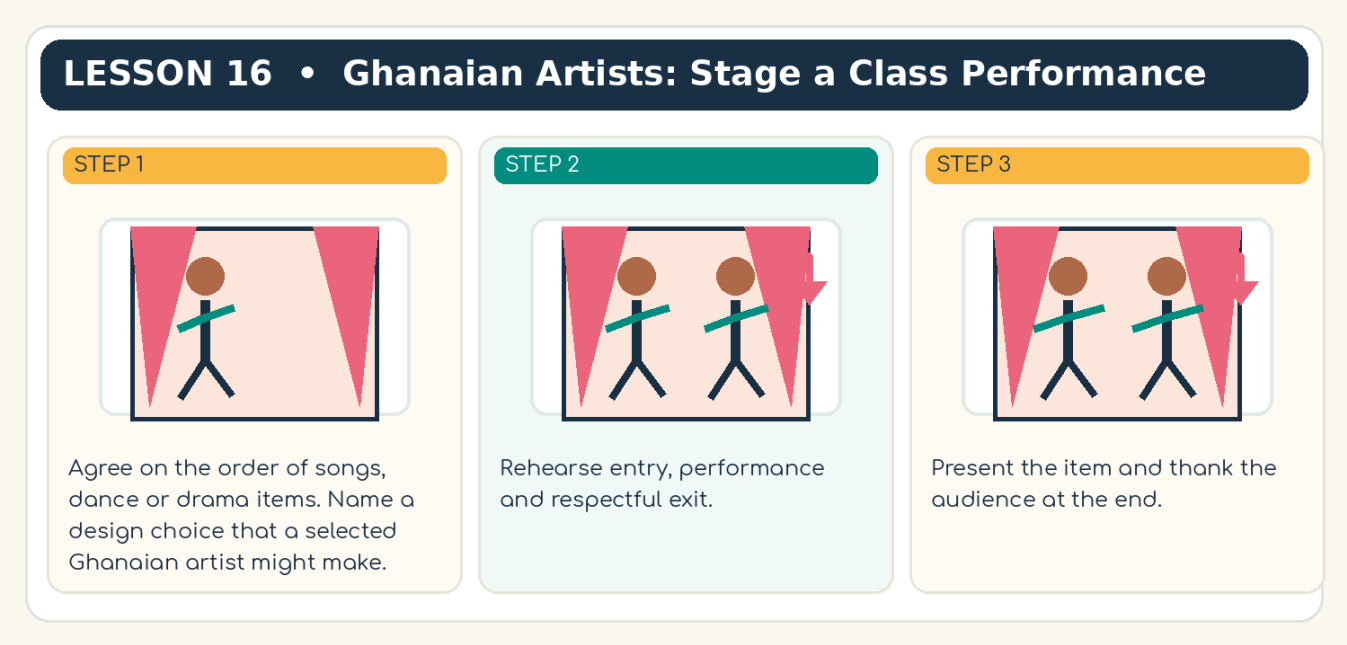

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 16 • Ghanaian Artists: Stage a Class Performance

Performing Arts / Display / Basic 4

Your mission

Today you will present performance work as a team. You will create a performance showcase using a class composition, simple programme and safe stage area.

Do it in three steps

1. Agree on the order of songs, dance or drama items. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.
2. Rehearse entry, performance and respectful exit.
3. Present the item and thank the audience at the end.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with selected artists and traditions in Ghana; study the purpose and style of a selected Ghanaian work before designing.

Level-up art task

Study one Ghanaian artist's work selected by your teacher. Identify an artistic choice involving staging, then create a personal variation rather than copying the finished artwork.

Safety and kindness

Check floor space, sound levels and exit paths.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a coordinated class performance and organisation and respect. Also try this: assign two pupils the role of hosts.

PLAY • Ghanaian Artists: Stage a Class Performance

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which materials are listed for “Ghanaian Artists: Stage a Class Performance”?

A. a short original dialogue and simple safe props

B. one displayed artwork and an observation note

C. an earlier performance plan and feedback from classmates

D. a class composition, simple programme and safe stage area

2. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which observation or preparation starts “Ghanaian Artists: Stage a Class Performance”?

A. Agree on the order of songs, dance or drama items. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.

B. Read or listen to one helpful comment on the draft.

C. Sort clean paper by colour and select pieces for your picture.

D. Assign a speaker, listener and narrator for a short scene.

3. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, what will the learner create or perform in “Ghanaian Artists: Stage a Class Performance”?

A. a performance showcase

B. a short dance composition

C. a restaged performance

D. a revised artwork

4. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which artistic element is the main focus of “Ghanaian Artists: Stage a Class Performance”?

A. drama

B. composition

C. sound

D. staging

5. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Ghanaian Artists: Stage a Class Performance”?

A. a rehearsed scene with understandable roles

B. a coordinated class performance

C. a labelled and accessible classroom display

D. a repeatable dance phrase

CHALLENGE • Ghanaian Artists: Stage a Class Performance

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, after the opening action in “Ghanaian Artists: Stage a Class Performance”, what is the second step?

A. Rehearse a concrete change as a group.

B. Draw the outline using simple curved lines.

C. Rehearse entry, performance and respectful exit.

D. Echo the pulse by tapping softly four times.

7. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which closing action completes the three-stage “Ghanaian Artists: Stage a Class Performance” activity?

A. Present the item and thank the audience at the end.

B. Circle the most readable combination and plan where to use it.

C. Add a few large readable words and check the layout.

D. Show your gesture sequence while a friend identifies the story.

8. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Ghanaian Artists: Stage a Class Performance”?

A. Check floor space, sound levels and exit paths.

B. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

C. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

D. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

9. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Ghanaian Artists: Stage a Class Performance”?

A. compose a simple shared musical phrase

B. use voice, space and roles to tell a story

C. appreciate work using evidence

D. present performance work as a team

10. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, for whom is the finished “Ghanaian Artists: Stage a Class Performance” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. the materials supplier only

B. only the teacher’s desk

C. a person who is never shown the work

D. invited audience

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Ghanaian Artists: Stage a Class Performance

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when assessing “Ghanaian Artists: Stage a Class Performance”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. shape and meaning

B. shape and function

C. organisation and respect

D. organisation and care

12. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Ghanaian Artists: Stage a Class Performance”?

A. swap roles between performer and audience

B. perform the revised line for a second audience

C. assign two pupils the role of hosts

D. compare two interpretations with evidence

13. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which cultural or geographic context guides “Ghanaian Artists: Stage a Class Performance” at Basic 4?

A. a style not studied or observed

B. selected artists and traditions in Ghana

C. unrelated global art with no Ghanaian source

D. a made-up artist with no referenced work

14. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when you explain “Ghanaian Artists: Stage a Class Performance” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a review that ignores the work entirely

B. a guess about staging without checking the finished work

C. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

D. a coordinated class performance, supported by what you noticed or changed

15. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which reason best supports revising your “Ghanaian Artists: Stage a Class Performance” work after feedback?

A. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

B. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

C. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

D. to improve organisation and respect

Artist’s reflection

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 17 • Ghanaian Artists: Look Closely at an Artwork

Visual Arts / Appraise / Basic 4

Your mission

Today you will appreciate work using evidence. You will create an artwork response using one displayed artwork and an observation note.

Do it in three steps

1. Describe visible lines, colours, textures and shapes. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.
2. Say which details help communicate the artist's idea.
3. Give one evidence-based compliment and one possible improvement.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with selected artists and traditions in Ghana; study the purpose and style of a selected Ghanaian work before designing.

Level-up art task

Study one Ghanaian artist's work selected by your teacher. Identify an artistic choice involving appreciation, then create a personal variation rather than copying the finished artwork.

Safety and kindness

Discuss the artwork kindly, not the learner's personal traits.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a reasoned art observation and specific respectful feedback. Also try this: compare two interpretations with evidence.

PLAY • Ghanaian Artists: Look Closely at an Artwork

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which materials are listed for “Ghanaian Artists: Look Closely at an Artwork”?

A. two contrasting paper colours and pre-cut strips

B. one displayed artwork and an observation note

C. voice, clapping and safe non-breakable sound makers

D. a short community story and an open safe space

2. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which observation or preparation starts “Ghanaian Artists: Look Closely at an Artwork”?

A. Choose one clear message about a community need.

B. Describe visible lines, colours, textures and shapes. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.

C. Sort clean paper by colour and select pieces for your picture.

D. Read or listen to one helpful comment on the draft.

3. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, what will the learner create or perform in “Ghanaian Artists: Look Closely at an Artwork”?

A. a short drama scene

B. a two-part song plan

C. a performance showcase

D. an artwork response

4. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which artistic element is the main focus of “Ghanaian Artists: Look Closely at an Artwork”?

A. drama

B. movement

C. appreciation

D. sound

5. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Ghanaian Artists: Look Closely at an Artwork”?

A. a coordinated class performance

B. an improved final performance

C. a reasoned art observation

D. a rehearsed scene with understandable roles

CHALLENGE • Ghanaian Artists: Look Closely at an Artwork

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, after the opening action in “Ghanaian Artists: Look Closely at an Artwork”, what is the second step?

A. Place the works where viewers can see them without crowding.

B. Pass one strip over then under the base strips.

C. Say which details help communicate the artist’s idea.

D. Draw the outline using simple curved lines.

7. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which closing action completes the three-stage “Ghanaian Artists: Look Closely at an Artwork” activity?

A. Add one personal variation and explain what it represents.

B. Show your gesture sequence while a friend identifies the story.

C. Perform the phrase twice with control and enough personal space.

D. Give one evidence-based compliment and one possible improvement.

8. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Ghanaian Artists: Look Closely at an Artwork”?

A. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

B. Discuss the artwork kindly, not the learner’s personal traits.

C. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

D. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

9. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Ghanaian Artists: Look Closely at an Artwork”?

A. notice how art can carry cultural meaning

B. appreciate work using evidence

C. use evidence to discuss a performance

D. use voice, space and roles to tell a story

10. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, for whom is the finished “Ghanaian Artists: Look Closely at an Artwork” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. a person who is never shown the work

B. only the teacher’s desk

C. artist and classmates

D. the materials supplier only

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Ghanaian Artists: Look Closely at an Artwork

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when assessing “Ghanaian Artists: Look Closely at an Artwork”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. message and readability

B. organisation and respect

C. clear purposeful revision

D. specific respectful feedback

12. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Ghanaian Artists: Look Closely at an Artwork”?

A. use feedback to improve one repeat performance

B. invite peers to guess the setting from the sounds

C. invite the original reviewer to compare the two versions

D. compare two interpretations with evidence

13. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which cultural or geographic context guides “Ghanaian Artists: Look Closely at an Artwork” at Basic 4?

A. a made-up artist with no referenced work

B. unrelated global art with no Ghanaian source

C. selected artists and traditions in Ghana

D. a style not studied or observed

14. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when you explain “Ghanaian Artists: Look Closely at an Artwork” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a review that ignores the work entirely

B. a reasoned art observation, supported by what you noticed or changed

C. a guess about appreciation without checking the finished work

D. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

15. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which reason best supports revising your “Ghanaian Artists: Look Closely at an Artwork” work after feedback?

A. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

B. to improve specific respectful feedback

C. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

D. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

Artist’s reflection

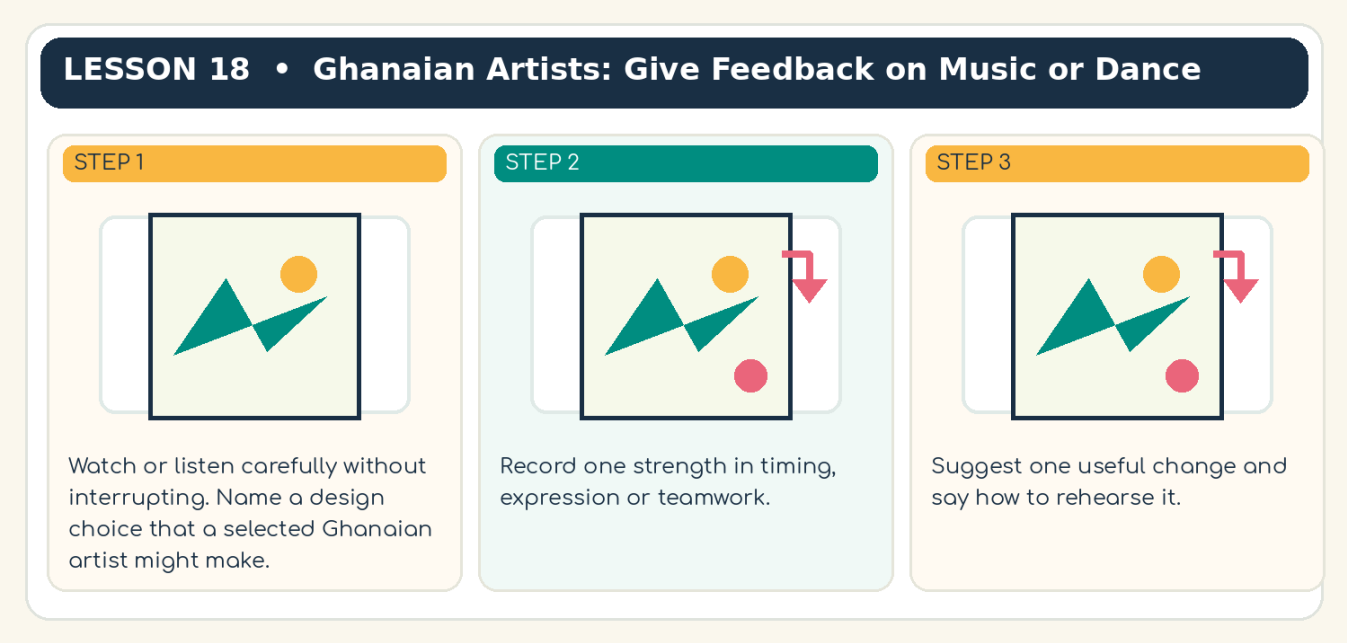

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 18 • Ghanaian Artists: Give Feedback on Music or Dance

Performing Arts / Appraise / Basic 4

Your mission

Today you will use evidence to discuss a performance. You will create a short feedback note using one short class performance and a two-column note.

Do it in three steps

1. Watch or listen carefully without interrupting. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.
2. Record one strength in timing, expression or teamwork.
3. Suggest one useful change and say how to rehearse it.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with selected artists and traditions in Ghana; study the purpose and style of a selected Ghanaian work before designing.

Level-up art task

Study one Ghanaian artist's work selected by your teacher. Identify an artistic choice involving performance appraisal, then create a personal variation rather than copying the finished artwork.

Safety and kindness

Respond respectfully and avoid personal insults.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a balanced performance review and evidence and kindness. Also try this: use feedback to improve one repeat performance.

PLAY • Ghanaian Artists: Give Feedback on Music or Dance

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which materials are listed for “Ghanaian Artists: Give Feedback on Music or Dance”?

A. an earlier performance plan and feedback from classmates

B. one displayed artwork and an observation note

C. one short class performance and a two-column note

D. a picture or safe sample of a clay pot, pencil and paper

2. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which observation or preparation starts “Ghanaian Artists: Give Feedback on Music or Dance”?

A. Watch or listen carefully without interrupting. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.

B. Describe visible lines, colours, textures and shapes.

C. Choose one clear message about a community need.

D. Roll a smooth ball of soft material.

3. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, what will the learner create or perform in “Ghanaian Artists: Give Feedback on Music or Dance”?

A. a short feedback note

B. a short drama scene

C. an artwork response

D. a motif study

4. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which artistic element is the main focus of “Ghanaian Artists: Give Feedback on Music or Dance”?

A. rhythm

B. pulse

C. volume

D. performance appraisal

5. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Ghanaian Artists: Give Feedback on Music or Dance”?

A. a rehearsed scene with understandable roles

B. an annotated pot drawing

C. a balanced performance review

D. a three-gesture story

CHALLENGE • Ghanaian Artists: Give Feedback on Music or Dance

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, after the opening action in “Ghanaian Artists: Give Feedback on Music or Dance”, what is the second step?

A. Arrange pieces on cardboard before applying glue.

B. Rehearse a concrete change as a group.

C. Echo the pulse by tapping softly four times.

D. Record one strength in timing, expression or teamwork.

7. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which closing action completes the three-stage “Ghanaian Artists: Give Feedback on Music or Dance” activity?

A. Add one personal variation and explain what it represents.

B. Suggest one useful change and say how to rehearse it.

C. Act the scene once and revise a confusing gesture.

D. Guide visitors to observe one artwork and ask a respectful question.

8. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Ghanaian Artists: Give Feedback on Music or Dance”?

A. Respond respectfully and avoid personal insults.

B. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

C. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

D. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

9. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Ghanaian Artists: Give Feedback on Music or Dance”?

A. notice how art can carry cultural meaning

B. use evidence to discuss a performance

C. represent a place through organised sounds

D. shape a useful object from malleable material

10. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, for whom is the finished “Ghanaian Artists: Give Feedback on Music or Dance” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. performers

B. a person who is never shown the work

C. the materials supplier only

D. only the teacher’s desk

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Ghanaian Artists: Give Feedback on Music or Dance

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when assessing “Ghanaian Artists: Give Feedback on Music or Dance”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. shape and function

B. clarity and teamwork

C. evidence and kindness

D. sequence and expression

12. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Ghanaian Artists: Give Feedback on Music or Dance”?

A. assign two pupils the role of hosts

B. invite peers to guess the setting from the sounds

C. use feedback to improve one repeat performance

D. compare the pattern with a friend’s observation

13. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which cultural or geographic context guides “Ghanaian Artists: Give Feedback on Music or Dance” at Basic 4?

A. a style not studied or observed

B. selected artists and traditions in Ghana

C. unrelated global art with no Ghanaian source

D. a made-up artist with no referenced work

14. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when you explain “Ghanaian Artists: Give Feedback on Music or Dance” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a balanced performance review, supported by what you noticed or changed

B. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

C. a guess about performance appraisal without checking the finished work

D. a review that ignores the work entirely

15. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which reason best supports revising your “Ghanaian Artists: Give Feedback on Music or Dance” work after feedback?

A. to improve evidence and kindness

B. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

C. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

D. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

Artist’s reflection

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 19 • Ghanaian Artists: Improve an Artwork with Feedback

Visual Arts / Appraise / Basic 4

Your mission

Today you will revise a work thoughtfully. You will create a revised artwork using a first draft, feedback note and drawing materials.

Do it in three steps

1. Read or listen to one helpful comment on the draft. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.
2. Choose one change that supports the artwork's purpose.
3. Make the change and explain how the second version improved.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with selected artists and traditions in Ghana; study the purpose and style of a selected Ghanaian work before designing.

Level-up art task

Study one Ghanaian artist's work selected by your teacher. Identify an artistic choice involving reflection, then create a personal variation rather than copying the finished artwork.

Safety and kindness

Keep the original to show growth; use tools safely.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a before-and-after artwork comparison and clear purposeful revision. Also try this: invite the original reviewer to compare the two versions.

PLAY • Ghanaian Artists: Improve an Artwork with Feedback

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which materials are listed for “Ghanaian Artists: Improve an Artwork with Feedback”?

A. a first draft, feedback note and drawing materials

B. crayons, scrap paper and a drawing sheet

C. an earlier performance plan and feedback from classmates

D. two contrasting paper colours and pre-cut strips

2. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which observation or preparation starts “Ghanaian Artists: Improve an Artwork with Feedback”?

A. Read or listen to one helpful comment on the draft. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.

B. Choose a character and identify one important action.

C. Assign a speaker, listener and narrator for a short scene.

D. Look at a cloth pattern and point to its repeated marks.

3. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, what will the learner create or perform in “Ghanaian Artists: Improve an Artwork with Feedback”?

A. a sound story

B. a motif study

C. a pinch pot

D. a revised artwork

4. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which artistic element is the main focus of “Ghanaian Artists: Improve an Artwork with Feedback”?

A. repetition

B. presentation

C. staging

D. reflection

5. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Ghanaian Artists: Improve an Artwork with Feedback”?

A. a before-and-after artwork comparison

B. an over-under paper mat

C. a coordinated class performance

D. a balanced performance review

CHALLENGE • Ghanaian Artists: Improve an Artwork with Feedback

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, after the opening action in “Ghanaian Artists: Improve an Artwork with Feedback”, what is the second step?

A. Rehearse entry, performance and respectful exit.

B. Choose one change that supports the artwork’s purpose.

C. Record one strength in timing, expression or teamwork.

D. Arrange pieces on cardboard before applying glue.

7. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which closing action completes the three-stage “Ghanaian Artists: Improve an Artwork with Feedback” activity?

A. Suggest one useful change and say how to rehearse it.

B. Make the change and explain how the second version improved.

C. Give one evidence-based compliment and one possible improvement.

D. Circle the most readable combination and plan where to use it.

8. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Ghanaian Artists: Improve an Artwork with Feedback”?

A. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

B. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

C. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

D. Keep the original to show growth; use tools safely.

9. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Ghanaian Artists: Improve an Artwork with Feedback”?

A. build and repeat a rhythmic pattern

B. reuse materials while arranging an image

C. revise a work thoughtfully

D. explore repeated structure through weaving

10. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, for whom is the finished “Ghanaian Artists: Improve an Artwork with Feedback” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. only the teacher’s desk

B. the materials supplier only

C. peer reviewer

D. a person who is never shown the work

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Ghanaian Artists: Improve an Artwork with Feedback

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when assessing “Ghanaian Artists: Improve an Artwork with Feedback”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. clear purposeful revision

B. message and readability

C. shape and function

D. regular pattern

12. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Ghanaian Artists: Improve an Artwork with Feedback”?

A. invite the original reviewer to compare the two versions

B. record group decisions in a simple rehearsal journal

C. ask classmates what action the poster encourages

D. show which reused material became the focal point

13. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which cultural or geographic context guides “Ghanaian Artists: Improve an Artwork with Feedback” at Basic 4?

A. selected artists and traditions in Ghana

B. unrelated global art with no Ghanaian source

C. a style not studied or observed

D. a made-up artist with no referenced work

14. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when you explain “Ghanaian Artists: Improve an Artwork with Feedback” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a before-and-after artwork comparison, supported by what you noticed or changed

B. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

C. a review that ignores the work entirely

D. a guess about reflection without checking the finished work

15. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which reason best supports revising your “Ghanaian Artists: Improve an Artwork with Feedback” work after feedback?

A. to improve clear purposeful revision

B. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

C. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

D. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

Artist’s reflection

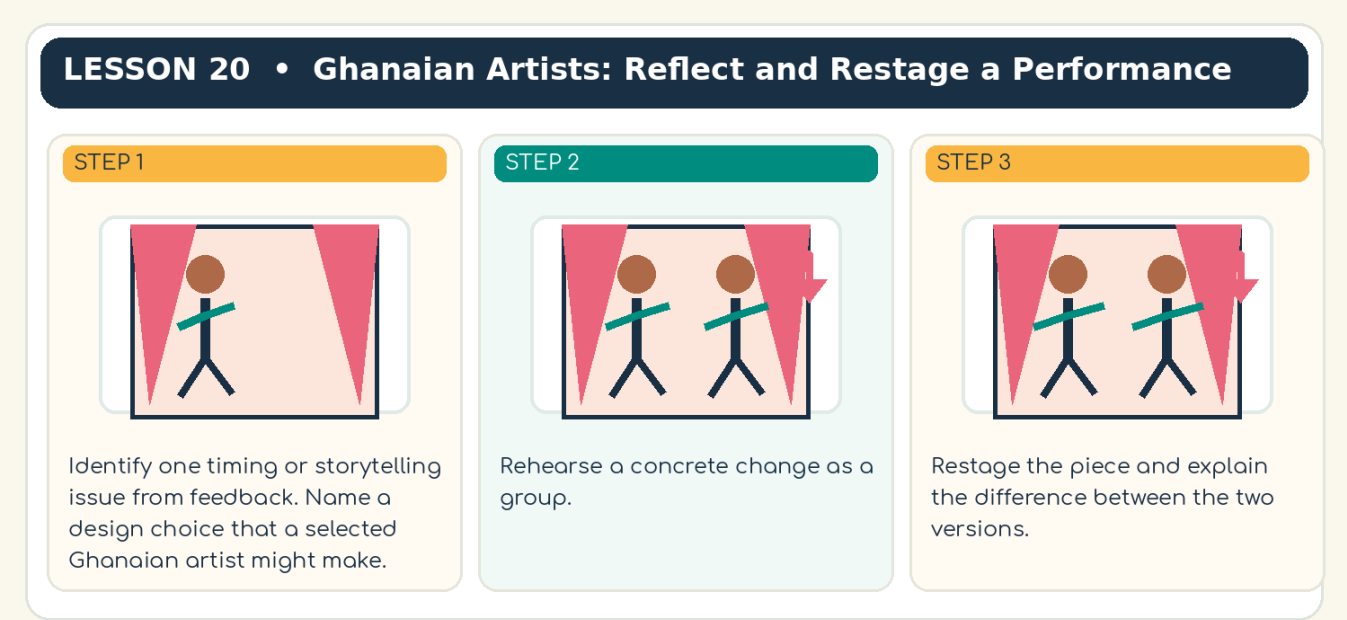

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____

LESSON 20 • Ghanaian Artists: Reflect and Restage a Performance

Performing Arts / Appraise / Basic 4

Your mission

Today you will strengthen performance through reflection. You will create a restaged performance using an earlier performance plan and feedback from classmates.

Do it in three steps

1. Identify one timing or storytelling issue from feedback. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.
2. Rehearse a concrete change as a group.
3. Restage the piece and explain the difference between the two versions.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with selected artists and traditions in Ghana; study the purpose and style of a selected Ghanaian work before designing.

Level-up art task

Study one Ghanaian artist's work selected by your teacher. Identify an artistic choice involving reflection, then create a personal variation rather than copying the finished artwork.

Safety and kindness

Warm up gently and respect each group member's contribution.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for an improved final performance and improvement and cooperation. Also try this: record group decisions in a simple rehearsal journal.

PLAY • Ghanaian Artists: Reflect and Restage a Performance

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which materials are listed for “Ghanaian Artists: Reflect and Restage a Performance”?

A. an earlier performance plan and feedback from classmates

B. crayons, scrap paper and a drawing sheet

C. a first draft, feedback note and drawing materials

D. a class composition, simple programme and safe stage area

2. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which observation or preparation starts “Ghanaian Artists: Reflect and Restage a Performance”?

A. Listen to a short local rhythm and count its pulses.

B. Assign a speaker, listener and narrator for a short scene.

C. Look at a cloth pattern and point to its repeated marks.

D. Identify one timing or storytelling issue from feedback. Name a design choice that a selected Ghanaian artist might make.

3. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, what will the learner create or perform in “Ghanaian Artists: Reflect and Restage a Performance”?

A. a body-percussion pattern

B. a recycled collage

C. a woven paper mat

D. a restaged performance

4. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which artistic element is the main focus of “Ghanaian Artists: Reflect and Restage a Performance”?

A. call and response

B. presentation

C. drama

D. reflection

5. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Ghanaian Artists: Reflect and Restage a Performance”?

A. a three-part soundscape

B. a readable community poster

C. a before-and-after artwork comparison

D. an improved final performance

CHALLENGE • Ghanaian Artists: Reflect and Restage a Performance

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

6. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, after the opening action in “Ghanaian Artists: Reflect and Restage a Performance”, what is the second step?

A. Rehearse a concrete change as a group.

B. Assign each sound to a gentle vocal or body action.

C. Connect them with a pause and a change of direction.

D. Test the colours in small labelled boxes.

7. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which closing action completes the three-stage “Ghanaian Artists: Reflect and Restage a Performance” activity?

A. Practise taking turns as leader and responding group.

B. Suggest one useful change and say how to rehearse it.

C. Perform the pulse with a partner, starting and stopping together.

D. Restage the piece and explain the difference between the two versions.

8. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Ghanaian Artists: Reflect and Restage a Performance”?

A. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

B. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

C. Warm up gently and respect each group member’s contribution.

D. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

9. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Ghanaian Artists: Reflect and Restage a Performance”?

A. represent a place through organised sounds

B. strengthen performance through reflection

C. notice how art can carry cultural meaning

D. recognise pulse and respectful listening

10. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, for whom is the finished “Ghanaian Artists: Reflect and Restage a Performance” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. class audience

B. only the teacher’s desk

C. the materials supplier only

D. a person who is never shown the work

CHALLENGE — CONTINUE • Ghanaian Artists: Reflect and Restage a Performance

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

11. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when assessing “Ghanaian Artists: Reflect and Restage a Performance”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. specific respectful feedback

B. clarity and teamwork

C. improvement and cooperation

D. organisation and care

12. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Ghanaian Artists: Reflect and Restage a Performance”?

A. compare the rim before and after smoothing

B. record group decisions in a simple rehearsal journal

C. swap roles between performer and audience

D. teach your phrase to one partner without collisions

13. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which cultural or geographic context guides “Ghanaian Artists: Reflect and Restage a Performance” at Basic 4?

A. unrelated global art with no Ghanaian source

B. a made-up artist with no referenced work

C. selected artists and traditions in Ghana

D. a style not studied or observed

14. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, when you explain “Ghanaian Artists: Reflect and Restage a Performance” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a guess about reflection without checking the finished work

B. an improved final performance, supported by what you noticed or changed

C. a review that ignores the work entirely

D. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

15. In work about selected artists and traditions in Ghana, which reason best supports revising your “Ghanaian Artists: Reflect and Restage a Performance” work after feedback?

A. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

B. to improve improvement and cooperation

C. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

D. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

Artist’s reflection

I practised: _____ My next improvement: _____