Religious and Moral Education | Basic 4

Illustrated lesson book • English-narrated offline video in course folder • Independent educational resource

Lesson 1: Explain the nature of God as the Creator

Ghanaian religious traditions teach values about creation, human life, care, responsibility and gratitude. Learners can describe beliefs respectfully without judging one another. Older learners should give a reason and one example from their community.

Try: Draw a living thing and write one action people can take to care for it.

Reflect: What could you do to protect a living thing near your school?

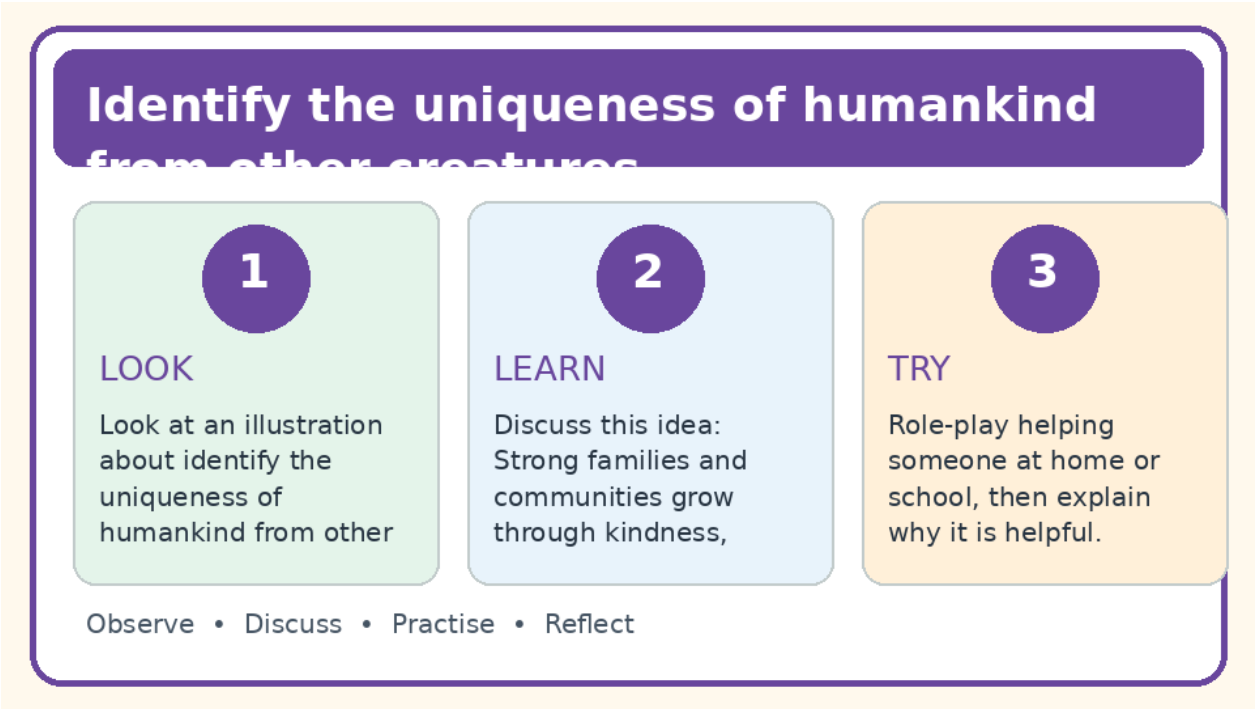

Play (5 questions)

1. Explain the nature of God as the Creator — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Explain the nature of God as the Creator — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Explain the nature of God as the Creator — What should we do first?
4. Explain the nature of God as the Creator — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Explain the nature of God as the Creator — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Explain the nature of God as the Creator — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Explain the nature of God as the Creator — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Explain the nature of God as the Creator — What is the final learning step?
4. Explain the nature of God as the Creator — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Explain the nature of God as the Creator — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Explain the nature of God as the Creator — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Explain the nature of God as the Creator — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Explain the nature of God as the Creator — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Explain the nature of God as the Creator — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Explain the nature of God as the Creator — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 2: Identify the uniqueness of humankind from other creatures

Strong families and communities grow through kindness, cooperation, fairness, responsible decisions and respect for others. People can help one another in many ways. Older learners should give a reason and one example from their community.

Try: Role-play helping someone at home or school, then explain why it is helpful.

Reflect: What does responsible behaviour look like in this situation?

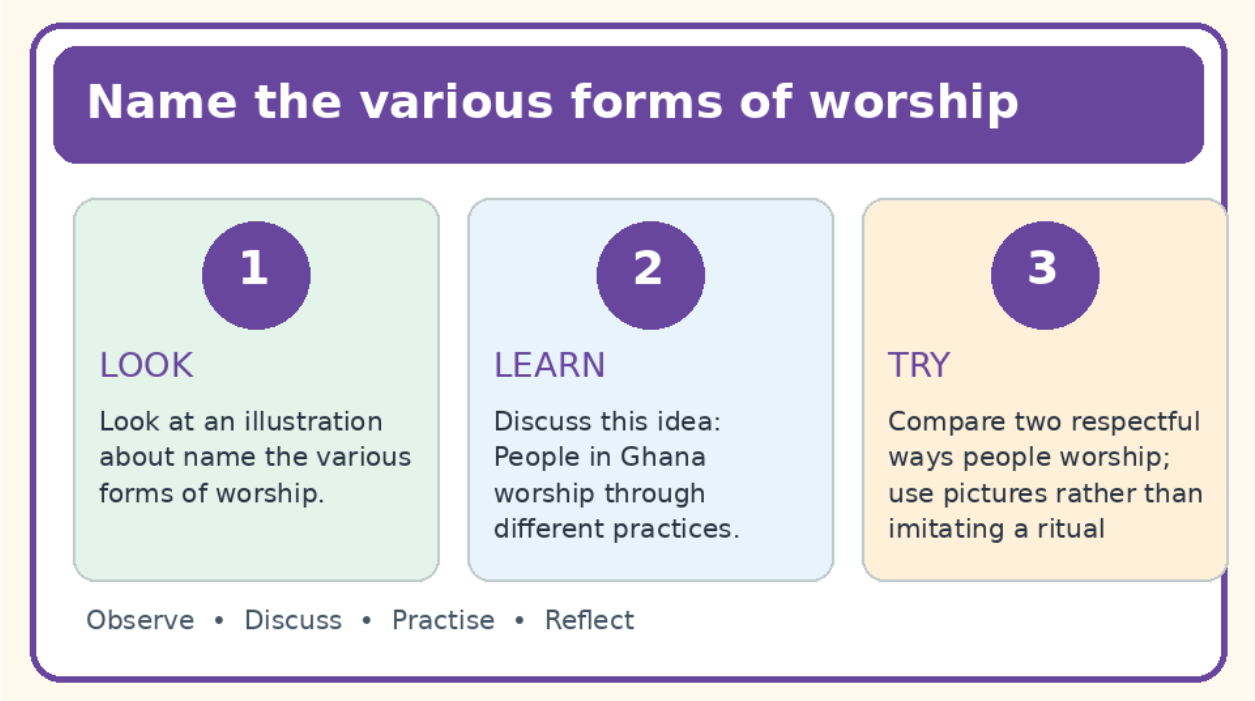

Play (5 questions)

1. Identify the uniqueness of humankind from other creatures — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Identify the uniqueness of humankind from other creatures — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Identify the uniqueness of humankind from other creatures — What should we do first?
4. Identify the uniqueness of humankind from other creatures — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Identify the uniqueness of humankind from other creatures — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Identify the uniqueness of humankind from other creatures — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Identify the uniqueness of humankind from other creatures — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Identify the uniqueness of humankind from other creatures — What is the final learning step?
4. Identify the uniqueness of humankind from other creatures — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Identify the uniqueness of humankind from other creatures — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Identify the uniqueness of humankind from other creatures — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Identify the uniqueness of humankind from other creatures — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Identify the uniqueness of humankind from other creatures — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Identify the uniqueness of humankind from other creatures — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Identify the uniqueness of humankind from other creatures — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 3: Name the various forms of worship

People in Ghana worship through different practices. Christians, Muslims and followers of African Traditional Religion may pray, sing, recite or gather in different ways. All people deserve respect. Older learners should give a reason and one example from their community.

Try: Compare two respectful ways people worship; use pictures rather than imitating a ritual without permission.

Reflect: How can we show respect when a friend worships differently?

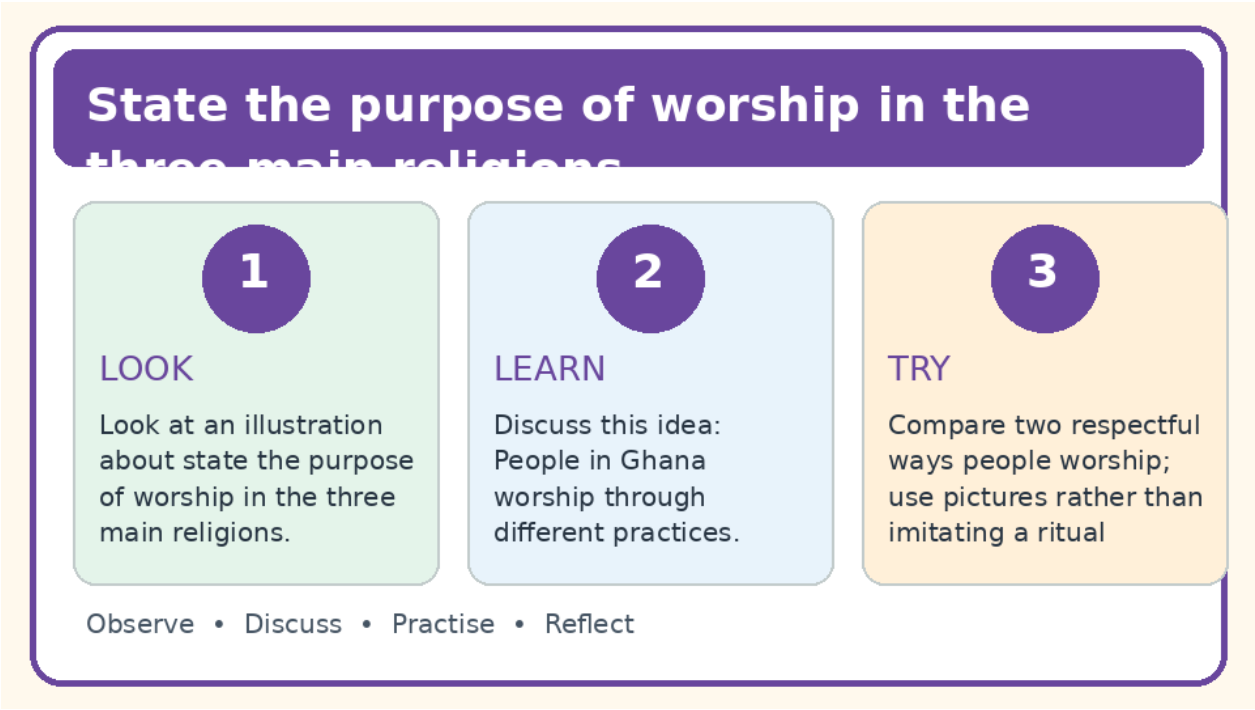

Play (5 questions)

1. Name the various forms of worship — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Name the various forms of worship — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Name the various forms of worship — What should we do first?
4. Name the various forms of worship — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Name the various forms of worship — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Name the various forms of worship — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Name the various forms of worship — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Name the various forms of worship — What is the final learning step?
4. Name the various forms of worship — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Name the various forms of worship — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Name the various forms of worship — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Name the various forms of worship — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Name the various forms of worship — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Name the various forms of worship — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Name the various forms of worship — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 4: State the purpose of worship in the three main religions

People in Ghana worship through different practices. Christians, Muslims and followers of African Traditional Religion may pray, sing, recite or gather in different ways. All people deserve respect. Older learners should give a reason and one example from their community.

Try: Compare two respectful ways people worship; use pictures rather than imitating a ritual without permission.

Reflect: How can we show respect when a friend worships differently?

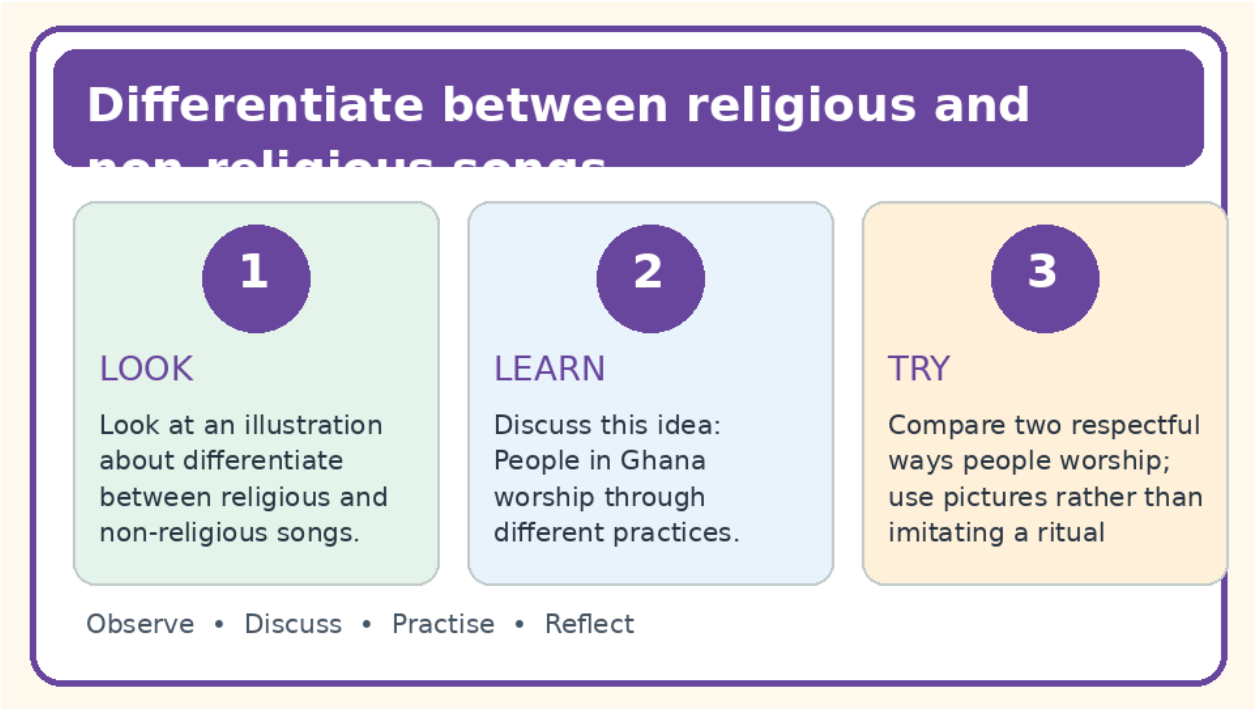

Play (5 questions)

1. State the purpose of worship in the three main religions — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. State the purpose of worship in the three main religions — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. State the purpose of worship in the three main religions — What should we do first?
4. State the purpose of worship in the three main religions — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. State the purpose of worship in the three main religions — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. State the purpose of worship in the three main religions — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. State the purpose of worship in the three main religions — What should follow the first observation step?
3. State the purpose of worship in the three main religions — What is the final learning step?
4. State the purpose of worship in the three main religions — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. State the purpose of worship in the three main religions — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. State the purpose of worship in the three main religions — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. State the purpose of worship in the three main religions — Why should learners share their observations?
8. State the purpose of worship in the three main religions — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. State the purpose of worship in the three main religions — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. State the purpose of worship in the three main religions — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 5: Differentiate between religious and non-religious songs

People in Ghana worship through different practices. Christians, Muslims and followers of African Traditional Religion may pray, sing, recite or gather in different ways. All people deserve respect. Older learners should give a reason and one example from their community.

Try: Compare two respectful ways people worship; use pictures rather than imitating a ritual without permission.

Reflect: How can we show respect when a friend worships differently?

Play (5 questions)

1. Differentiate between religious and non-religious songs — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Differentiate between religious and non-religious songs — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Differentiate between religious and non-religious songs — What should we do first?
4. Differentiate between religious and non-religious songs — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Differentiate between religious and non-religious songs — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Differentiate between religious and non-religious songs — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Differentiate between religious and non-religious songs — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Differentiate between religious and non-religious songs — What is the final learning step?
4. Differentiate between religious and non-religious songs — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Differentiate between religious and non-religious songs — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Differentiate between religious and non-religious songs — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Differentiate between religious and non-religious songs — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Differentiate between religious and non-religious songs — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Differentiate between religious and non-religious songs — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Differentiate between religious and non-religious songs — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 6: Discuss festivals in their neighbourhood

Festivals such as Christmas, Eid and local traditional festivals are occasions for worship, community activities and sharing. Respect different ways of celebrating. Older learners should give a reason and one example from their community.

Try: Make a respectful picture sequence showing preparation, celebration, and sharing during a festival.

Reflect: How could a festival help neighbours show generosity and unity?

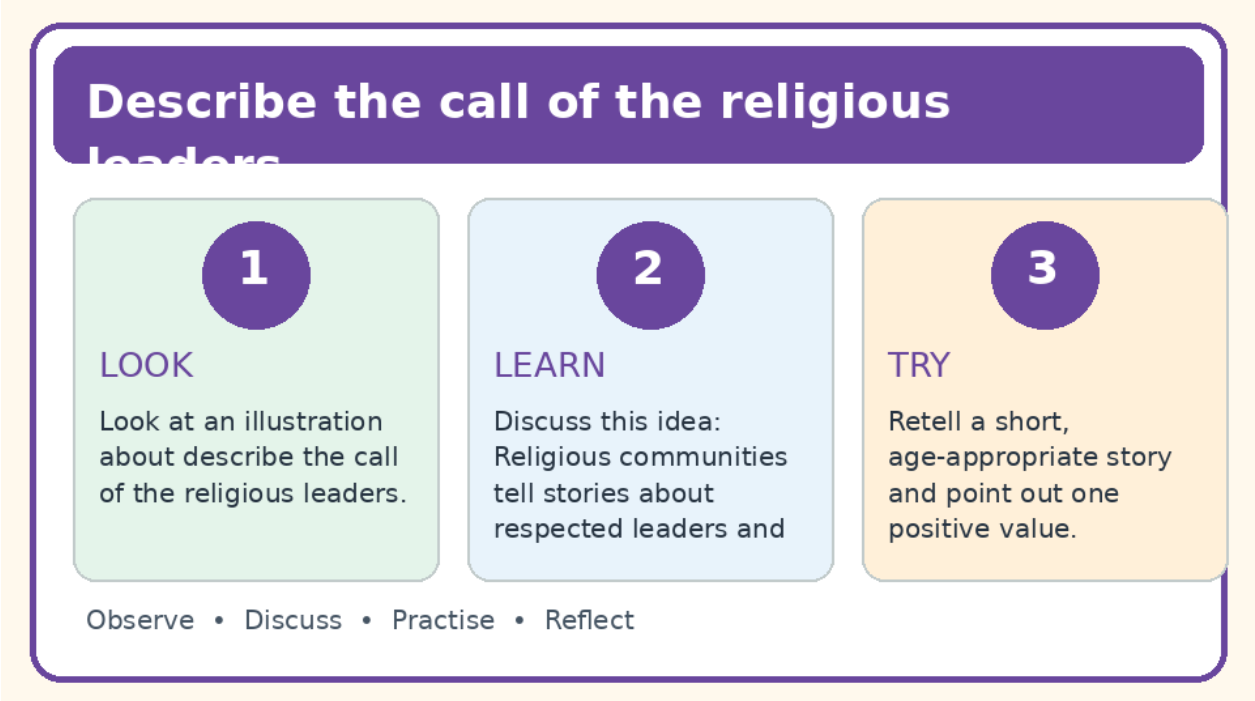

Play (5 questions)

1. Discuss festivals in their neighbourhood — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Discuss festivals in their neighbourhood — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Discuss festivals in their neighbourhood — What should we do first?
4. Discuss festivals in their neighbourhood — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Discuss festivals in their neighbourhood — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Discuss festivals in their neighbourhood — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Discuss festivals in their neighbourhood — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Discuss festivals in their neighbourhood — What is the final learning step?
4. Discuss festivals in their neighbourhood — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Discuss festivals in their neighbourhood — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Discuss festivals in their neighbourhood — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Discuss festivals in their neighbourhood — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Discuss festivals in their neighbourhood — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Discuss festivals in their neighbourhood — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Discuss festivals in their neighbourhood — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 7: Describe the call of the religious leaders

Religious communities tell stories about respected leaders and the lessons learned from their lives. We can compare values such as kindness, courage, truthfulness and service. Older learners should give a reason and one example from their community.

Try: Retell a short, age-appropriate story and point out one positive value.

Reflect: Which value from a leader’s story could help you at school?

Play (5 questions)

1. Describe the call of the religious leaders — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Describe the call of the religious leaders — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Describe the call of the religious leaders — What should we do first?
4. Describe the call of the religious leaders — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Describe the call of the religious leaders — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Describe the call of the religious leaders — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Describe the call of the religious leaders — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Describe the call of the religious leaders — What is the final learning step?
4. Describe the call of the religious leaders — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Describe the call of the religious leaders — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Describe the call of the religious leaders — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Describe the call of the religious leaders — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Describe the call of the religious leaders — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Describe the call of the religious leaders — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Describe the call of the religious leaders — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 8: Explain the need to be committed to God

Ghanaian religious traditions teach values about creation, human life, care, responsibility and gratitude. Learners can describe beliefs respectfully without judging one another. Older learners should give a reason and one example from their community.

Try: Draw a living thing and write one action people can take to care for it.

Reflect: What could you do to protect a living thing near your school?

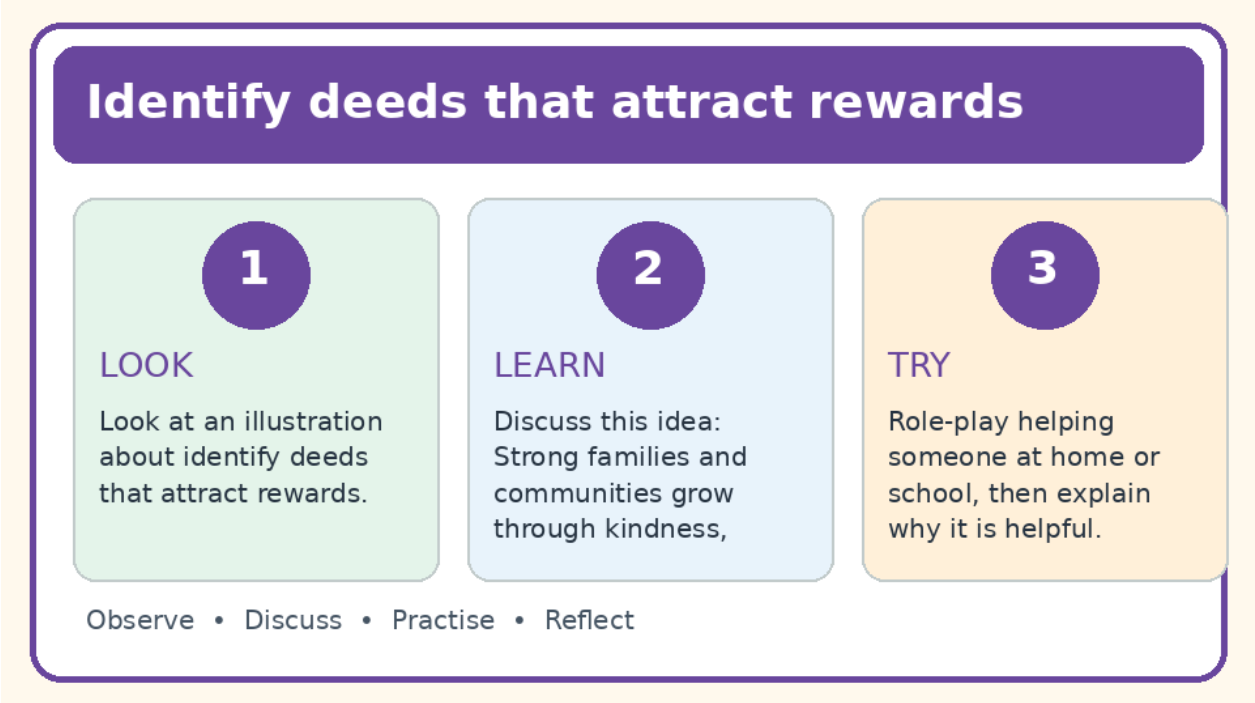

Play (5 questions)

1. Explain the need to be committed to God — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Explain the need to be committed to God — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Explain the need to be committed to God — What should we do first?
4. Explain the need to be committed to God — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Explain the need to be committed to God — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Explain the need to be committed to God — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Explain the need to be committed to God — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Explain the need to be committed to God — What is the final learning step?
4. Explain the need to be committed to God — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Explain the need to be committed to God — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Explain the need to be committed to God — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Explain the need to be committed to God — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Explain the need to be committed to God — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Explain the need to be committed to God — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Explain the need to be committed to God — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 9: Identify deeds that attract rewards

Strong families and communities grow through kindness, cooperation, fairness, responsible decisions and respect for others. People can help one another in many ways. Older learners should give a reason and one example from their community.

Try: Role-play helping someone at home or school, then explain why it is helpful.

Reflect: What does responsible behaviour look like in this situation?

Play (5 questions)

1. Identify deeds that attract rewards — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Identify deeds that attract rewards — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Identify deeds that attract rewards — What should we do first?
4. Identify deeds that attract rewards — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Identify deeds that attract rewards — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Identify deeds that attract rewards — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Identify deeds that attract rewards — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Identify deeds that attract rewards — What is the final learning step?
4. Identify deeds that attract rewards — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Identify deeds that attract rewards — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Identify deeds that attract rewards — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Identify deeds that attract rewards — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Identify deeds that attract rewards — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Identify deeds that attract rewards — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Identify deeds that attract rewards — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 10: Give reasons for rewarding good deeds

Strong families and communities grow through kindness, cooperation, fairness, responsible decisions and respect for others. People can help one another in many ways. Older learners should give a reason and one example from their community.

Try: Role-play helping someone at home or school, then explain why it is helpful.

Reflect: What does responsible behaviour look like in this situation?

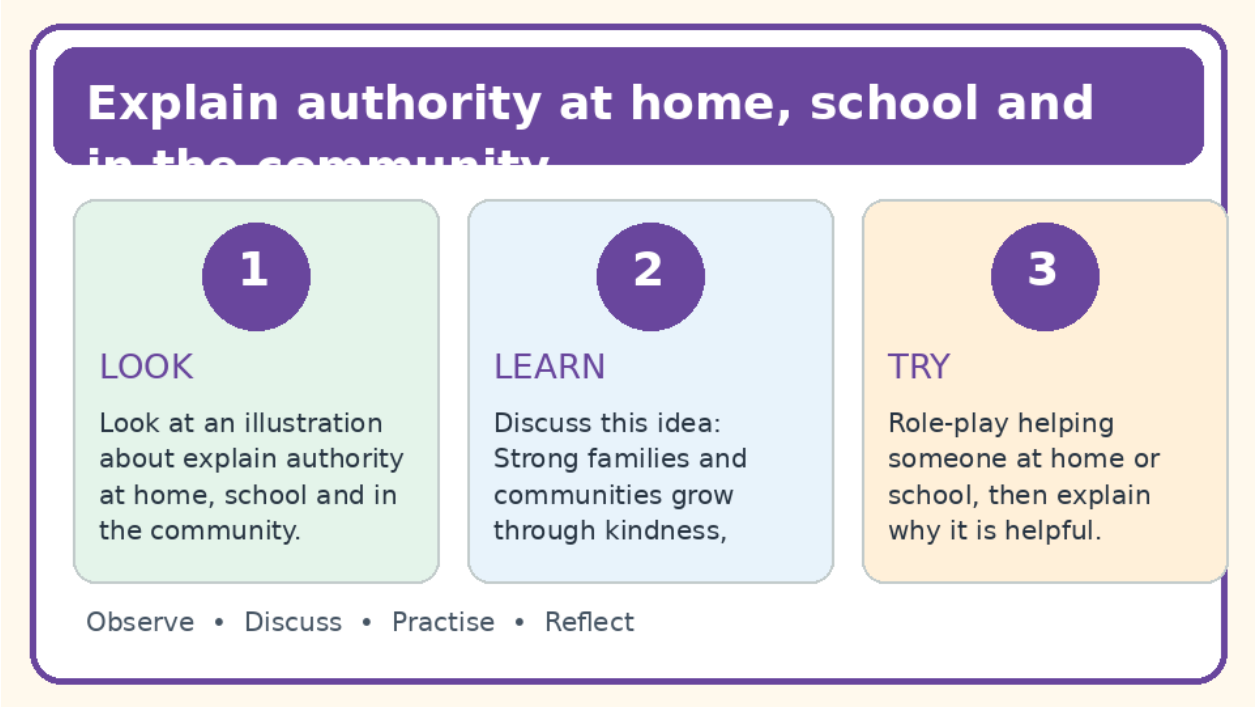

Play (5 questions)

1. Give reasons for rewarding good deeds — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Give reasons for rewarding good deeds — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Give reasons for rewarding good deeds — What should we do first?
4. Give reasons for rewarding good deeds — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Give reasons for rewarding good deeds — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Give reasons for rewarding good deeds — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Give reasons for rewarding good deeds — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Give reasons for rewarding good deeds — What is the final learning step?
4. Give reasons for rewarding good deeds — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Give reasons for rewarding good deeds — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Give reasons for rewarding good deeds — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Give reasons for rewarding good deeds — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Give reasons for rewarding good deeds — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Give reasons for rewarding good deeds — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Give reasons for rewarding good deeds — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 11: Explain authority at home, school and in the community

Strong families and communities grow through kindness, cooperation, fairness, responsible decisions and respect for others. People can help one another in many ways. Older learners should give a reason and one example from their community.

Try: Role-play helping someone at home or school, then explain why it is helpful.

Reflect: What does responsible behaviour look like in this situation?

Play (5 questions)

1. Explain authority at home, school and in the community — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Explain authority at home, school and in the community — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Explain authority at home, school and in the community — What should we do first?
4. Explain authority at home, school and in the community — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Explain authority at home, school and in the community — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Explain authority at home, school and in the community — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Explain authority at home, school and in the community — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Explain authority at home, school and in the community — What is the final learning step?
4. Explain authority at home, school and in the community — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Explain authority at home, school and in the community — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Explain authority at home, school and in the community — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Explain authority at home, school and in the community — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Explain authority at home, school and in the community — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Explain authority at home, school and in the community — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Explain authority at home, school and in the community — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 12: Discuss the importance of being a committed member of the family

Strong families and communities grow through kindness, cooperation, fairness, responsible decisions and respect for others. People can help one another in many ways. Older learners should give a reason and one example from their community.

Try: Role-play helping someone at home or school, then explain why it is helpful.

Reflect: What does responsible behaviour look like in this situation?

Play (5 questions)

1. Discuss the importance of being a committed member of the family — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Discuss the importance of being a committed member of the family — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Discuss the importance of being a committed member of the family — What should we do first?
4. Discuss the importance of being a committed member of the family — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Discuss the importance of being a committed member of the family — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Discuss the importance of being a committed member of the family — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Discuss the importance of being a committed member of the family — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Discuss the importance of being a committed member of the family — What is the final learning step?
4. Discuss the importance of being a committed member of the family — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Discuss the importance of being a committed member of the family — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Discuss the importance of being a committed member of the family — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Discuss the importance of being a committed member of the family — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Discuss the importance of being a committed member of the family — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Discuss the importance of being a committed member of the family — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Discuss the importance of being a committed member of the family — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?