Religious and Moral Education | Basic 5

Illustrated lesson book • English-narrated offline video in course folder • Independent educational resource

Lesson 1: Explain how special each individual is

Strong families and communities grow through kindness, cooperation, fairness, responsible decisions and respect for others. People can help one another in many ways. Older learners should give a reason and one example from their community.

Try: Role-play helping someone at home or school, then explain why it is helpful.

Reflect: What does responsible behaviour look like in this situation?

Play (5 questions)

1. Explain how special each individual is — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Explain how special each individual is — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Explain how special each individual is — What should we do first?
4. Explain how special each individual is — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Explain how special each individual is — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Explain how special each individual is — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Explain how special each individual is — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Explain how special each individual is — What is the final learning step?
4. Explain how special each individual is — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Explain how special each individual is — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Explain how special each individual is — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Explain how special each individual is — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Explain how special each individual is — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Explain how special each individual is — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Explain how special each individual is — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 2: State the qualities of God that humankind should demonstrate

Ghanaian religious traditions teach values about creation, human life, care, responsibility and gratitude. Learners can describe beliefs respectfully without judging one another. Older learners should give a reason and one example from their community.

Try: Draw a living thing and write one action people can take to care for it.

Reflect: What could you do to protect a living thing near your school?

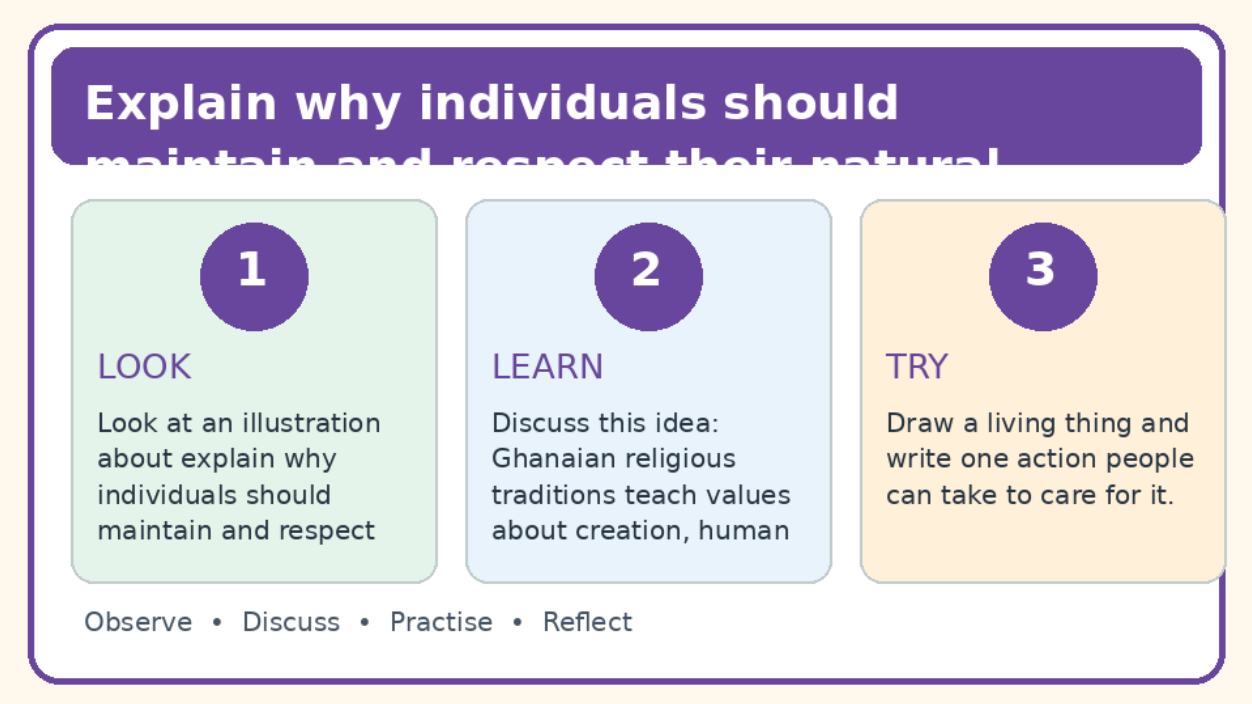

Play (5 questions)

1. State the qualities of God that humankind should demonstrate — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. State the qualities of God that humankind should demonstrate — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. State the qualities of God that humankind should demonstrate — What should we do first?
4. State the qualities of God that humankind should demonstrate — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. State the qualities of God that humankind should demonstrate — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. State the qualities of God that humankind should demonstrate — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. State the qualities of God that humankind should demonstrate — What should follow the first observation step?
3. State the qualities of God that humankind should demonstrate — What is the final learning step?
4. State the qualities of God that humankind should demonstrate — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. State the qualities of God that humankind should demonstrate — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. State the qualities of God that humankind should demonstrate — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. State the qualities of God that humankind should demonstrate — Why should learners share their observations?
8. State the qualities of God that humankind should demonstrate — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. State the qualities of God that humankind should demonstrate — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. State the qualities of God that humankind should demonstrate — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 3: Explain why individuals should maintain and respect their natural appearances

Ghanaian religious traditions teach values about creation, human life, care, responsibility and gratitude. Learners can describe beliefs respectfully without judging one another. Older learners should give a reason and one example from their community.

Try: Draw a living thing and write one action people can take to care for it.

Reflect: What could you do to protect a living thing near your school?

Play (5 questions)

1. Explain why individuals should maintain and respect their natural appearances — What is the main skill in this lesson?

2. Explain why individuals should maintain and respect their natural appearances — Which resource helps us explore this topic?

3. Explain why individuals should maintain and respect their natural appearances — What should we do first?

4. Explain why individuals should maintain and respect their natural appearances — Which action completes the classroom activity?

5. Explain why individuals should maintain and respect their natural appearances — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Explain why individuals should maintain and respect their natural appearances — What evidence shows practical learning?

2. Explain why individuals should maintain and respect their natural appearances — What should follow the first observation step?

3. Explain why individuals should maintain and respect their natural appearances — What is the final learning step?

4. Explain why individuals should maintain and respect their natural appearances — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?

5. Explain why individuals should maintain and respect their natural appearances — Which statement fits a fair assessment?

6. Explain why individuals should maintain and respect their natural appearances — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?

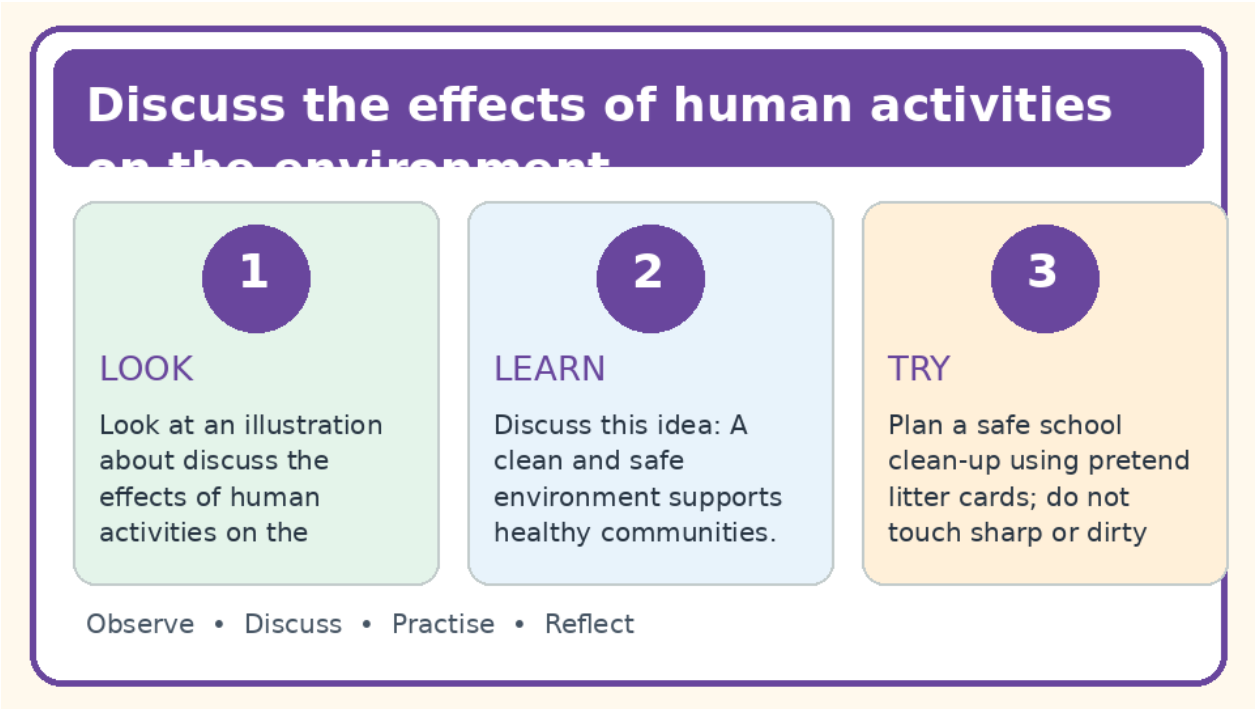

7. Explain why individuals should maintain and respect their natural appearances — Why should learners share their observations?

8. Explain why individuals should maintain and respect their natural appearances — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?

9. Explain why individuals should maintain and respect their natural appearances — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?

10. Explain why individuals should maintain and respect their natural appearances — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 4: Discuss the effects of human activities on the environment

A clean and safe environment supports healthy communities. Caring for rivers, plants, school grounds, and shared spaces is a responsibility we can practise. Older learners should give a reason and one example from their community.

Try: Plan a safe school clean-up using pretend litter cards; do not touch sharp or dirty waste.

Reflect: Which safe action would improve the school environment most?

Play (5 questions)

1. Discuss the effects of human activities on the environment — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Discuss the effects of human activities on the environment — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Discuss the effects of human activities on the environment — What should we do first?
4. Discuss the effects of human activities on the environment — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Discuss the effects of human activities on the environment — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Discuss the effects of human activities on the environment — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Discuss the effects of human activities on the environment — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Discuss the effects of human activities on the environment — What is the final learning step?
4. Discuss the effects of human activities on the environment — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Discuss the effects of human activities on the environment — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Discuss the effects of human activities on the environment — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Discuss the effects of human activities on the environment — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Discuss the effects of human activities on the environment — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Discuss the effects of human activities on the environment — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Discuss the effects of human activities on the environment — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 5: Demonstrate ways to care for the environment

A clean and safe environment supports healthy communities. Caring for rivers, plants, school grounds, and shared spaces is a responsibility we can practise. Older learners should give a reason and one example from their community.

Try: Plan a safe school clean-up using pretend litter cards; do not touch sharp or dirty waste.

Reflect: Which safe action would improve the school environment most?

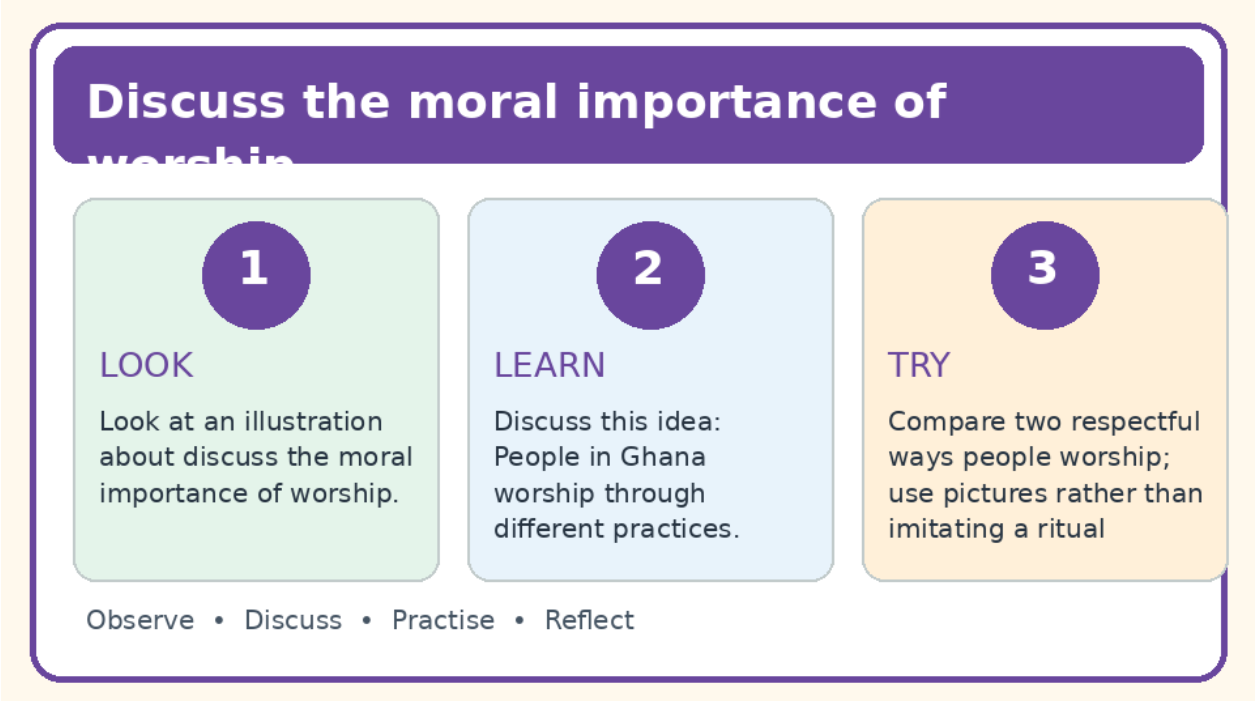

Play (5 questions)

1. Demonstrate ways to care for the environment — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Demonstrate ways to care for the environment — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Demonstrate ways to care for the environment — What should we do first?
4. Demonstrate ways to care for the environment — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Demonstrate ways to care for the environment — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Demonstrate ways to care for the environment — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Demonstrate ways to care for the environment — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Demonstrate ways to care for the environment — What is the final learning step?
4. Demonstrate ways to care for the environment — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Demonstrate ways to care for the environment — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Demonstrate ways to care for the environment — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Demonstrate ways to care for the environment — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Demonstrate ways to care for the environment — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Demonstrate ways to care for the environment — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Demonstrate ways to care for the environment — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 6: Discuss the moral importance of worship

People in Ghana worship through different practices. Christians, Muslims and followers of African Traditional Religion may pray, sing, recite or gather in different ways. All people deserve respect. Older learners should give a reason and one example from their community.

Try: Compare two respectful ways people worship; use pictures rather than imitating a ritual without permission.

Reflect: How can we show respect when a friend worships differently?

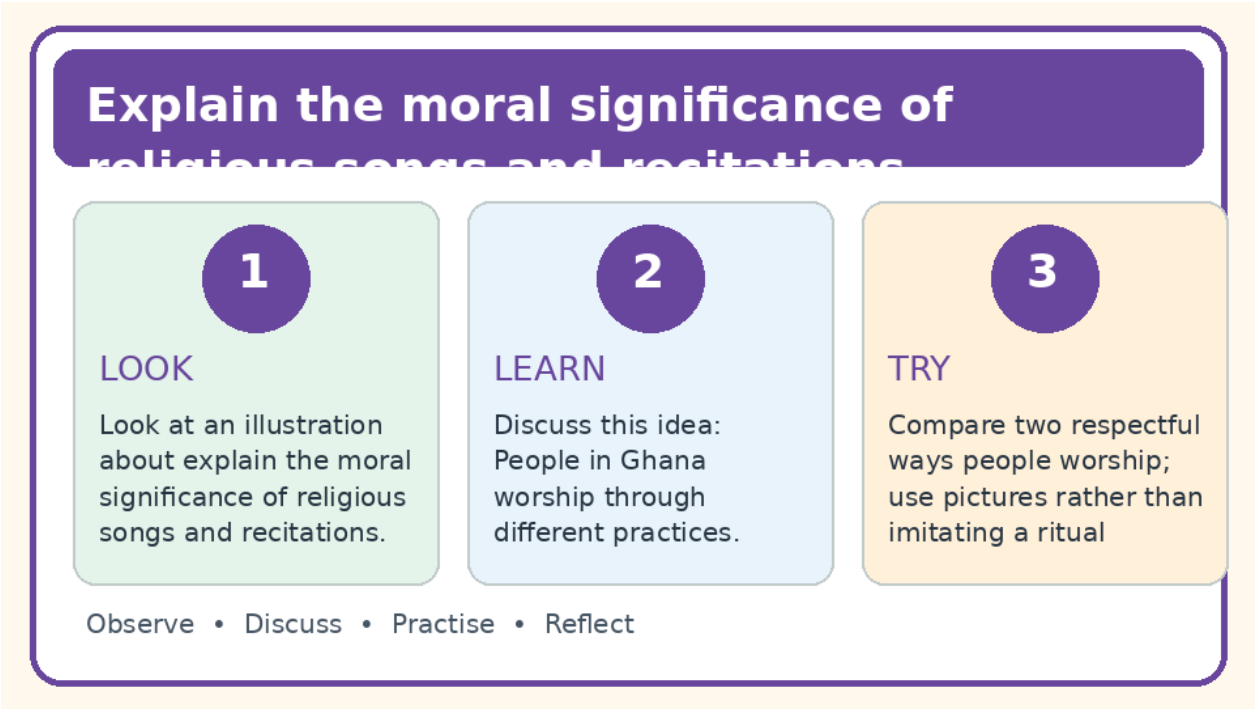

Play (5 questions)

1. Discuss the moral importance of worship — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Discuss the moral importance of worship — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Discuss the moral importance of worship — What should we do first?
4. Discuss the moral importance of worship — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Discuss the moral importance of worship — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Discuss the moral importance of worship — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Discuss the moral importance of worship — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Discuss the moral importance of worship — What is the final learning step?
4. Discuss the moral importance of worship — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Discuss the moral importance of worship — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Discuss the moral importance of worship — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Discuss the moral importance of worship — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Discuss the moral importance of worship — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Discuss the moral importance of worship — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Discuss the moral importance of worship — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 7: Explain the moral significance of religious songs and recitations

People in Ghana worship through different practices. Christians, Muslims and followers of African Traditional Religion may pray, sing, recite or gather in different ways. All people deserve respect. Older learners should give a reason and one example from their community.

Try: Compare two respectful ways people worship; use pictures rather than imitating a ritual without permission.

Reflect: How can we show respect when a friend worships differently?

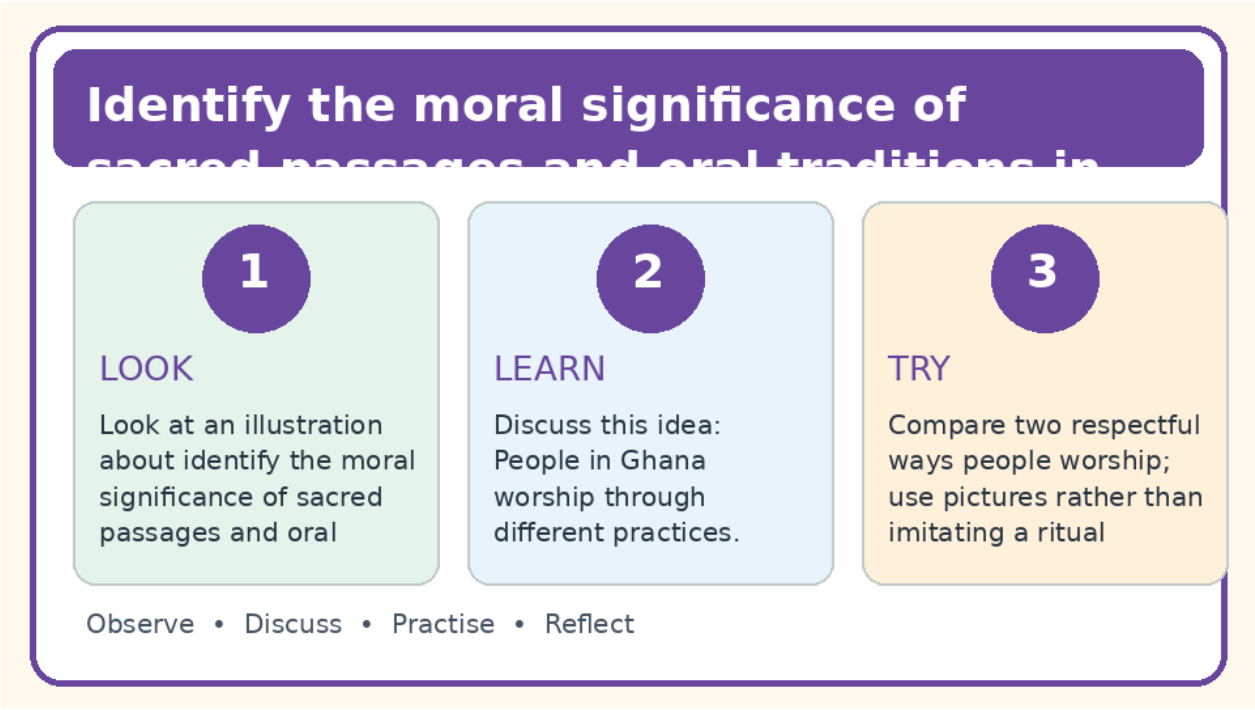

Play (5 questions)

1. Explain the moral significance of religious songs and recitations — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Explain the moral significance of religious songs and recitations — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Explain the moral significance of religious songs and recitations — What should we do first?
4. Explain the moral significance of religious songs and recitations — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Explain the moral significance of religious songs and recitations — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Explain the moral significance of religious songs and recitations — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Explain the moral significance of religious songs and recitations — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Explain the moral significance of religious songs and recitations — What is the final learning step?
4. Explain the moral significance of religious songs and recitations — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Explain the moral significance of religious songs and recitations — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Explain the moral significance of religious songs and recitations — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Explain the moral significance of religious songs and recitations — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Explain the moral significance of religious songs and recitations — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Explain the moral significance of religious songs and recitations — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Explain the moral significance of religious songs and recitations — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 8: Identify the moral significance of sacred passages and oral traditions in the three main religions

People in Ghana worship through different practices. Christians, Muslims and followers of African Traditional Religion may pray, sing, recite or gather in different ways. All people deserve respect. Older learners should give a reason and one example from their community.

Try: Compare two respectful ways people worship; use pictures rather than imitating a ritual without permission.

Reflect: How can we show respect when a friend worships differently?

Play (5 questions)

1. Identify the moral significance of sacred passages and oral traditions in the three main religions — What is the main skill in this lesson?

2. Identify the moral significance of sacred passages and oral traditions in the three main religions — Which resource helps us explore this topic?

3. Identify the moral significance of sacred passages and oral traditions in the three main religions — What should we do first?

4. Identify the moral significance of sacred passages and oral traditions in the three main religions — Which action completes the classroom activity?

5. Identify the moral significance of sacred passages and oral traditions in the three main religions — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Identify the moral significance of sacred passages and oral traditions in the three main religions — What evidence shows practical learning?

2. Identify the moral significance of sacred passages and oral traditions in the three main religions — What should follow the first observation step?

3. Identify the moral significance of sacred passages and oral traditions in the three main religions — What is the final learning step?

4. Identify the moral significance of sacred passages and oral traditions in the three main religions — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?

5. Identify the moral significance of sacred passages and oral traditions in the three main religions — Which statement fits a fair assessment?

6. Identify the moral significance of sacred passages and oral traditions in the three main religions — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?

7. Identify the moral significance of sacred passages and oral traditions in the three main religions — Why should learners share their observations?

8. Identify the moral significance of sacred passages and oral traditions in the three main religions — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?

9. Identify the moral significance of sacred passages and oral traditions in the three main religions — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?

10. Identify the moral significance of sacred passages and oral traditions in the three main religions — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 9: Describe the key events in the ministry of the leaders of the three religions

Religious communities tell stories about respected leaders and the lessons learned from their lives. We can compare values such as kindness, courage, truthfulness and service. Older learners should give a reason and one example from their community.

Try: Retell a short, age-appropriate story and point out one positive value.

Reflect: Which value from a leader’s story could help you at school?

Play (5 questions)

1. Describe the key events in the ministry of the leaders of the three religions — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Describe the key events in the ministry of the leaders of the three religions — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Describe the key events in the ministry of the leaders of the three religions — What should we do first?
4. Describe the key events in the ministry of the leaders of the three religions — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Describe the key events in the ministry of the leaders of the three religions — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Describe the key events in the ministry of the leaders of the three religions — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Describe the key events in the ministry of the leaders of the three religions — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Describe the key events in the ministry of the leaders of the three religions — What is the final learning step?
4. Describe the key events in the ministry of the leaders of the three religions — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Describe the key events in the ministry of the leaders of the three religions — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Describe the key events in the ministry of the leaders of the three religions — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Describe the key events in the ministry of the leaders of the three religions — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Describe the key events in the ministry of the leaders of the three religions — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Describe the key events in the ministry of the leaders of the three religions — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Describe the key events in the ministry of the leaders of the three religions — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 10: Outline the moral lessons from the ministry of the various leaders

Religious communities tell stories about respected leaders and the lessons learned from their lives. We can compare values such as kindness, courage, truthfulness and service. Older learners should give a reason and one example from their community.

Try: Retell a short, age-appropriate story and point out one positive value.

Reflect: Which value from a leader’s story could help you at school?

Play (5 questions)

1. Outline the moral lessons from the ministry of the various leaders — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Outline the moral lessons from the ministry of the various leaders — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Outline the moral lessons from the ministry of the various leaders — What should we do first?
4. Outline the moral lessons from the ministry of the various leaders — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Outline the moral lessons from the ministry of the various leaders — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Outline the moral lessons from the ministry of the various leaders — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Outline the moral lessons from the ministry of the various leaders — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Outline the moral lessons from the ministry of the various leaders — What is the final learning step?
4. Outline the moral lessons from the ministry of the various leaders — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Outline the moral lessons from the ministry of the various leaders — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Outline the moral lessons from the ministry of the various leaders — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Outline the moral lessons from the ministry of the various leaders — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Outline the moral lessons from the ministry of the various leaders — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Outline the moral lessons from the ministry of the various leaders — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Outline the moral lessons from the ministry of the various leaders — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 11: Explain the need to be a committed member of the family

Strong families and communities grow through kindness, cooperation, fairness, responsible decisions and respect for others. People can help one another in many ways. Older learners should give a reason and one example from their community.

Try: Role-play helping someone at home or school, then explain why it is helpful.

Reflect: What does responsible behaviour look like in this situation?

Play (5 questions)

1. Explain the need to be a committed member of the family — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Explain the need to be a committed member of the family — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Explain the need to be a committed member of the family — What should we do first?
4. Explain the need to be a committed member of the family — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Explain the need to be a committed member of the family — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Explain the need to be a committed member of the family — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Explain the need to be a committed member of the family — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Explain the need to be a committed member of the family — What is the final learning step?
4. Explain the need to be a committed member of the family — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Explain the need to be a committed member of the family — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Explain the need to be a committed member of the family — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Explain the need to be a committed member of the family — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Explain the need to be a committed member of the family — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Explain the need to be a committed member of the family — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Explain the need to be a committed member of the family — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 12: Demonstrate things to do to show commitment as members of the family

Strong families and communities grow through kindness, cooperation, fairness, responsible decisions and respect for others. People can help one another in many ways. Older learners should give a reason and one example from their community.

Try: Role-play helping someone at home or school, then explain why it is helpful.

Reflect: What does responsible behaviour look like in this situation?

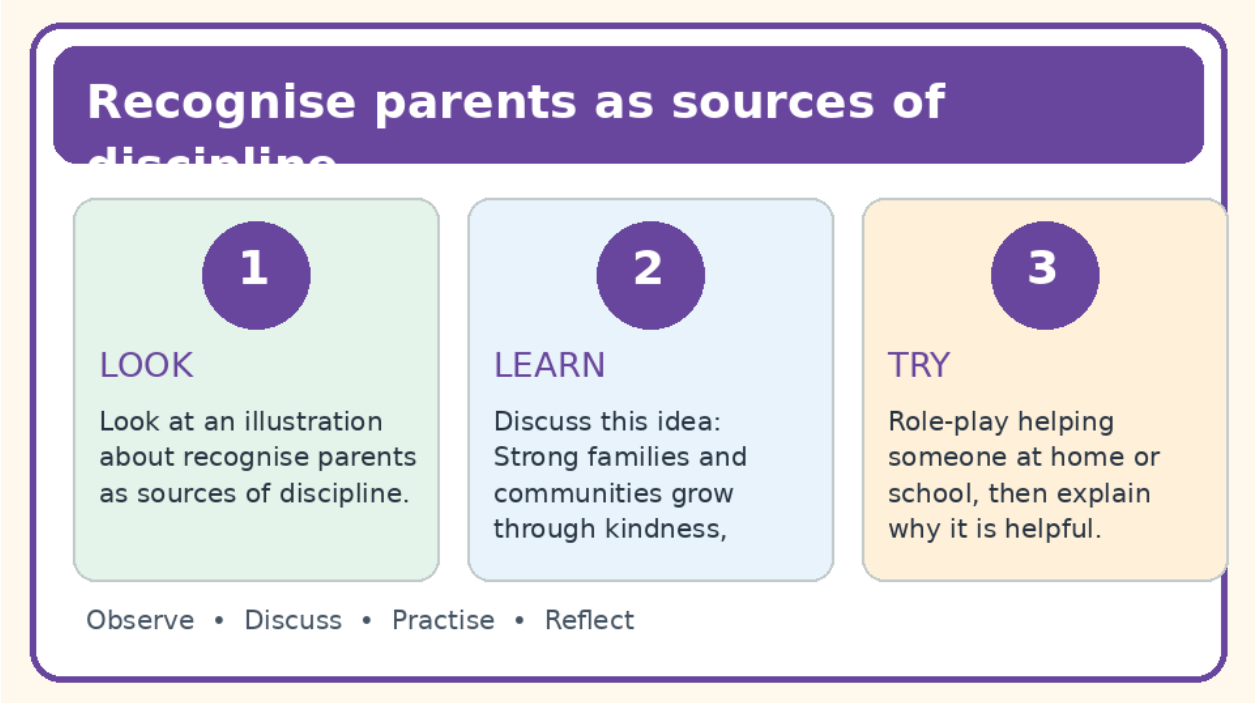

Play (5 questions)

1. Demonstrate things to do to show commitment as members of the family — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Demonstrate things to do to show commitment as members of the family — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Demonstrate things to do to show commitment as members of the family — What should we do first?
4. Demonstrate things to do to show commitment as members of the family — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Demonstrate things to do to show commitment as members of the family — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Demonstrate things to do to show commitment as members of the family — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Demonstrate things to do to show commitment as members of the family — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Demonstrate things to do to show commitment as members of the family — What is the final learning step?
4. Demonstrate things to do to show commitment as members of the family — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Demonstrate things to do to show commitment as members of the family — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Demonstrate things to do to show commitment as members of the family — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Demonstrate things to do to show commitment as members of the family — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Demonstrate things to do to show commitment as members of the family — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Demonstrate things to do to show commitment as members of the family — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Demonstrate things to do to show commitment as members of the family — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 13: Recognise parents as sources of discipline

Strong families and communities grow through kindness, cooperation, fairness, responsible decisions and respect for others. People can help one another in many ways. Older learners should give a reason and one example from their community.

Try: Role-play helping someone at home or school, then explain why it is helpful.

Reflect: What does responsible behaviour look like in this situation?

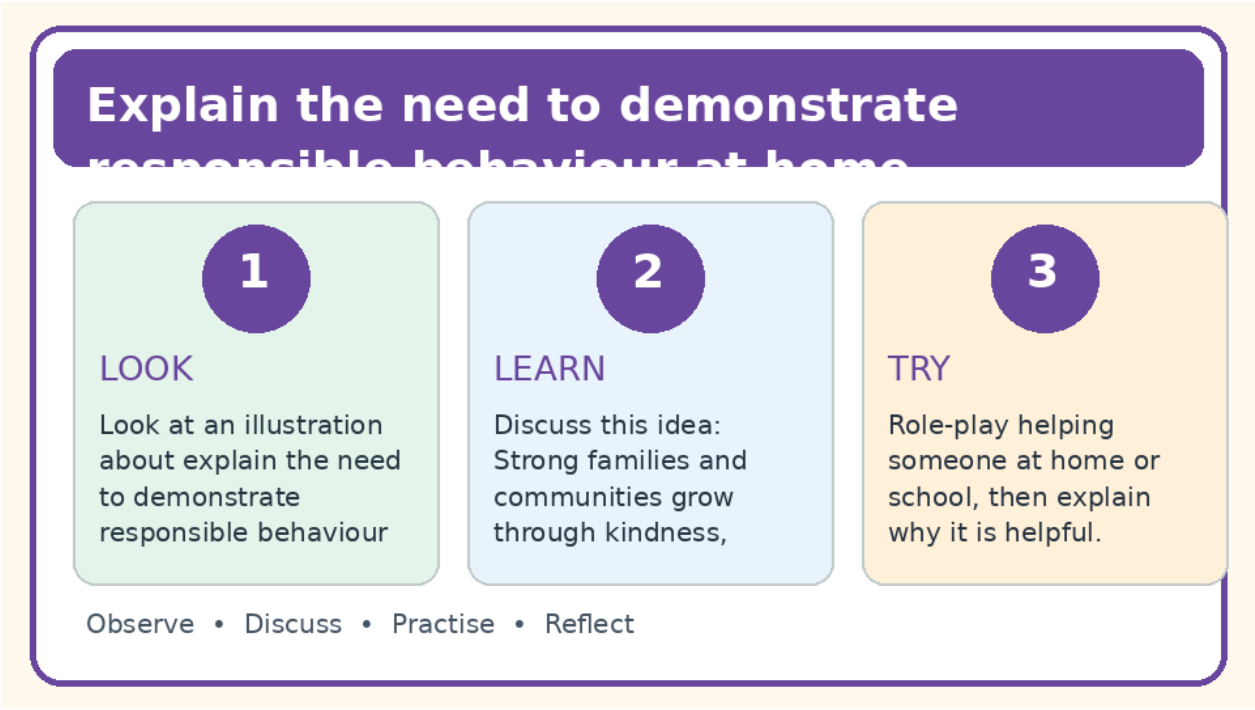

Play (5 questions)

1. Recognise parents as sources of discipline — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Recognise parents as sources of discipline — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Recognise parents as sources of discipline — What should we do first?
4. Recognise parents as sources of discipline — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Recognise parents as sources of discipline — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Recognise parents as sources of discipline — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Recognise parents as sources of discipline — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Recognise parents as sources of discipline — What is the final learning step?
4. Recognise parents as sources of discipline — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Recognise parents as sources of discipline — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Recognise parents as sources of discipline — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Recognise parents as sources of discipline — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Recognise parents as sources of discipline — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Recognise parents as sources of discipline — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Recognise parents as sources of discipline — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 14: Explain the need to demonstrate responsible behaviour at home

Strong families and communities grow through kindness, cooperation, fairness, responsible decisions and respect for others. People can help one another in many ways. Older learners should give a reason and one example from their community.

Try: Role-play helping someone at home or school, then explain why it is helpful.

Reflect: What does responsible behaviour look like in this situation?

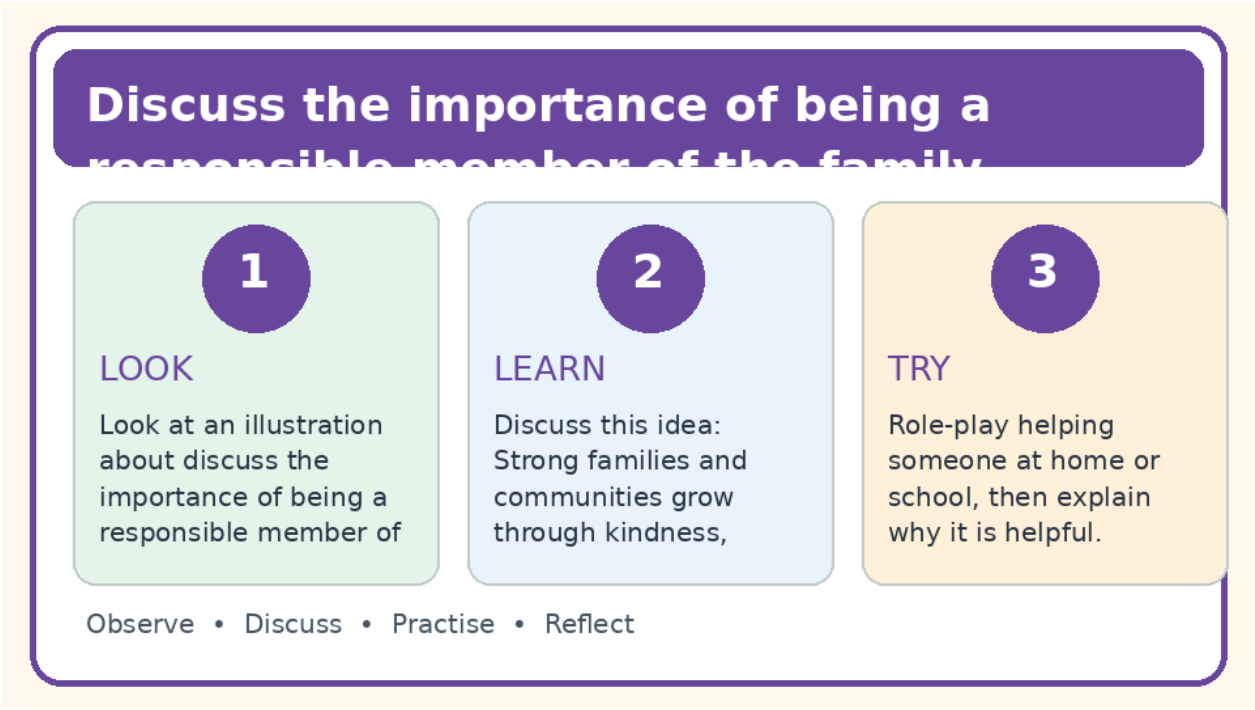

Play (5 questions)

1. Explain the need to demonstrate responsible behaviour at home — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Explain the need to demonstrate responsible behaviour at home — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Explain the need to demonstrate responsible behaviour at home — What should we do first?
4. Explain the need to demonstrate responsible behaviour at home — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Explain the need to demonstrate responsible behaviour at home — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Explain the need to demonstrate responsible behaviour at home — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Explain the need to demonstrate responsible behaviour at home — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Explain the need to demonstrate responsible behaviour at home — What is the final learning step?
4. Explain the need to demonstrate responsible behaviour at home — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Explain the need to demonstrate responsible behaviour at home — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Explain the need to demonstrate responsible behaviour at home — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Explain the need to demonstrate responsible behaviour at home — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Explain the need to demonstrate responsible behaviour at home — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Explain the need to demonstrate responsible behaviour at home — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Explain the need to demonstrate responsible behaviour at home — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 15: Discuss the importance of being a responsible member of the family

Strong families and communities grow through kindness, cooperation, fairness, responsible decisions and respect for others. People can help one another in many ways. Older learners should give a reason and one example from their community.

Try: Role-play helping someone at home or school, then explain why it is helpful.

Reflect: What does responsible behaviour look like in this situation?

Play (5 questions)

1. Discuss the importance of being a responsible member of the family — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Discuss the importance of being a responsible member of the family — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Discuss the importance of being a responsible member of the family — What should we do first?
4. Discuss the importance of being a responsible member of the family — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Discuss the importance of being a responsible member of the family — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Discuss the importance of being a responsible member of the family — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Discuss the importance of being a responsible member of the family — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Discuss the importance of being a responsible member of the family — What is the final learning step?
4. Discuss the importance of being a responsible member of the family — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Discuss the importance of being a responsible member of the family — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Discuss the importance of being a responsible member of the family — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Discuss the importance of being a responsible member of the family — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Discuss the importance of being a responsible member of the family — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Discuss the importance of being a responsible member of the family — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Discuss the importance of being a responsible member of the family — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?