Religious and Moral Education | Basic 1

Illustrated lesson book • English-narrated offline video in course folder • Independent educational resource

Lesson 1: Explore God’s Creation

Ghanaian religious traditions teach values about creation, human life, care, responsibility and gratitude. Learners can describe beliefs respectfully without judging one another.

Try: Draw a living thing and write one action people can take to care for it.

Reflect: What could you do to protect a living thing near your school?

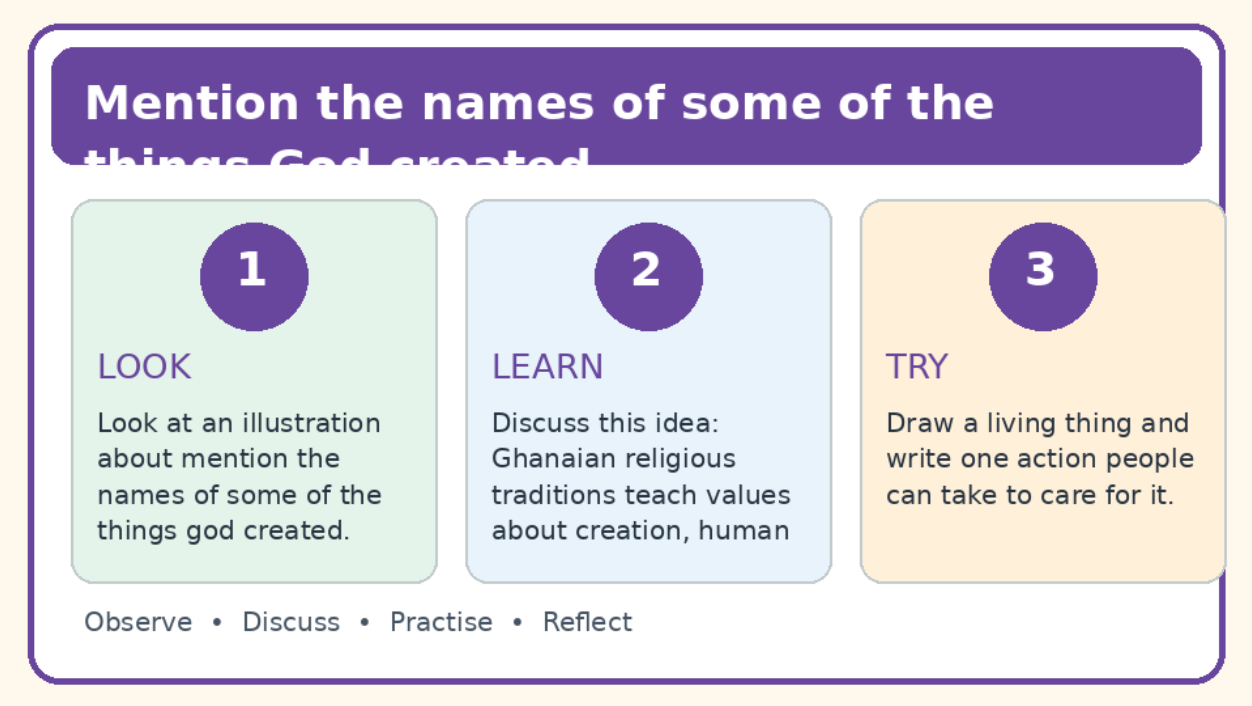

Play (5 questions)

1. Explore God’s Creation — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Explore God’s Creation — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Explore God’s Creation — What should we do first?
4. Explore God’s Creation — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Explore God’s Creation — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Explore God’s Creation — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Explore God’s Creation — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Explore God’s Creation — What is the final learning step?
4. Explore God’s Creation — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Explore God’s Creation — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Explore God’s Creation — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Explore God’s Creation — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Explore God’s Creation — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Explore God’s Creation — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Explore God’s Creation — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 2: Mention the names of some of the things God created

Ghanaian religious traditions teach values about creation, human life, care, responsibility and gratitude. Learners can describe beliefs respectfully without judging one another.

Try: Draw a living thing and write one action people can take to care for it.

Reflect: What could you do to protect a living thing near your school?

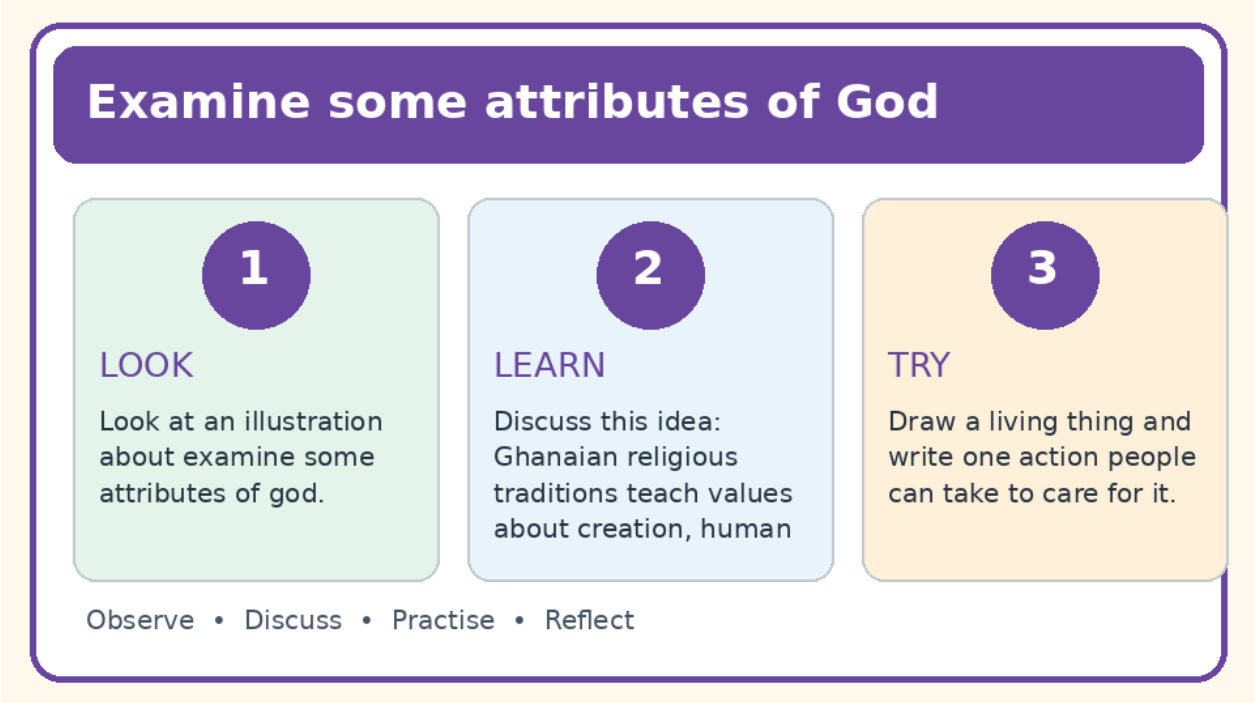

Play (5 questions)

1. Mention the names of some of the things God created — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Mention the names of some of the things God created — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Mention the names of some of the things God created — What should we do first?
4. Mention the names of some of the things God created — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Mention the names of some of the things God created — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Mention the names of some of the things God created — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Mention the names of some of the things God created — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Mention the names of some of the things God created — What is the final learning step?
4. Mention the names of some of the things God created — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Mention the names of some of the things God created — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Mention the names of some of the things God created — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Mention the names of some of the things God created — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Mention the names of some of the things God created — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Mention the names of some of the things God created — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Mention the names of some of the things God created — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 3: Examine some attributes of God

Ghanaian religious traditions teach values about creation, human life, care, responsibility and gratitude. Learners can describe beliefs respectfully without judging one another.

Try: Draw a living thing and write one action people can take to care for it.

Reflect: What could you do to protect a living thing near your school?

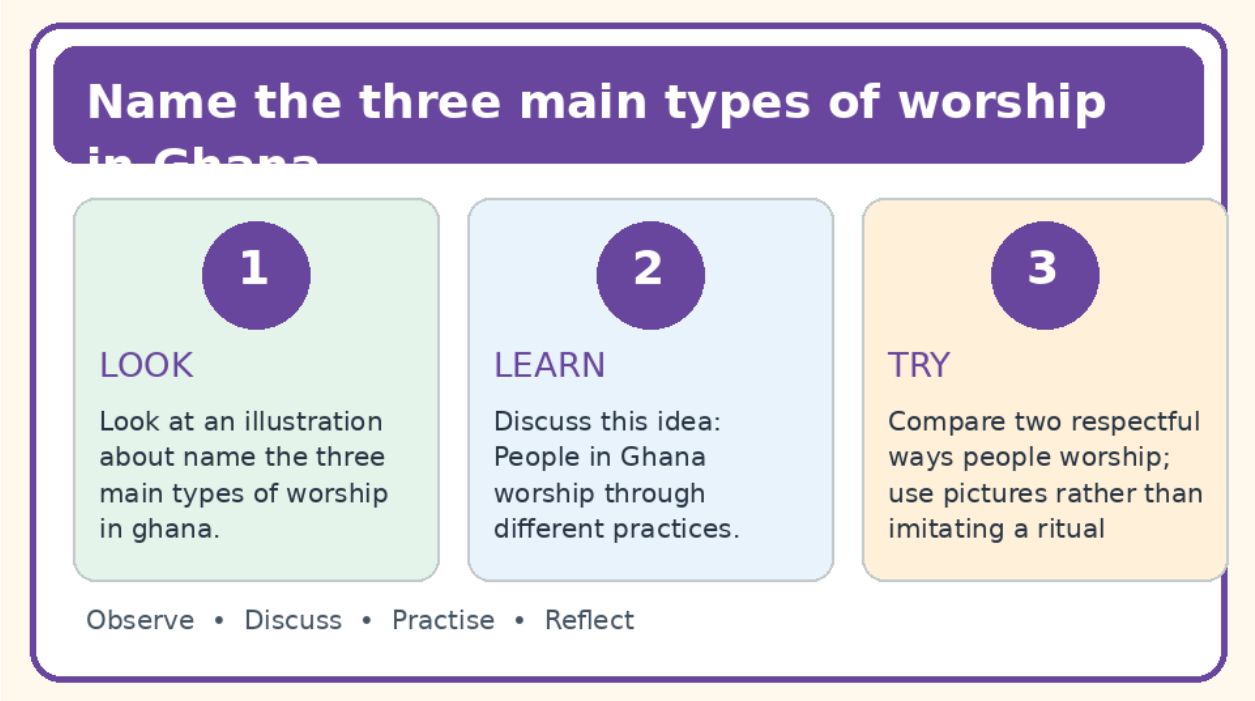

Play (5 questions)

1. Examine some attributes of God — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Examine some attributes of God — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Examine some attributes of God — What should we do first?
4. Examine some attributes of God — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Examine some attributes of God — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Examine some attributes of God — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Examine some attributes of God — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Examine some attributes of God — What is the final learning step?
4. Examine some attributes of God — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Examine some attributes of God — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Examine some attributes of God — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Examine some attributes of God — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Examine some attributes of God — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Examine some attributes of God — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Examine some attributes of God — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 4: Name the three main types of worship in Ghana

People in Ghana worship through different practices. Christians, Muslims and followers of African Traditional Religion may pray, sing, recite or gather in different ways. All people deserve respect.

Try: Compare two respectful ways people worship; use pictures rather than imitating a ritual without permission.

Reflect: How can we show respect when a friend worships differently?

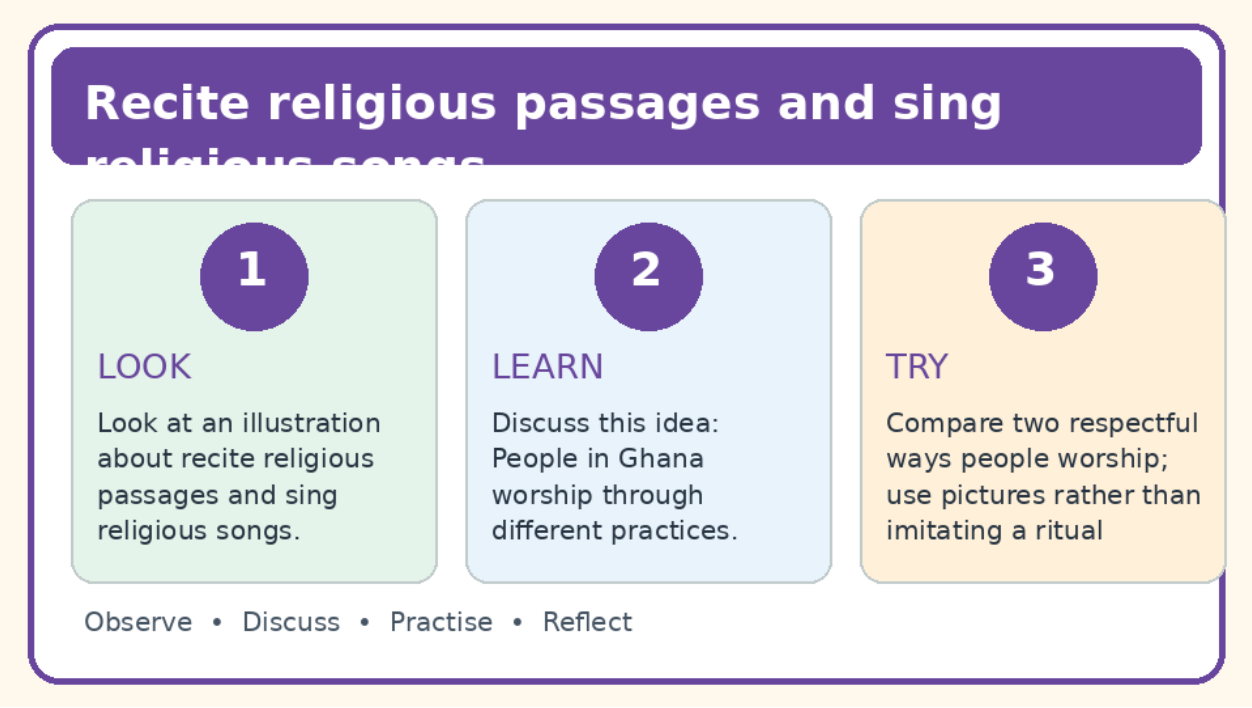

Play (5 questions)

1. Name the three main types of worship in Ghana — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Name the three main types of worship in Ghana — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Name the three main types of worship in Ghana — What should we do first?
4. Name the three main types of worship in Ghana — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Name the three main types of worship in Ghana — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Name the three main types of worship in Ghana — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Name the three main types of worship in Ghana — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Name the three main types of worship in Ghana — What is the final learning step?
4. Name the three main types of worship in Ghana — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Name the three main types of worship in Ghana — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Name the three main types of worship in Ghana — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Name the three main types of worship in Ghana — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Name the three main types of worship in Ghana — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Name the three main types of worship in Ghana — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Name the three main types of worship in Ghana — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 5: Recite religious passages and sing religious songs

People in Ghana worship through different practices. Christians, Muslims and followers of African Traditional Religion may pray, sing, recite or gather in different ways. All people deserve respect.

Try: Compare two respectful ways people worship; use pictures rather than imitating a ritual without permission.

Reflect: How can we show respect when a friend worships differently?

Play (5 questions)

1. Recite religious passages and sing religious songs — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Recite religious passages and sing religious songs — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Recite religious passages and sing religious songs — What should we do first?
4. Recite religious passages and sing religious songs — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Recite religious passages and sing religious songs — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Recite religious passages and sing religious songs — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Recite religious passages and sing religious songs — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Recite religious passages and sing religious songs — What is the final learning step?
4. Recite religious passages and sing religious songs — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Recite religious passages and sing religious songs — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Recite religious passages and sing religious songs — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Recite religious passages and sing religious songs — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Recite religious passages and sing religious songs — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Recite religious passages and sing religious songs — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Recite religious passages and sing religious songs — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 6: Describe religious festivals in Ghana

Festivals such as Christmas, Eid and local traditional festivals are occasions for worship, community activities and sharing. Respect different ways of celebrating.

Try: Make a respectful picture sequence showing preparation, celebration, and sharing during a festival.

Reflect: How could a festival help neighbours show generosity and unity?

Play (5 questions)

1. Describe religious festivals in Ghana — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Describe religious festivals in Ghana — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Describe religious festivals in Ghana — What should we do first?
4. Describe religious festivals in Ghana — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Describe religious festivals in Ghana — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Describe religious festivals in Ghana — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Describe religious festivals in Ghana — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Describe religious festivals in Ghana — What is the final learning step?
4. Describe religious festivals in Ghana — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Describe religious festivals in Ghana — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Describe religious festivals in Ghana — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Describe religious festivals in Ghana — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Describe religious festivals in Ghana — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Describe religious festivals in Ghana — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Describe religious festivals in Ghana — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 7: Narrate the stories of the birth of religious leaders

Religious communities tell stories about respected leaders and the lessons learned from their lives. We can compare values such as kindness, courage, truthfulness and service.

Try: Retell a short, age-appropriate story and point out one positive value.

Reflect: Which value from a leader’s story could help you at school?

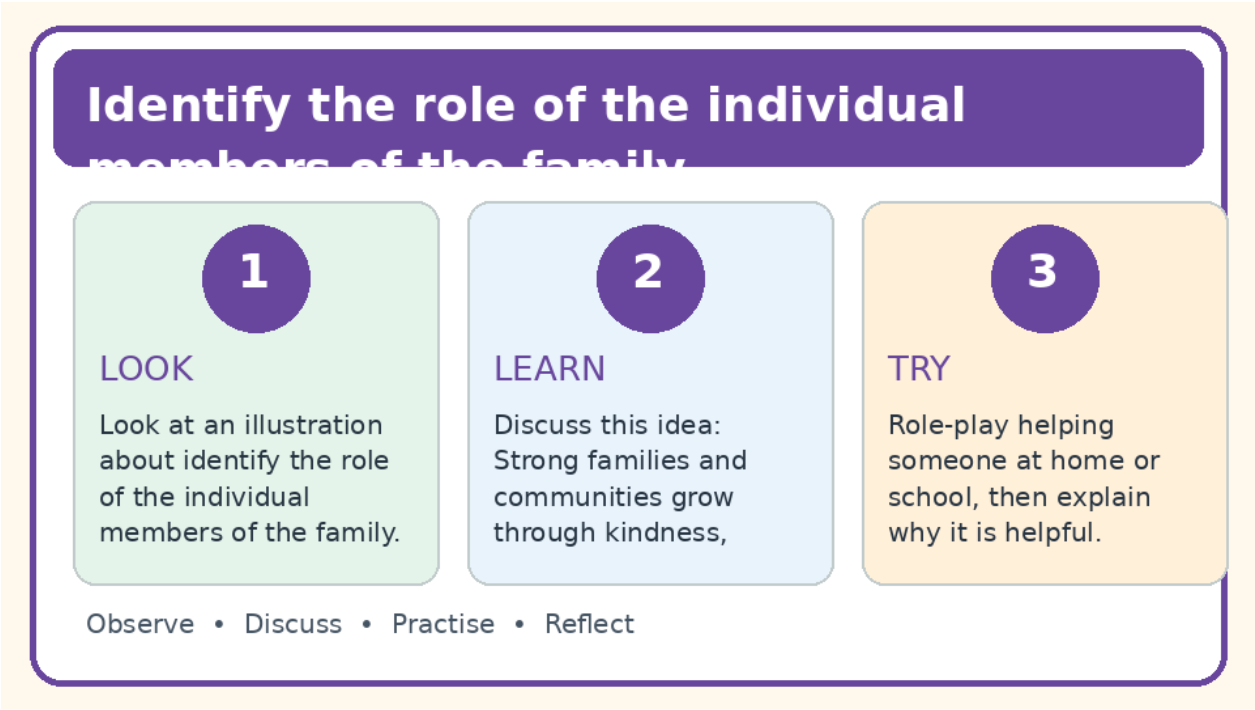

Play (5 questions)

1. Narrate the stories of the birth of religious leaders — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Narrate the stories of the birth of religious leaders — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Narrate the stories of the birth of religious leaders — What should we do first?
4. Narrate the stories of the birth of religious leaders — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Narrate the stories of the birth of religious leaders — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Narrate the stories of the birth of religious leaders — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Narrate the stories of the birth of religious leaders — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Narrate the stories of the birth of religious leaders — What is the final learning step?
4. Narrate the stories of the birth of religious leaders — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Narrate the stories of the birth of religious leaders — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Narrate the stories of the birth of religious leaders — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Narrate the stories of the birth of religious leaders — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Narrate the stories of the birth of religious leaders — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Narrate the stories of the birth of religious leaders — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Narrate the stories of the birth of religious leaders — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 8: Identify the role of the individual members of the family

Strong families and communities grow through kindness, cooperation, fairness, responsible decisions and respect for others. People can help one another in many ways.

Try: Role-play helping someone at home or school, then explain why it is helpful.

Reflect: What does responsible behaviour look like in this situation?

Play (5 questions)

1. Identify the role of the individual members of the family — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Identify the role of the individual members of the family — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Identify the role of the individual members of the family — What should we do first?
4. Identify the role of the individual members of the family — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Identify the role of the individual members of the family — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Identify the role of the individual members of the family — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Identify the role of the individual members of the family — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Identify the role of the individual members of the family — What is the final learning step?
4. Identify the role of the individual members of the family — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Identify the role of the individual members of the family — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Identify the role of the individual members of the family — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Identify the role of the individual members of the family — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Identify the role of the individual members of the family — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Identify the role of the individual members of the family — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Identify the role of the individual members of the family — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 9: Explain the role of the community in the upbringing of its members

Strong families and communities grow through kindness, cooperation, fairness, responsible decisions and respect for others. People can help one another in many ways.

Try: Role-play helping someone at home or school, then explain why it is helpful.

Reflect: What does responsible behaviour look like in this situation?

Play (5 questions)

1. Explain the role of the community in the upbringing of its members — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Explain the role of the community in the upbringing of its members — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Explain the role of the community in the upbringing of its members — What should we do first?
4. Explain the role of the community in the upbringing of its members — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Explain the role of the community in the upbringing of its members — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Explain the role of the community in the upbringing of its members — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Explain the role of the community in the upbringing of its members — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Explain the role of the community in the upbringing of its members — What is the final learning step?
4. Explain the role of the community in the upbringing of its members — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Explain the role of the community in the upbringing of its members — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Explain the role of the community in the upbringing of its members — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Explain the role of the community in the upbringing of its members — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Explain the role of the community in the upbringing of its members — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Explain the role of the community in the upbringing of its members — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Explain the role of the community in the upbringing of its members — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?