LESSON 01 • Ghanaian Art: Find Stories in Cloth

LESSON 02 • Ghanaian Art: Hear the Community Beat

20 illustrated lessons · 5 Play and 10 Challenge questions for every lesson · practical teacher observation tasks

Learners explore ideas, make or compose a work, share it, and describe what they would improve. Videos are in the multimedia eBook and offline interactive course; their matching three-step visuals appear on the printed pages.

LESSON 01 • Ghanaian Art: Find Stories in Cloth

Visual Arts / Explore / Basic 2

Your mission

Today you will notice how art can carry cultural meaning. You will create a motif study using a patterned fabric scrap, paper and crayons.

Do it in three steps

1. Look at a cloth pattern and point to its repeated marks.
2. Sketch two repeated shapes from the cloth onto paper.
3. Add one personal variation and explain what it represents. Compare your result with a second example from Ghana.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with other Ghanaian communities; compare examples from two Ghanaian communities and add patterns.

Level-up art task

Compare examples from two Ghanaian communities. Find one shared feature and one difference; adapt the a motif study to show what you learned.

Safety and kindness

Ask before touching another person’s cloth.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a labelled pattern sketch and shape and meaning. Also try this: compare the pattern with a friend’s observation.

PLAY • Ghanaian Art: Find Stories in Cloth

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about other Ghanaian communities, which materials are listed for “Ghanaian Art: Find Stories in Cloth”?

   A. a patterned fabric scrap, paper and crayons

   B. hands, a soft drum or a safe plastic container

   C. clean scrap paper, glue, cardboard and blunt scissors

   D. a first draft, feedback note and drawing materials

2. In work about other Ghanaian communities, which observation or preparation starts “Ghanaian Art: Find Stories in Cloth”?

   A. Watch or listen carefully without interrupting.

   B. Choose two safe steps that suit the chosen rhythm.

   C. Look at a cloth pattern and point to its repeated marks.

   D. Choose one clear message about a community need.

3. In work about other Ghanaian communities, what will the learner create or perform in “Ghanaian Art: Find Stories in Cloth”?

   A. a pinch pot

   B. a short drama scene

   C. a motif study

   D. a short feedback note

4. In work about other Ghanaian communities, which artistic element is the main focus of “Ghanaian Art: Find Stories in Cloth”?

   A. pattern

   B. appreciation

   C. repetition

   D. pulse

5. In work about other Ghanaian communities, which example of work best shows the skill learned in “Ghanaian Art: Find Stories in Cloth”?

   A. a labelled colour test

   B. a repeatable dance phrase

   C. a labelled pattern sketch

   D. an annotated pot drawing

6. In work about other Ghanaian communities, after the opening action in “Ghanaian Art: Find Stories in Cloth”, what is the second step?

A. Press a thumb gently into the centre and pinch the sides evenly.

B. Sketch two repeated shapes from the cloth onto paper.

C. Invent an easy response of similar length.

D. Connect them with a pause and a change of direction.

7. In work about other Ghanaian communities, which closing action completes the three-stage “Ghanaian Art: Find Stories in Cloth” activity?

A. Add a few large readable words and check the layout.

B. Perform the pattern twice and check for a steady pulse.

C. Add one personal variation and explain what it represents. Compare your result with a second example from Ghana.

D. Restage the piece and explain the difference between the two versions.

8. In work about other Ghanaian communities, which action follows the agreed safety rule while doing “Ghanaian Art: Find Stories in Cloth”?

A. Ask before touching another person’s cloth.

B. Borrow tools without checking their condition.

C. Use materials in a way the class safety instructions forbid.

D. Ignore the agreed safe working space and continue.

9. In work about other Ghanaian communities, which learning goal best explains why the class practises “Ghanaian Art: Find Stories in Cloth”?

A. recognise pulse and respectful listening

B. shape a useful object from malleable material

C. reuse materials while arranging an image

D. notice how art can carry cultural meaning

10. In work about other Ghanaian communities, for whom is the finished “Ghanaian Art: Find Stories in Cloth” work specifically intended to be shared?

A. the materials supplier only

11. In work about other Ghanaian communities, when assessing “Ghanaian Art: Find Stories in Cloth”, which quality is named in this lesson?

A. organisation and care

B. clarity and teamwork

C. clear purposeful revision

D. shape and meaning

12. In work about other Ghanaian communities, which peer activity helps you reflect or collaborate in “Ghanaian Art: Find Stories in Cloth”?

A. compare two interpretations with evidence

B. ask a partner which colour is easiest to see

C. compare the pattern with a friend’s observation

D. teach your phrase to one partner without collisions

13. In work about other Ghanaian communities, which cultural or geographic context guides “Ghanaian Art: Find Stories in Cloth” at Basic 2?

A. other Ghanaian communities

B. a fictional setting with no Ghanaian connection

C. only one unknown distant country

D. a global example instead of the Ghanaian examples being studied

14. In work about other Ghanaian communities, when you explain “Ghanaian Art: Find Stories in Cloth” to the class, which evidence from your own work is most useful?

A. a guess about pattern without checking the finished work

B. a labelled pattern sketch, supported by what you noticed or changed

C. a review that ignores the work entirely

D. a claim about someone else’s art without observing it

15. In work about other Ghanaian communities, which reason best supports revising your “Ghanaian Art: Find Stories in Cloth” work after feedback?

A. Ignore the message and change only because it is fashionable.

B. Discard useful feedback without comparing the two versions.

C. Change the artwork randomly without explaining why.

D. to improve shape and meaning

LESSON 02 • Ghanaian Art: Hear the Community Beat

Performing Arts / Explore / Basic 2

Your mission

Today you will recognise pulse and respectful listening. You will create a rhythmic echo using hands, a soft drum or a safe plastic container.

Do it in three steps

1. Listen to a short local rhythm and count its pulses.
2. Echo the pulse by tapping softly four times.
3. Perform the pulse with a partner, starting and stopping together. Compare your result with a second example from Ghana.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with other Ghanaian communities; compare examples from two Ghanaian communities and add patterns.

Level-up art task

Compare examples from two Ghanaian communities. Find one shared feature and one difference; adapt the a rhythmic echo to show what you learned.

Safety and kindness

Keep the sound comfortable for nearby listeners.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a steady four-pulse performance and steady timing. Also try this: invite a partner to lead the next four beats.

LESSON 03 • Ghanaian Art: Draw a Useful Clay Pot

Visual Arts / Explore / Basic 2

Your mission

Today you will connect the form of a useful object to its function. You will create a functional pot sketch using a picture or safe sample of a clay pot, pencil and paper.

Do it in three steps

1. Observe the pot rim, body, base and any decoration.
2. Draw the outline using simple curved lines.
3. Add a label showing how the pot might be used. Compare your result with a second example from Ghana.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with other Ghanaian communities; compare examples from two Ghanaian communities and add patterns.

Level-up art task

Compare examples from two Ghanaian communities. Find one shared feature and one difference; adapt the a functional pot sketch to show what you learned.

Safety and kindness

Do not handle fragile or heavy pots without adult help.

LESSON 04 • Ghanaian Art: Tell a Story with Gestures

Performing Arts / Explore / Basic 2

Your mission

Today you will communicate ideas through body movement. You will create a silent story using a short community story and an open safe space.

Do it in three steps

1. Choose a character and identify one important action.

2. Try three gestures that communicate the action without words.

3. Show your gesture sequence while a friend identifies the story. Compare your result with a second example from Ghana.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with other Ghanaian communities; compare examples from two Ghanaian communities and add patterns.

Level-up art task

Compare examples from two Ghanaian communities. Find one shared feature and one difference; adapt the a silent story to show what you learned.

Safety and kindness

LESSON 07 • Ghanaian Art: Build a Recycled-Paper Collage

Visual Arts / Make / Basic 2

Your mission

Today you will reuse materials while arranging an image. You will create a recycled collage using clean scrap paper, glue, cardboard and blunt scissors.

Do it in three steps

1. Sort clean paper by colour and select pieces for your picture.
2. Arrange pieces on cardboard before applying glue.
3. Stick the pieces down and explain the main image. Compare your result with a second example from Ghana.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with other Ghanaian communities; compare examples from two Ghanaian communities and add patterns.

Level-up art task

Compare examples from two Ghanaian communities. Find one shared feature and one difference; adapt the a recycled collage to show what you learned.

Safety and kindness

Use blunt scissors with supervision and never collect dirty waste.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a fixed paper collage and composition and care. Also try this: show which reused material became the focal point.

LESSON 12 • Ghanaian Art: Create a Safe Dance Phrase

Performing Arts / Make / Basic 2

Your mission

Today you will coordinate movement with music. You will create a short dance composition using an open space and a gentle drum pulse.

Do it in three steps

1. Choose two safe steps that suit the chosen rhythm.
2. Connect them with a pause and a change of direction.
3. Perform the phrase twice with control and enough personal space. Compare your result with a second example from Ghana.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with other Ghanaian communities; compare examples from two Ghanaian communities and add patterns.

Level-up art task

Compare examples from two Ghanaian communities. Find one shared feature and one difference; adapt the a short dance composition to show what you learned.

Safety and kindness

Never force a jump, spin or movement that causes pain.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a repeatable dance phrase and timing and safe space. Also try this: teach your phrase to one partner without collisions.

LESSON 17 • Ghanaian Art: Look Closely at an Artwork

Visual Arts / Appraise / Basic 2

Your mission

Today you will appreciate work using evidence. You will create an artwork response using one displayed artwork and an observation note.

Do it in three steps

1. Describe visible lines, colours, textures and shapes.
2. Say which details help communicate the artist's idea.
3. Give one evidence-based compliment and one possible improvement. Compare your result with a second example from Ghana.

Make it meaningful

Look at examples connected with other Ghanaian communities; compare examples from two Ghanaian communities and add patterns.

Level-up art task

Compare examples from two Ghanaian communities. Find one shared feature and one difference; adapt the an artwork response to show what you learned.

Safety and kindness

Discuss the artwork kindly, not the learner's personal traits.

Show what you can do

Your teacher looks for a reasoned art observation and specific respectful feedback. Also try this: compare two interpretations with evidence.

PLAY • Ghanaian Art: Look Closely at an Artwork

Choose the best answer. Discuss why it works after trying the creative activity.

1. In work about other Ghanaian communities, which materials are listed for “Ghanaian Art: Look Closely at an Artwork”?

A. one displayed artwork and an observation note

B. crayons, scrap paper and a drawing sheet

C. a patterned fabric scrap, paper and crayons

D. a short original dialogue and simple safe props

2. In work about other Ghanaian communities, which observation or preparation starts “Ghanaian Art: Look Closely at an Artwork”?
