Circle one answer for each question. Play = 1–5; Challenge = 6–15.

1. [Play] How early trade was carried out between Ghanaians and Europeans - Describe: What is this lesson mainly about?

A. Ignore historical sources and decide from a guess

B. Treat every account as equally reliable without checking

C. Discuss an unrelated modern topic without evidence

D. Describe how early trade was carried out between Ghanaians and Europeans

2. [Play] How early trade was carried out between Ghanaians and Europeans - Describe: What useful learning material or support is listed?

A. guesses written without any source

B. A map of coastal trading areas and a written or oral account.

C. an unrelated fictional story presented as a historical record

D. only unsupported rumours without checking

3. [Play] How early trade was carried out between Ghanaians and Europeans - Describe: Which action should come first?

A. Observe a map of coastal trading areas and a written or oral account.

B. Finish before looking at the instructions.

C. Ignore the main task and do something unrelated.

D. Skip all practice and guess the result.

4. [Play] How early trade was carried out between Ghanaians and Europeans - Describe: Which setting does this grade use?

A. Ghanaian people and familiar historical places

B. only a future space colony

C. an unrelated imagined city

D. a topic unrelated to the current class

5. [Play] How early trade was carried out between Ghanaians and Europeans - Describe: What should learners produce or demonstrate?

A. an unsupported claim with no classroom practice

B. a short, evidence-supported historical explanation

C. a response that does not show the lesson skill

D. an unrelated picture with no explanation

6. [Challenge] How early trade was carried out between Ghanaians and Europeans - Describe: Which action comes after the opening step?

A. Change to an unrelated lesson immediately

B. Skip to marking before learning

C. Only watch others without trying

D. Ask a question about: Describe how early trade was carried out between Ghanaians and Europeans.

7. [Challenge] How early trade was carried out between Ghanaians and Europeans - Describe: Which practice completes the three lesson stages?

A. Give a guess without trying the activity

B. Compare what two sources reveal about the period of European contact.

C. Stop after reading the title

D. Leave the task unfinished without explaining

8. [Challenge] How early trade was carried out between Ghanaians and Europeans - Describe: What counts as good evidence of learning here?

A. a random answer with no supporting detail

B. an unrelated example that does not test the skill

C. an opinion without observation or practice

D. two pieces of evidence

10. [Challenge] How early trade was carried out between Ghanaians and Europeans - Describe: Which classroom activity helps apply the lesson?

A. Avoid the stated task and its materials

B. Compare what two sources reveal about the period of European contact.

C. Complete a different lesson instead

D. Copy another learner’s response without trying

11. [Challenge] How early trade was carried out between Ghanaians and Europeans - Describe: Which explanation best supports this lesson?

A. The topic can be completed without observing or practising

B. Learning means only guessing and never checking

C. The lesson has no connection to life or skills

D. Ghana’s coast had contacts with European visitors and traders. Different periods of contact brought changes that must be studied using evidence.

12. [Challenge] How early trade was carried out between Ghanaians and Europeans - Describe: What should a partner help you check?

A. Whether you can finish without showing your work

B. Whether your work demonstrates two pieces of evidence.

C. Whether you can ignore the agreed task

D. Whether you can avoid answering questions

13. [Challenge] How early trade was carried out between Ghanaians and Europeans - Describe: Which follow-up deepens the learning?

A. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

B. Stop immediately without reflection

C. Make up results instead of practising

D. Repeat the same error without checking feedback

14. [Challenge] How early trade was carried out between Ghanaians and Europeans - Describe: How should a learner improve after feedback?

A. Revisit the steps and strengthen two pieces of evidence.

B. Skip a difficult part without asking for help

C. Ignore all comments and leave the task incomplete

D. Change answers randomly without a reason

15. [Challenge] How early trade was carried out between Ghanaians and Europeans - Describe: Which choice would show responsible use of today’s skill?

A. Apply the lesson about describe how early trade was carried out between ghanaians and europeans to a suitable real-life situation.

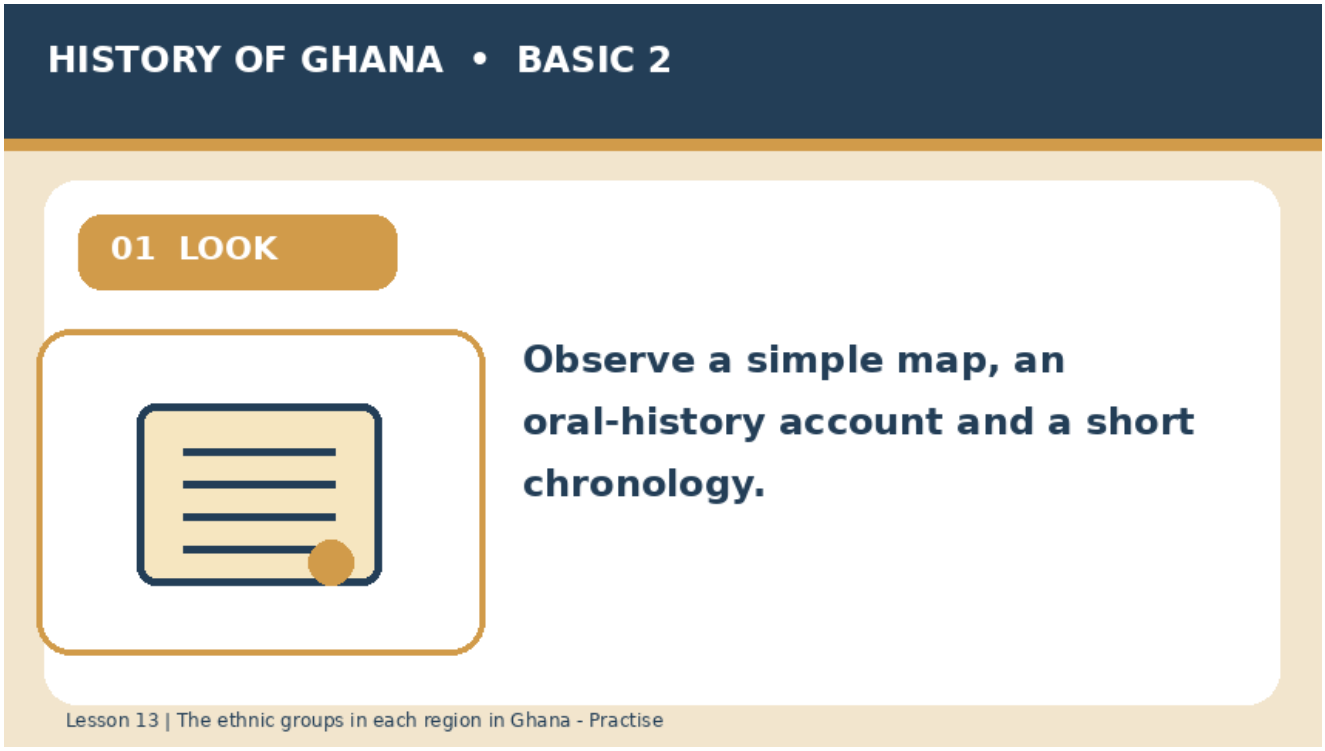

B. Claim expertise without trying the skill

C. Avoid explaining how the skill could be used

D. Use the topic to mislead others
