ENGLISH LANGUAGE

Basic 3 Learner's Guide

40 illustrated lessons across speaking, reading, writing, grammar and reading for pleasure.

Original learning resource aligned to the uploaded 2019 Basic 3 NaCCA English curriculum.

For every lesson: learn, see examples, practise, talk, write and review.

How to use this book

Read with a teacher, parent or friend. Listen to the words, say them aloud and practise writing in your exercise book. Some skills, such as speaking clearly, reciting rhymes and writing neatly, need an adult to listen or observe; a multiple-choice answer is not enough to show mastery.

Five learning areas

- Oral Language
- Reading
- Writing
- Grammar Usage
- Extensive Reading

LESSON 1 | Oral Language

Song meanings and benefits and Create rhymes and tongue-twisters

What we will learn

- Song meanings and benefits
- Create rhymes and tongue-twisters

Let's learn

Welcome to song meanings and benefits and create rhymes and tongue-twisters! We will read a model, watch a matching demonstration, practise independently and share what we learn.

Songs can preserve stories, help us remember ideas and unite people. Listen to the message and describe a benefit, then discuss it with your partner. Rhyming words have matching final sounds. Try day and play. Make a two-line rhyme of your own and recite it with rhythm.

Reading and response passage

The class sang a song about helping friends. Esi clapped the rhythm. They talked about its message and made a short rhyme using day and play.

Let's try a worked example

While at the market, Ama thinks about this: Why might people sing a community song together? → To celebrate and share ideas. Community songs can strengthen shared identity.

Kojo is learning with a partner at school. What can songs teach children? → Good values and useful messages. Songs may communicate values and knowledge.

While at the market, Ama thinks about this: Which word rhymes with "play"? → day. Day and play have matching final sounds.

Kojo is learning with a partner at school. Which line can finish the rhyme "I see a bright star ..."? → Shining from afar. Star and afar rhyme at the end.

Do it yourself

Discuss and act out an example with a partner. Give one reason for your answer.

Quick practice — choose an answer, then explain why

1. Kojo is learning with a partner in the garden. Which line can finish the rhyme “I see a bright star ...”?

A. Under a market basket | B. Beside my blue pencil | C. Shining from afar

2. While at the shop, Afia thinks about this: Why might people sing a community song together?

A. To prevent people listening | B. To confuse every listener | C. To celebrate and share ideas

3. While at the market, Ama thinks about this: Which word rhymes with “play”?

A. day | B. moon | C. desk

4. While at home, Ama thinks about this: Why might people sing a community song together?

A. To celebrate and share ideas | B. To prevent people listening | C. To confuse every listener

5. Kojo is learning with a partner at home. Which line can finish the rhyme “I see a bright star ...”?

A. Beside my blue pencil | B. Shining from afar | C. Under a market basket

6. Help Sena with this activity in the community: Which action makes singing a better shared activity?

A. Keeping the beat and singing respectfully | B. Talking loudly over everybody | C. Ignoring the words and others

7. Nana is learning with a partner during reading time. What can songs teach children?

A. That every listener must argue | B. Only how to make noise | C. Good values and useful messages

8. While in the classroom, Afia thinks about this: Which word rhymes with “play”?

A. day | B. desk | C. moon

9. While before break, Fati reads the question: Which pair forms a rhyme?

A. light / night | B. light / lunch | C. night / school

10. While near a mango tree, Adjoa thinks about this: Why might people sing a community song together?

A. To prevent people listening | B. To confuse every listener | C. To celebrate and share ideas

Challenge questions

1. Help Yaw with this activity at home: Which action makes singing a better shared activity?

A. Keeping the beat and singing respectfully | B. Ignoring the words and others | C. Talking loudly over everybody

2. Help Sena with this activity during reading time: Which action makes singing a better shared activity?

A. Keeping the beat and singing respectfully | B. Talking loudly over everybody | C. Ignoring the words and others

3. While with a partner, Ama thinks about this: Why might people sing a community song together?

A. To celebrate and share ideas | B. To confuse every listener | C. To prevent people listening

4. While on Friday, Afia thinks about this: Why might people sing a community song together?

A. To prevent people listening | B. To confuse every listener | C. To celebrate and share ideas

5. While after class, Adjoa thinks about this: Why might people sing a community song together?

A. To celebrate and share ideas | B. To prevent people listening | C. To confuse every listener

6. While during reading time, Kofi thinks about this: Why might people sing a community song together?

A. To confuse every listener | B. To celebrate and share ideas | C. To prevent people listening

7. Mansa is learning with a partner in the classroom. What can songs teach children?

A. Good values and useful messages | B. That every listener must argue | C. Only how to make noise

8. While in the library, Esi reads the question: Which pair forms a rhyme?

A. light / night | B. light / lunch | C. night / school

9. While near a mango tree, Abena reads the question: Which pair forms a rhyme?

A. light / lunch | B. light / night | C. night / school

10. Help Kwame with this activity in the classroom: To recite a tongue-twister clearly, what should you do?

A. Swallow every word | B. Read only the last letter | C. Start slowly and repeat the sounds

11. While on a school visit, Fati reads the question: Which pair forms a rhyme?

A. light / lunch | B. night / school | C. light / night

12. While with a partner, Ama thinks about this: Which word rhymes with “play”?

A. moon | B. desk | C. day

13. Mansa is learning with a partner in the classroom. Which line can finish the rhyme “I see a bright star ...”?

A. Shining from afar | B. Under a market basket | C. Beside my blue pencil

14. While at home, Esi reads the question: Which pair forms a rhyme?

LESSON 2 | Oral Language

Comprehension and Retell a parallel story

What we will learn

- Comprehension
- Retell a parallel story

Let's learn

Welcome to comprehension and retell a parallel story! We will read a model, watch a matching demonstration, practise independently and share what we learn.

Practise listening carefully, using complete ideas, looking at your partner and speaking clearly. Listen before responding. Today we practise comprehension. A parallel story keeps a familiar pattern but changes a character, setting or event. Compare your version with the original.

Reading and response passage

A girl found a lost notebook near the playground. She asked who owned it and returned it to Kojo. Her friends praised her honesty.

Let's try a worked example

Ama asks: Read: "Ama shared a mango with a friend. The other children smiled and said thank you." Which action happened in the story? → shared a mango with a friend. A factual answer is stated in the text.

Ama asks: Read: "Ama shared a mango with a friend. The other children smiled and said thank you." What can you infer about Ama? → The person was helpful. An inference uses story clues to work out an idea.

While at the market, Ama thinks about this: Which change would create a parallel story to one about a farmer growing maize? → A gardener growing vegetables while facing a similar problem. Parallel stories preserve a recognisable pattern.

Kojo is learning with a partner at school. A tale features a helpful boy. What could change in a parallel version? → Make the helper a girl in another village. Characters and setting may vary while ideas stay related.

Do it yourself

Discuss and act out an example with a partner. Give one reason for your answer.

Quick practice — choose an answer, then explain why

1. Kojo asks: Read: “Kojo picked up a dropped book. The other children smiled and said thank you.” Which action happened in the story?

A. Everyone ran away | B. A rock started talking | C. picked up a dropped book

2. Mansa is learning with a partner on Friday. A tale features a helpful boy. What could change in a parallel version?

A. Remove all characters | B. Make the helper a girl in another village | C. Replace the whole story with a timetable

3. Yaw asks: Read: “Yaw helped wash the bowls. The other children smiled and said thank you.” What can you infer about Yaw?

A. The person was unkind | B. The person slept all afternoon | C. The person was helpful

4. Esi asks: Read: “Esi watered a seedling. The other children smiled and said thank you.” What can you infer about Esi?

A. The person was unkind | B. The person was helpful | C. The person slept all afternoon

5. Kojo is learning with a partner at school. A tale features a helpful boy. What could change in a parallel version?

A. Make the helper a girl in another village | B. Replace the whole story with a timetable | C. Remove all characters

6. Mansa asks: Read: “Mansa picked up a dropped book. The other children smiled and said thank you.” Which action happened in the story?

A. picked up a dropped book | B. Everyone ran away | C. A rock started talking

7. While at the bus station, Afia thinks about this: Which change would create a parallel story to one about a farmer growing maize?

A. A completely unrelated maths sum | B. A gardener growing vegetables while facing a similar problem | C. A list of the months

8. While at the market, Abdul reads the question: What should a parallel story keep from its model?

A. A similar central problem and sequence | B. Exactly every original word | C. Only the title with no events

9. While on Friday, Fati reads the question: What should a parallel story keep from its model?

A. A similar central problem and sequence | B. Only the title with no events | C. Exactly every original word

10. Sena asks: Read: “Sena helped wash the bowls. The other children smiled and said thank you.” What can you infer about Sena?

A. The person slept all afternoon | B. The person was helpful | C. The person was unkind

Challenge questions

1. Kojo asks: Read: “Kojo picked up a dropped book. The other children smiled and said thank you.” What can you infer about Kojo?

A. The person slept all afternoon | B. The person was unkind | C. The person was helpful

2. Abena asks: Read: “Abena watered a seedling. The other children smiled and said thank you.” Which action happened in the story?

A. A rock started talking | B. watered a seedling | C. Everyone ran away

3. While in the library, Esi reads the question: What should a parallel story keep from its model?

A. Exactly every original word | B. Only the title with no events | C. A similar central problem and sequence

4. While on Friday, Afia thinks about this: Which change would create a parallel story to one about a farmer growing maize?

LESSON 3 | Oral Language

Extend a story with a new event and Roleplay

What we will learn

- Extend a story with a new event
- Roleplay

Let's learn

Welcome to extend a story with a new event and roleplay! We will read a model, watch a matching demonstration, practise independently and share what we learn.

To extend a story, add a new event that makes sense after the original ending. Keep the characters and ideas connected. Practise listening carefully, using complete ideas, looking at your partner and speaking clearly. Listen before responding. Today we practise roleplay.

Reading and response passage

Kojo grew a plant and watered it carefully. A sprout appeared. The children imagined what could happen next and acted out a new scene.

Let's try a worked example

While at the market, Ama thinks about this: A story ends when Ama finds her lost book. What is a sensible next event? → Ama returns to class and shows her teacher. Extensions should follow the plot logically.

Kojo is learning with a partner at school. Before adding an event to a story, what should you ask? → What might happen next because of the ending?. New events follow earlier story events.

Ama asks: Imagine you are acting as a friendly shopkeeper. What helps the audience understand? → Use matching words and actions. Role-play uses speech, actions and character feelings.

Ama asks: Your class performs a story with Ama as a friendly shopkeeper. What should the actor do? → Speak as the character and show actions. Perform a role to show the events in a story.

Do it yourself

Discuss and act out an example with a partner. Give one reason for your answer.

Quick practice — choose an answer, then explain why

1. Abena asks: Your class performs a story with Abena as a helpful pupil. What should the actor do?

A. Forget the story and shout | B. Speak as the character and show actions | C. Ignore the other characters

2. While with a partner, Esi reads the question: Which event extends a story about children cleaning a playground?

A. They put away tools and celebrate a clean space | B. The story suddenly changes to a clock | C. A fish starts reading at the bus stop

3. Adjoa asks: Your class performs a story with Adjoa as a friendly shopkeeper. What should the actor do?

A. Forget the story and shout | B. Speak as the character and show actions | C. Ignore the other characters

4. Akosua asks: Imagine you are acting as a careful gardener. What helps the audience understand?

A. Stand silently with your back turned | B. Use matching words and actions | C. Read unrelated numbers

5. While in the classroom, Abdul reads the question: Which event extends a story about children cleaning a playground?

A. A fish starts reading at the bus stop | B. They put away tools and celebrate a clean space | C. The story suddenly changes to a clock

6. Kojo is learning with a partner with a partner. Before adding an event to a story, what should you ask?

A. Can I replace every event with numbers? | B. What might happen next because of the ending? | C. How many pencils are in the world?

7. Abdul asks: Your class performs a story with Abdul as a helpful pupil. What should the actor do?

A. Speak as the character and show actions | B. Ignore the other characters | C. Forget the story and shout

8. Yaw asks: Imagine you are acting as a lost traveller. What helps the audience understand?

LESSON 13 | Reading

Sound-to-spelling clues and Decode

What we will learn

- Sound-to-spelling clues
- Decode

Let's learn

Welcome to sound-to-spelling clues and decode! We will read a model, watch a matching demonstration, practise independently and share what we learn.

Link what you hear to what you write. Segment a word into sounds, choose its letter pattern and blend it back together. Read the entire sentence for meaning. Notice letter patterns, reread difficult words and check what makes sense. Today we practise decode.

Reading and response passage

At reading time, Esi sounded out the word ship. She noticed sh makes one sound. Then she blended the sounds in the word brick.

Let's try a worked example

While at the market, Ama thinks about this: Which sound begins the word "ship"? → /sh/. Sh can represent the /sh/ sound.

Kojo is learning with a partner at school. Which letters help spell the /ch/ sound in chair? → ch. Chair starts with ch.

Ama asks: You see the new word "market". Which parts help you read it? → mar-ket. Break longer words into syllables, then blend them.

Ama asks: Which is a good way to decode "market"? → Say the parts and blend them into a word. Use letters, sounds and meaningful parts to decode.

Do it yourself

Read the short passage, explain what happened and why, and practise reading aloud.

Quick practice — choose an answer, then explain why

1. While at school, Abdul reads the question: Which letters represent the final sound in “ring”?

A. ng | B. ai | C. ch

2. Kwame asks: You see the new word “basket”. Which parts help you read it?

A. teksab | B. zoo-zoo | C. bas-ket

3. Afia asks: You see the new word “market”. Which parts help you read it?

A. mar-ket | B. zoo-zoo | C. tekram

4. Nana is learning with a partner during reading time. Which letters help spell the /ch/ sound in chair?

A. sh | B. ch | C. oo

5. Afia asks: Which is a good way to decode “market”?

A. Say the parts and blend them into a word | B. Skip the whole sentence | C. Guess by looking at just one letter

6. Nana asks: You see the new word “pencil”. Which parts help you read it?

A. licnep | B. pen-cil | C. zoo-zoo

7. While in the library, Ama thinks about this: Which sound begins the word “ship”?

A. /t/ | B. /m/ | C. /sh/

8. Help Yaw with this activity at home: What can help you spell “rain”?

A. Say the word backwards only | B. Write any random letters | C. Listen to its sounds and letter pattern

9. While at the shop, Afia thinks about this: Which sound begins the word “ship”?

A. /t/ | B. /m/ | C. /sh/

10. Esi asks: You see the new word “sunshine”. Which parts help you read it?

A. sun-shine | B. zoo-zoo | C. enihsnus

Challenge questions

1. Nana is learning with a partner in the garden. Which letters help spell the /ch/ sound in chair?

A. oo | B. sh | C. ch

2. Ama asks: You see the new word “market”. Which parts help you read it?

A. zoo-zoo | B. mar-ket | C. tekram

3. Yaa asks: You see the new word “basket”. Which parts help you read it?

A. teksab | B. zoo-zoo | C. bas-ket

4. Sena asks: You see the new word “basket”. Which parts help you read it?

A. bas-ket | B. teksab | C. zoo-zoo

5. Abdul asks: Which is a good way to decode “sunshine”?

A. Say the parts and blend them into a word | B. Guess by looking at just one letter | C. Skip the whole sentence

6. Sena asks: Which is a good way to decode “basket”?

A. Say the parts and blend them into a word | B. Guess by looking at just one letter | C. Skip the whole sentence

7. Mansa is learning with a partner in the classroom. Which letters help spell the /ch/ sound in chair?

A. ch | B. sh | C. oo

8. Mansa is learning with a partner at the market. Which letters help spell the /ch/ sound in chair?

A. sh | B. ch | C. oo

9. Kofi asks: You see the new word “market”. Which parts help you read it?

A. tekram | B. zoo-zoo | C. mar-ket

10. While on a school visit, Kofi thinks about this: Which sound begins the word “ship”?

A. /sh/ | B. /m/ | C. /t/

11. Fati asks: Which is a good way to decode “sunshine”?

A. Say the parts and blend them into a word | B. Guess by looking at just one letter | C. Skip the whole sentence

12. Help Kwame with this activity at the shop: What can help you spell “rain”?

A. Listen to its sounds and letter pattern | B. Say the word backwards only | C. Write any random letters

14. Esi asks: Which is a good way to decode “sunshine”?

A. Say the parts and blend them into a word | B. Guess by looking at just one letter | C. Skip the whole sentence

15. Mansa is learning with a partner on Friday. Which letters help spell the /ch/ sound in chair?

A. ch | B. sh | C. oo

16. While after class, Abena reads the question: Which letters represent the final sound in “ring”?

A. ch | B. ai | C. ng

17. Help Yaa with this activity at school: What can help you spell “rain”?

A. Write any random letters | B. Listen to its sounds and letter pattern | C. Say the word backwards only

18. Abena asks: You see the new word “sunshine”. Which parts help you read it?

A. enihsnus | B. zoo-zoo | C. sun-shine

19. While during reading time, Abena reads the question: Which letters represent the final sound in “ring”?

A. ch | B. ng | C. ai

20. While in the community, Abena reads the question: Which letters represent the final sound in “ring”?

A. ng | B. ch | C. ai

21. Fati asks: You see the new word “sunshine”. Which parts help you read it?

A. enihsnus | B. zoo-zoo | C. sun-shine

22. While at home, Adjoa thinks about this: Which sound begins the word “ship”?

A. /sh/ | B. /m/ | C. /t/

23. Yaa asks: Which is a good way to decode “basket”?

A. Say the parts and blend them into a word | B. Skip the whole sentence | C. Guess by looking at just one letter

24. While on Friday, Fati reads the question: Which letters represent the final sound in “ring”?

A. ch | B. ai | C. ng

25. Akosua asks: Which is a good way to decode “pencil”?

A. Skip the whole sentence | B. Guess by looking at just one letter | C. Say the parts and blend them into a word

Answers and helpful explanations

1. ng — Ng represents the final nasal sound.

Structural and Rhyme

What we will learn

- Structural
- Rhyme

Let's learn

Welcome to structural and rhyme! We will read a model, watch a matching demonstration, practise independently and share what we learn.

Read the entire sentence for meaning. Notice letter patterns, reread difficult words and check what makes sense. Today we practise structural. Read the entire sentence for meaning. Notice letter patterns, reread difficult words and check what makes sense. Today we practise rhyme.

Reading and response passage

The word unhappy contains the prefix un. When Ama reads it, she recognises the root word happy and explains how the meaning changes.

Let's try a worked example

Ama asks: Join "un" and "happy". What word do you make? → unhappy. Meaningful word parts help us decode longer words.

Ama asks: What smaller word do you notice in "unhappy"? → happy. Look for a known root inside a longer word.

Which word rhymes with "cat"? → hat. cat and hat have similar ending sounds.

Choose the matching ending sound for "hat". → cat. Listen for the ending sound of hat.

Do it yourself

Read the short passage, explain what happened and why, and practise reading aloud.

Quick practice — choose an answer, then explain why

1. Which word rhymes with “hand”?

A. top | B. sand | C. sun

2. Choose the matching ending sound for “sand”.

A. cat | B. light | C. hand

3. Choose the matching ending sound for “ring”.

A. king | B. sing | C. boat

4. Which word rhymes with “light”?

A. boat | B. star | C. night

5. Sena asks: What smaller word do you notice in “replay”?

A. play | B. zebra | C. table

6. Choose the matching ending sound for “tall”.

A. red | B. ball | C. fish

7. Kwame asks: What smaller word do you notice in “replay”?

A. play | B. table | C. zebra

8. Mansa asks: What smaller word do you notice in “reread”?

A. read | B. table | C. zebra

9. Yaw asks: Join “re” and “play”. What word do you make?

A. replay | B. re | C. play

10. Kwame asks: Join “re” and “play”. What word do you make?

A. re | B. replay | C. play

Challenge questions

LESSON 15 | Reading

Digraphs and Diphthong sounds in words

What we will learn

- Digraphs
- Diphthong sounds in words

Let's learn

Welcome to digraphs and diphthong sounds in words! We will read a model, watch a matching demonstration, practise independently and share what we learn.

Read the entire sentence for meaning. Notice letter patterns, reread difficult words and check what makes sense. Today we practise digraphs. A diphthong is a vowel sound that glides from one sound to another, as in boy or cow. Say the word slowly and hear the movement.

Reading and response passage

A child drew a ship and a chair. She wrote both labels correctly and noticed the letter patterns sh and ch.

Let's try a worked example

Ama asks: Which word contains the digraph "sh"? → ship. A digraph uses two letters to represent one sound.

Ama asks: Which sentence uses "ship" correctly? → The ship moves.. Make a meaningful sentence using a digraph word.

While at the market, Ama thinks about this: Which word has the same /ɔɪ/ sound as boy? → toy. Boy and toy share the vowel sound /ɔɪ/.

Kojo is learning with a partner at school. Which word has the /aʊ/ sound as in cow? → house. Cow and house share the gliding /aʊ/ sound.

Do it yourself

Read the short passage, explain what happened and why, and practise reading aloud.

Quick practice — choose an answer, then explain why

1. Help Sena with this activity during reading time: Which word contains the diphthong /aʊ/?

A. cloud | B. moon | C. cake

2. While near a mango tree, Adjoa thinks about this: Which word has the same vowel sound as coin?

A. join | B. cup | C. can

3. While in the community, Adjoa thinks about this: Which pair has the same /eɪ/ sound?

A. run / bun | B. hot / pot | C. rain / train

4. Adjoa asks: Which sentence uses “ship” correctly?

A. Chair I on sit a. | B. The ship moves. | C. The is chair sit I.

5. Kwame asks: Which word contains the digraph “wh”?

A. zoo | B. when | C. apple

6. Kofi asks: Which word contains the digraph “sh”?

A. ship | B. apple | C. zoo

7. Akosua asks: Which word contains the digraph “ch”?

A. chair | B. apple | C. zoo

8. Help Kwame with this activity in the classroom: Which word contains the diphthong /aʊ/?

A. moon | B. cloud | C. cake

9. Fati asks: Which word contains the digraph “th”?

A. thin | B. apple | C. zoo

10. While with a partner, Esi reads the question: Which word has the same vowel sound as coin?

A. cup | B. can | C. join

Challenge questions

1. Adjoa asks: Which word contains the digraph “sh”?

A. ship | B. apple | C. zoo

2. Yaa asks: Which word contains the digraph “wh”?

A. zoo | B. when | C. apple

3. While in the garden, Esi reads the question: Which word has the same /ɔɪ/ sound as boy?

A. tin | B. toy | C. cup

4. Help Yaw with this activity in the garden: Which word has the same /ɔɪ/ sound as boy?

A. cup | B. toy | C. tin

5. Mansa asks: Which word contains the digraph “ch”?

A. apple | B. chair | C. zoo

6. Help Kwame with this activity on Friday: Which word has the same vowel sound as coin?

A. cup | B. can | C. join

7. Nana is learning with a partner after class. Which word has the /aʊ/ sound as in cow?

A. ship | B. pen | C. house

8. Afia asks: Which sentence uses “ship” correctly?

A. Chair I on sit a. | B. The is chair sit I. | C. The ship moves.

9. While on Friday, Afia thinks about this: Which word has the same vowel sound as coin?

A. can | B. cup | C. join

10. While on a school visit, Kofi thinks about this: Which word has the same /ɔɪ/ sound as boy?

A. cup | B. tin | C. toy

11. While after class, Abena reads the question: Which word has the /aʊ/ sound as in cow?

A. house | B. ship | C. pen

32. toy — Boy and toy share the vowel sound /ɔɪ/.

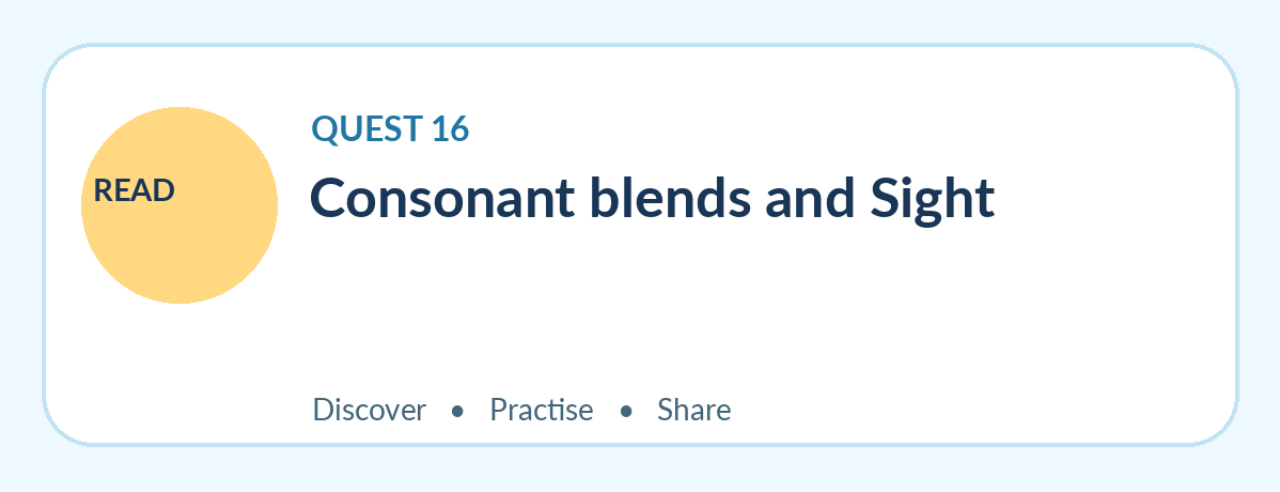

33. When will we go? — Make a meaningful sentence using a digraph word.

34. ship — A digraph uses two letters to represent one sound.

35. join — Coin and join both contain the /ɔɪ/ vowel sound.

LESSON 16 | Reading

Consonant blends and Sight

What we will learn

- Consonant blends
- Sight

Let's learn

Welcome to consonant blends and sight! We will read a model, watch a matching demonstration, practise independently and share what we learn.

In a consonant blend both consonant sounds can be heard: br in brick, cl in clap, and st in stop. Blend the sounds smoothly. Read the entire sentence for meaning. Notice letter patterns, reread difficult words and check what makes sense. Today we practise sight.

Reading and response passage

Kojo wrote brick, clap and train. He said each word slowly and heard the consonants at the beginning.

Let's try a worked example

While at the market, Ama thinks about this: Which word begins with a consonant blend? → brick. B and r are both heard in brick.

Kojo is learning with a partner at school. Which word begins with /st/? → star. The sounds /s/ and /t/ join in star.

Which is the correctly written familiar word? → the. Look carefully at the letters from left to right.

Choose the word "the" from this word list. → the. Read the word as a whole and check its letters.

Do it yourself

Read the short passage, explain what happened and why, and practise reading aloud.

Quick practice — choose an answer, then explain why

1. Choose the word “good” from this word list.

A. help | B. good | C. before

2. While at home, Adjoa thinks about this: Which word begins with /fl/?

A. phone | B. orange | C. flower

3. Help Yaa with this activity at the market: Which word begins with /st/?

A. star | B. rain | C. chair

4. Choose the word “little” from this word list.

A. look | B. little | C. after

5. While on a school visit, Abena reads the question: Which word begins with a consonant blend?

A. ship | B. eat | C. brick

6. Choose the word “this” from this word list.

A. this | B. come | C. your

7. While in the community, Adjoa thinks about this: Which blend completes “__ap” to make clap?

A. cl | B. ch | C. sh

8. Choose the word “teacher” from this word list.

A. see | B. teacher | C. thank

9. Choose the word “please” from this word list.

A. please | B. have | C. see

10. While before break, Fati reads the question: Which word begins with /st/?

A. chair | B. rain | C. star

Challenge questions

1. Choose the word “happy” from this word list.

A. from | B. happy | C. my

2. Kojo is learning with a partner in the garden. Which word begins with a consonant blend?

A. eat | B. brick | C. ship

3. Choose the word “after” from this word list.

A. that | B. after | C. the

4. While after class, Adjoa thinks about this: Which word begins with /st/?

A. star | B. chair | C. rain

5. Choose the word “with” from this word list.

A. with | B. good | C. look

6. Kojo is learning with a partner at home. Which word begins with /fl/?

A. orange | B. phone | C. flower

7. While during reading time, Abena reads the question: Which word begins with /fl/?

A. flower | B. phone | C. orange

8. Choose the word “what” from this word list.

A. like | B. some | C. what

9. Help Kwame with this activity before break: Which word begins with /st/?

A. star | B. chair | C. rain

10. While near a mango tree, Abena reads the question: Which word begins with the /tr/ blend?

A. train | B. apple | C. thin

11. Choose the word “they” from this word list.

A. from | B. good | C. they

12. While during reading time, Kofi thinks about this: Which word begins with /fl/?

A. orange | B. flower | C. phone

13. Nana is learning with a partner near a mango tree. Which word begins with the /tr/ blend?

A. thin | B. train | C. apple

14. Choose the word “here” from this word list.

A. like | B. teacher | C. here

15. Choose the word “play” from this word list.

A. play | B. again | C. after

16. Choose the word “from” from this word list.

A. help | B. when | C. from

17. Choose the word “your” from this word list.

A. your | B. today | C. happy

18. While at the bus station, Afia thinks about this: Which word begins with a consonant blend?

A. ship | B. brick | C. eat

19. While on a school visit, Fati reads the question: Which word begins with a consonant blend?

A. brick | B. eat | C. ship

20. Choose the word “before” from this word list.

A. what | B. and | C. before

21. Mansa is learning with a partner at the market. Which word begins with /st/?

A. rain | B. chair | C. star

22. Choose the word “where” from this word list.

A. where | B. little | C. play

23. Which is the correctly written familiar word?

A. the | B. tha | C. eht

24. Choose the word “that” from this word list.

A. that | B. here | C. went

25. Kojo is learning with a partner at school. Which word begins with /st/?

A. star | B. rain | C. chair

Answers and helpful explanations

1. good — Read the word as a whole and check its letters.

2. flower — Flower begins with the fl blend.

3. star — The sounds /s/ and /t/ join in star.

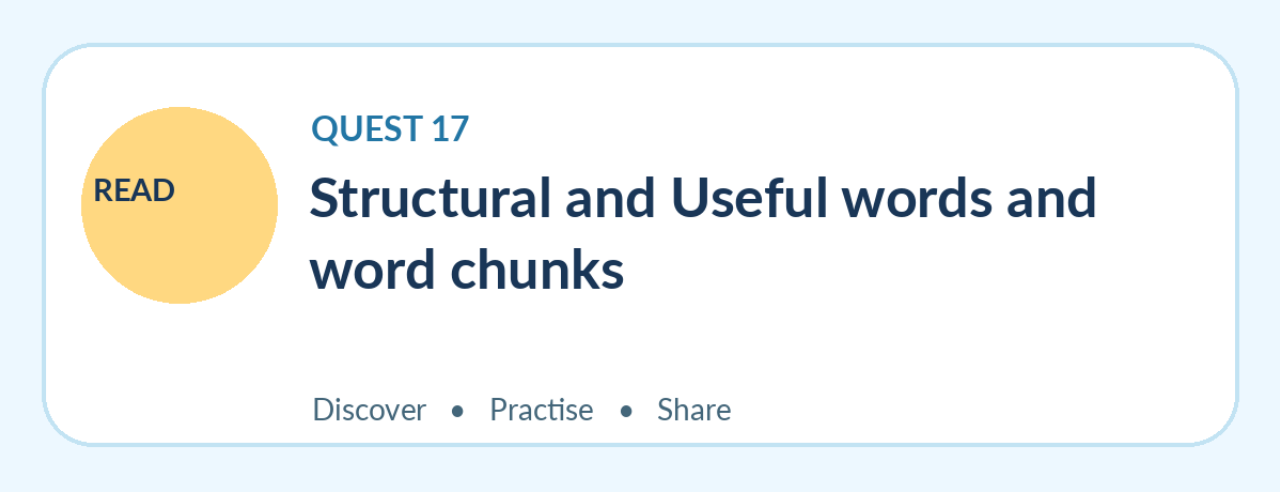

4. little — Read the word as a whole and check its letters.

5. brick — B and r are both heard in brick.

6. this — Read the word as a whole and check its letters.
7. cl — Clap starts with the cl blend.
8. teacher — Read the word as a whole and check its letters.
9. please — Read the word as a whole and check its letters.
10. star — The sounds /s/ and /t/ join in star.
11. happy — Read the word as a whole and check its letters.
12. brick — B and r are both heard in brick.
13. after — Read the word as a whole and check its letters.
14. star — The sounds /s/ and /t/ join in star.
15. with — Read the word as a whole and check its letters.
16. flower — Flower begins with the fl blend.
17. flower — Flower begins with the fl blend.
18. what — Read the word as a whole and check its letters.
19. star — The sounds /s/ and /t/ join in star.
20. train — Both /t/ and /r/ are heard in train.
21. they — Read the word as a whole and check its letters.
22. flower — Flower begins with the fl blend.
23. train — Both /t/ and /r/ are heard in train.
24. here — Read the word as a whole and check its letters.
25. play — Read the word as a whole and check its letters.
26. from — Read the word as a whole and check its letters.
27. your — Read the word as a whole and check its letters.
28. brick — B and r are both heard in brick.
29. brick — B and r are both heard in brick.

Structural and Useful words and word chunks

What we will learn

- Structural
- Useful words and word chunks

Let's learn

Welcome to structural and useful words and word chunks! We will read a model, watch a matching demonstration, practise independently and share what we learn.

Read the entire sentence for meaning. Notice letter patterns, reread difficult words and check what makes sense. Today we practise structural. Read the entire sentence for meaning. Notice letter patterns, reread difficult words and check what makes sense. Today we practise useful words and word chunks.

Reading and response passage

The word unhappy contains the prefix un. When Ama reads it, she recognises the root word happy and explains how the meaning changes.

Let's try a worked example

Ama asks: Join "un" and "happy". What word do you make? → unhappy. Meaningful word parts help us decode longer words.

Ama asks: What smaller word do you notice in "unhappy"? → happy. Look for a known root inside a longer word.

While at the market, Ama thinks about this: Which sentence uses the word "carefully" correctly? → Ama carefully carried the glass.. Use vocabulary words in meaningful grammatical sentences.

Kojo is learning with a partner at school. Which sentence uses the word "carefully" correctly? → Ama carefully carried the glass.. Use vocabulary words in meaningful grammatical sentences.

Do it yourself

Read the short passage, explain what happened and why, and practise reading aloud.

Quick practice — choose an answer, then explain why

1. Fati asks: What smaller word do you notice in “unkind”?

A. kind | B. table | C. zebra

2. Afia asks: What smaller word do you notice in “unhappy”?

A. table | B. happy | C. zebra

3. Help Sena with this activity near a mango tree: Which sentence uses the word “carefully” correctly?

A. Carefully blue the sky. | B. Ama a carefully chair. | C. Ama carefully carried the glass.

4. Help Sena with this activity in the community: Which sentence uses the word “carefully” correctly?

A. Ama carefully carried the glass. | B. Carefully blue the sky. | C. Ama a carefully chair.

5. Yaa asks: What smaller word do you notice in “replay”?

A. zebra | B. play | C. table

6. Mansa is learning with a partner in the classroom. Which sentence uses the word “carefully” correctly?

A. Ama a carefully chair. | B. Carefully blue the sky. | C. Ama carefully carried the glass.

7. Kwame asks: Join “re” and “play”. What word do you make?

A. re | B. replay | C. play

Reading and response passage

When Esi met the word journey in a story, she checked its meaning in a dictionary and used it in her own sentence.

Let's try a worked example

Ama asks: In a dictionary, the word "garden" means: → land where plants grow. A dictionary gives the meanings of words.

Ama asks: Which source can help you check how "garden" is spelt? → A dictionary. Dictionaries help with spelling and meaning.

While at the market, Ama thinks about this: You notice a word does not fit the sentence while reading. What should you do? → Reread and check both the letters and meaning. Rereading with print and meaning clues helps readers correct mistakes.

Kojo is learning with a partner at school. You notice a word does not fit the sentence while reading. What should you do? → Reread and check both the letters and meaning. Rereading with print and meaning clues helps readers correct mistakes.

Comprehension and Retell

What we will learn

- Comprehension
- Retell

Let's learn

Welcome to comprehension and retell! We will read a model, watch a matching demonstration, practise independently and share what we learn.

Read the entire sentence for meaning. Notice letter patterns, reread difficult words and check what makes sense. Today we practise comprehension. Read the entire sentence for meaning. Notice letter patterns, reread difficult words and check what makes sense. Today we practise retell.

Reading and response passage

A girl found a lost notebook near the playground. She asked who owned it and returned it to Kojo. Her friends praised her honesty.

Let's try a worked example

Ama asks: Read: "Ama shared a mango with a friend. The other children smiled and said thank you." Which action happened in the story? → shared a mango with a friend. A factual answer is stated in the text.

Ama asks: Read: "Ama shared a mango with a friend. The other children smiled and said thank you." What can you infer about Ama? → The person was helpful. An inference uses story clues to work out an idea.

For your retell practice, read: "Ama found a red ball at the playground. Ama gave it back to Kojo. The day ended happily." Who is the main character? → Ama. The character is the person the story is about.

For your retell practice, where did Ama find a red ball? → the playground. Look for the place in the first sentence.

Do it yourself

Read the short passage, explain what happened and why, and practise reading aloud.

Quick practice — choose an answer, then explain why

1. Yaa asks: Read: “Yaa helped wash the bowls. The other children smiled and said thank you.” What can you infer about Yaa?

A. The person was helpful | B. The person was unkind | C. The person slept all afternoon

LESSON 20 | Reading

Fables and their moral lessons and Opinions with reasons

What we will learn

- Fables and their moral lessons
- Opinions with reasons

Let's learn

Welcome to fables and their moral lessons and opinions with reasons! We will read a model, watch a matching demonstration, practise independently and share what we learn.

A fable is a short story that may use animals as characters to teach a lesson. Describe the events and the moral. An opinion tells what you think. Add because to explain your reason using details from the text.

Reading and response passage

A clever hare refused to help its neighbours. Later, it needed their help. The children discussed what they learned from the hare's choice.

Let's try a worked example

While at the market, Ama thinks about this: A tortoise cheats its friends and loses their trust. What might the moral be? → Honesty matters. A fable teaches lessons through events.

Kojo is learning with a partner at school. Which feature is common in fables? → Animals acting as characters. Fables often use animals that represent human behaviours.

While at the market, Ama thinks about this: Which opinion gives a clear reason? → I liked the ending because the friends helped one another.. An opinion is stronger with a relevant reason.

Kojo is learning with a partner at school. A character returns a lost purse. Which judgment uses story evidence? → She was honest because she returned it.. Use an event from the story to support a judgment.

Do it yourself

Read the short passage, explain what happened and why, and practise reading aloud.

Quick practice — choose an answer, then explain why

1. Kojo is learning with a partner in the library. Which feature is common in fables?

A. Animals acting as characters | B. A collection of road signs | C. Only a list of prices

Visualise and Reading

What we will learn

- Visualise
- Reading

Let's learn

Welcome to visualise and reading! We will read a model, watch a matching demonstration, practise independently and share what we learn.

Read the entire sentence for meaning. Notice letter patterns, reread difficult words and check what makes sense. Today we practise visualise. Read the entire sentence for meaning. Notice letter patterns, reread difficult words and check what makes sense. Today we practise reading.

Reading and response passage

The text described a bright red kite above a green field. Esi closed her eyes and pictured the scene before reading on.

Let's try a worked example

Ama asks: As you read about a green mango tree, what should you imagine? → a green mango tree. Visualising means making a picture in your mind.

Ama asks: Which detail will help you picture "a green mango tree"? → green. Colours and shapes can help form mental images.

Ama asks: Ama opens an age-appropriate story about the market. What shows independent reading? → Try to read and use nearby clues before asking for help. Use print and meaning clues with less teacher support.

Ama asks: While reading a page about a book, what should Ama do when a new word appears? → Sound it out and check the sentence. Independent readers use decoding and meaning clues.

Do it yourself

Read the short passage, explain what happened and why, and practise reading aloud.

Quick practice — choose an answer, then explain why

1. Nana asks: Nana opens an age-appropriate story about the garden. What shows independent reading?

A. Try to read and use nearby clues before asking for help | B. Close the story immediately | C. Only guess every word

2. Kojo asks: While reading a page about a basket, what should Kojo do when a new word appears?

A. Ignore the page entirely | B. Sound it out and check the sentence | C. Say an unrelated word

3. Sena asks: As you read about a bright yellow flower, what should you imagine?

A. an empty blank room | B. a bright yellow flower | C. a secret number

LESSON 22 | Reading

Fluency and Sight

What we will learn

- Fluency
- Sight

Let's learn

Welcome to fluency and sight! We will read a model, watch a matching demonstration, practise independently and share what we learn.

Read the entire sentence for meaning. Notice letter patterns, reread difficult words and check what makes sense. Today we practise fluency. Read the entire sentence for meaning. Notice letter patterns, reread difficult words and check what makes sense. Today we practise sight.

Reading and response passage

During reading practice, Ama noticed commas and full stops. She read smoothly and repeated difficult words until the passage made sense.

Let's try a worked example

Ama asks: You are reading "We went to the market." aloud. What helps you read smoothly? → Read accurately at a steady pace. Reading fluency includes accuracy, pacing and expression.

Ama asks: When reading "We went to the market." why should you notice the punctuation? → It guides your expression and pauses. Punctuation helps reading sound meaningful.

Which is the correctly written familiar word? → the. Look carefully at the letters from left to right.

Choose the word "the" from this word list. → the. Read the word as a whole and check its letters.

Do it yourself

Read the short passage, explain what happened and why, and practise reading aloud.

Quick practice — choose an answer, then explain why

1. Choose the word “have” from this word list.

A. said | B. home | C. have

LESSON 23 | Reading

Selfcorrect

What we will learn

- Selfcorrect

Let's learn

Welcome to selfcorrect! We will read a model, watch a matching demonstration, practise independently and share what we learn.

Read the entire sentence for meaning. Notice letter patterns, reread difficult words and check what makes sense. Today we practise selfcorrect.

Reading and response passage

Kojo misread a word in his book. He stopped, checked the letters and reread the sentence to find a word that made sense.

Let's try a worked example

While at the market, Ama thinks about this: You notice a word does not fit the sentence while reading. What should you do? → Reread and check both the letters and meaning. Rereading with print and meaning clues helps readers correct mistakes.

Kojo is learning with a partner at school. You notice a word does not fit the sentence while reading. What should you do? → Reread and check both the letters and meaning. Rereading with print and meaning clues helps readers correct mistakes.

Do it yourself

Read the short passage, explain what happened and why, and practise reading aloud.

Quick practice — choose an answer, then explain why

1. While before break, Kofi thinks about this: You notice a word does not fit the sentence while reading. What should you do?

A. Reread and check both the letters and meaning | B. Replace it with any unrelated word | C. Skip every unfamiliar word forever

2. Help Yaa with this activity at school: You notice a word does not fit the sentence while reading. What should you do?

A. Skip every unfamiliar word forever | B. Replace it with any unrelated word | C. Reread and check both the letters and meaning

3. While near a mango tree, Abena reads the question: You notice a word does not fit the sentence while reading. What should you do?

LESSON 24 | Writing

Copywords and Sound-to-spelling clues

What we will learn

- Copywords
- Sound-to-spelling clues

Let's learn

Welcome to copywords and sound-to-spelling clues! We will read a model, watch a matching demonstration, practise independently and share what we learn.

Say your idea first. Write meaningful sentences with capitals, spaces and punctuation. Review your work. Today we practise copywords. Link what you hear to what you write. Segment a word into sounds, choose its letter pattern and blend it back together.

Reading and response passage

Kojo copied a paragraph into his exercise book. He kept the capital letters, correct spaces and full stops, then read it aloud.

Let's try a worked example

Ama asks: Copy this sentence neatly: "Ama reads at school." Which copy keeps every word? → Ama reads at school.. Copy complete sentences legibly with correct spelling and punctuation.

Ama asks: What helps when copying "Ama reads at school." into your book? → Good spacing and clear letters. Correct copying includes readable letters and spacing.

While at the market, Ama thinks about this: Which sound begins the word "ship"? → /sh/. Sh can represent the /sh/ sound.

Kojo is learning with a partner at school. Which letters help spell the /ch/ sound in chair? → ch. Chair starts with ch.

Do it yourself

Write a short original response in your exercise book; revise and proofread.

Quick practice — choose an answer, then explain why

1. While on a school visit, Abena reads the question: Which letters represent the final sound in “ring”?

A. ch | B. ai | C. ng

2. While during reading time, Abena reads the question: Which letters represent the final sound in “ring”?

A. ch | B. ng | C. ai

3. Fati asks: What helps when copying “We visit the on a school visit.” into your book?

A. Good spacing and clear letters | B. No spaces between words | C. Skipping the last word

4. Yaw asks: What helps when copying “Yaw likes books.” into your book?

A. Good spacing and clear letters | B. No spaces between words | C. Skipping the last word

5. Nana is learning with a partner during reading time. Which letters help spell the /ch/ sound in chair?

A. sh | B. ch | C. oo

6. Afia asks: Copy this sentence neatly: “Afia reads at school.” Which copy keeps every word?

A. Afiareadsatschool. | B. Afia reads at school? | C. Afia reads at school.

7. Nana is learning with a partner after class. Which letters help spell the /ch/ sound in chair?

Labels and Opinions with reasons

What we will learn

- Labels
- Opinions with reasons

Let's learn

Welcome to labels and opinions with reasons! We will read a model, watch a matching demonstration, practise independently and share what we learn.

Say your idea first. Write meaningful sentences with capitals, spaces and punctuation. Review your work. Today we practise labels. An opinion tells what you think. Add because to explain your reason using details from the text.

Reading and response passage

The children named objects in their classroom. They wrote clear labels and added sentences about their favourite items.

Let's try a worked example

For your labels practice, choose a describing word for the mango. → yellow. A describing word tells us more about an object.

For your labels practice, which group does a mango belong to? → fruit. Group objects by what they are or what they are used for.

While at the market, Ama thinks about this: Which opinion gives a clear reason? → I liked the ending because the friends helped one another.. An opinion is stronger with a relevant reason.

Kojo is learning with a partner at school. A character returns a lost purse. Which judgment uses story evidence? → She was honest because she returned it.. Use an event from the story to support a judgment.

Do it yourself

Write a short original response in your exercise book; revise and proofread.

Quick practice — choose an answer, then explain why

1. While before break, Fati reads the question: Which words often introduce a reason for an opinion?

LESSON 28 | Writing

Brainstorm and plan writing and Make a first draft

What we will learn

- Brainstorm and plan writing
- Make a first draft

Let's learn

Welcome to brainstorm and plan writing and make a first draft! We will read a model, watch a matching demonstration, practise independently and share what we learn.

Before writing, choose a topic, brainstorm useful words and arrange ideas in a simple plan. A first draft is the first written version of your ideas. Write freely, then improve the organisation and word choice.

Reading and response passage

The class chose "My School" as a writing topic. They listed ideas, wrote first drafts and planned how to arrange their paragraphs.

Let's try a worked example

While at the market, Ama thinks about this: What should come first in writing about "My School"? → List ideas to include. Plan before drafting.

Kojo is learning with a partner at school. Which plan best organises a paragraph about a market? → Where it is, what people sell, why it matters. Group related ideas in a useful order.

While at the market, Ama thinks about this: What is a first draft? → An early version you can change. Drafts are revised before publication.

Kojo is learning with a partner at school. What should you focus on when writing a first draft? → Putting related ideas into sentences. A draft develops planned ideas.

Do it yourself

Write a short original response in your exercise book; revise and proofread.

Quick practice — choose an answer, then explain why

1. While after class, Esi reads the question: Which step follows planning?

A. Writing a draft | B. Publishing the title without a paragraph | C. Erasing the topic

2. Help Yaw with this activity in the garden: Why might a draft contain mistakes?

A. Because it has no words | B. Because errors must never change | C. It is an early version for improvement

3. Akosua is learning with a partner on a school visit. Which plan best organises a paragraph about a market?

A. Only one random word | B. Football scores, weather, stars | C. Where it is, what people sell, why it matters

4. Help Kwame with this activity in the classroom: Why might a draft contain mistakes?

A. Because it has no words | B. It is an early version for improvement | C. Because errors must never change

5. While at school, Abdul reads the question: Why do writers brainstorm before drafting?

A. To gather and organise relevant ideas | B. To make every sentence identical | C. To skip the topic

6. Mansa is learning with a partner at the market. What should you focus on when writing a first draft?

A. Perfect decoration only | B. Guessing every word without checking | C. Putting related ideas into sentences

7. While on Friday, Afia thinks about this: What should come first in writing about “My School”?

A. Correct a draft that does not yet exist | B. Publish without writing | C. List ideas to include

8. Kojo is learning with a partner with a partner. Which plan best organises a paragraph about a market?

A. Where it is, what people sell, why it matters | B. Football scores, weather, stars | C. Only one random word

9. While at home, Ama thinks about this: What should come first in writing about “My School”?

A. Correct a draft that does not yet exist | B. List ideas to include | C. Publish without writing

LESSON 29 | Writing

Revise your ideas and Check spelling and punctuation

What we will learn

- Revise your ideas
- Check spelling and punctuation

Let's learn

Welcome to revise your ideas and check spelling and punctuation! We will read a model, watch a matching demonstration, practise independently and share what we learn.

Read your draft again and change, add or remove ideas so your message is clear and interesting. After revising, check spelling, capitals, spaces and punctuation. Correct your writing before sharing it.

Reading and response passage

Esi read her first draft about a trip. She added a missing detail, changed an unclear sentence, then corrected spelling and punctuation.

Let's try a worked example

While at the market, Ama thinks about this: Your paragraph repeats one idea three times. What revision helps? → Remove repetition and add a relevant detail. Revision improves the ideas and flow.

Kojo is learning with a partner at school. Which change improves an unclear story? → Explain why the character acted. Revising adds useful information.

While at the market, Ama thinks about this: Which sentence has a spelling mistake? → We lkie books.. Lkie should be like.

Kojo is learning with a partner at school. Which sentence needs a full stop at the end? → Ama has a bag. Telling sentences generally end with a full stop.

Do it yourself

Write a short original response in your exercise book; revise and proofread.

Quick practice — choose an answer, then explain why

1. Akosua is learning with a partner during reading time. Which sentence needs a full stop at the end?

A. Ama has a bag | B. Ama has a bag. | C. Where is the bag?

2. Help Kwame with this activity at the shop: What should you look for during proofreading?

A. only the colour of paper | B. only the handwriting size | C. spelling, capitals and punctuation

3. Help Yaa with this activity at the bus station: Which is an example of improving organisation?

A. Move events into the order they happened | B. Turn all letters blue | C. Remove every full stop

4. Help Yaa with this activity at the bus station: What should you look for during proofreading?

A. spelling, capitals and punctuation | B. only the colour of paper | C. only the handwriting size

5. While at school, Abdul reads the question: Which corrected sentence begins with a capital letter?

A. we read at school. | B. WE read at school? | C. We read at school.

6. Akosua is learning with a partner on a school visit. Which change improves an unclear story?

A. Explain why the character acted | B. Change only the pen colour | C. Replace the story with unrelated words

7. While on Friday, Fati reads the question: When should you revise a draft?

A. Before choosing any topic | B. After writing an initial version | C. Only after printing the final copy

8. Nana is learning with a partner in the garden. Which change improves an unclear story?

A. Change only the pen colour | B. Replace the story with unrelated words | C. Explain why the character acted

9. Nana is learning with a partner in the community. Which change improves an unclear story?

A. Explain why the character acted | B. Replace the story with unrelated words | C. Change only the pen colour

LESSON 30 | Writing

Share writing aloud and Storyparts

What we will learn

- Share writing aloud
- Storyparts

Let's learn

Welcome to share writing aloud and storyparts! We will read a model, watch a matching demonstration, practise independently and share what we learn.

Say your idea first. Write meaningful sentences with capitals, spaces and punctuation. Review your work. Today we practise share writing aloud. Say your idea first. Write meaningful sentences with capitals, spaces and punctuation. Review your work. Today we practise storyparts.

Reading and response passage

Learners wrote about an event at school. They planned ideas, wrote sentences, reviewed mistakes and shared their work.

Let's try a worked example

While at the market, Ama thinks about this: When reading your own writing aloud, what helps listeners? → A steady pace with clear words. Clarity and pace help listeners understand.

Kojo is learning with a partner at school. Why should you notice punctuation while presenting? → It guides pauses and expression. Punctuation guides oral reading.

For your storyparts practice, read: "Ama found a red ball at the playground. Ama gave it back to Kojo. The day ended happily." Who is the main character? → Ama. The character is the person the story is about.

For your storyparts practice, where did Ama find a red ball? → the playground. Look for the place in the first sentence.

Do it yourself

Write a short original response in your exercise book; revise and proofread.

Quick practice — choose an answer, then explain why

1. While at the shop, Fati reads the question: What should you do before sharing a paragraph to the class?

A. Hide the page forever | B. Only read the title silently | C. Practise reading it once or twice

2. Help Kwame with this activity on Friday: How should a speaker respond if the audience cannot hear?

A. Speak a little more clearly and loudly | B. Turn away and whisper | C. Stop without explaining

3. Akosua is learning with a partner on a school visit. Why should you notice punctuation while presenting?

A. It tells you to skip sentences | B. It guides pauses and expression | C. It changes the meaning of numbers only

4. For your storyparts practice, which event happened after Ama found a red ball?

A. Ama went to sleep | B. Ama threw it away | C. gave it back to Kojo

5. For your storyparts practice, which event happened after Kojo found three mangoes?

LESSON 31 | Writing

Introduce story characters and setting and Describe a place in a paragraph

What we will learn

- Introduce story characters and setting
- Describe a place in a paragraph

Let's learn

Welcome to introduce story characters and setting and describe a place in a paragraph! We will read a model, watch a matching demonstration, practise independently and share what we learn.

Say your idea first. Write meaningful sentences with capitals, spaces and punctuation. Review your work. Today we practise introduce story characters and setting. Say your idea first. Write meaningful sentences with capitals, spaces and punctuation. Review your work. Today we practise describe a place in a paragraph.

Reading and response passage

Learners wrote about an event at school. They planned ideas, wrote sentences, reviewed mistakes and shared their work.

Let's try a worked example

While at the market, Ama thinks about this: A strong story opening tells the reader → who and where the story begins. An opening introduces a setting and characters.

Kojo is learning with a partner at school. A strong story opening tells the reader → who and where the story begins. An opening introduces a setting and characters.

While at the market, Ama thinks about this: Which detail belongs in a paragraph about a clinic? → Patients meet nurses and receive care.. A description uses details about that place.

Kojo is learning with a partner at school. How can you organise a paragraph describing a library? → Name it, describe features, explain its use. A coherent paragraph develops one place.

Do it yourself

Write a short original response in your exercise book; revise and proofread.

Quick practice — choose an answer, then explain why

1. Nana is learning with a partner during reading time. How can you organise a paragraph describing a library?

A. Name it, describe features, explain its use | B. List only unrelated adjectives | C. Write events in reverse without context

2. While at the market, Abdul reads the question: Which sentence describes a school compound?

A. Yesterday has six colours. | B. My bicycle is a spoon. | C. Our compound has trees and classrooms.

3. Akosua is learning with a partner on a school visit. How can you organise a paragraph describing a library?

A. List only unrelated adjectives | B. Name it, describe features, explain its use | C. Write events in reverse without context

4. Mansa is learning with a partner on Friday. How can you organise a paragraph describing a library?

A. Name it, describe features, explain its use | B. Write events in reverse without context | C. List only unrelated adjectives

5. Help Kwame with this activity before break: A strong story opening tells the reader

A. how to count to one hundred | B. who and where the story begins | C. only the final page number

6. Kojo is learning with a partner at school. A strong story opening tells the reader

A. how to count to one hundred | B. who and where the story begins | C. only the final page number

LESSON 32 | Writing

Write events from pictures and Presentation

What we will learn

- Write events from pictures
- Presentation

Let's learn

Welcome to write events from pictures and presentation! We will read a model, watch a matching demonstration, practise independently and share what we learn.

Say your idea first. Write meaningful sentences with capitals, spaces and punctuation. Review your work. Today we practise write events from pictures. Say your idea first. Write meaningful sentences with capitals, spaces and punctuation. Review your work. Today we practise presentation.

Reading and response passage

Learners wrote about an event at school. They planned ideas, wrote sentences, reviewed mistakes and shared their work.

Let's try a worked example

While at the market, Ama thinks about this: A picture shows planting, watering, and a sprout. What happened second? → watering. Order the events pictured.

Kojo is learning with a partner at school. Which word starts an event recount? → First. Sequence words help show event order.

For your presentation practice, you are presenting on my family. What is the best answer? → Face your audience. Read the instruction carefully and choose the helpful or correct response.

For your presentation practice, think about this situation: You are presenting on my family. Which choice fits? → Face your audience. Use the lesson skill to make a sensible choice.

Do it yourself

Write a short original response in your exercise book; revise and proofread.

Quick practice — choose an answer, then explain why

1. For your presentation practice, think about this situation: You are presenting on my pet. Which choice fits?

A. Hide your notes and run | B. Say who you are | C. Speak facing the wall

2. While at the bus station, Afia thinks about this: A picture shows planting, watering, and a sprout. What happened second?

A. harvesting | B. watering | C. painting a wall

3. For your presentation practice, you are presenting on a market. What is the best answer?

A. Hide your notes and run | B. Practise first | C. Speak facing the wall

4. Nana is learning with a partner after class. Which word starts an event recount?

A. Because? | B. Beneath | C. First

5. For your presentation practice, you are presenting on my pet. What is the best answer?

A. Say who you are | B. Speak facing the wall | C. Hide your notes and run

6. For your presentation practice, practise it again in your own words: You are presenting on plants. Pick the right example.

A. Hide your notes and run | B. Speak facing the wall | C. Show a relevant picture

7. Help Sena with this activity in the community: A picture shows a child finding a purse and returning it. What is the ending?

A. A door turns into a mango | B. The purse is returned to its owner | C. The child loses a football

8. For your presentation practice, you are presenting on my school. What is the best answer?

A. Speak clearly | B. Hide your notes and run | C. Speak facing the wall

9. While during reading time, Kofi thinks about this: A picture shows planting, watering, and a sprout. What happened second?

A. painting a wall | B. harvesting | C. watering

LESSON 33 | Grammar Usage

Capital letters in initials and Capitals in book titles

What we will learn

- Capital letters in initials
- Capitals in book titles

Let's learn

Welcome to capital letters in initials and capitals in book titles! We will read a model, watch a matching demonstration, practise independently and share what we learn.

Initials are first letters of names. Write them using capital letters, such as A. B. for Ama Boateng. Notice how words and punctuation work in an example, then write a new sentence using the same rule. Today we practise capitals in book titles.

Reading and response passage

Ama Boateng wrote her initials as A. B. Her teacher reminded the class to capitalise titles and use full stops where needed.

Let's try a worked example

While at the market, Ama thinks about this: What are the initials of Ama Boateng? → A. B.. Use capital letters for initials.

Kojo is learning with a partner at school. Which correctly writes the initials of Kojo Mensah? → K. M.. Initials take capital letters.

While at the market, Ama thinks about this: Which is correctly capitalised as a story title? → The Clever Tortoise. Important words in a title begin with capital letters.

LESSON 34 | Grammar Usage

Full stops in initials and Commas in a list

What we will learn

- Full stops in initials
- Commas in a list

Let's learn

Welcome to full stops in initials and commas in a list! We will read a model, watch a matching demonstration, practise independently and share what we learn.

Notice how words and punctuation work in an example, then write a new sentence using the same rule. Today we practise full stops in initials. Commas help separate items in a list. For example: We brought books, pens and pencils.

Reading and response passage

K. A. Mensah made a list of pencils, books and rulers. He used full stops after his initials and commas in the list.

Let's try a worked example

While at the market, Ama thinks about this: Which form has full stops after initials? → K. A. Mensah. Initials can be followed by full stops.

Kojo is learning with a partner at school. Which form has full stops after initials? → K. A. Mensah. Initials can be followed by full stops.

While at the market, Ama thinks about this: Choose the correctly punctuated list. → We bought rice, beans and maize.. Commas separate items in a list.

Kojo is learning with a partner at school. Where is the comma needed in "I have a pen a book and a bag"? → after pen. Put a comma after pen to separate the listed objects.

Do it yourself

LESSON 35 | Grammar Usage

Possession with apostrophes and Presentcontinuous

What we will learn

- Possession with apostrophes
- Presentcontinuous

Let's learn

Welcome to possession with apostrophes and presentcontinuous! We will read a model, watch a matching demonstration, practise independently and share what we learn.

Apostrophes can show ownership. Kofi's bag means that the bag belongs to Kofi. Notice how words and punctuation work in an example, then write a new sentence using the same rule. Today we practise presentcontinuous.

Reading and response passage

Kojo's bag is blue. Ama is reading, and the children are playing. These sentences use an apostrophe and action words.

Let's try a worked example

While at the market, Ama thinks about this: Which correctly shows that the bag belongs to Kojo? → Kojo's bag. The apostrophe plus s shows ownership by Kojo.

Kojo is learning with a partner at school. Choose the sentence with the correct possessive. → Ama's book is new.. Ama's means the book belongs to Ama.

For your presentcontinuous practice, right now, Ama is doing an action: read. What is the best answer? → Ama is reading.. Read the instruction carefully and choose the helpful or correct response.

For your presentcontinuous practice, think about this situation: Right now, Ama is doing an action: read. Which choice fits? → Ama is reading.. Use the lesson skill to make a sensible choice.

Do it yourself

Find an example of today's grammar skill in a book and write your own sentence.

Quick practice — choose an answer, then explain why

LESSON 36 | Grammar Usage

Presentcontinuous and Past and past continuous

What we will learn

- Presentcontinuous
- Past and past continuous

Let's learn

Welcome to presentcontinuous and past and past continuous! We will read a model, watch a matching demonstration, practise independently and share what we learn.

Notice how words and punctuation work in an example, then write a new sentence using the same rule. Today we practise presentcontinuous. Simple past tells what finished earlier: Ama walked. Past continuous tells what was happening: Ama was walking.

Reading and response passage

Ama is reading at school. Kojo is drawing. Yesterday, they were working on a poster when rain began.

Let's try a worked example

For your presentcontinuous practice, right now, Ama is doing an action: read. What is the best answer? → Ama is reading.. Read the instruction carefully and choose the helpful or correct response.

For your presentcontinuous practice, think about this situation: Right now, Ama is doing an action: read. Which choice fits? → Ama is reading.. Use the lesson skill to make a sensible choice.

While at the market, Ama thinks about this: Which sentence shows an action that was continuing yesterday? → Ama was reading in the evening.. Past continuous uses was with -ing.

Kojo is learning with a partner at school. Which is the simple past form of "walk"? → walked. Walked states a completed action in the past.

Do it yourself

Find an example of today's grammar skill in a book and write your own sentence.

Quick practice — choose an answer, then explain why

1. While at school, Abdul reads the question: Choose the correct past continuous sentence for a group.

A. The children were playing. | B. The children was playing. | C. The children are played.

2. For your presentcontinuous practice, practise it again in your own words: Right now, Adjoa is doing an action: cook. Pick the right example.

A. Adjoa cooks every day. | B. Adjoa is cooking. | C. Adjoa cook.

3. For your presentcontinuous practice, right now, Nana is doing an action: wash. What is the best answer?

A. Nana washes every day. | B. Nana wash. | C. Nana is washing.

4. While at the bus station, Abdul reads the question: Which sentence shows an action that was continuing yesterday?

A. Ama was reading in the evening. | B. Ama is reading now. | C. Ama reads every evening.

5. While with a partner, Esi reads the question: Which happened and ended yesterday?

A. Kojo is washing now. | B. Kojo washed the plates. | C. Kojo always washes.

6. For your presentcontinuous practice, right now, Esi is doing an action: sing. What is the best answer?

A. Esi sings every day. | B. Esi sing. | C. Esi is singing.

7. For your presentcontinuous practice, practise it again in your own words: Right now, Yawson is doing an action: learn. Pick the right example.

A. Yawson learn. | B. Yawson learns every day. | C. Yawson is learning.

8. While in the garden, Esi reads the question: Which sentence shows an action that was continuing yesterday?

A. Ama reads every evening. | B. Ama is reading now. | C. Ama was reading in the evening.

9. For your presentcontinuous practice, practise it again in your own words: Right now, Nana is doing an action: wash. Pick the right example.

A. Nana wash. | B. Nana washes every day. | C. Nana is washing.

10. While at the shop, Fati reads the question: Choose the correct past continuous sentence for a group.

A. The children are played. | B. The children was playing. | C. The children were playing.

Challenge questions

1. Help Kwame with this activity before break: Which is the simple past form of “walk”?

A. walks | B. walked | C. walking

2. For your presentcontinuous practice, right now, Adjoa is doing an action: cook. What is the best answer?

A. Adjoa cook. | B. Adjoa cooks every day. | C. Adjoa is cooking.

3. For your presentcontinuous practice, think about this situation: Right now, Esi is doing an action: sing. Which choice fits?

A. Esi is singing. | B. Esi sings every day. | C. Esi sing.

4. For your presentcontinuous practice, right now, Abena is doing an action: write. What is the best answer?

A. Abena write. | B. Abena writes every day. | C. Abena is writing.

5. Kojo is learning with a partner in the garden. Which sentence shows an action that was continuing yesterday?

A. Ama reads every evening. | B. Ama is reading now. | C. Ama was reading in the evening.

6. For your presentcontinuous practice, right now, Sarah is doing an action: help. What is the best answer?

Describing height and length and Words for how, when and how often

What we will learn

- Describing height and length
- Words for how, when and how often

Let's learn

Welcome to describing height and length and words for how, when and how often! We will read a model, watch a matching demonstration, practise independently and share what we learn.

An adjective describes a noun. Tall, short, long and narrow help us describe height or length. An adverb tells how, when or how often an action happens, as in quickly, yesterday or always.

Reading and response passage

The tall tree stands beside a narrow path. The children walked slowly and often paused to rest.

Let's try a worked example

While at the market, Ama thinks about this: Which word describes the length of a rope? → long. Long is a length adjective.

Kojo is learning with a partner at school. Which word describes the height of a tree? → tall. Tall describes height.

While at the market, Ama thinks about this: In "She walked slowly," which word tells how? → slowly. Slowly explains how she walked.

Kojo is learning with a partner at school. Which word tells how often someone reads? → often. Often tells frequency.

Do it yourself

Find an example of today's grammar skill in a book and write your own sentence.

Quick practice — choose an answer, then explain why

1. Help Kwame with this activity in the classroom: Which is a sentence with an adverb of frequency?

A. We usually eat breakfast early. | B. The mango is sweet. | C. A chair has four legs.

2. While at school, Abdul reads the question: Which word describes a short wall?

A. short | B. often | C. softly

Words for how, when and how often and Prepositions of direction and means

What we will learn

- Words for how, when and how often
- Prepositions of direction and means

Let's learn

Welcome to words for how, when and how often and prepositions of direction and means! We will read a model, watch a matching demonstration, practise independently and share what we learn.

An adverb tells how, when or how often an action happens, as in quickly, yesterday or always. Notice how words and punctuation work in an example, then write a new sentence using the same rule. Today we practise prepositions of direction and means.

Reading and response passage

Esi usually travels by bus to school. She walks carefully from the bus stop to the classroom.

Let's try a worked example

While at the market, Ama thinks about this: In "She walked slowly," which word tells how? → slowly. Slowly explains how she walked.

Kojo is learning with a partner at school. Which word tells how often someone reads? → often. Often tells frequency.

While at the market, Ama thinks about this: Which sentence shows both a direction and a means of transport? → We travelled to school by bus.. Prepositions can describe direction and means.

Kojo is learning with a partner at school. Which sentence shows both a direction and a means of transport? → We travelled to school by bus.. Prepositions can describe direction and means.

Join ideas using and, but, or and Irregularwords

What we will learn

- Join ideas using and, but, or
- Irregularwords

Let's learn

Welcome to join ideas using and, but, or and irregularwords! We will read a model, watch a matching demonstration, practise independently and share what we learn.

A conjunction joins ideas. And adds; but contrasts; or shows a choice. Notice how words and punctuation work in an example, then write a new sentence using the same rule. Today we practise irregularwords.

Reading and response passage

Ama likes reading and drawing. Kojo wanted to play, but rain began. They could read or play a word game.

Let's try a worked example

While at the market, Ama thinks about this: Which word joins similar ideas? → and. And adds a related idea.

Kojo is learning with a partner at school. Which word shows contrast? → but. But introduces a contrasting idea.

Ama asks: Which spelling is correct for the common word "said"? → said. Some words do not sound exactly as their spelling suggests.

Ama asks: What should you do when spelling the tricky word "said"? → Look, say, cover, write, check. Practise irregular word spellings carefully.

LESSON 40 | Extensive Reading

Readinghabit

What we will learn

- Readinghabit

Let's learn

Welcome to readinghabit! We will read a model, watch a matching demonstration, practise independently and share what we learn.

Read books you enjoy. Explain the plot, main characters, interesting events and your opinion. Today we practise readinghabit.

Reading and response passage

Every Friday, the class reads a new book. Ama writes its title, summarises the main events and explains why she recommends it.

Let's try a worked example

While at the market, Ama thinks about this: What makes a useful reading journal after finishing a book? → The title, a short summary and a personal response. A reading journal summarises what you read and records your response.

Kojo is learning with a partner at school. What makes a useful reading journal after finishing a book? → The title, a short summary and a personal response. A reading journal summarises what you read and records your response.

Do it yourself

Choose a book to read this week; record its title, a summary and your opinion.

Quick practice — choose an answer, then explain why

1. While at the bus station, Abdul reads the question: What makes a useful reading journal after finishing a book?

A. A list of imaginary prices | B. Only an unrelated number | C. The title, a short summary and a personal response
