Religious and Moral Education | Basic 3

Illustrated lesson book • English-narrated offline video in course folder • Independent educational resource

Lesson 1: Narrate creation stories of the three major religions in Ghana

Strong families and communities grow through kindness, cooperation, fairness, responsible decisions and respect for others. People can help one another in many ways.

Try: Role-play helping someone at home or school, then explain why it is helpful.

Reflect: What does responsible behaviour look like in this situation?

Play (5 questions)

1. Narrate creation stories of the three major religions in Ghana — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Narrate creation stories of the three major religions in Ghana — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Narrate creation stories of the three major religions in Ghana — What should we do first?
4. Narrate creation stories of the three major religions in Ghana — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Narrate creation stories of the three major religions in Ghana — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Narrate creation stories of the three major religions in Ghana — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Narrate creation stories of the three major religions in Ghana — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Narrate creation stories of the three major religions in Ghana — What is the final learning step?
4. Narrate creation stories of the three major religions in Ghana — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Narrate creation stories of the three major religions in Ghana — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Narrate creation stories of the three major religions in Ghana — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Narrate creation stories of the three major religions in Ghana — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Narrate creation stories of the three major religions in Ghana — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Narrate creation stories of the three major religions in Ghana — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Narrate creation stories of the three major religions in Ghana — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 2: Demonstrate ways to care for the environment

A clean and safe environment supports healthy communities. Caring for rivers, plants, school grounds, and shared spaces is a responsibility we can practise.

Try: Plan a safe school clean-up using pretend litter cards; do not touch sharp or dirty waste.

Reflect: Which safe action would improve the school environment most?

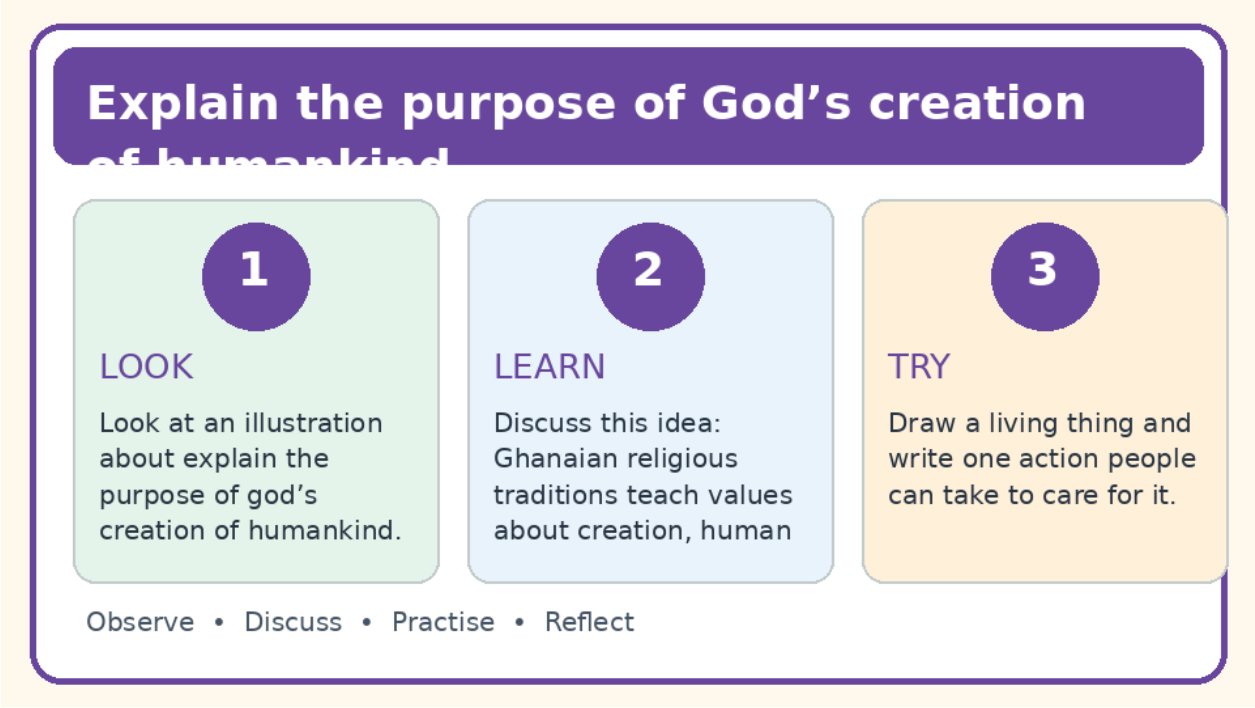

Play (5 questions)

1. Demonstrate ways to care for the environment — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Demonstrate ways to care for the environment — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Demonstrate ways to care for the environment — What should we do first?
4. Demonstrate ways to care for the environment — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Demonstrate ways to care for the environment — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Demonstrate ways to care for the environment — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Demonstrate ways to care for the environment — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Demonstrate ways to care for the environment — What is the final learning step?
4. Demonstrate ways to care for the environment — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Demonstrate ways to care for the environment — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Demonstrate ways to care for the environment — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Demonstrate ways to care for the environment — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Demonstrate ways to care for the environment — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Demonstrate ways to care for the environment — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Demonstrate ways to care for the environment — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 3: Explain the purpose of God’s creation of humankind

Ghanaian religious traditions teach values about creation, human life, care, responsibility and gratitude. Learners can describe beliefs respectfully without judging one another.

Try: Draw a living thing and write one action people can take to care for it.

Reflect: What could you do to protect a living thing near your school?

Play (5 questions)

1. Explain the purpose of God’s creation of humankind — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Explain the purpose of God’s creation of humankind — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Explain the purpose of God’s creation of humankind — What should we do first?
4. Explain the purpose of God’s creation of humankind — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Explain the purpose of God’s creation of humankind — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Explain the purpose of God’s creation of humankind — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Explain the purpose of God’s creation of humankind — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Explain the purpose of God’s creation of humankind — What is the final learning step?
4. Explain the purpose of God’s creation of humankind — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Explain the purpose of God’s creation of humankind — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Explain the purpose of God’s creation of humankind — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Explain the purpose of God’s creation of humankind — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Explain the purpose of God’s creation of humankind — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Explain the purpose of God’s creation of humankind — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Explain the purpose of God’s creation of humankind — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 4: Give reasons for protecting God’s creation

Ghanaian religious traditions teach values about creation, human life, care, responsibility and gratitude. Learners can describe beliefs respectfully without judging one another.

Try: Draw a living thing and write one action people can take to care for it.

Reflect: What could you do to protect a living thing near your school?

Play (5 questions)

1. Give reasons for protecting God’s creation — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Give reasons for protecting God’s creation — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Give reasons for protecting God’s creation — What should we do first?
4. Give reasons for protecting God’s creation — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Give reasons for protecting God’s creation — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Give reasons for protecting God’s creation — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Give reasons for protecting God’s creation — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Give reasons for protecting God’s creation — What is the final learning step?
4. Give reasons for protecting God’s creation — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Give reasons for protecting God’s creation — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Give reasons for protecting God’s creation — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Give reasons for protecting God’s creation — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Give reasons for protecting God’s creation — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Give reasons for protecting God’s creation — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Give reasons for protecting God’s creation — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 5: Explain the need for good relationships among people of different ethnic groups

Strong families and communities grow through kindness, cooperation, fairness, responsible decisions and respect for others. People can help one another in many ways.

Try: Role-play helping someone at home or school, then explain why it is helpful.

Reflect: What does responsible behaviour look like in this situation?

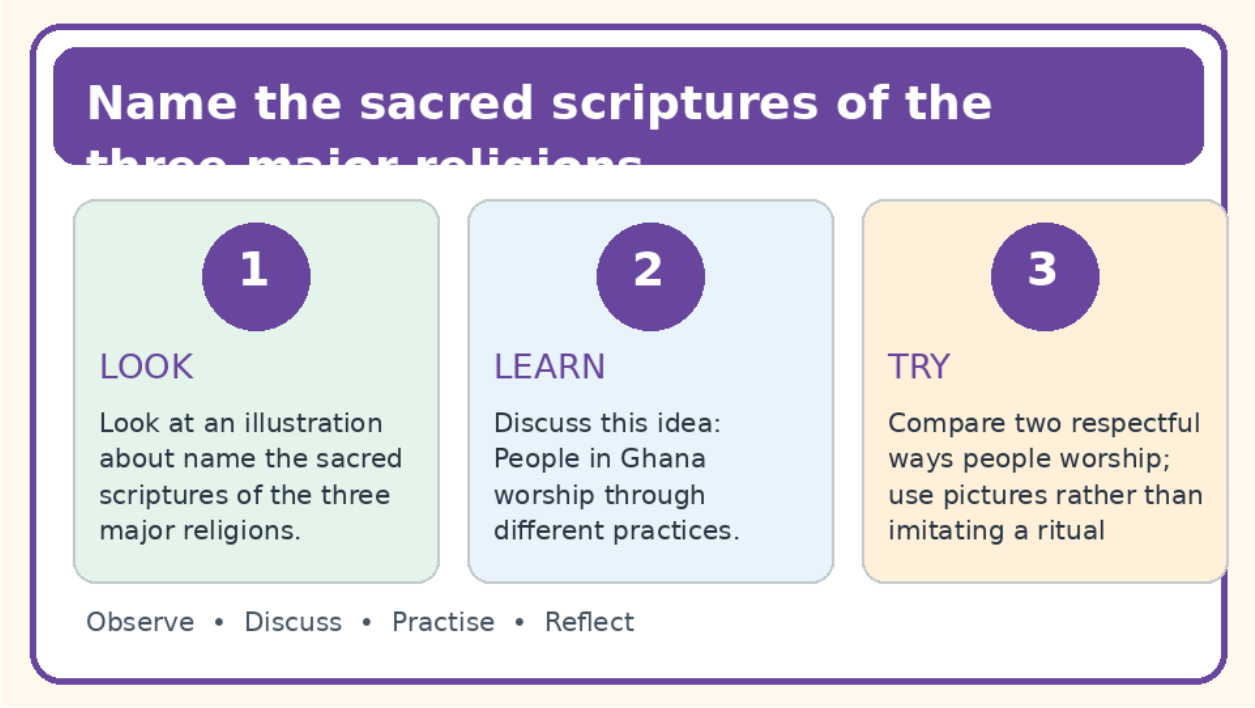

Play (5 questions)

1. Explain the need for good relationships among people of different ethnic groups — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Explain the need for good relationships among people of different ethnic groups — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Explain the need for good relationships among people of different ethnic groups — What should we do first?
4. Explain the need for good relationships among people of different ethnic groups — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Explain the need for good relationships among people of different ethnic groups — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Explain the need for good relationships among people of different ethnic groups — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Explain the need for good relationships among people of different ethnic groups — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Explain the need for good relationships among people of different ethnic groups — What is the final learning step?
4. Explain the need for good relationships among people of different ethnic groups — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Explain the need for good relationships among people of different ethnic groups — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Explain the need for good relationships among people of different ethnic groups — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Explain the need for good relationships among people of different ethnic groups — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Explain the need for good relationships among people of different ethnic groups — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Explain the need for good relationships among people of different ethnic groups — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Explain the need for good relationships among people of different ethnic groups — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 6: Name the sacred scriptures of the three major religions

People in Ghana worship through different practices. Christians, Muslims and followers of African Traditional Religion may pray, sing, recite or gather in different ways. All people deserve respect.

Try: Compare two respectful ways people worship; use pictures rather than imitating a ritual without permission.

Reflect: How can we show respect when a friend worships differently?

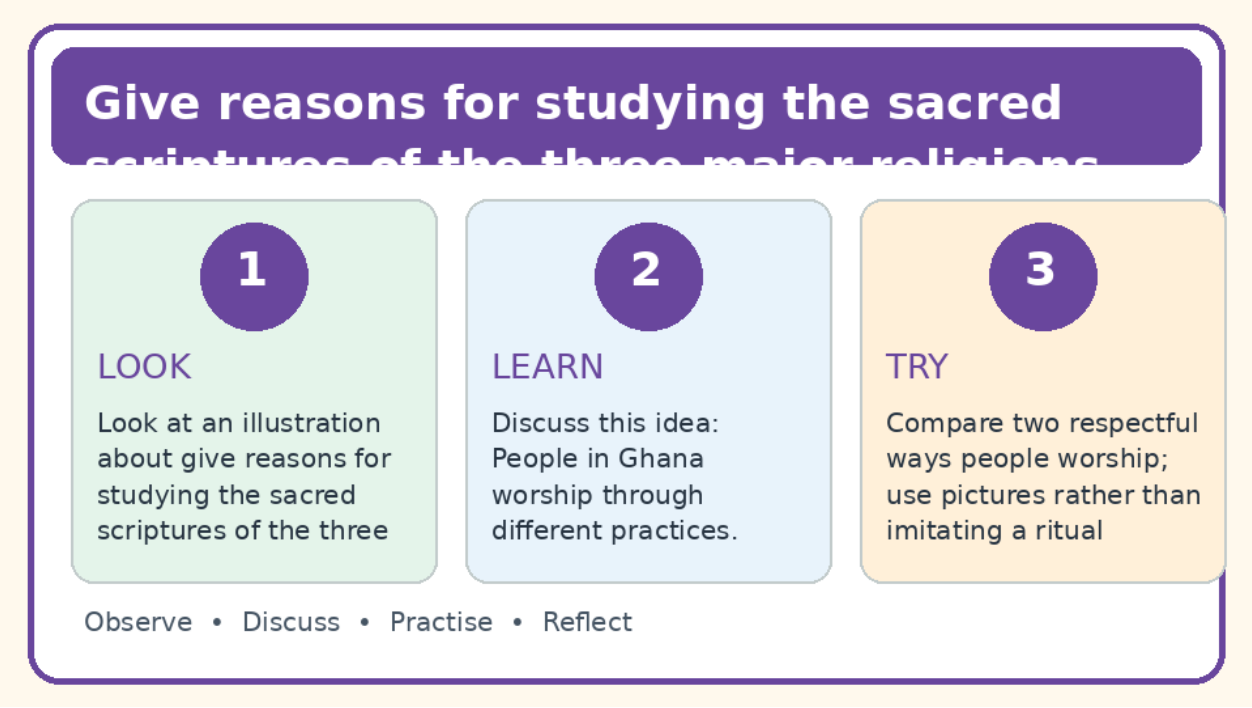

Play (5 questions)

1. Name the sacred scriptures of the three major religions — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Name the sacred scriptures of the three major religions — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Name the sacred scriptures of the three major religions — What should we do first?
4. Name the sacred scriptures of the three major religions — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Name the sacred scriptures of the three major religions — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Name the sacred scriptures of the three major religions — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Name the sacred scriptures of the three major religions — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Name the sacred scriptures of the three major religions — What is the final learning step?
4. Name the sacred scriptures of the three major religions — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Name the sacred scriptures of the three major religions — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Name the sacred scriptures of the three major religions — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Name the sacred scriptures of the three major religions — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Name the sacred scriptures of the three major religions — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Name the sacred scriptures of the three major religions — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Name the sacred scriptures of the three major religions — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 7: Give reasons for studying the sacred scriptures of the three major religions

People in Ghana worship through different practices. Christians, Muslims and followers of African Traditional Religion may pray, sing, recite or gather in different ways. All people deserve respect.

Try: Compare two respectful ways people worship; use pictures rather than imitating a ritual without permission.

Reflect: How can we show respect when a friend worships differently?

Play (5 questions)

1. Give reasons for studying the sacred scriptures of the three major religions — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Give reasons for studying the sacred scriptures of the three major religions — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Give reasons for studying the sacred scriptures of the three major religions — What should we do first?
4. Give reasons for studying the sacred scriptures of the three major religions — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Give reasons for studying the sacred scriptures of the three major religions — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Give reasons for studying the sacred scriptures of the three major religions — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Give reasons for studying the sacred scriptures of the three major religions — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Give reasons for studying the sacred scriptures of the three major religions — What is the final learning step?
4. Give reasons for studying the sacred scriptures of the three major religions — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Give reasons for studying the sacred scriptures of the three major religions — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Give reasons for studying the sacred scriptures of the three major religions — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Give reasons for studying the sacred scriptures of the three major religions — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Give reasons for studying the sacred scriptures of the three major religions — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Give reasons for studying the sacred scriptures of the three major religions — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Give reasons for studying the sacred scriptures of the three major religions — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 8: Describe how various festivals are celebrated

Festivals such as Christmas, Eid and local traditional festivals are occasions for worship, community activities and sharing. Respect different ways of celebrating.

Try: Make a respectful picture sequence showing preparation, celebration, and sharing during a festival.

Reflect: How could a festival help neighbours show generosity and unity?

Play (5 questions)

1. Describe how various festivals are celebrated — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Describe how various festivals are celebrated — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Describe how various festivals are celebrated — What should we do first?
4. Describe how various festivals are celebrated — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Describe how various festivals are celebrated — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Describe how various festivals are celebrated — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Describe how various festivals are celebrated — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Describe how various festivals are celebrated — What is the final learning step?
4. Describe how various festivals are celebrated — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Describe how various festivals are celebrated — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Describe how various festivals are celebrated — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Describe how various festivals are celebrated — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Describe how various festivals are celebrated — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Describe how various festivals are celebrated — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Describe how various festivals are celebrated — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 9: Demonstrate the importance of religious festivals

Festivals such as Christmas, Eid and local traditional festivals are occasions for worship, community activities and sharing. Respect different ways of celebrating.

Try: Make a respectful picture sequence showing preparation, celebration, and sharing during a festival.

Reflect: How could a festival help neighbours show generosity and unity?

Play (5 questions)

1. Demonstrate the importance of religious festivals — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Demonstrate the importance of religious festivals — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Demonstrate the importance of religious festivals — What should we do first?
4. Demonstrate the importance of religious festivals — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Demonstrate the importance of religious festivals — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Demonstrate the importance of religious festivals — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Demonstrate the importance of religious festivals — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Demonstrate the importance of religious festivals — What is the final learning step?
4. Demonstrate the importance of religious festivals — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Demonstrate the importance of religious festivals — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Demonstrate the importance of religious festivals — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Demonstrate the importance of religious festivals — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Demonstrate the importance of religious festivals — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Demonstrate the importance of religious festivals — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Demonstrate the importance of religious festivals — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 10: Describe the youthful lives of the leaders of the three major religions in Ghana

Religious communities tell stories about respected leaders and the lessons learned from their lives. We can compare values such as kindness, courage, truthfulness and service.

Try: Retell a short, age-appropriate story and point out one positive value.

Reflect: Which value from a leader’s story could help you at school?

Play (5 questions)

1. Describe the youthful lives of the leaders of the three major religions in Ghana — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Describe the youthful lives of the leaders of the three major religions in Ghana — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Describe the youthful lives of the leaders of the three major religions in Ghana — What should we do first?
4. Describe the youthful lives of the leaders of the three major religions in Ghana — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Describe the youthful lives of the leaders of the three major religions in Ghana — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Describe the youthful lives of the leaders of the three major religions in Ghana — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Describe the youthful lives of the leaders of the three major religions in Ghana — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Describe the youthful lives of the leaders of the three major religions in Ghana — What is the final learning step?
4. Describe the youthful lives of the leaders of the three major religions in Ghana — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Describe the youthful lives of the leaders of the three major religions in Ghana — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Describe the youthful lives of the leaders of the three major religions in Ghana — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Describe the youthful lives of the leaders of the three major religions in Ghana — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Describe the youthful lives of the leaders of the three major religions in Ghana — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Describe the youthful lives of the leaders of the three major religions in Ghana — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Describe the youthful lives of the leaders of the three major religions in Ghana — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 11: Identify moral lessons from the youthful lives of religious leaders

Religious communities tell stories about respected leaders and the lessons learned from their lives. We can compare values such as kindness, courage, truthfulness and service.

Try: Retell a short, age-appropriate story and point out one positive value.

Reflect: Which value from a leader’s story could help you at school?

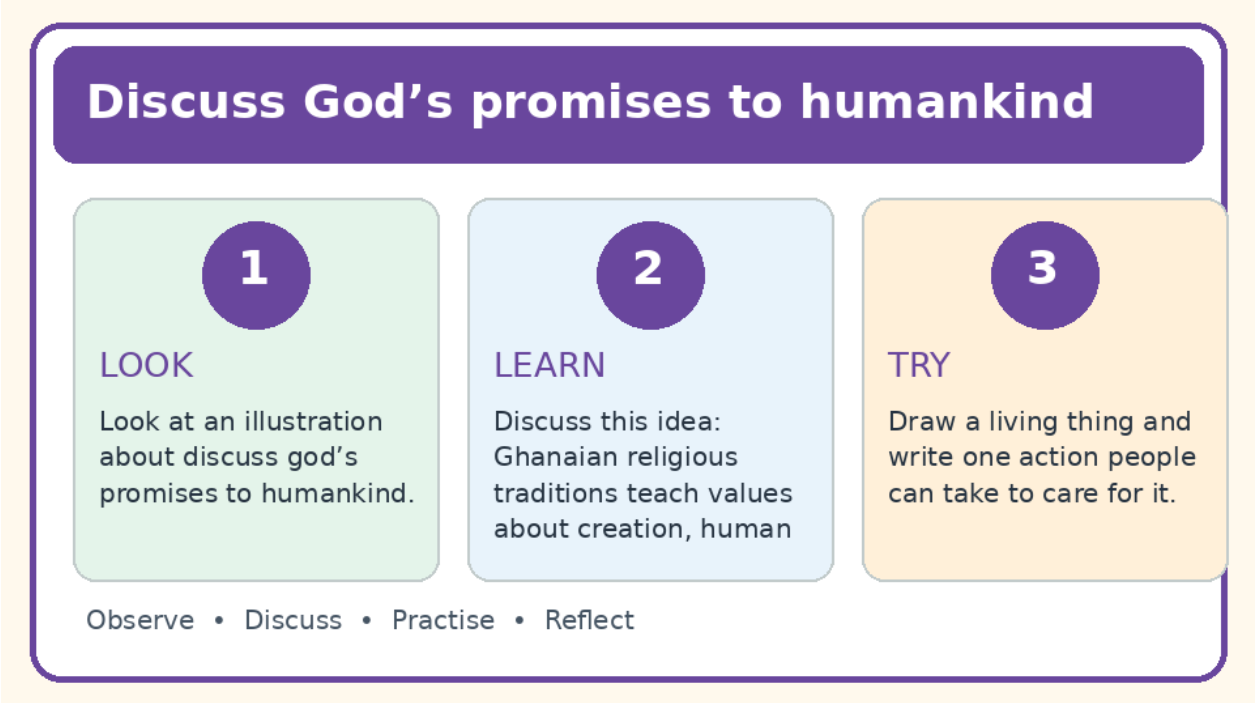

Play (5 questions)

1. Identify moral lessons from the youthful lives of religious leaders — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Identify moral lessons from the youthful lives of religious leaders — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Identify moral lessons from the youthful lives of religious leaders — What should we do first?
4. Identify moral lessons from the youthful lives of religious leaders — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Identify moral lessons from the youthful lives of religious leaders — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Identify moral lessons from the youthful lives of religious leaders — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Identify moral lessons from the youthful lives of religious leaders — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Identify moral lessons from the youthful lives of religious leaders — What is the final learning step?
4. Identify moral lessons from the youthful lives of religious leaders — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Identify moral lessons from the youthful lives of religious leaders — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Identify moral lessons from the youthful lives of religious leaders — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Identify moral lessons from the youthful lives of religious leaders — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Identify moral lessons from the youthful lives of religious leaders — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Identify moral lessons from the youthful lives of religious leaders — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Identify moral lessons from the youthful lives of religious leaders — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 12: Discuss God’s promises to humankind

Ghanaian religious traditions teach values about creation, human life, care, responsibility and gratitude. Learners can describe beliefs respectfully without judging one another.

Try: Draw a living thing and write one action people can take to care for it.

Reflect: What could you do to protect a living thing near your school?

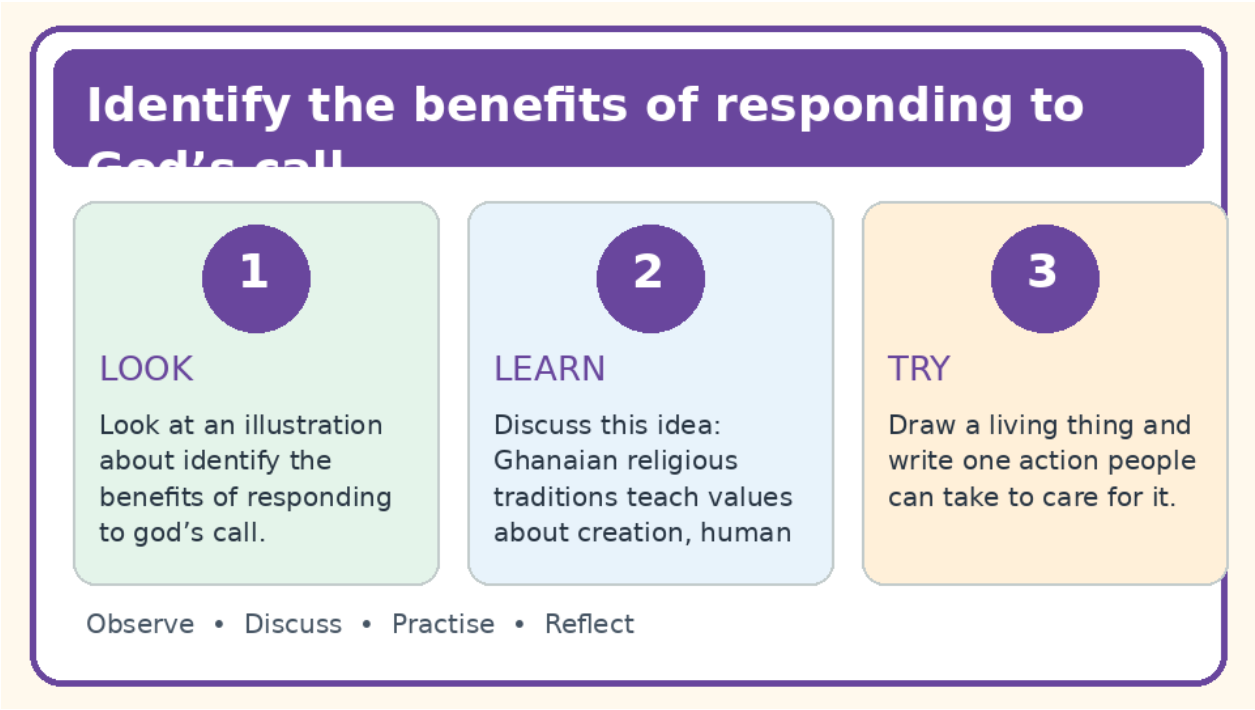

Play (5 questions)

1. Discuss God’s promises to humankind — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Discuss God’s promises to humankind — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Discuss God’s promises to humankind — What should we do first?
4. Discuss God’s promises to humankind — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Discuss God’s promises to humankind — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Discuss God’s promises to humankind — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Discuss God’s promises to humankind — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Discuss God’s promises to humankind — What is the final learning step?
4. Discuss God’s promises to humankind — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Discuss God’s promises to humankind — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Discuss God’s promises to humankind — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Discuss God’s promises to humankind — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Discuss God’s promises to humankind — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Discuss God’s promises to humankind — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Discuss God’s promises to humankind — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 13: Identify the benefits of responding to God’s call

Ghanaian religious traditions teach values about creation, human life, care, responsibility and gratitude. Learners can describe beliefs respectfully without judging one another.

Try: Draw a living thing and write one action people can take to care for it.

Reflect: What could you do to protect a living thing near your school?

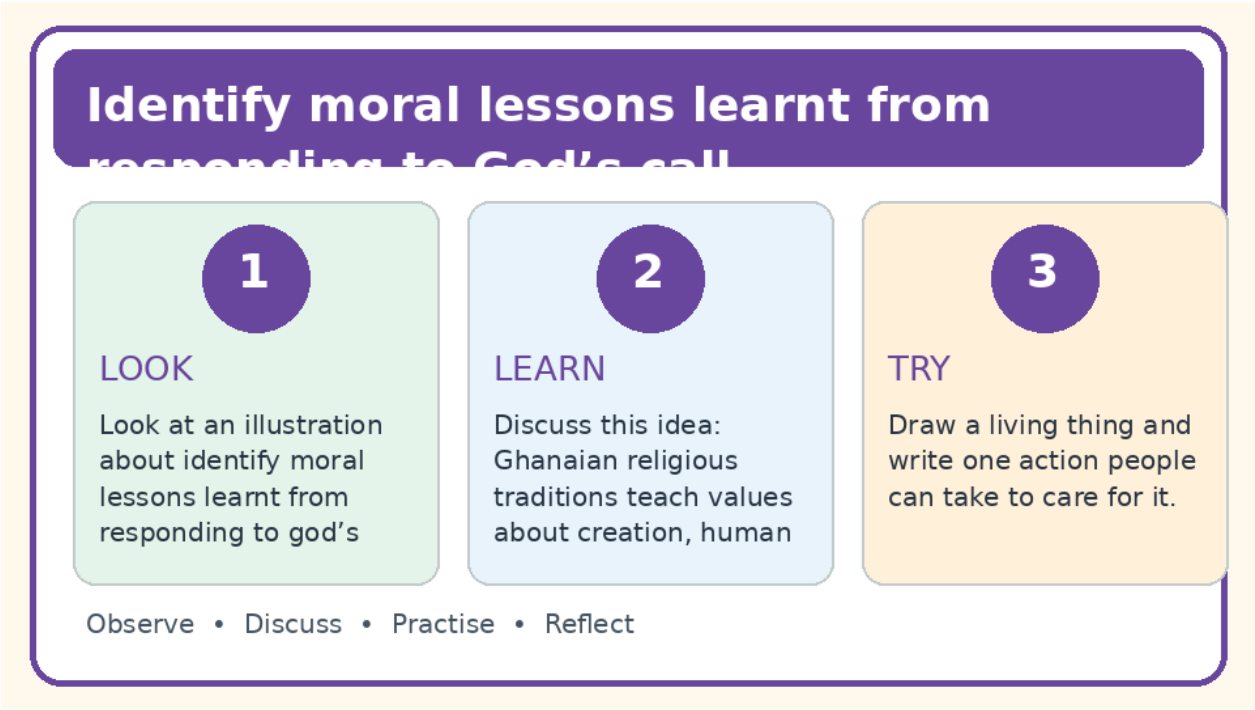

Play (5 questions)

1. Identify the benefits of responding to God’s call — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Identify the benefits of responding to God’s call — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Identify the benefits of responding to God’s call — What should we do first?
4. Identify the benefits of responding to God’s call — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Identify the benefits of responding to God’s call — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Identify the benefits of responding to God’s call — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Identify the benefits of responding to God’s call — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Identify the benefits of responding to God’s call — What is the final learning step?
4. Identify the benefits of responding to God’s call — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Identify the benefits of responding to God’s call — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Identify the benefits of responding to God’s call — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Identify the benefits of responding to God’s call — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Identify the benefits of responding to God’s call — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Identify the benefits of responding to God’s call — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Identify the benefits of responding to God’s call — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 14: Identify moral lessons learnt from responding to God’s call

Ghanaian religious traditions teach values about creation, human life, care, responsibility and gratitude. Learners can describe beliefs respectfully without judging one another.

Try: Draw a living thing and write one action people can take to care for it.

Reflect: What could you do to protect a living thing near your school?

Play (5 questions)

1. Identify moral lessons learnt from responding to God’s call — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Identify moral lessons learnt from responding to God’s call — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Identify moral lessons learnt from responding to God’s call — What should we do first?
4. Identify moral lessons learnt from responding to God’s call — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Identify moral lessons learnt from responding to God’s call — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Identify moral lessons learnt from responding to God’s call — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Identify moral lessons learnt from responding to God’s call — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Identify moral lessons learnt from responding to God’s call — What is the final learning step?
4. Identify moral lessons learnt from responding to God’s call — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Identify moral lessons learnt from responding to God’s call — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Identify moral lessons learnt from responding to God’s call — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Identify moral lessons learnt from responding to God’s call — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Identify moral lessons learnt from responding to God’s call — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Identify moral lessons learnt from responding to God’s call — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Identify moral lessons learnt from responding to God’s call — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?

Lesson 15: Explain the need to live in harmony with one another

Strong families and communities grow through kindness, cooperation, fairness, responsible decisions and respect for others. People can help one another in many ways.

Try: Role-play helping someone at home or school, then explain why it is helpful.

Reflect: What does responsible behaviour look like in this situation?

Play (5 questions)

1. Explain the need to live in harmony with one another — What is the main skill in this lesson?
2. Explain the need to live in harmony with one another — Which resource helps us explore this topic?
3. Explain the need to live in harmony with one another — What should we do first?
4. Explain the need to live in harmony with one another — Which action completes the classroom activity?
5. Explain the need to live in harmony with one another — What is a respectful way to discuss different religious traditions?

Challenge (10 questions)

1. Explain the need to live in harmony with one another — What evidence shows practical learning?
2. Explain the need to live in harmony with one another — What should follow the first observation step?
3. Explain the need to live in harmony with one another — What is the final learning step?
4. Explain the need to live in harmony with one another — Which behaviour demonstrates kindness during group work?
5. Explain the need to live in harmony with one another — Which statement fits a fair assessment?
6. Explain the need to live in harmony with one another — How should learners treat a story from a tradition they do not practise?
7. Explain the need to live in harmony with one another — Why should learners share their observations?
8. Explain the need to live in harmony with one another — Which activity helps apply this topic in daily life?
9. Explain the need to live in harmony with one another — How can a learner improve an incomplete response?
10. Explain the need to live in harmony with one another — Which principle is most useful when people disagree?