History of Ghana
Basic 6

Illustrated lessons · Practical activities · Play and Challenge questions

Independently authored learning companion aligned to selected NaCCA 2019 topics. This is not an official NaCCA publication.

LESSON 01: The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Discover

Goal: Assess the changes that the European presence brought to Ghana.

Learn it

Ghana’s coast had contacts with European visitors and traders. Different periods of contact brought changes that must be studied using evidence.

Useful material: A map of coastal trading areas and a written or oral account.

Do it in three steps

1. Observe a map of coastal trading areas and a written or oral account.

2. Ask a question about: Assess the changes that the European presence brought to Ghana.

3. Compare what two sources reveal about the period of European contact.

Safety / respect: Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

Try this: Compare what two sources reveal about the period of European contact.

Show your learning: two pieces of evidence. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

LESSON 01: Play + Challenge

Circle one answer for each question. Play = 1–5; Challenge = 6–15.

1. [Play] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Discover: What is this lesson mainly about?

A. Assess the changes that the European presence brought to Ghana.

B. Discuss an unrelated modern topic without evidence

C. Treat every account as equally reliable without checking

D. Ignore historical sources and decide from a guess

2. [Play] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Discover: What useful learning material or support is listed?

A. A map of coastal trading areas and a written or oral account.

B. guesses written without any source

C. only unsupported rumours without checking

D. an unrelated fictional story presented as a historical record

3. [Play] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Discover: Which action should come first?

A. Skip all practice and guess the result.

B. Observe a map of coastal trading areas and a written or oral account.

C. Finish before looking at the instructions.

D. Ignore the main task and do something unrelated.

4. [Play] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Discover: Which setting does this grade use?

A. colonial rule, independence and republican government

B. only a future space colony

C. a topic unrelated to the current class

D. an unrelated imagined city

5. [Play] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Discover: What should learners produce or demonstrate?

A. an unrelated picture with no explanation

B. an unsupported claim with no classroom practice

C. a response that does not show the lesson skill

D. a short, evidence-supported historical explanation

6. [Challenge] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Discover: Which action comes after the opening step?

A. Only watch others without trying

B. Change to an unrelated lesson immediately

C. Ask a question about: Assess the changes that the European presence brought to Ghana.

D. Skip to marking before learning

7. [Challenge] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Discover: Which practice completes the three lesson stages?

A. Leave the task unfinished without explaining

B. Stop after reading the title

C. Give a guess without trying the activity

D. Compare what two sources reveal about the period of European contact.

8. [Challenge] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Discover: What counts as good evidence of learning here?

A. an unrelated example that does not test the skill

B. an opinion without observation or practice

C. two pieces of evidence

D. a random answer with no supporting detail

9. [Challenge] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Discover: Which safety or respect rule fits this lesson?

A. Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

B. Ignore the teacher’s safety instructions.

C. Take unnecessary risks to finish first.

D. Do the activity without considering other people.

10. [Challenge] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Discover: Which classroom activity helps apply the lesson?

A. Copy another learner’s response without trying

B. Compare what two sources reveal about the period of European contact.

C. Complete a different lesson instead

D. Avoid the stated task and its materials

11. [Challenge] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Discover: Which explanation best supports this lesson?

A. The topic can be completed without observing or practising

B. Ghana’s coast had contacts with European visitors and traders. Different periods of contact brought changes that must be studied using evidence.

C. Learning means only guessing and never checking

D. The lesson has no connection to life or skills

12. [Challenge] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Discover: What should a partner help you check?

A. Whether you can finish without showing your work

B. Whether you can avoid answering questions

C. Whether you can ignore the agreed task

D. Whether your work demonstrates two pieces of evidence.

13. [Challenge] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Discover: Which follow-up deepens the learning?

A. Stop immediately without reflection

B. Repeat the same error without checking feedback

C. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

D. Make up results instead of practising

14. [Challenge] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Discover: How should a learner improve after feedback?

A. Skip a difficult part without asking for help

B. Change answers randomly without a reason

C. Revisit the steps and strengthen two pieces of evidence.

D. Ignore all comments and leave the task incomplete

15. [Challenge] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Discover: Which choice would show responsible use of today’s skill?

A. Use the topic to mislead others

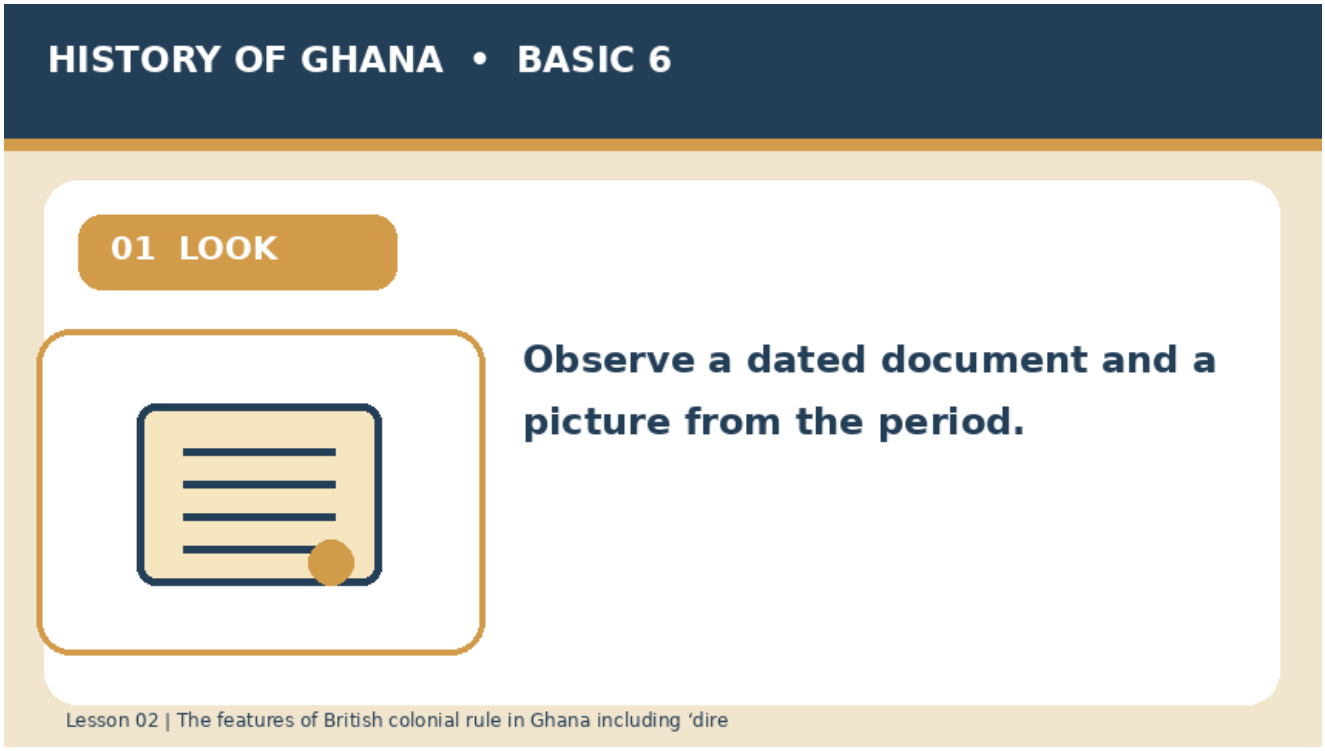

B. Claim expertise without trying the skill

C. Apply the lesson about assess the changes that the european presence brought to ghana to a suitable real-life situation.

D. Avoid explaining how the skill could be used

LESSON 02: The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Describe

Goal: Describe the features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ and ‘indirect’ rule, 1874

Learn it

Colonial rule affected administration, trade and daily life. Historical accounts should consider experiences from more than one perspective.

Useful material: A dated document and a picture from the period.

Do it in three steps

1. Observe a dated document and a picture from the period.

2. Ask a question about: Describe the features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ and ‘indirect’ rule, 1874.

3. Describe a change and support it with a source rather than a guess.

Safety / respect: Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

Try this: Describe a change and support it with a source rather than a guess.

Show your learning: a before-and-after comparison. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

LESSON 02: Play + Challenge

Circle one answer for each question. Play = 1–5; Challenge = 6–15.

1. [Play] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Describe: What is this lesson mainly about?

A. Describe the features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ and ‘indirect’ rule, 1874

B. Ignore historical sources and decide from a guess

C. Discuss an unrelated modern topic without evidence

D. Treat every account as equally reliable without checking

2. [Play] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Describe: What useful learning material or support is listed?

A. guesses written without any source

B. A dated document and a picture from the period.

C. only unsupported rumours without checking

D. an unrelated fictional story presented as a historical record

3. [Play] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Describe: Which action should come first?

A. Finish before looking at the instructions.

B. Observe a dated document and a picture from the period.

C. Skip all practice and guess the result.

D. Ignore the main task and do something unrelated.

4. [Play] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Describe: Which setting does this grade use?

A. only a future space colony

B. an unrelated imagined city

C. a topic unrelated to the current class

D. colonial rule, independence and republican government

5. [Play] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Describe: What should learners produce or demonstrate?

A. a short, evidence-supported historical explanation

B. a response that does not show the lesson skill

C. an unsupported claim with no classroom practice

D. an unrelated picture with no explanation

6. [Challenge] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Describe: Which action comes after the opening step?

A. Ask a question about: Describe the features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ and ‘indirect’ rule, 1874.

B. Only watch others without trying

C. Skip to marking before learning

D. Change to an unrelated lesson immediately

7. [Challenge] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Describe: Which practice completes the three lesson stages?

A. Stop after reading the title

B. Describe a change and support it with a source rather than a guess.

C. Leave the task unfinished without explaining

D. Give a guess without trying the activity

8. [Challenge] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Describe: What counts as good evidence of learning here?

A. an opinion without observation or practice

B. a random answer with no supporting detail

C. a before-and-after comparison

D. an unrelated example that does not test the skill

9. [Challenge] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Describe: Which safety or respect rule fits this lesson?

A. Do the activity without considering other people.

B. Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

C. Take unnecessary risks to finish first.

D. Ignore the teacher’s safety instructions.

10. [Challenge] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Describe: Which classroom activity helps apply the lesson?

A. Copy another learner’s response without trying

B. Avoid the stated task and its materials

C. Describe a change and support it with a source rather than a guess.

D. Complete a different lesson instead

11. [Challenge] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Describe: Which explanation best supports this lesson?

A. Colonial rule affected administration, trade and daily life. Historical accounts should consider experiences from more than one perspective.

B. The topic can be completed without observing or practising

C. Learning means only guessing and never checking

D. The lesson has no connection to life or skills

12. [Challenge] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Describe: What should a partner help you check?

A. Whether your work demonstrates a before-and-after comparison.

B. Whether you can finish without showing your work

C. Whether you can ignore the agreed task

D. Whether you can avoid answering questions

13. [Challenge] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Describe: Which follow-up deepens the learning?

A. Stop immediately without reflection

B. Make up results instead of practising

C. Repeat the same error without checking feedback

D. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

14. [Challenge] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Describe: How should a learner improve after feedback?

A. Skip a difficult part without asking for help

B. Revisit the steps and strengthen a before-and-after comparison.

C. Ignore all comments and leave the task incomplete

D. Change answers randomly without a reason

15. [Challenge] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Describe: Which choice would show responsible use of today’s skill?

A. Use the topic to mislead others

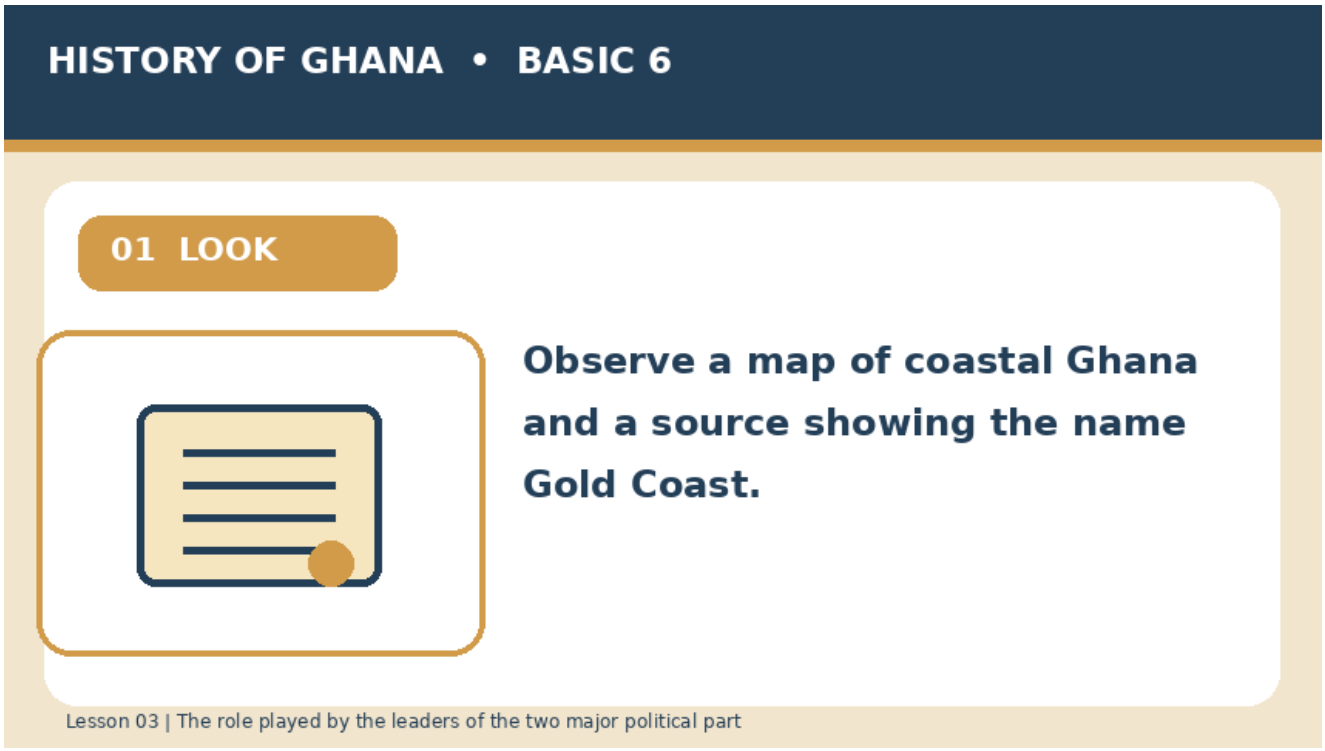

B. Apply the lesson about describe the features of british colonial rule in ghana including ‘direct’ and ‘indirect’ rule, 1874 to a suitable real-life situation.

C. Avoid explaining how the skill could be used

D. Claim expertise without trying the skill

LESSON 03: The role played by the leaders of the two major political parties - Practise

Goal: Describe the role played by the leaders of the two major political parties (UGCC and CPP) in the independence struggle in the Gold Coast after

Learn it

Ghana was called the Gold Coast during the colonial period. The name refers to the region’s gold trade.

Useful material: A map of coastal Ghana and a source showing the name Gold Coast.

Do it in three steps

1. Observe a map of coastal Ghana and a source showing the name Gold Coast.

2. Ask a question about: Describe the role played by the leaders of the two major political parties (UGCC and CPP) in the independence struggle in the Gold Coast after.

3. Compare the older name with Ghana today; say what a historical name can tell us.

Safety / respect: Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

Try this: Compare the older name with Ghana today; say what a historical name can tell us.

Show your learning: name changes over time. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

LESSON 03: Play + Challenge

Circle one answer for each question. Play = 1–5; Challenge = 6–15.

1. [Play] The role played by the leaders of the two major political parties - Practise: What is this lesson mainly about?

A. Ignore historical sources and decide from a guess

B. Discuss an unrelated modern topic without evidence

C. Treat every account as equally reliable without checking

D. Describe the role played by the leaders of the two major political parties (UGCC and CPP) in the independence struggle in the Gold Coast after

2. [Play] The role played by the leaders of the two major political parties - Practise: What useful learning material or support is listed?

A. only unsupported rumours without checking

B. an unrelated fictional story presented as a historical record

C. guesses written without any source

D. A map of coastal Ghana and a source showing the name Gold Coast.

3. [Play] The role played by the leaders of the two major political parties - Practise: Which action should come first?

A. Observe a map of coastal Ghana and a source showing the name Gold Coast.

B. Skip all practice and guess the result.

C. Finish before looking at the instructions.

D. Ignore the main task and do something unrelated.

4. [Play] The role played by the leaders of the two major political parties - Practise: Which setting does this grade use?

A. an unrelated imagined city

B. only a future space colony

C. colonial rule, independence and republican government

D. a topic unrelated to the current class

5. [Play] The role played by the leaders of the two major political parties - Practise: What should learners produce or demonstrate?

A. a short, evidence-supported historical explanation

B. an unsupported claim with no classroom practice

C. a response that does not show the lesson skill

D. an unrelated picture with no explanation

6. [Challenge] The role played by the leaders of the two major political parties - Practise: Which action comes after the opening step?

A. Change to an unrelated lesson immediately

B. Only watch others without trying

C. Ask a question about: Describe the role played by the leaders of the two major political parties (UGCC and CPP) in the independence struggle in the Gold Coast after.

D. Skip to marking before learning

7. [Challenge] The role played by the leaders of the two major political parties - Practise: Which practice completes the three lesson stages?

A. Compare the older name with Ghana today; say what a historical name can tell us.

B. Stop after reading the title

C. Leave the task unfinished without explaining

D. Give a guess without trying the activity

8. [Challenge] The role played by the leaders of the two major political parties - Practise: What counts as good evidence of learning here?

A. an opinion without observation or practice

B. an unrelated example that does not test the skill

C. name changes over time

D. a random answer with no supporting detail

9. [Challenge] The role played by the leaders of the two major political parties - Practise: Which safety or respect rule fits this lesson?

A. Do the activity without considering other people.

B. Take unnecessary risks to finish first.

C. Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

D. Ignore the teacher’s safety instructions.

10. [Challenge] The role played by the leaders of the two major political parties - Practise: Which classroom activity helps apply the lesson?

A. Compare the older name with Ghana today; say what a historical name can tell us.

B. Complete a different lesson instead

C. Avoid the stated task and its materials

D. Copy another learner’s response without trying

11. [Challenge] The role played by the leaders of the two major political parties - Practise: Which explanation best supports this lesson?

A. The topic can be completed without observing or practising

B. The lesson has no connection to life or skills

C. Ghana was called the Gold Coast during the colonial period. The name refers to the region’s gold trade.

D. Learning means only guessing and never checking

12. [Challenge] The role played by the leaders of the two major political parties - Practise: What should a partner help you check?

A. Whether you can ignore the agreed task

B. Whether you can avoid answering questions

C. Whether your work demonstrates name changes over time.

D. Whether you can finish without showing your work

13. [Challenge] The role played by the leaders of the two major political parties - Practise: Which follow-up deepens the learning?

A. Repeat the same error without checking feedback

B. Stop immediately without reflection

C. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

D. Make up results instead of practising

14. [Challenge] The role played by the leaders of the two major political parties - Practise: How should a learner improve after feedback?

A. Skip a difficult part without asking for help

B. Revisit the steps and strengthen name changes over time.

C. Ignore all comments and leave the task incomplete

D. Change answers randomly without a reason

15. [Challenge] The role played by the leaders of the two major political parties - Practise: Which choice would show responsible use of today’s skill?

A. Claim expertise without trying the skill

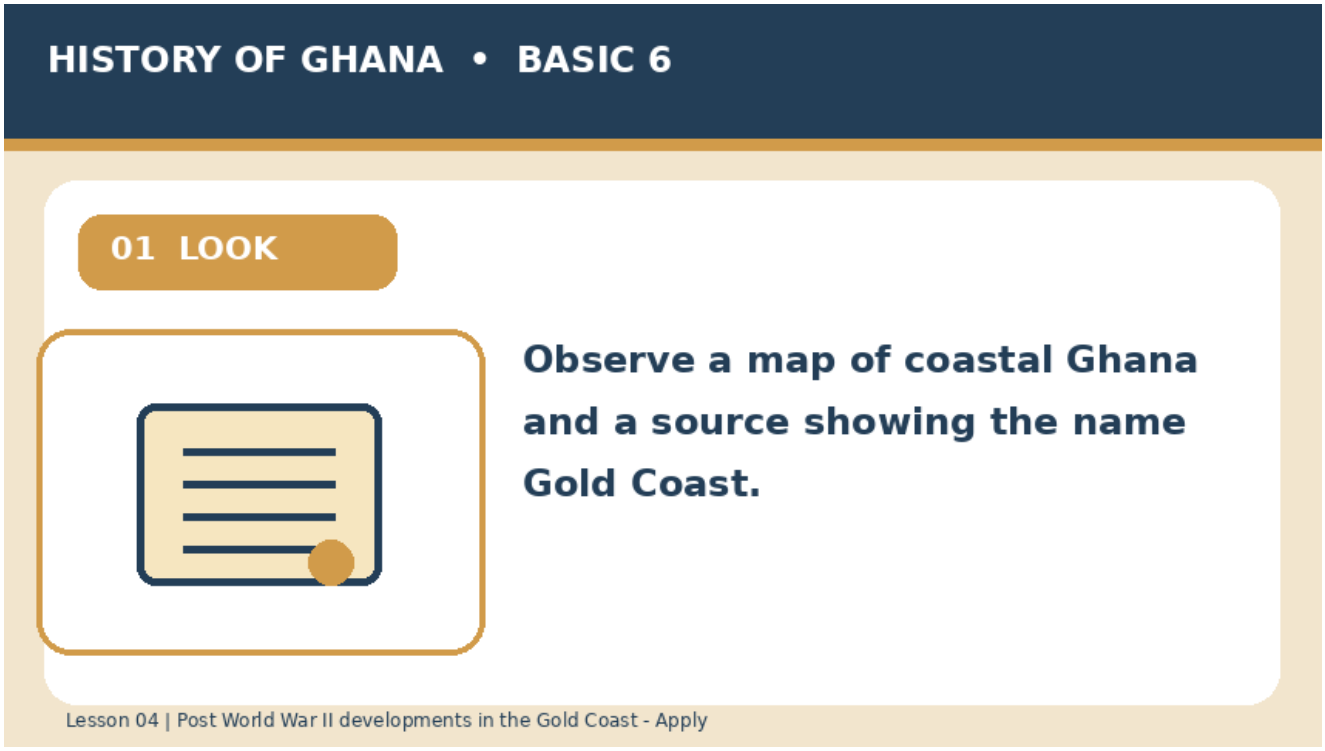

B. Apply the lesson about describe the role played by the leaders of the two major political parties (ugcc and cpp) in the independence struggle in the gold coast after to a suitable real-life situation.

C. Avoid explaining how the skill could be used

D. Use the topic to mislead others

LESSON 04: Post World War II developments in the Gold Coast - Apply

Goal: Explain post World War II developments in the Gold Coast

Learn it

Ghana was called the Gold Coast during the colonial period. The name refers to the region’s gold trade.

Useful material: A map of coastal Ghana and a source showing the name Gold Coast.

Do it in three steps

1. Observe a map of coastal Ghana and a source showing the name Gold Coast.

2. Ask a question about: Explain post World War II developments in the Gold Coast.

3. Compare the older name with Ghana today; say what a historical name can tell us.

Safety / respect: Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

Try this: Compare the older name with Ghana today; say what a historical name can tell us.

Show your learning: name changes over time. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

LESSON 04: Play + Challenge

Circle one answer for each question. Play = 1–5; Challenge = 6–15.

1. [Play] Post World War II developments in the Gold Coast - Apply: What is this lesson mainly about?

A. Explain post World War II developments in the Gold Coast

B. Discuss an unrelated modern topic without evidence

C. Ignore historical sources and decide from a guess

D. Treat every account as equally reliable without checking

2. [Play] Post World War II developments in the Gold Coast - Apply: What useful learning material or support is listed?

A. only unsupported rumours without checking

B. A map of coastal Ghana and a source showing the name Gold Coast.

C. an unrelated fictional story presented as a historical record

D. guesses written without any source

3. [Play] Post World War II developments in the Gold Coast - Apply: Which action should come first?

A. Observe a map of coastal Ghana and a source showing the name Gold Coast.

B. Ignore the main task and do something unrelated.

C. Finish before looking at the instructions.

D. Skip all practice and guess the result.

4. [Play] Post World War II developments in the Gold Coast - Apply: Which setting does this grade use?

A. colonial rule, independence and republican government

B. a topic unrelated to the current class

C. an unrelated imagined city

D. only a future space colony

5. [Play] Post World War II developments in the Gold Coast - Apply: What should learners produce or demonstrate?

A. a response that does not show the lesson skill

B. an unrelated picture with no explanation

C. a short, evidence-supported historical explanation

D. an unsupported claim with no classroom practice

6. [Challenge] Post World War II developments in the Gold Coast - Apply: Which action comes after the opening step?

A. Ask a question about: Explain post World War II developments in the Gold Coast.

B. Change to an unrelated lesson immediately

C. Skip to marking before learning

D. Only watch others without trying

7. [Challenge] Post World War II developments in the Gold Coast - Apply: Which practice completes the three lesson stages?

A. Compare the older name with Ghana today; say what a historical name can tell us.

B. Stop after reading the title

C. Give a guess without trying the activity

D. Leave the task unfinished without explaining

8. [Challenge] Post World War II developments in the Gold Coast - Apply: What counts as good evidence of learning here?

A. name changes over time

B. an opinion without observation or practice

C. a random answer with no supporting detail

D. an unrelated example that does not test the skill

9. [Challenge] Post World War II developments in the Gold Coast - Apply: Which safety or respect rule fits this lesson?

A. Do the activity without considering other people.

B. Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

C. Take unnecessary risks to finish first.

D. Ignore the teacher’s safety instructions.

10. [Challenge] Post World War II developments in the Gold Coast - Apply: Which classroom activity helps apply the lesson?

A. Copy another learner’s response without trying

B. Complete a different lesson instead

C. Avoid the stated task and its materials

D. Compare the older name with Ghana today; say what a historical name can tell us.

11. [Challenge] Post World War II developments in the Gold Coast - Apply: Which explanation best supports this lesson?

A. The lesson has no connection to life or skills

B. Ghana was called the Gold Coast during the colonial period. The name refers to the region’s gold trade.

C. Learning means only guessing and never checking

D. The topic can be completed without observing or practising

12. [Challenge] Post World War II developments in the Gold Coast - Apply: What should a partner help you check?

A. Whether your work demonstrates name changes over time.

B. Whether you can finish without showing your work

C. Whether you can ignore the agreed task

D. Whether you can avoid answering questions

13. [Challenge] Post World War II developments in the Gold Coast - Apply: Which follow-up deepens the learning?

A. Make up results instead of practising

B. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

C. Repeat the same error without checking feedback

D. Stop immediately without reflection

14. [Challenge] Post World War II developments in the Gold Coast - Apply: How should a learner improve after feedback?

A. Change answers randomly without a reason

B. Revisit the steps and strengthen name changes over time.

C. Skip a difficult part without asking for help

D. Ignore all comments and leave the task incomplete

15. [Challenge] Post World War II developments in the Gold Coast - Apply: Which choice would show responsible use of today’s skill?

A. Apply the lesson about explain post world war ii developments in the gold coast to a suitable real-life situation.

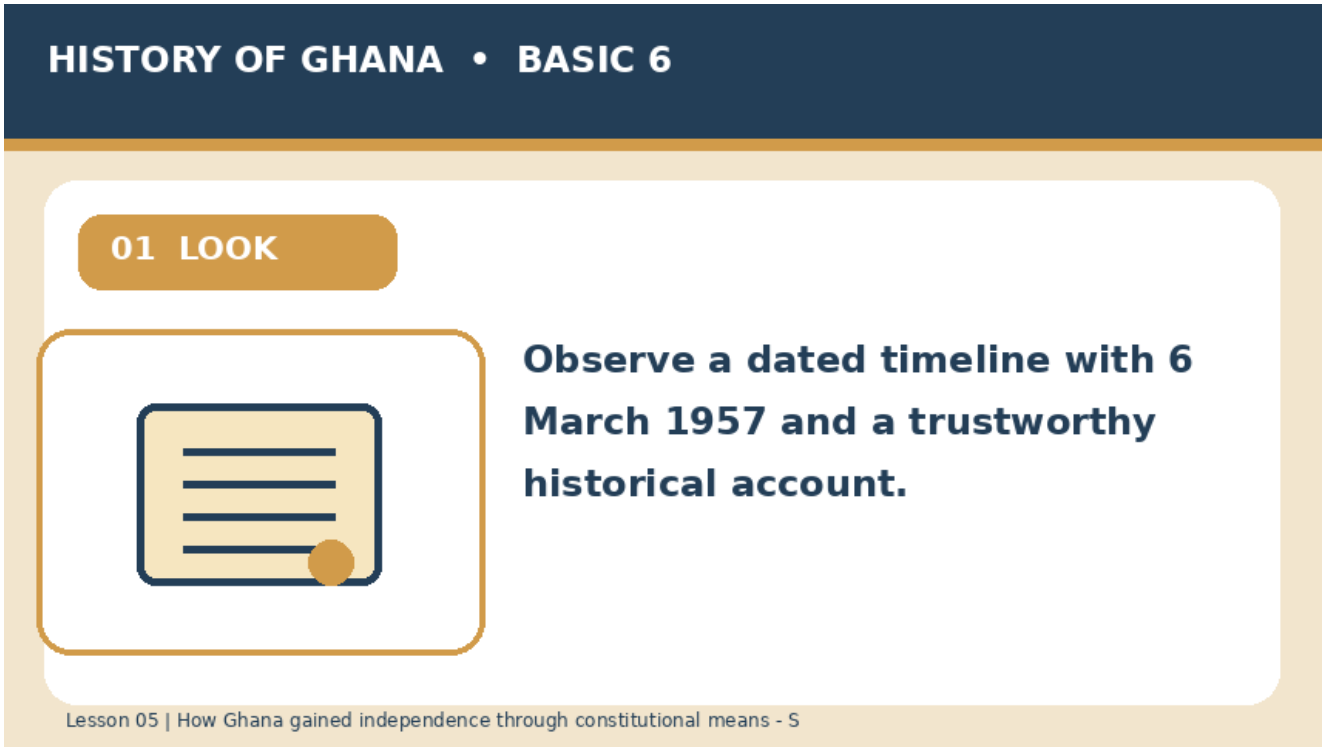

B. Avoid explaining how the skill could be used

C. Claim expertise without trying the skill

D. Use the topic to mislead others

LESSON 05: How Ghana gained independence through constitutional means - Share

Goal: Explain how Ghana gained independence through constitutional means.

Learn it

Ghana became independent on 6 March 1957. To explain this event, historians examine the actions of people, groups and governments.

Useful material: A dated timeline with 6 March 1957 and a trustworthy historical account.

Do it in three steps

1. Observe a dated timeline with 6 March 1957 and a trustworthy historical account.

2. Ask a question about: Explain how Ghana gained independence through constitutional means.

3. Put three events or ideas in order and explain why independence is remembered.

Safety / respect: Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

Try this: Put three events or ideas in order and explain why independence is remembered.

Show your learning: a chronological explanation. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

LESSON 05: Play + Challenge

Circle one answer for each question. Play = 1–5; Challenge = 6–15.

1. [Play] How Ghana gained independence through constitutional means - Share: What is this lesson mainly about?

A. Ignore historical sources and decide from a guess

B. Discuss an unrelated modern topic without evidence

C. Explain how Ghana gained independence through constitutional means.

D. Treat every account as equally reliable without checking

2. [Play] How Ghana gained independence through constitutional means - Share: What useful learning material or support is listed?

A. guesses written without any source

B. only unsupported rumours without checking

C. an unrelated fictional story presented as a historical record

D. A dated timeline with 6 March 1957 and a trustworthy historical account.

3. [Play] How Ghana gained independence through constitutional means - Share: Which action should come first?

A. Skip all practice and guess the result.

B. Finish before looking at the instructions.

C. Ignore the main task and do something unrelated.

D. Observe a dated timeline with 6 March 1957 and a trustworthy historical account.

4. [Play] How Ghana gained independence through constitutional means - Share: Which setting does this grade use?

A. an unrelated imagined city

B. only a future space colony

C. colonial rule, independence and republican government

D. a topic unrelated to the current class

5. [Play] How Ghana gained independence through constitutional means - Share: What should learners produce or demonstrate?

A. an unsupported claim with no classroom practice

B. a short, evidence-supported historical explanation

C. a response that does not show the lesson skill

D. an unrelated picture with no explanation

6. [Challenge] How Ghana gained independence through constitutional means - Share: Which action comes after the opening step?

A. Ask a question about: Explain how Ghana gained independence through constitutional means.

B. Change to an unrelated lesson immediately

C. Only watch others without trying

D. Skip to marking before learning

7. [Challenge] How Ghana gained independence through constitutional means - Share: Which practice completes the three lesson stages?

A. Put three events or ideas in order and explain why independence is remembered.

B. Stop after reading the title

C. Give a guess without trying the activity

D. Leave the task unfinished without explaining

8. [Challenge] How Ghana gained independence through constitutional means - Share: What counts as good evidence of learning here?

A. an unrelated example that does not test the skill

B. an opinion without observation or practice

C. a random answer with no supporting detail

D. a chronological explanation

9. [Challenge] How Ghana gained independence through constitutional means - Share: Which safety or respect rule fits this lesson?

A. Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

B. Ignore the teacher’s safety instructions.

C. Do the activity without considering other people.

D. Take unnecessary risks to finish first.

10. [Challenge] How Ghana gained independence through constitutional means - Share: Which classroom activity helps apply the lesson?

A. Copy another learner’s response without trying

B. Complete a different lesson instead

C. Avoid the stated task and its materials

D. Put three events or ideas in order and explain why independence is remembered.

11. [Challenge] How Ghana gained independence through constitutional means - Share: Which explanation best supports this lesson?

A. Learning means only guessing and never checking

B. The lesson has no connection to life or skills

C. The topic can be completed without observing or practising

D. Ghana became independent on 6 March 1957. To explain this event, historians examine the actions of people, groups and governments.

12. [Challenge] How Ghana gained independence through constitutional means - Share: What should a partner help you check?

A. Whether your work demonstrates a chronological explanation.

B. Whether you can avoid answering questions

C. Whether you can finish without showing your work

D. Whether you can ignore the agreed task

13. [Challenge] How Ghana gained independence through constitutional means - Share: Which follow-up deepens the learning?

A. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

B. Repeat the same error without checking feedback

C. Make up results instead of practising

D. Stop immediately without reflection

14. [Challenge] How Ghana gained independence through constitutional means - Share: How should a learner improve after feedback?

A. Ignore all comments and leave the task incomplete

B. Change answers randomly without a reason

C. Revisit the steps and strengthen a chronological explanation.

D. Skip a difficult part without asking for help

15. [Challenge] How Ghana gained independence through constitutional means - Share: Which choice would show responsible use of today’s skill?

A. Apply the lesson about explain how ghana gained independence through constitutional means to a suitable real-life situation.

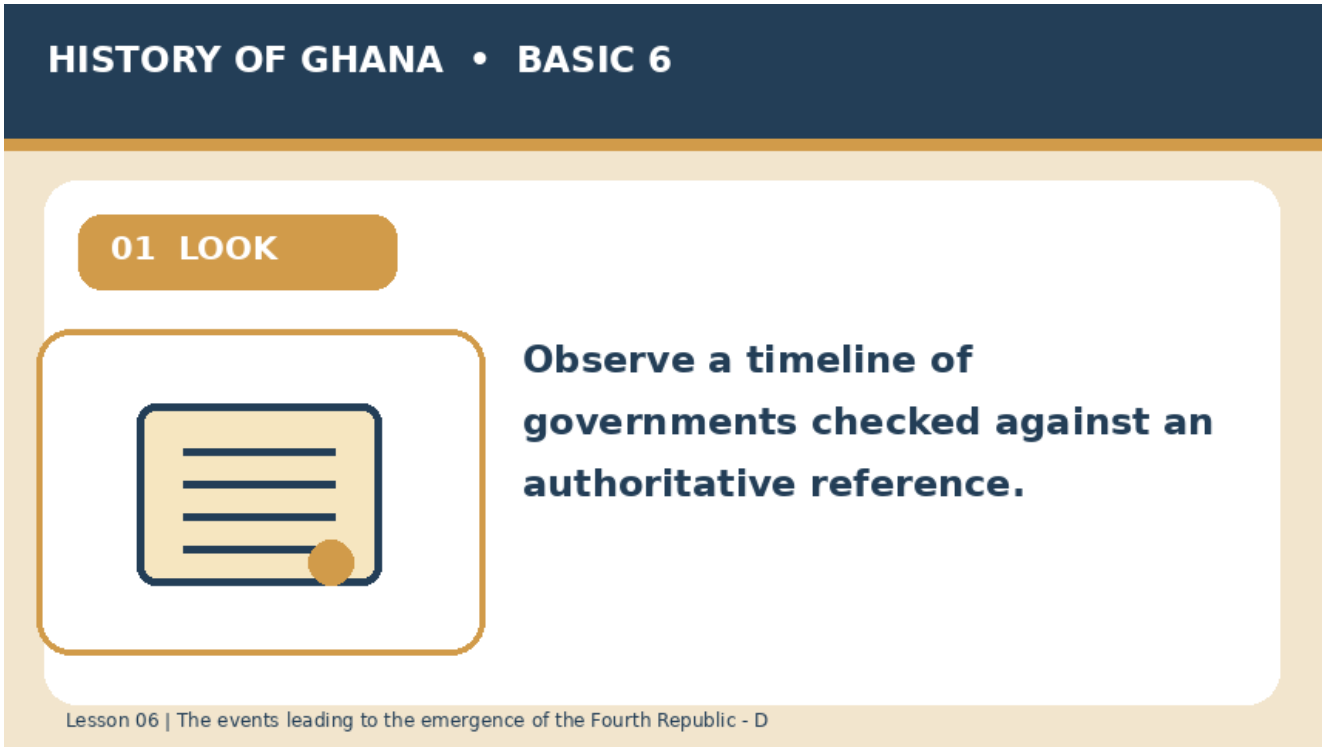

B. Use the topic to mislead others

C. Claim expertise without trying the skill

D. Avoid explaining how the skill could be used

LESSON 06: The events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic - Discover

Goal: Describe the events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic.

Learn it

Ghana has had different periods of constitutional government. A timeline can help distinguish leaders, republics and dates.

Useful material: A timeline of governments checked against an authoritative reference.

Do it in three steps

1. Observe a timeline of governments checked against an authoritative reference.

2. Ask a question about: Describe the events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic.

3. Create a sequence of known events and check the dates before presenting.

Safety / respect: Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

Try this: Create a sequence of known events and check the dates before presenting.

Show your learning: a verified timeline. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

LESSON 06: Play + Challenge

Circle one answer for each question. Play = 1–5; Challenge = 6–15.

1. [Play] The events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic - Discover: What is this lesson mainly about?

A. Describe the events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic.

B. Discuss an unrelated modern topic without evidence

C. Ignore historical sources and decide from a guess

D. Treat every account as equally reliable without checking

2. [Play] The events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic - Discover: What useful learning material or support is listed?

A. an unrelated fictional story presented as a historical record

B. guesses written without any source

C. only unsupported rumours without checking

D. A timeline of governments checked against an authoritative reference.

3. [Play] The events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic - Discover: Which action should come first?

A. Observe a timeline of governments checked against an authoritative reference.

B. Skip all practice and guess the result.

C. Ignore the main task and do something unrelated.

D. Finish before looking at the instructions.

4. [Play] The events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic - Discover: Which setting does this grade use?

A. only a future space colony

B. colonial rule, independence and republican government

C. an unrelated imagined city

D. a topic unrelated to the current class

5. [Play] The events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic - Discover: What should learners produce or demonstrate?

A. an unsupported claim with no classroom practice

B. an unrelated picture with no explanation

C. a short, evidence-supported historical explanation

D. a response that does not show the lesson skill

6. [Challenge] The events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic - Discover: Which action comes after the opening step?

A. Only watch others without trying

B. Ask a question about: Describe the events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic.

C. Change to an unrelated lesson immediately

D. Skip to marking before learning

7. [Challenge] The events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic - Discover: Which practice completes the three lesson stages?

A. Give a guess without trying the activity

B. Leave the task unfinished without explaining

C. Stop after reading the title

D. Create a sequence of known events and check the dates before presenting.

8. [Challenge] The events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic - Discover: What counts as good evidence of learning here?

A. a random answer with no supporting detail

B. a verified timeline

C. an opinion without observation or practice

D. an unrelated example that does not test the skill

9. [Challenge] The events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic - Discover: Which safety or respect rule fits this lesson?

A. Take unnecessary risks to finish first.

B. Ignore the teacher’s safety instructions.

C. Do the activity without considering other people.

D. Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

10. [Challenge] The events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic - Discover: Which classroom activity helps apply the lesson?

A. Create a sequence of known events and check the dates before presenting.

B. Avoid the stated task and its materials

C. Copy another learner’s response without trying

D. Complete a different lesson instead

11. [Challenge] The events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic - Discover: Which explanation best supports this lesson?

A. The lesson has no connection to life or skills

B. Ghana has had different periods of constitutional government. A timeline can help distinguish leaders, republics and dates.

C. Learning means only guessing and never checking

D. The topic can be completed without observing or practising

12. [Challenge] The events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic - Discover: What should a partner help you check?

A. Whether you can ignore the agreed task

B. Whether your work demonstrates a verified timeline.

C. Whether you can avoid answering questions

D. Whether you can finish without showing your work

13. [Challenge] The events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic - Discover: Which follow-up deepens the learning?

A. Repeat the same error without checking feedback

B. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

C. Stop immediately without reflection

D. Make up results instead of practising

14. [Challenge] The events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic - Discover: How should a learner improve after feedback?

A. Change answers randomly without a reason

B. Ignore all comments and leave the task incomplete

C. Revisit the steps and strengthen a verified timeline.

D. Skip a difficult part without asking for help

15. [Challenge] The events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic - Discover: Which choice would show responsible use of today’s skill?

A. Avoid explaining how the skill could be used

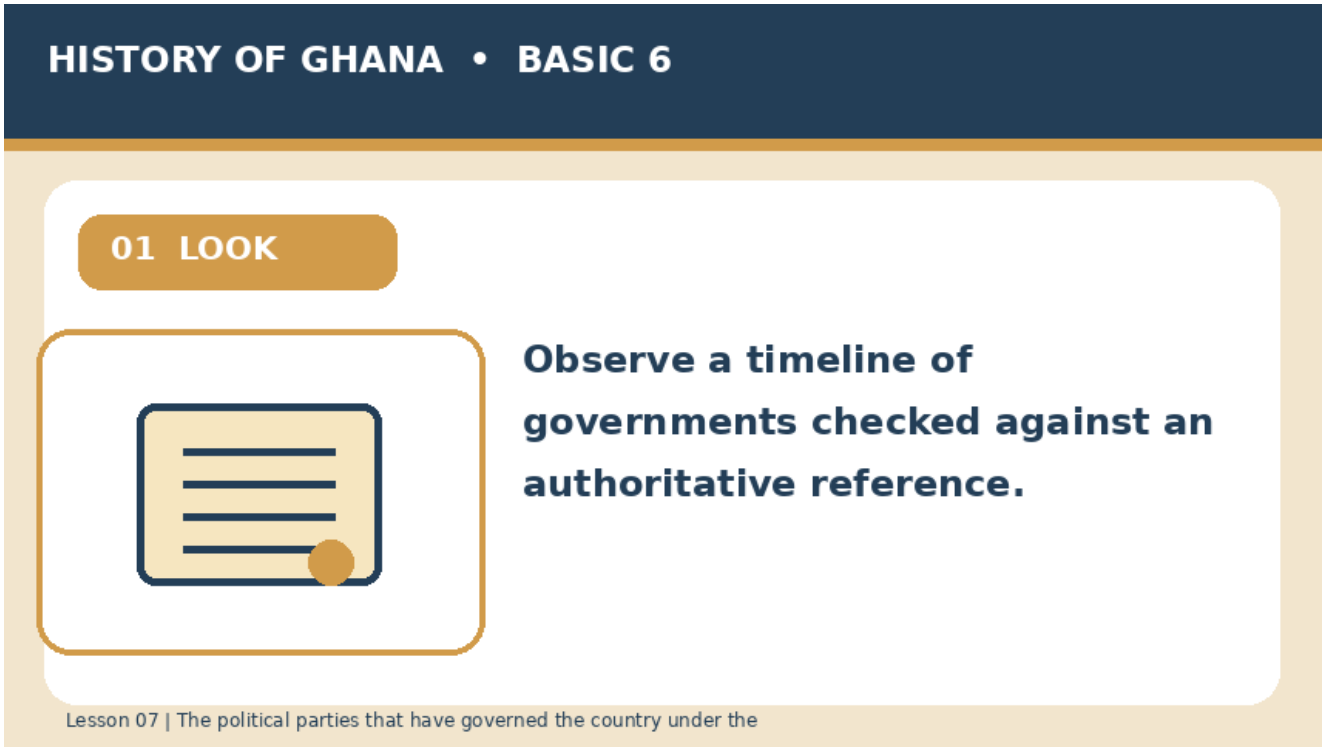

B. Claim expertise without trying the skill

C. Use the topic to mislead others

D. Apply the lesson about describe the events leading to the emergence of the fourth republic to a suitable real-life situation.

LESSON 07: The political parties that have governed the country under the - Describe

Goal: Identify the political parties that have governed the country under the Fourth Republic

Learn it

Ghana has had different periods of constitutional government. A timeline can help distinguish leaders, republics and dates.

Useful material: A timeline of governments checked against an authoritative reference.

Do it in three steps

1. Observe a timeline of governments checked against an authoritative reference.

2. Ask a question about: Identify the political parties that have governed the country under the Fourth Republic.

3. Create a sequence of known events and check the dates before presenting.

Safety / respect: Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

Try this: Create a sequence of known events and check the dates before presenting.

Show your learning: a verified timeline. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

LESSON 07: Play + Challenge

Circle one answer for each question. Play = 1–5; Challenge = 6–15.

1. [Play] The political parties that have governed the country under the - Describe: What is this lesson mainly about?

A. Discuss an unrelated modern topic without evidence

B. Treat every account as equally reliable without checking

C. Ignore historical sources and decide from a guess

D. Identify the political parties that have governed the country under the Fourth Republic

2. [Play] The political parties that have governed the country under the - Describe: What useful learning material or support is listed?

A. A timeline of governments checked against an authoritative reference.

B. guesses written without any source

C. an unrelated fictional story presented as a historical record

D. only unsupported rumours without checking

3. [Play] The political parties that have governed the country under the - Describe: Which action should come first?

A. Skip all practice and guess the result.

B. Finish before looking at the instructions.

C. Ignore the main task and do something unrelated.

D. Observe a timeline of governments checked against an authoritative reference.

4. [Play] The political parties that have governed the country under the - Describe: Which setting does this grade use?

A. a topic unrelated to the current class

B. colonial rule, independence and republican government

C. an unrelated imagined city

D. only a future space colony

5. [Play] The political parties that have governed the country under the - Describe: What should learners produce or demonstrate?

A. a short, evidence-supported historical explanation

B. a response that does not show the lesson skill

C. an unrelated picture with no explanation

D. an unsupported claim with no classroom practice

6. [Challenge] The political parties that have governed the country under the - Describe: Which action comes after the opening step?

A. Skip to marking before learning

B. Change to an unrelated lesson immediately

C. Only watch others without trying

D. Ask a question about: Identify the political parties that have governed the country under the Fourth Republic.

7. [Challenge] The political parties that have governed the country under the - Describe: Which practice completes the three lesson stages?

A. Create a sequence of known events and check the dates before presenting.

B. Stop after reading the title

C. Give a guess without trying the activity

D. Leave the task unfinished without explaining

8. [Challenge] The political parties that have governed the country under the - Describe: What counts as good evidence of learning here?

A. an opinion without observation or practice

B. a verified timeline

C. a random answer with no supporting detail

D. an unrelated example that does not test the skill

9. [Challenge] The political parties that have governed the country under the - Describe: Which safety or respect rule fits this lesson?

A. Take unnecessary risks to finish first.

B. Do the activity without considering other people.

C. Ignore the teacher’s safety instructions.

D. Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

10. [Challenge] The political parties that have governed the country under the - Describe: Which classroom activity helps apply the lesson?

A. Avoid the stated task and its materials

B. Create a sequence of known events and check the dates before presenting.

C. Copy another learner’s response without trying

D. Complete a different lesson instead

11. [Challenge] The political parties that have governed the country under the - Describe: Which explanation best supports this lesson?

A. Ghana has had different periods of constitutional government. A timeline can help distinguish leaders, republics and dates.

B. The topic can be completed without observing or practising

C. Learning means only guessing and never checking

D. The lesson has no connection to life or skills

12. [Challenge] The political parties that have governed the country under the - Describe: What should a partner help you check?

A. Whether you can avoid answering questions

B. Whether your work demonstrates a verified timeline.

C. Whether you can ignore the agreed task

D. Whether you can finish without showing your work

13. [Challenge] The political parties that have governed the country under the - Describe: Which follow-up deepens the learning?

A. Make up results instead of practising

B. Stop immediately without reflection

C. Repeat the same error without checking feedback

D. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

14. [Challenge] The political parties that have governed the country under the - Describe: How should a learner improve after feedback?

A. Change answers randomly without a reason

B. Revisit the steps and strengthen a verified timeline.

C. Ignore all comments and leave the task incomplete

D. Skip a difficult part without asking for help

15. [Challenge] The political parties that have governed the country under the - Describe: Which choice would show responsible use of today’s skill?

A. Use the topic to mislead others

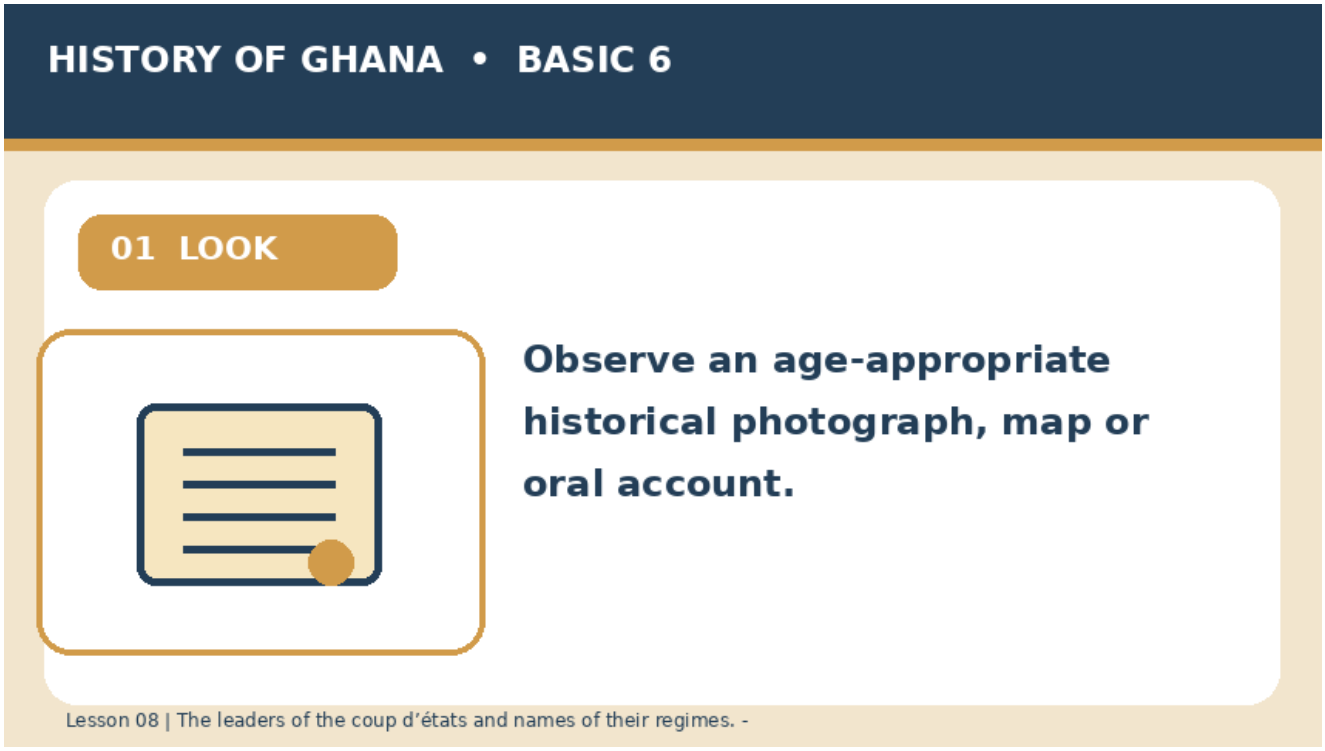

B. Avoid explaining how the skill could be used

C. Apply the lesson about identify the political parties that have governed the country under the fourth republic to a suitable real-life situation.

D. Claim expertise without trying the skill

LESSON 08: The leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. - Practise

Goal: Identify the leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. Exemplification

Learn it

Past events help explain present-day Ghana. Historians use timelines and evidence rather than guessing about the past.

Useful material: An age-appropriate historical photograph, map or oral account.

Do it in three steps

1. Observe an age-appropriate historical photograph, map or oral account.

2. Ask a question about: Identify the leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. Exemplification.

3. Identify a historical question and explain how evidence may answer it.

Safety / respect: Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

Try this: Identify a historical question and explain how evidence may answer it.

Show your learning: an evidence-based explanation. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

LESSON 08: Play + Challenge

Circle one answer for each question. Play = 1–5; Challenge = 6–15.

1. [Play] The leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. - Practise: What is this lesson mainly about?

A. Ignore historical sources and decide from a guess

B. Treat every account as equally reliable without checking

C. Discuss an unrelated modern topic without evidence

D. Identify the leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. Exemplification

2. [Play] The leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. - Practise: What useful learning material or support is listed?

A. An age-appropriate historical photograph, map or oral account.

B. only unsupported rumours without checking

C. guesses written without any source

D. an unrelated fictional story presented as a historical record

3. [Play] The leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. - Practise: Which action should come first?

A. Finish before looking at the instructions.

B. Skip all practice and guess the result.

C. Observe an age-appropriate historical photograph, map or oral account.

D. Ignore the main task and do something unrelated.

4. [Play] The leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. - Practise: Which setting does this grade use?

A. a topic unrelated to the current class

B. an unrelated imagined city

C. only a future space colony

D. colonial rule, independence and republican government

5. [Play] The leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. - Practise: What should learners produce or demonstrate?

A. an unsupported claim with no classroom practice

B. a response that does not show the lesson skill

C. an unrelated picture with no explanation

D. a short, evidence-supported historical explanation

6. [Challenge] The leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. - Practise: Which action comes after the opening step?

A. Skip to marking before learning

B. Change to an unrelated lesson immediately

C. Ask a question about: Identify the leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. Exemplification.

D. Only watch others without trying

7. [Challenge] The leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. - Practise: Which practice completes the three lesson stages?

A. Identify a historical question and explain how evidence may answer it.

B. Give a guess without trying the activity

C. Stop after reading the title

D. Leave the task unfinished without explaining

8. [Challenge] The leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. - Practise: What counts as good evidence of learning here?

A. an unrelated example that does not test the skill

B. a random answer with no supporting detail

C. an opinion without observation or practice

D. an evidence-based explanation

9. [Challenge] The leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. - Practise: Which safety or respect rule fits this lesson?

A. Ignore the teacher’s safety instructions.

B. Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

C. Take unnecessary risks to finish first.

D. Do the activity without considering other people.

10. [Challenge] The leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. - Practise: Which classroom activity helps apply the lesson?

A. Avoid the stated task and its materials

B. Complete a different lesson instead

C. Identify a historical question and explain how evidence may answer it.

D. Copy another learner’s response without trying

11. [Challenge] The leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. - Practise: Which explanation best supports this lesson?

A. Learning means only guessing and never checking

B. Past events help explain present-day Ghana. Historians use timelines and evidence rather than guessing about the past.

C. The lesson has no connection to life or skills

D. The topic can be completed without observing or practising

12. [Challenge] The leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. - Practise: What should a partner help you check?

A. Whether you can ignore the agreed task

B. Whether you can avoid answering questions

C. Whether your work demonstrates an evidence-based explanation.

D. Whether you can finish without showing your work

13. [Challenge] The leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. - Practise: Which follow-up deepens the learning?

A. Stop immediately without reflection

B. Make up results instead of practising

C. Repeat the same error without checking feedback

D. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

14. [Challenge] The leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. - Practise: How should a learner improve after feedback?

A. Revisit the steps and strengthen an evidence-based explanation.

B. Change answers randomly without a reason

C. Skip a difficult part without asking for help

D. Ignore all comments and leave the task incomplete

15. [Challenge] The leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. - Practise: Which choice would show responsible use of today’s skill?

A. Use the topic to mislead others

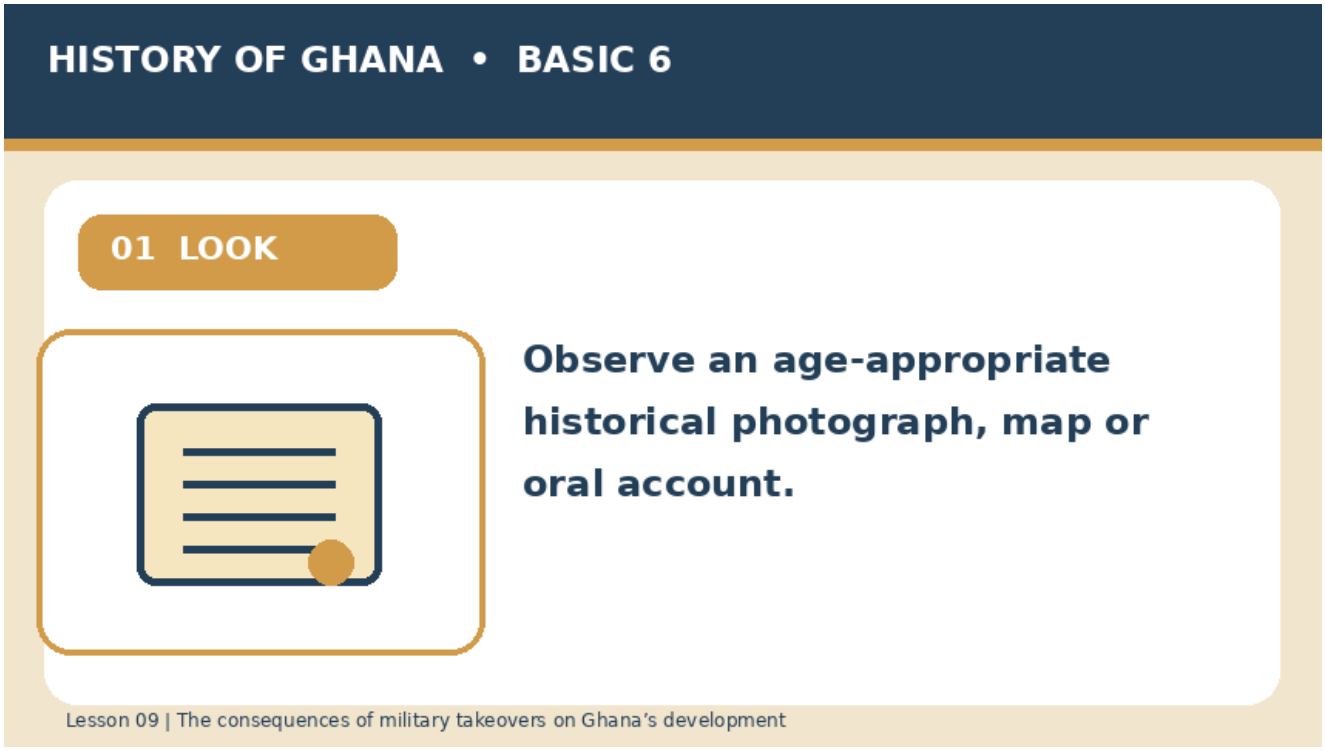

B. Claim expertise without trying the skill

C. Avoid explaining how the skill could be used

D. Apply the lesson about identify the leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. exemplification to a suitable real-life situation.

LESSON 09: The consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development - Apply

Goal: Assess the consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development Exemplification

Learn it

Past events help explain present-day Ghana. Historians use timelines and evidence rather than guessing about the past.

Useful material: An age-appropriate historical photograph, map or oral account.

Do it in three steps

1. Observe an age-appropriate historical photograph, map or oral account.

2. Ask a question about: Assess the consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development Exemplification.

3. Identify a historical question and explain how evidence may answer it.

Safety / respect: Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

Try this: Identify a historical question and explain how evidence may answer it.

Show your learning: an evidence-based explanation. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

LESSON 09: Play + Challenge

Circle one answer for each question. Play = 1–5; Challenge = 6–15.

1. [Play] The consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development - Apply: What is this lesson mainly about?

A. Treat every account as equally reliable without checking

B. Ignore historical sources and decide from a guess

C. Discuss an unrelated modern topic without evidence

D. Assess the consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development Exemplification

2. [Play] The consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development - Apply: What useful learning material or support is listed?

A. only unsupported rumours without checking

B. guesses written without any source

C. An age-appropriate historical photograph, map or oral account.

D. an unrelated fictional story presented as a historical record

3. [Play] The consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development - Apply: Which action should come first?

A. Observe an age-appropriate historical photograph, map or oral account.

B. Ignore the main task and do something unrelated.

C. Finish before looking at the instructions.

D. Skip all practice and guess the result.

4. [Play] The consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development - Apply: Which setting does this grade use?

A. colonial rule, independence and republican government

B. only a future space colony

C. an unrelated imagined city

D. a topic unrelated to the current class

5. [Play] The consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development - Apply: What should learners produce or demonstrate?

A. an unsupported claim with no classroom practice

B. a response that does not show the lesson skill

C. an unrelated picture with no explanation

D. a short, evidence-supported historical explanation

6. [Challenge] The consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development - Apply: Which action comes after the opening step?

A. Ask a question about: Assess the consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development Exemplification.

B. Skip to marking before learning

C. Only watch others without trying

D. Change to an unrelated lesson immediately

7. [Challenge] The consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development - Apply: Which practice completes the three lesson stages?

A. Leave the task unfinished without explaining

B. Give a guess without trying the activity

C. Identify a historical question and explain how evidence may answer it.

D. Stop after reading the title

8. [Challenge] The consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development - Apply: What counts as good evidence of learning here?

A. an opinion without observation or practice

B. an evidence-based explanation

C. a random answer with no supporting detail

D. an unrelated example that does not test the skill

9. [Challenge] The consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development - Apply: Which safety or respect rule fits this lesson?

A. Ignore the teacher’s safety instructions.

B. Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

C. Do the activity without considering other people.

D. Take unnecessary risks to finish first.

10. [Challenge] The consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development - Apply: Which classroom activity helps apply the lesson?

A. Copy another learner’s response without trying

B. Complete a different lesson instead

C. Identify a historical question and explain how evidence may answer it.

D. Avoid the stated task and its materials

11. [Challenge] The consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development - Apply: Which explanation best supports this lesson?

A. The topic can be completed without observing or practising

B. The lesson has no connection to life or skills

C. Past events help explain present-day Ghana. Historians use timelines and evidence rather than guessing about the past.

D. Learning means only guessing and never checking

12. [Challenge] The consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development - Apply: What should a partner help you check?

A. Whether you can ignore the agreed task

B. Whether your work demonstrates an evidence-based explanation.

C. Whether you can avoid answering questions

D. Whether you can finish without showing your work

13. [Challenge] The consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development - Apply: Which follow-up deepens the learning?

A. Make up results instead of practising

B. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

C. Repeat the same error without checking feedback

D. Stop immediately without reflection

14. [Challenge] The consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development - Apply: How should a learner improve after feedback?

A. Change answers randomly without a reason

B. Skip a difficult part without asking for help

C. Ignore all comments and leave the task incomplete

D. Revisit the steps and strengthen an evidence-based explanation.

15. [Challenge] The consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development - Apply: Which choice would show responsible use of today’s skill?

A. Avoid explaining how the skill could be used

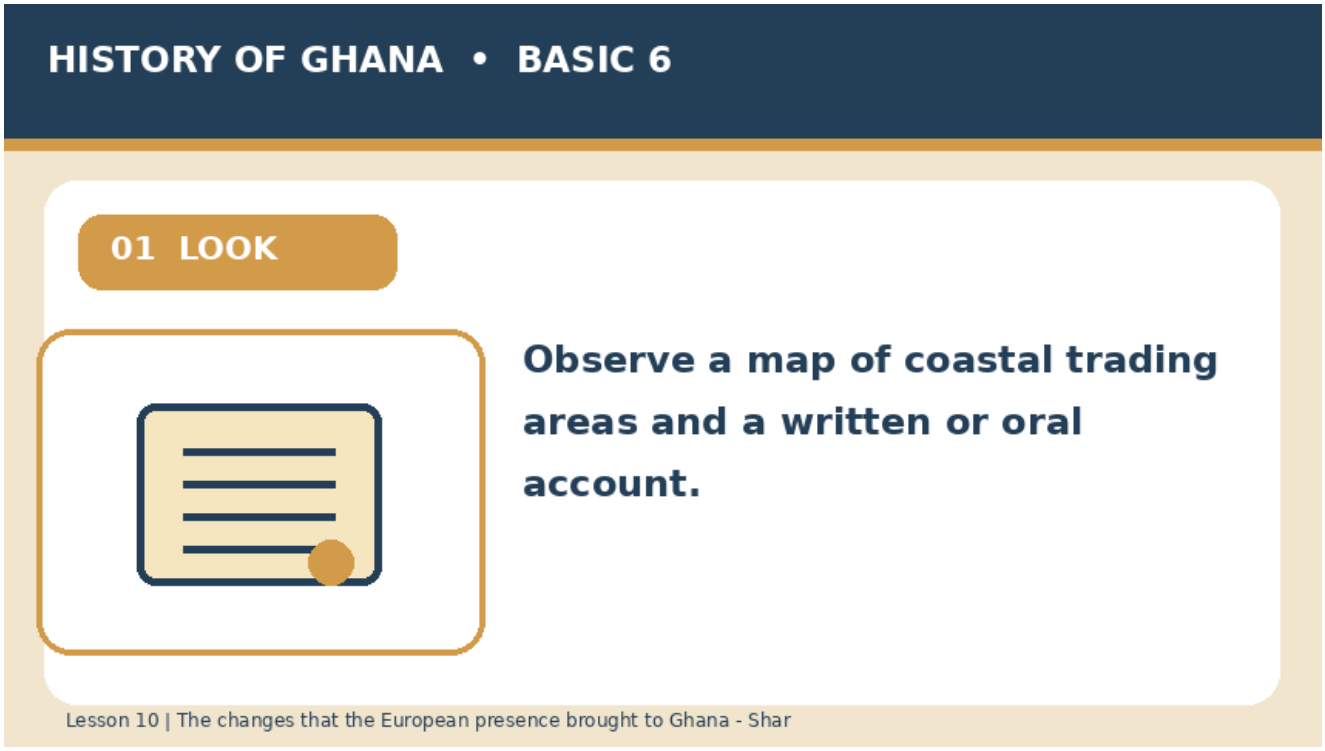

B. Use the topic to mislead others

C. Apply the lesson about assess the consequences of military takeovers on ghana’s development exemplification to a suitable real-life situation.

D. Claim expertise without trying the skill

LESSON 10: The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Share

Goal: Assess the changes that the European presence brought to Ghana.

Learn it

Ghana’s coast had contacts with European visitors and traders. Different periods of contact brought changes that must be studied using evidence.

Useful material: A map of coastal trading areas and a written or oral account.

Do it in three steps

1. Observe a map of coastal trading areas and a written or oral account.

2. Ask a question about: Assess the changes that the European presence brought to Ghana.

3. Compare what two sources reveal about the period of European contact.

Safety / respect: Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

Try this: Compare what two sources reveal about the period of European contact.

Show your learning: two pieces of evidence. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

LESSON 10: Play + Challenge

Circle one answer for each question. Play = 1–5; Challenge = 6–15.

1. [Play] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Share: What is this lesson mainly about?

A. Ignore historical sources and decide from a guess

B. Assess the changes that the European presence brought to Ghana.

C. Treat every account as equally reliable without checking

D. Discuss an unrelated modern topic without evidence

2. [Play] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Share: What useful learning material or support is listed?

A. an unrelated fictional story presented as a historical record

B. guesses written without any source

C. A map of coastal trading areas and a written or oral account.

D. only unsupported rumours without checking

3. [Play] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Share: Which action should come first?

A. Finish before looking at the instructions.

B. Skip all practice and guess the result.

C. Observe a map of coastal trading areas and a written or oral account.

D. Ignore the main task and do something unrelated.

4. [Play] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Share: Which setting does this grade use?

A. a topic unrelated to the current class

B. colonial rule, independence and republican government

C. only a future space colony

D. an unrelated imagined city

5. [Play] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Share: What should learners produce or demonstrate?

A. a short, evidence-supported historical explanation

B. an unrelated picture with no explanation

C. an unsupported claim with no classroom practice

D. a response that does not show the lesson skill

6. [Challenge] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Share: Which action comes after the opening step?

A. Skip to marking before learning

B. Ask a question about: Assess the changes that the European presence brought to Ghana.

C. Only watch others without trying

D. Change to an unrelated lesson immediately

7. [Challenge] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Share: Which practice completes the three lesson stages?

A. Stop after reading the title

B. Compare what two sources reveal about the period of European contact.

C. Give a guess without trying the activity

D. Leave the task unfinished without explaining

8. [Challenge] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Share: What counts as good evidence of learning here?

A. a random answer with no supporting detail

B. an unrelated example that does not test the skill

C. two pieces of evidence

D. an opinion without observation or practice

9. [Challenge] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Share: Which safety or respect rule fits this lesson?

A. Do the activity without considering other people.

B. Ignore the teacher’s safety instructions.

C. Take unnecessary risks to finish first.

D. Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

10. [Challenge] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Share: Which classroom activity helps apply the lesson?

A. Compare what two sources reveal about the period of European contact.

B. Copy another learner’s response without trying

C. Complete a different lesson instead

D. Avoid the stated task and its materials

11. [Challenge] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Share: Which explanation best supports this lesson?

A. The topic can be completed without observing or practising

B. The lesson has no connection to life or skills

C. Learning means only guessing and never checking

D. Ghana’s coast had contacts with European visitors and traders. Different periods of contact brought changes that must be studied using evidence.

12. [Challenge] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Share: What should a partner help you check?

A. Whether you can ignore the agreed task

B. Whether you can avoid answering questions

C. Whether you can finish without showing your work

D. Whether your work demonstrates two pieces of evidence.

13. [Challenge] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Share: Which follow-up deepens the learning?

A. Repeat the same error without checking feedback

B. Stop immediately without reflection

C. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

D. Make up results instead of practising

14. [Challenge] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Share: How should a learner improve after feedback?

A. Revisit the steps and strengthen two pieces of evidence.

B. Change answers randomly without a reason

C. Ignore all comments and leave the task incomplete

D. Skip a difficult part without asking for help

15. [Challenge] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Share: Which choice would show responsible use of today’s skill?

A. Avoid explaining how the skill could be used

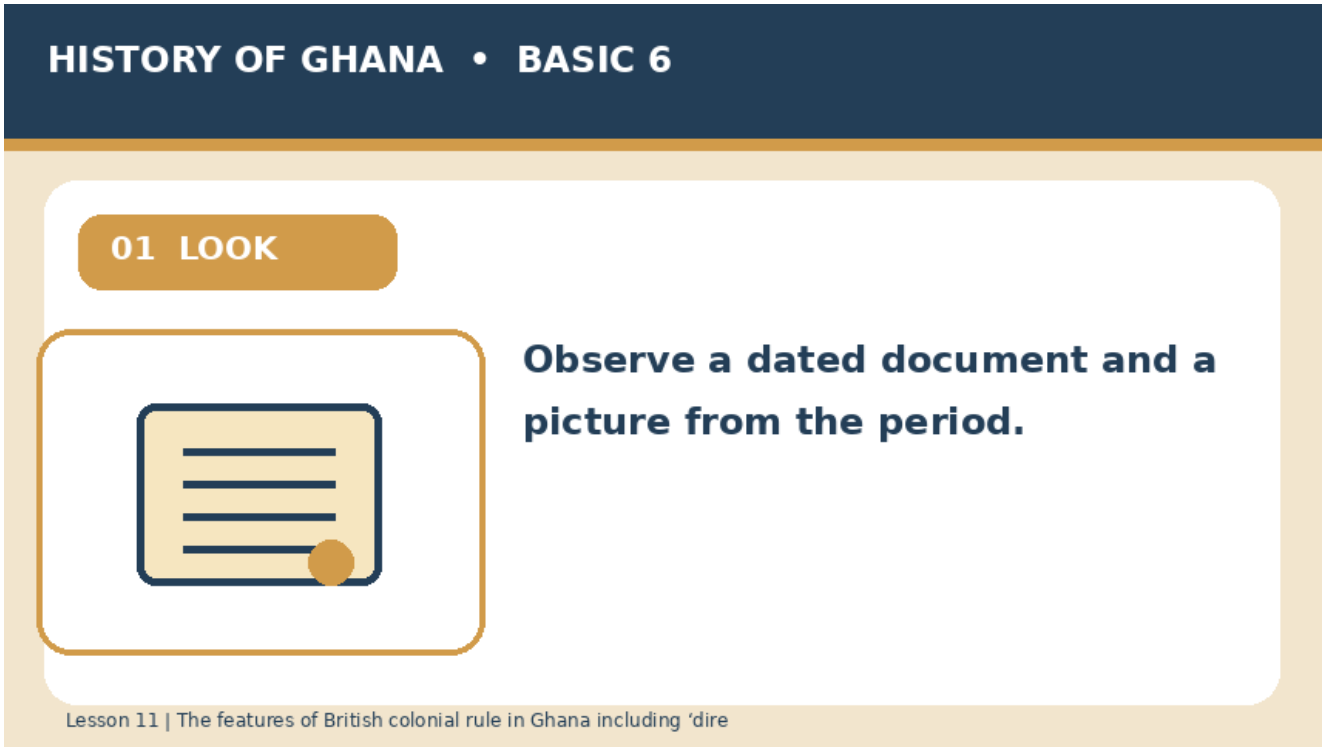

B. Apply the lesson about assess the changes that the european presence brought to ghana to a suitable real-life situation.

C. Use the topic to mislead others

D. Claim expertise without trying the skill

LESSON 11: The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Discover

Goal: Describe the features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ and ‘indirect’ rule, 1874

Learn it

Colonial rule affected administration, trade and daily life. Historical accounts should consider experiences from more than one perspective.

Useful material: A dated document and a picture from the period.

Do it in three steps

1. Observe a dated document and a picture from the period.

2. Ask a question about: Describe the features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ and ‘indirect’ rule, 1874.

3. Describe a change and support it with a source rather than a guess.

Safety / respect: Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

Try this: Describe a change and support it with a source rather than a guess.

Show your learning: a before-and-after comparison. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

LESSON 11: Play + Challenge

Circle one answer for each question. Play = 1–5; Challenge = 6–15.

1. [Play] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Discover: What is this lesson mainly about?

A. Treat every account as equally reliable without checking

B. Discuss an unrelated modern topic without evidence

C. Describe the features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ and ‘indirect’ rule, 1874

D. Ignore historical sources and decide from a guess

2. [Play] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Discover: What useful learning material or support is listed?

A. A dated document and a picture from the period.

B. guesses written without any source

C. only unsupported rumours without checking

D. an unrelated fictional story presented as a historical record

3. [Play] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Discover: Which action should come first?

A. Skip all practice and guess the result.

B. Observe a dated document and a picture from the period.

C. Finish before looking at the instructions.

D. Ignore the main task and do something unrelated.

4. [Play] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Discover: Which setting does this grade use?

A. only a future space colony

B. a topic unrelated to the current class

C. an unrelated imagined city

D. colonial rule, independence and republican government

5. [Play] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Discover: What should learners produce or demonstrate?

A. an unrelated picture with no explanation

B. a short, evidence-supported historical explanation

C. an unsupported claim with no classroom practice

D. a response that does not show the lesson skill

6. [Challenge] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Discover: Which action comes after the opening step?

A. Only watch others without trying

B. Change to an unrelated lesson immediately

C. Skip to marking before learning

D. Ask a question about: Describe the features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ and ‘indirect’ rule, 1874.

7. [Challenge] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Discover: Which practice completes the three lesson stages?

A. Give a guess without trying the activity

B. Stop after reading the title

C. Leave the task unfinished without explaining

D. Describe a change and support it with a source rather than a guess.

8. [Challenge] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Discover: What counts as good evidence of learning here?

A. a before-and-after comparison

B. an unrelated example that does not test the skill

C. an opinion without observation or practice

D. a random answer with no supporting detail

9. [Challenge] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Discover: Which safety or respect rule fits this lesson?

A. Ignore the teacher’s safety instructions.

B. Do the activity without considering other people.

C. Take unnecessary risks to finish first.

D. Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

10. [Challenge] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Discover: Which classroom activity helps apply the lesson?

A. Complete a different lesson instead

B. Copy another learner’s response without trying

C. Avoid the stated task and its materials

D. Describe a change and support it with a source rather than a guess.

11. [Challenge] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Discover: Which explanation best supports this lesson?

A. The topic can be completed without observing or practising

B. Colonial rule affected administration, trade and daily life. Historical accounts should consider experiences from more than one perspective.

C. Learning means only guessing and never checking

D. The lesson has no connection to life or skills

12. [Challenge] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Discover: What should a partner help you check?

A. Whether you can ignore the agreed task

B. Whether your work demonstrates a before-and-after comparison.

C. Whether you can avoid answering questions

D. Whether you can finish without showing your work

13. [Challenge] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Discover: Which follow-up deepens the learning?

A. Make up results instead of practising

B. Repeat the same error without checking feedback

C. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

D. Stop immediately without reflection

14. [Challenge] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Discover: How should a learner improve after feedback?

A. Skip a difficult part without asking for help

B. Change answers randomly without a reason

C. Ignore all comments and leave the task incomplete

D. Revisit the steps and strengthen a before-and-after comparison.

15. [Challenge] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Discover: Which choice would show responsible use of today’s skill?

A. Claim expertise without trying the skill

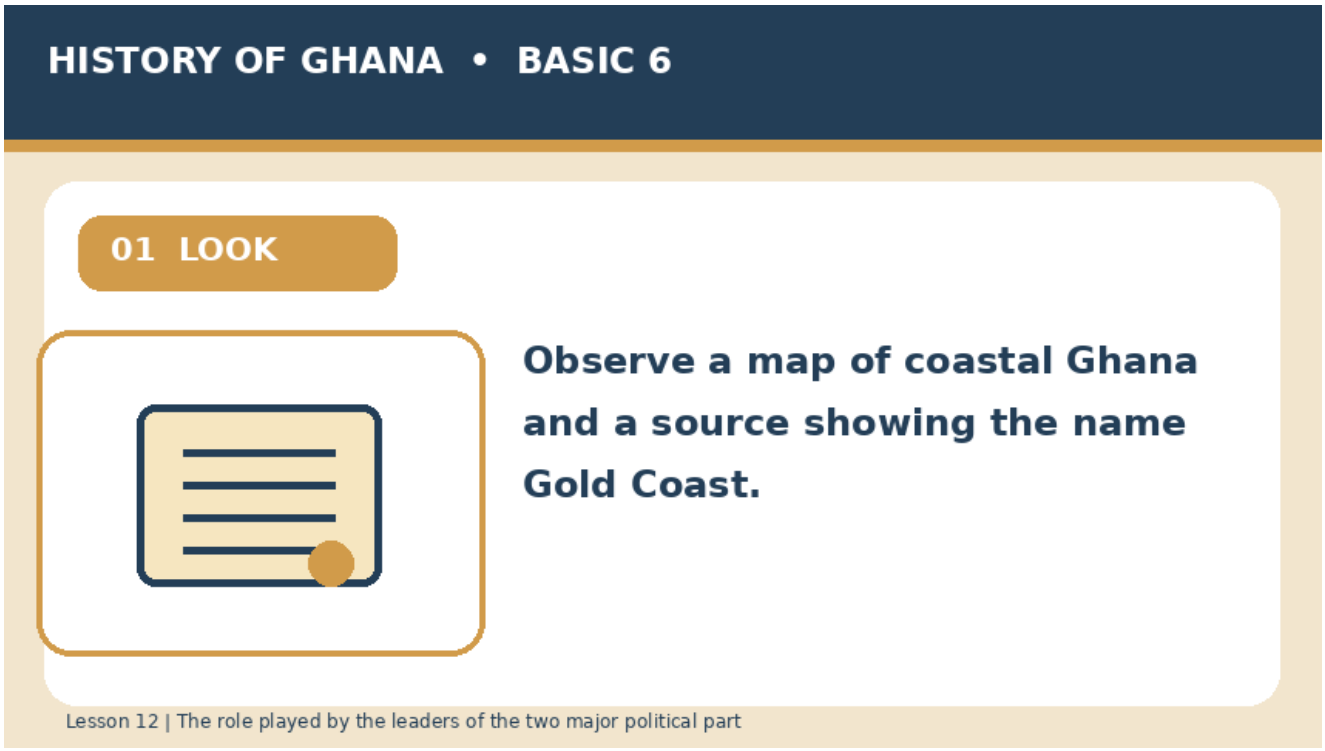

B. Apply the lesson about describe the features of british colonial rule in ghana including ‘direct’ and ‘indirect’ rule, 1874 to a suitable real-life situation.

C. Avoid explaining how the skill could be used

D. Use the topic to mislead others

LESSON 12: The role played by the leaders of the two major political parties - Describe

Goal: Describe the role played by the leaders of the two major political parties (UGCC and CPP) in the independence struggle in the Gold Coast after

Learn it

Ghana was called the Gold Coast during the colonial period. The name refers to the region’s gold trade.

Useful material: A map of coastal Ghana and a source showing the name Gold Coast.

Do it in three steps

1. Observe a map of coastal Ghana and a source showing the name Gold Coast.

2. Ask a question about: Describe the role played by the leaders of the two major political parties (UGCC and CPP) in the independence struggle in the Gold Coast after.

3. Compare the older name with Ghana today; say what a historical name can tell us.

Safety / respect: Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

Try this: Compare the older name with Ghana today; say what a historical name can tell us.

Show your learning: name changes over time. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

LESSON 12: Play + Challenge

Circle one answer for each question. Play = 1–5; Challenge = 6–15.

1. [Play] The role played by the leaders of the two major political parties - Describe: What is this lesson mainly about?

A. Discuss an unrelated modern topic without evidence

B. Treat every account as equally reliable without checking

C. Describe the role played by the leaders of the two major political parties (UGCC and CPP) in the independence struggle in the Gold Coast after

D. Ignore historical sources and decide from a guess

2. [Play] The role played by the leaders of the two major political parties - Describe: What useful learning material or support is listed?

A. only unsupported rumours without checking

B. guesses written without any source

C. an unrelated fictional story presented as a historical record

D. A map of coastal Ghana and a source showing the name Gold Coast.

3. [Play] The role played by the leaders of the two major political parties - Describe: Which action should come first?

A. Ignore the main task and do something unrelated.

B. Observe a map of coastal Ghana and a source showing the name Gold Coast.

C. Finish before looking at the instructions.

D. Skip all practice and guess the result.

4. [Play] The role played by the leaders of the two major political parties - Describe: Which setting does this grade use?

A. a topic unrelated to the current class

B. only a future space colony

C. an unrelated imagined city

D. colonial rule, independence and republican government

5. [Play] The role played by the leaders of the two major political parties - Describe: What should learners produce or demonstrate?

A. an unrelated picture with no explanation

B. a response that does not show the lesson skill

C. a short, evidence-supported historical explanation

D. an unsupported claim with no classroom practice

6. [Challenge] The role played by the leaders of the two major political parties - Describe: Which action comes after the opening step?

A. Change to an unrelated lesson immediately

B. Only watch others without trying

C. Ask a question about: Describe the role played by the leaders of the two major political parties (UGCC and CPP) in the independence struggle in the Gold Coast after.

D. Skip to marking before learning

7. [Challenge] The role played by the leaders of the two major political parties - Describe: Which practice completes the three lesson stages?

A. Stop after reading the title

B. Leave the task unfinished without explaining

C. Give a guess without trying the activity

D. Compare the older name with Ghana today; say what a historical name can tell us.

8. [Challenge] The role played by the leaders of the two major political parties - Describe: What counts as good evidence of learning here?

A. a random answer with no supporting detail

B. an opinion without observation or practice

C. an unrelated example that does not test the skill

D. name changes over time

9. [Challenge] The role played by the leaders of the two major political parties - Describe: Which safety or respect rule fits this lesson?

A. Take unnecessary risks to finish first.

B. Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

C. Do the activity without considering other people.

D. Ignore the teacher’s safety instructions.

10. [Challenge] The role played by the leaders of the two major political parties - Describe: Which classroom activity helps apply the lesson?

A. Copy another learner’s response without trying

B. Compare the older name with Ghana today; say what a historical name can tell us.

C. Complete a different lesson instead

D. Avoid the stated task and its materials

11. [Challenge] The role played by the leaders of the two major political parties - Describe: Which explanation best supports this lesson?

A. Learning means only guessing and never checking

B. The lesson has no connection to life or skills

C. The topic can be completed without observing or practising

D. Ghana was called the Gold Coast during the colonial period. The name refers to the region’s gold trade.

12. [Challenge] The role played by the leaders of the two major political parties - Describe: What should a partner help you check?

A. Whether you can ignore the agreed task

B. Whether you can finish without showing your work

C. Whether your work demonstrates name changes over time.

D. Whether you can avoid answering questions

13. [Challenge] The role played by the leaders of the two major political parties - Describe: Which follow-up deepens the learning?

A. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

B. Stop immediately without reflection

C. Repeat the same error without checking feedback

D. Make up results instead of practising

14. [Challenge] The role played by the leaders of the two major political parties - Describe: How should a learner improve after feedback?

A. Change answers randomly without a reason

B. Revisit the steps and strengthen name changes over time.

C. Skip a difficult part without asking for help

D. Ignore all comments and leave the task incomplete

15. [Challenge] The role played by the leaders of the two major political parties - Describe: Which choice would show responsible use of today’s skill?

A. Use the topic to mislead others

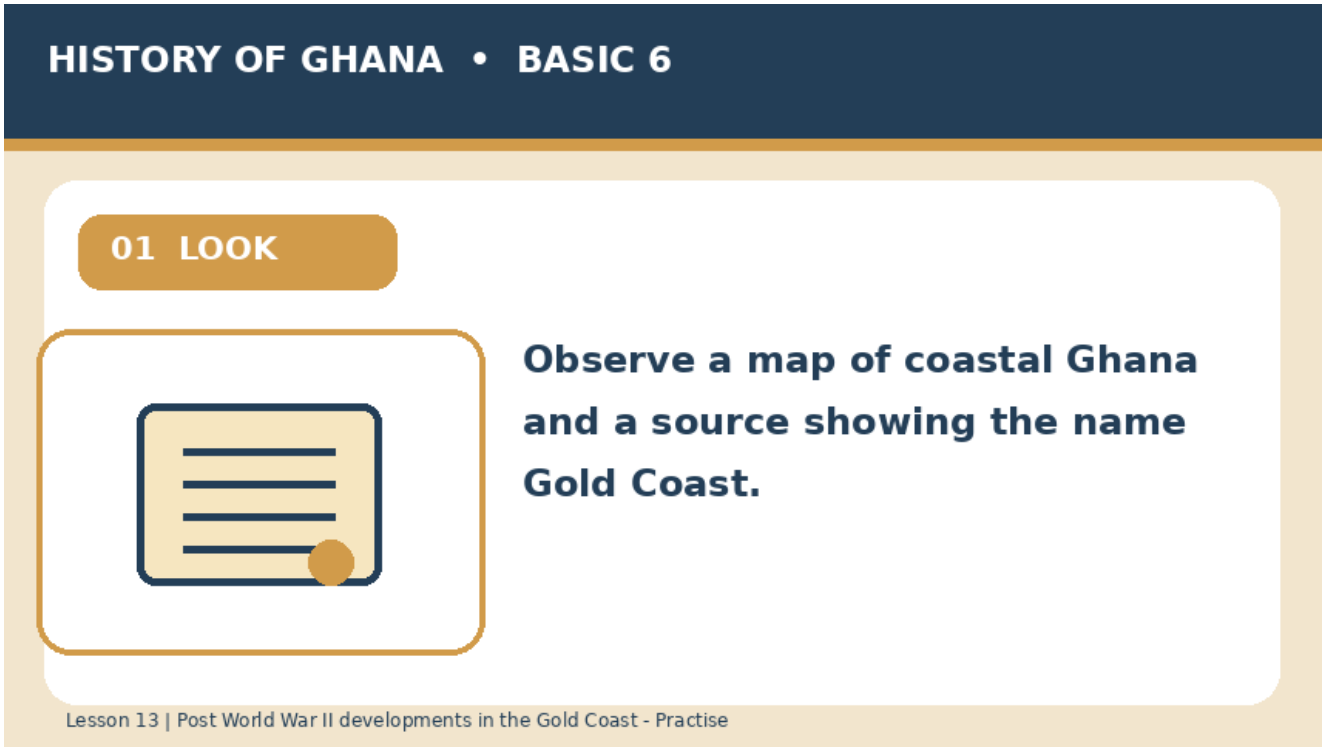

B. Apply the lesson about describe the role played by the leaders of the two major political parties (ugcc and cpp) in the independence struggle in the gold coast after to a suitable real-life situation.

C. Avoid explaining how the skill could be used

D. Claim expertise without trying the skill

LESSON 13: Post World War II developments in the Gold Coast - Practise

Goal: Explain post World War II developments in the Gold Coast

Learn it

Ghana was called the Gold Coast during the colonial period. The name refers to the region’s gold trade.

Useful material: A map of coastal Ghana and a source showing the name Gold Coast.

Do it in three steps

1. Observe a map of coastal Ghana and a source showing the name Gold Coast.

2. Ask a question about: Explain post World War II developments in the Gold Coast.

3. Compare the older name with Ghana today; say what a historical name can tell us.

Safety / respect: Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

Try this: Compare the older name with Ghana today; say what a historical name can tell us.

Show your learning: name changes over time. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

LESSON 13: Play + Challenge

Circle one answer for each question. Play = 1–5; Challenge = 6–15.

1. [Play] Post World War II developments in the Gold Coast - Practise: What is this lesson mainly about?

A. Treat every account as equally reliable without checking

B. Discuss an unrelated modern topic without evidence

C. Explain post World War II developments in the Gold Coast

D. Ignore historical sources and decide from a guess

2. [Play] Post World War II developments in the Gold Coast - Practise: What useful learning material or support is listed?

A. an unrelated fictional story presented as a historical record

B. A map of coastal Ghana and a source showing the name Gold Coast.

C. only unsupported rumours without checking

D. guesses written without any source

3. [Play] Post World War II developments in the Gold Coast - Practise: Which action should come first?

A. Ignore the main task and do something unrelated.

B. Finish before looking at the instructions.

C. Skip all practice and guess the result.

D. Observe a map of coastal Ghana and a source showing the name Gold Coast.

4. [Play] Post World War II developments in the Gold Coast - Practise: Which setting does this grade use?

A. an unrelated imagined city

B. a topic unrelated to the current class

C. colonial rule, independence and republican government

D. only a future space colony

5. [Play] Post World War II developments in the Gold Coast - Practise: What should learners produce or demonstrate?

A. an unsupported claim with no classroom practice

B. a response that does not show the lesson skill

C. a short, evidence-supported historical explanation

D. an unrelated picture with no explanation

6. [Challenge] Post World War II developments in the Gold Coast - Practise: Which action comes after the opening step?

A. Only watch others without trying

B. Change to an unrelated lesson immediately

C. Skip to marking before learning

D. Ask a question about: Explain post World War II developments in the Gold Coast.

7. [Challenge] Post World War II developments in the Gold Coast - Practise: Which practice completes the three lesson stages?

A. Stop after reading the title

B. Give a guess without trying the activity

C. Compare the older name with Ghana today; say what a historical name can tell us.

D. Leave the task unfinished without explaining

8. [Challenge] Post World War II developments in the Gold Coast - Practise: What counts as good evidence of learning here?

A. an unrelated example that does not test the skill

B. name changes over time

C. a random answer with no supporting detail

D. an opinion without observation or practice

9. [Challenge] Post World War II developments in the Gold Coast - Practise: Which safety or respect rule fits this lesson?

A. Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

B. Do the activity without considering other people.

C. Take unnecessary risks to finish first.

D. Ignore the teacher’s safety instructions.

10. [Challenge] Post World War II developments in the Gold Coast - Practise: Which classroom activity helps apply the lesson?

A. Copy another learner’s response without trying

B. Compare the older name with Ghana today; say what a historical name can tell us.

C. Complete a different lesson instead

D. Avoid the stated task and its materials

11. [Challenge] Post World War II developments in the Gold Coast - Practise: Which explanation best supports this lesson?

A. The topic can be completed without observing or practising

B. Ghana was called the Gold Coast during the colonial period. The name refers to the region’s gold trade.

C. The lesson has no connection to life or skills

D. Learning means only guessing and never checking

12. [Challenge] Post World War II developments in the Gold Coast - Practise: What should a partner help you check?

A. Whether your work demonstrates name changes over time.

B. Whether you can finish without showing your work

C. Whether you can avoid answering questions

D. Whether you can ignore the agreed task

13. [Challenge] Post World War II developments in the Gold Coast - Practise: Which follow-up deepens the learning?

A. Make up results instead of practising

B. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

C. Repeat the same error without checking feedback

D. Stop immediately without reflection

14. [Challenge] Post World War II developments in the Gold Coast - Practise: How should a learner improve after feedback?

A. Skip a difficult part without asking for help

B. Change answers randomly without a reason

C. Revisit the steps and strengthen name changes over time.

D. Ignore all comments and leave the task incomplete

15. [Challenge] Post World War II developments in the Gold Coast - Practise: Which choice would show responsible use of today’s skill?

A. Apply the lesson about explain post world war ii developments in the gold coast to a suitable real-life situation.

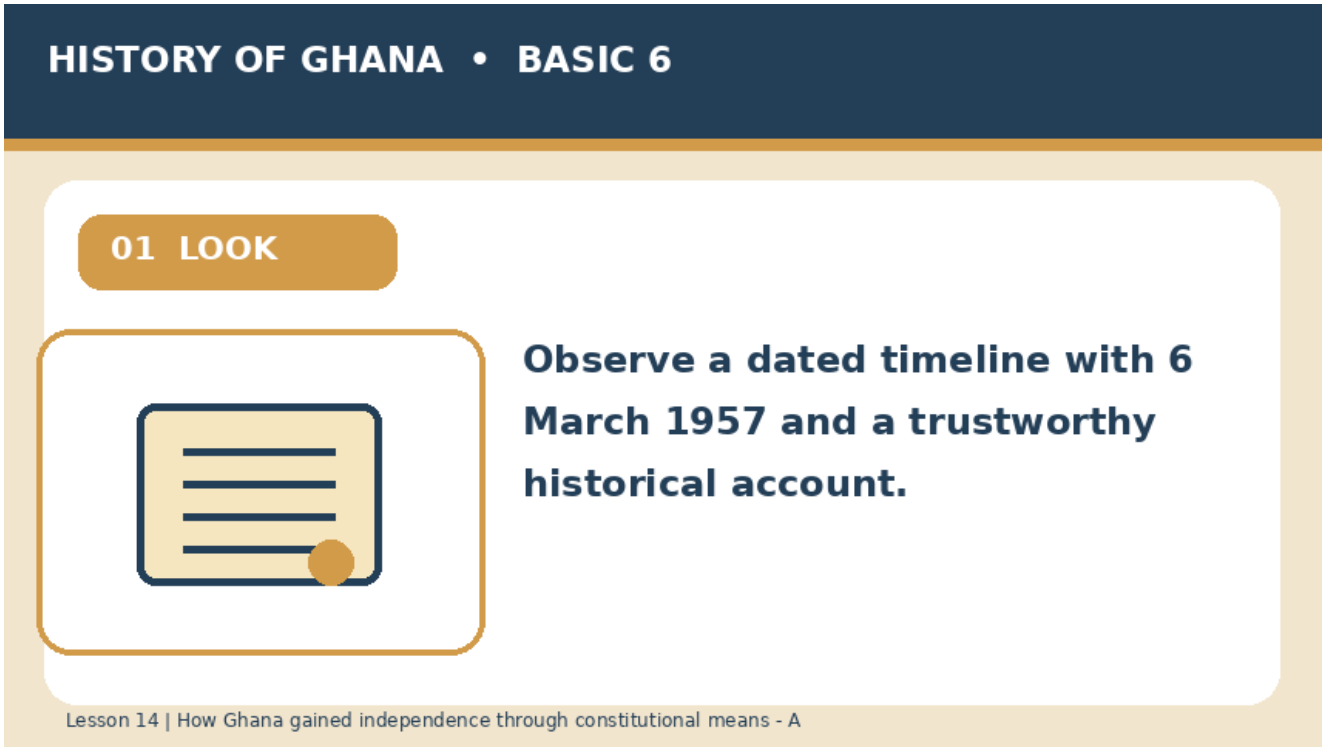

B. Use the topic to mislead others

C. Claim expertise without trying the skill

D. Avoid explaining how the skill could be used

LESSON 14: How Ghana gained independence through constitutional means - Apply

Goal: Explain how Ghana gained independence through constitutional means.

Learn it

Ghana became independent on 6 March 1957. To explain this event, historians examine the actions of people, groups and governments.

Useful material: A dated timeline with 6 March 1957 and a trustworthy historical account.

Do it in three steps

1. Observe a dated timeline with 6 March 1957 and a trustworthy historical account.

2. Ask a question about: Explain how Ghana gained independence through constitutional means.

3. Put three events or ideas in order and explain why independence is remembered.

Safety / respect: Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

Try this: Put three events or ideas in order and explain why independence is remembered.

Show your learning: a chronological explanation. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

LESSON 14: Play + Challenge

Circle one answer for each question. Play = 1–5; Challenge = 6–15.

1. [Play] How Ghana gained independence through constitutional means - Apply: What is this lesson mainly about?

A. Discuss an unrelated modern topic without evidence

B. Treat every account as equally reliable without checking

C. Ignore historical sources and decide from a guess

D. Explain how Ghana gained independence through constitutional means.

2. [Play] How Ghana gained independence through constitutional means - Apply: What useful learning material or support is listed?

A. an unrelated fictional story presented as a historical record

B. only unsupported rumours without checking

C. A dated timeline with 6 March 1957 and a trustworthy historical account.

D. guesses written without any source

3. [Play] How Ghana gained independence through constitutional means - Apply: Which action should come first?

A. Observe a dated timeline with 6 March 1957 and a trustworthy historical account.

B. Skip all practice and guess the result.

C. Finish before looking at the instructions.

D. Ignore the main task and do something unrelated.

4. [Play] How Ghana gained independence through constitutional means - Apply: Which setting does this grade use?

A. an unrelated imagined city

B. only a future space colony

C. a topic unrelated to the current class

D. colonial rule, independence and republican government

5. [Play] How Ghana gained independence through constitutional means - Apply: What should learners produce or demonstrate?

A. a short, evidence-supported historical explanation

B. an unsupported claim with no classroom practice

C. a response that does not show the lesson skill

D. an unrelated picture with no explanation

6. [Challenge] How Ghana gained independence through constitutional means - Apply: Which action comes after the opening step?

A. Change to an unrelated lesson immediately

B. Ask a question about: Explain how Ghana gained independence through constitutional means.

C. Skip to marking before learning

D. Only watch others without trying

7. [Challenge] How Ghana gained independence through constitutional means - Apply: Which practice completes the three lesson stages?

A. Give a guess without trying the activity

B. Put three events or ideas in order and explain why independence is remembered.

C. Stop after reading the title

D. Leave the task unfinished without explaining

8. [Challenge] How Ghana gained independence through constitutional means - Apply: What counts as good evidence of learning here?

A. a random answer with no supporting detail

B. a chronological explanation

C. an unrelated example that does not test the skill

D. an opinion without observation or practice

9. [Challenge] How Ghana gained independence through constitutional means - Apply: Which safety or respect rule fits this lesson?

A. Ignore the teacher’s safety instructions.

B. Do the activity without considering other people.

C. Take unnecessary risks to finish first.

D. Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

10. [Challenge] How Ghana gained independence through constitutional means - Apply: Which classroom activity helps apply the lesson?

A. Put three events or ideas in order and explain why independence is remembered.

B. Copy another learner’s response without trying

C. Avoid the stated task and its materials

D. Complete a different lesson instead

11. [Challenge] How Ghana gained independence through constitutional means - Apply: Which explanation best supports this lesson?

A. The topic can be completed without observing or practising

B. Ghana became independent on 6 March 1957. To explain this event, historians examine the actions of people, groups and governments.

C. Learning means only guessing and never checking

D. The lesson has no connection to life or skills

12. [Challenge] How Ghana gained independence through constitutional means - Apply: What should a partner help you check?

A. Whether your work demonstrates a chronological explanation.

B. Whether you can finish without showing your work

C. Whether you can avoid answering questions

D. Whether you can ignore the agreed task

13. [Challenge] How Ghana gained independence through constitutional means - Apply: Which follow-up deepens the learning?

A. Stop immediately without reflection

B. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

C. Repeat the same error without checking feedback

D. Make up results instead of practising

14. [Challenge] How Ghana gained independence through constitutional means - Apply: How should a learner improve after feedback?

A. Revisit the steps and strengthen a chronological explanation.

B. Change answers randomly without a reason

C. Ignore all comments and leave the task incomplete

D. Skip a difficult part without asking for help

15. [Challenge] How Ghana gained independence through constitutional means - Apply: Which choice would show responsible use of today’s skill?

A. Avoid explaining how the skill could be used

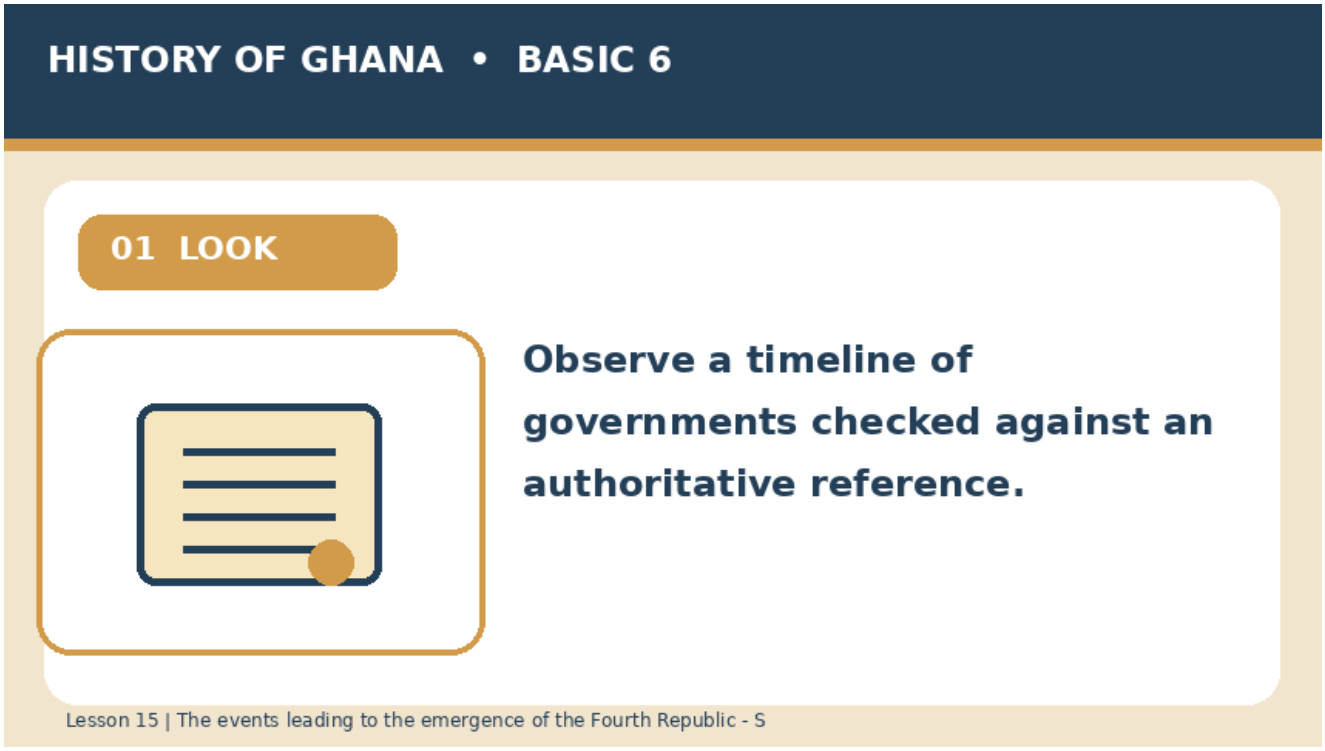

B. Use the topic to mislead others

C. Claim expertise without trying the skill

D. Apply the lesson about explain how ghana gained independence through constitutional means to a suitable real-life situation.

LESSON 15: The events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic - Share

Goal: Describe the events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic.

Learn it

Ghana has had different periods of constitutional government. A timeline can help distinguish leaders, republics and dates.

Useful material: A timeline of governments checked against an authoritative reference.

Do it in three steps

1. Observe a timeline of governments checked against an authoritative reference.

2. Ask a question about: Describe the events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic.

3. Create a sequence of known events and check the dates before presenting.

Safety / respect: Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

Try this: Create a sequence of known events and check the dates before presenting.

Show your learning: a verified timeline. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

LESSON 15: Play + Challenge

Circle one answer for each question. Play = 1–5; Challenge = 6–15.

1. [Play] The events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic - Share: What is this lesson mainly about?

A. Discuss an unrelated modern topic without evidence

B. Ignore historical sources and decide from a guess

C. Describe the events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic.

D. Treat every account as equally reliable without checking

2. [Play] The events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic - Share: What useful learning material or support is listed?

A. an unrelated fictional story presented as a historical record

B. guesses written without any source

C. only unsupported rumours without checking

D. A timeline of governments checked against an authoritative reference.

3. [Play] The events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic - Share: Which action should come first?

A. Ignore the main task and do something unrelated.

B. Observe a timeline of governments checked against an authoritative reference.

C. Skip all practice and guess the result.

D. Finish before looking at the instructions.

4. [Play] The events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic - Share: Which setting does this grade use?

A. colonial rule, independence and republican government

B. a topic unrelated to the current class

C. only a future space colony

D. an unrelated imagined city

5. [Play] The events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic - Share: What should learners produce or demonstrate?

A. a response that does not show the lesson skill

B. an unsupported claim with no classroom practice

C. an unrelated picture with no explanation

D. a short, evidence-supported historical explanation

6. [Challenge] The events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic - Share: Which action comes after the opening step?

A. Ask a question about: Describe the events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic.

B. Only watch others without trying

C. Change to an unrelated lesson immediately

D. Skip to marking before learning

7. [Challenge] The events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic - Share: Which practice completes the three lesson stages?

A. Give a guess without trying the activity

B. Create a sequence of known events and check the dates before presenting.

C. Stop after reading the title

D. Leave the task unfinished without explaining

8. [Challenge] The events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic - Share: What counts as good evidence of learning here?

A. a random answer with no supporting detail

B. an unrelated example that does not test the skill

C. an opinion without observation or practice

D. a verified timeline

9. [Challenge] The events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic - Share: Which safety or respect rule fits this lesson?

A. Ignore the teacher’s safety instructions.

B. Take unnecessary risks to finish first.

C. Do the activity without considering other people.

D. Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

10. [Challenge] The events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic - Share: Which classroom activity helps apply the lesson?

A. Avoid the stated task and its materials

B. Create a sequence of known events and check the dates before presenting.

C. Copy another learner’s response without trying

D. Complete a different lesson instead

11. [Challenge] The events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic - Share: Which explanation best supports this lesson?

A. The lesson has no connection to life or skills

B. Learning means only guessing and never checking

C. Ghana has had different periods of constitutional government. A timeline can help distinguish leaders, republics and dates.

D. The topic can be completed without observing or practising

12. [Challenge] The events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic - Share: What should a partner help you check?

A. Whether you can finish without showing your work

B. Whether you can avoid answering questions

C. Whether your work demonstrates a verified timeline.

D. Whether you can ignore the agreed task

13. [Challenge] The events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic - Share: Which follow-up deepens the learning?

A. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

B. Make up results instead of practising

C. Repeat the same error without checking feedback

D. Stop immediately without reflection

14. [Challenge] The events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic - Share: How should a learner improve after feedback?

A. Revisit the steps and strengthen a verified timeline.

B. Ignore all comments and leave the task incomplete

C. Skip a difficult part without asking for help

D. Change answers randomly without a reason

15. [Challenge] The events leading to the emergence of the Fourth Republic - Share: Which choice would show responsible use of today’s skill?

A. Avoid explaining how the skill could be used

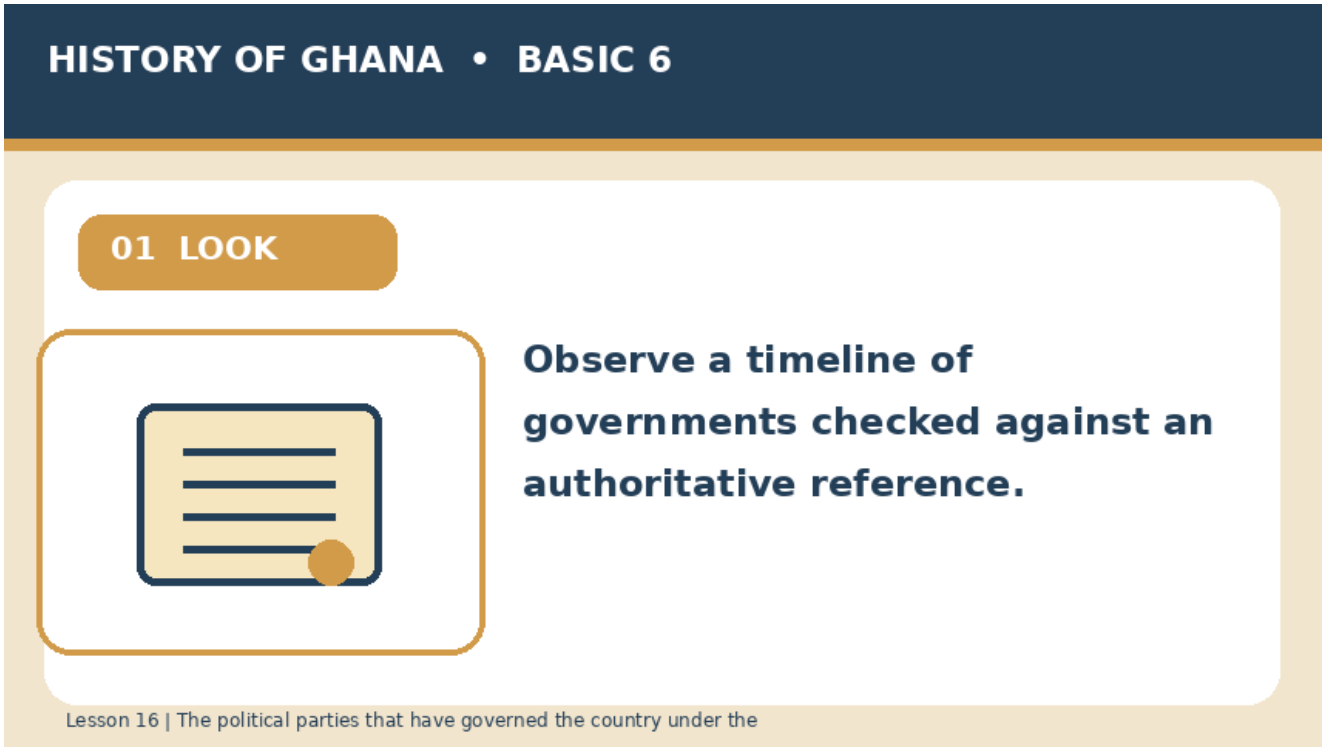

B. Apply the lesson about describe the events leading to the emergence of the fourth republic to a suitable real-life situation.

C. Use the topic to mislead others

D. Claim expertise without trying the skill

LESSON 16: The political parties that have governed the country under the - Discover

Goal: Identify the political parties that have governed the country under the Fourth Republic

Learn it

Ghana has had different periods of constitutional government. A timeline can help distinguish leaders, republics and dates.

Useful material: A timeline of governments checked against an authoritative reference.

Do it in three steps

1. Observe a timeline of governments checked against an authoritative reference.

2. Ask a question about: Identify the political parties that have governed the country under the Fourth Republic.

3. Create a sequence of known events and check the dates before presenting.

Safety / respect: Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

Try this: Create a sequence of known events and check the dates before presenting.

Show your learning: a verified timeline. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

LESSON 16: Play + Challenge

Circle one answer for each question. Play = 1–5; Challenge = 6–15.

1. [Play] The political parties that have governed the country under the - Discover: What is this lesson mainly about?

A. Ignore historical sources and decide from a guess

B. Discuss an unrelated modern topic without evidence

C. Identify the political parties that have governed the country under the Fourth Republic

D. Treat every account as equally reliable without checking

2. [Play] The political parties that have governed the country under the - Discover: What useful learning material or support is listed?

A. guesses written without any source

B. A timeline of governments checked against an authoritative reference.

C. only unsupported rumours without checking

D. an unrelated fictional story presented as a historical record

3. [Play] The political parties that have governed the country under the - Discover: Which action should come first?

A. Skip all practice and guess the result.

B. Ignore the main task and do something unrelated.

C. Finish before looking at the instructions.

D. Observe a timeline of governments checked against an authoritative reference.

4. [Play] The political parties that have governed the country under the - Discover: Which setting does this grade use?

A. colonial rule, independence and republican government

B. a topic unrelated to the current class

C. an unrelated imagined city

D. only a future space colony

5. [Play] The political parties that have governed the country under the - Discover: What should learners produce or demonstrate?

A. an unsupported claim with no classroom practice

B. a short, evidence-supported historical explanation

C. a response that does not show the lesson skill

D. an unrelated picture with no explanation

6. [Challenge] The political parties that have governed the country under the - Discover: Which action comes after the opening step?

A. Change to an unrelated lesson immediately

B. Only watch others without trying

C. Ask a question about: Identify the political parties that have governed the country under the Fourth Republic.

D. Skip to marking before learning

7. [Challenge] The political parties that have governed the country under the - Discover: Which practice completes the three lesson stages?

A. Leave the task unfinished without explaining

B. Give a guess without trying the activity

C. Create a sequence of known events and check the dates before presenting.

D. Stop after reading the title

8. [Challenge] The political parties that have governed the country under the - Discover: What counts as good evidence of learning here?

A. an opinion without observation or practice

B. a random answer with no supporting detail

C. an unrelated example that does not test the skill

D. a verified timeline

9. [Challenge] The political parties that have governed the country under the - Discover: Which safety or respect rule fits this lesson?

A. Take unnecessary risks to finish first.

B. Do the activity without considering other people.

C. Ignore the teacher’s safety instructions.

D. Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

10. [Challenge] The political parties that have governed the country under the - Discover: Which classroom activity helps apply the lesson?

A. Avoid the stated task and its materials

B. Create a sequence of known events and check the dates before presenting.

C. Complete a different lesson instead

D. Copy another learner’s response without trying

11. [Challenge] The political parties that have governed the country under the - Discover: Which explanation best supports this lesson?

A. The topic can be completed without observing or practising

B. Learning means only guessing and never checking

C. The lesson has no connection to life or skills

D. Ghana has had different periods of constitutional government. A timeline can help distinguish leaders, republics and dates.

12. [Challenge] The political parties that have governed the country under the - Discover: What should a partner help you check?

A. Whether you can ignore the agreed task

B. Whether your work demonstrates a verified timeline.

C. Whether you can finish without showing your work

D. Whether you can avoid answering questions

13. [Challenge] The political parties that have governed the country under the - Discover: Which follow-up deepens the learning?

A. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

B. Repeat the same error without checking feedback

C. Stop immediately without reflection

D. Make up results instead of practising

14. [Challenge] The political parties that have governed the country under the - Discover: How should a learner improve after feedback?

A. Change answers randomly without a reason

B. Skip a difficult part without asking for help

C. Revisit the steps and strengthen a verified timeline.

D. Ignore all comments and leave the task incomplete

15. [Challenge] The political parties that have governed the country under the - Discover: Which choice would show responsible use of today’s skill?

A. Claim expertise without trying the skill

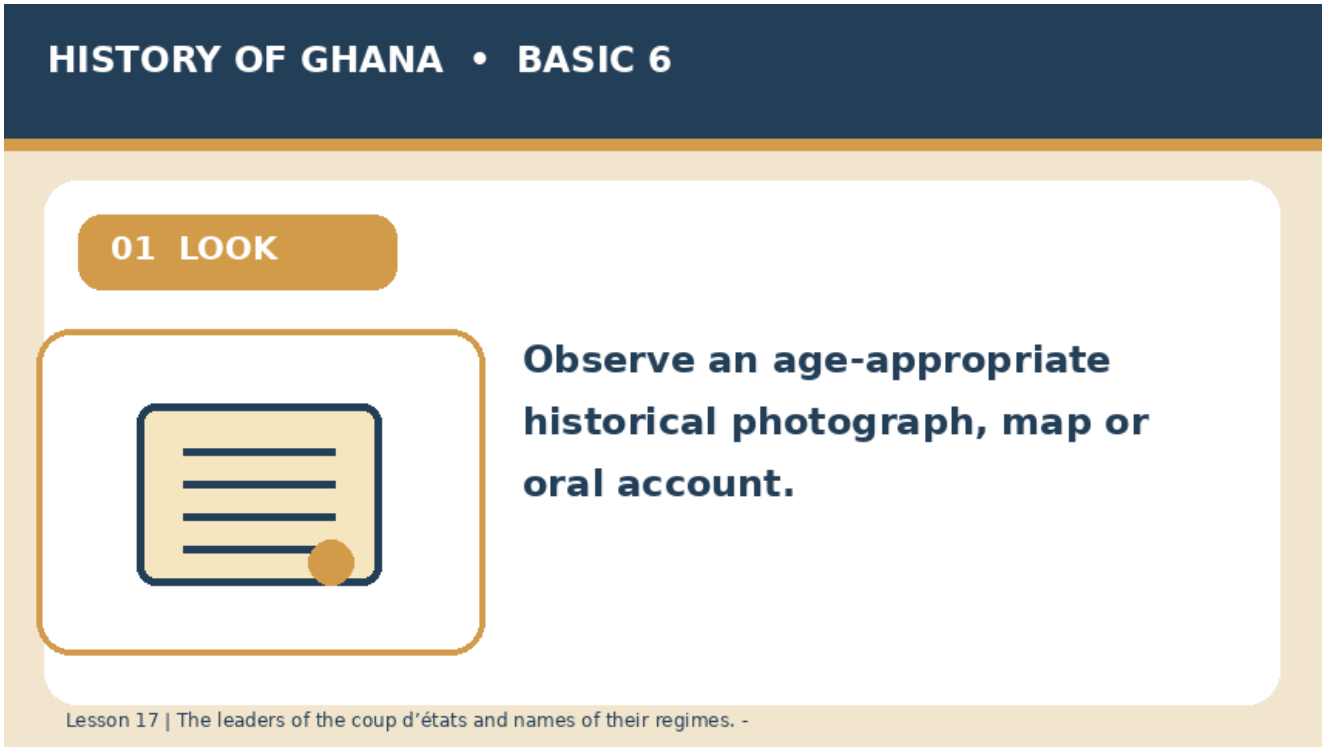

B. Apply the lesson about identify the political parties that have governed the country under the fourth republic to a suitable real-life situation.

C. Avoid explaining how the skill could be used

D. Use the topic to mislead others

LESSON 17: The leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. - Describe

Goal: Identify the leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. Exemplification

Learn it

Past events help explain present-day Ghana. Historians use timelines and evidence rather than guessing about the past.

Useful material: An age-appropriate historical photograph, map or oral account.

Do it in three steps

1. Observe an age-appropriate historical photograph, map or oral account.

2. Ask a question about: Identify the leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. Exemplification.

3. Identify a historical question and explain how evidence may answer it.

Safety / respect: Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

Try this: Identify a historical question and explain how evidence may answer it.

Show your learning: an evidence-based explanation. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

LESSON 17: Play + Challenge

Circle one answer for each question. Play = 1–5; Challenge = 6–15.

1. [Play] The leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. - Describe: What is this lesson mainly about?

A. Treat every account as equally reliable without checking

B. Identify the leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. Exemplification

C. Discuss an unrelated modern topic without evidence

D. Ignore historical sources and decide from a guess

2. [Play] The leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. - Describe: What useful learning material or support is listed?

A. only unsupported rumours without checking

B. An age-appropriate historical photograph, map or oral account.

C. an unrelated fictional story presented as a historical record

D. guesses written without any source

3. [Play] The leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. - Describe: Which action should come first?

A. Ignore the main task and do something unrelated.

B. Skip all practice and guess the result.

C. Finish before looking at the instructions.

D. Observe an age-appropriate historical photograph, map or oral account.

4. [Play] The leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. - Describe: Which setting does this grade use?

A. only a future space colony

B. colonial rule, independence and republican government

C. a topic unrelated to the current class

D. an unrelated imagined city

5. [Play] The leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. - Describe: What should learners produce or demonstrate?

A. an unsupported claim with no classroom practice

B. a short, evidence-supported historical explanation

C. a response that does not show the lesson skill

D. an unrelated picture with no explanation

6. [Challenge] The leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. - Describe: Which action comes after the opening step?

A. Only watch others without trying

B. Ask a question about: Identify the leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. Exemplification.

C. Skip to marking before learning

D. Change to an unrelated lesson immediately

7. [Challenge] The leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. - Describe: Which practice completes the three lesson stages?

A. Stop after reading the title

B. Give a guess without trying the activity

C. Identify a historical question and explain how evidence may answer it.

D. Leave the task unfinished without explaining

8. [Challenge] The leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. - Describe: What counts as good evidence of learning here?

A. an evidence-based explanation

B. an unrelated example that does not test the skill

C. a random answer with no supporting detail

D. an opinion without observation or practice

9. [Challenge] The leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. - Describe: Which safety or respect rule fits this lesson?

A. Take unnecessary risks to finish first.

B. Ignore the teacher’s safety instructions.

C. Do the activity without considering other people.

D. Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

10. [Challenge] The leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. - Describe: Which classroom activity helps apply the lesson?

A. Complete a different lesson instead

B. Identify a historical question and explain how evidence may answer it.

C. Avoid the stated task and its materials

D. Copy another learner’s response without trying

11. [Challenge] The leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. - Describe: Which explanation best supports this lesson?

A. The lesson has no connection to life or skills

B. Learning means only guessing and never checking

C. The topic can be completed without observing or practising

D. Past events help explain present-day Ghana. Historians use timelines and evidence rather than guessing about the past.

12. [Challenge] The leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. - Describe: What should a partner help you check?

A. Whether your work demonstrates an evidence-based explanation.

B. Whether you can ignore the agreed task

C. Whether you can finish without showing your work

D. Whether you can avoid answering questions

13. [Challenge] The leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. - Describe: Which follow-up deepens the learning?

A. Repeat the same error without checking feedback

B. Stop immediately without reflection

C. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

D. Make up results instead of practising

14. [Challenge] The leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. - Describe: How should a learner improve after feedback?

A. Revisit the steps and strengthen an evidence-based explanation.

B. Skip a difficult part without asking for help

C. Change answers randomly without a reason

D. Ignore all comments and leave the task incomplete

15. [Challenge] The leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. - Describe: Which choice would show responsible use of today’s skill?

A. Apply the lesson about identify the leaders of the coup d’états and names of their regimes. exemplification to a suitable real-life situation.

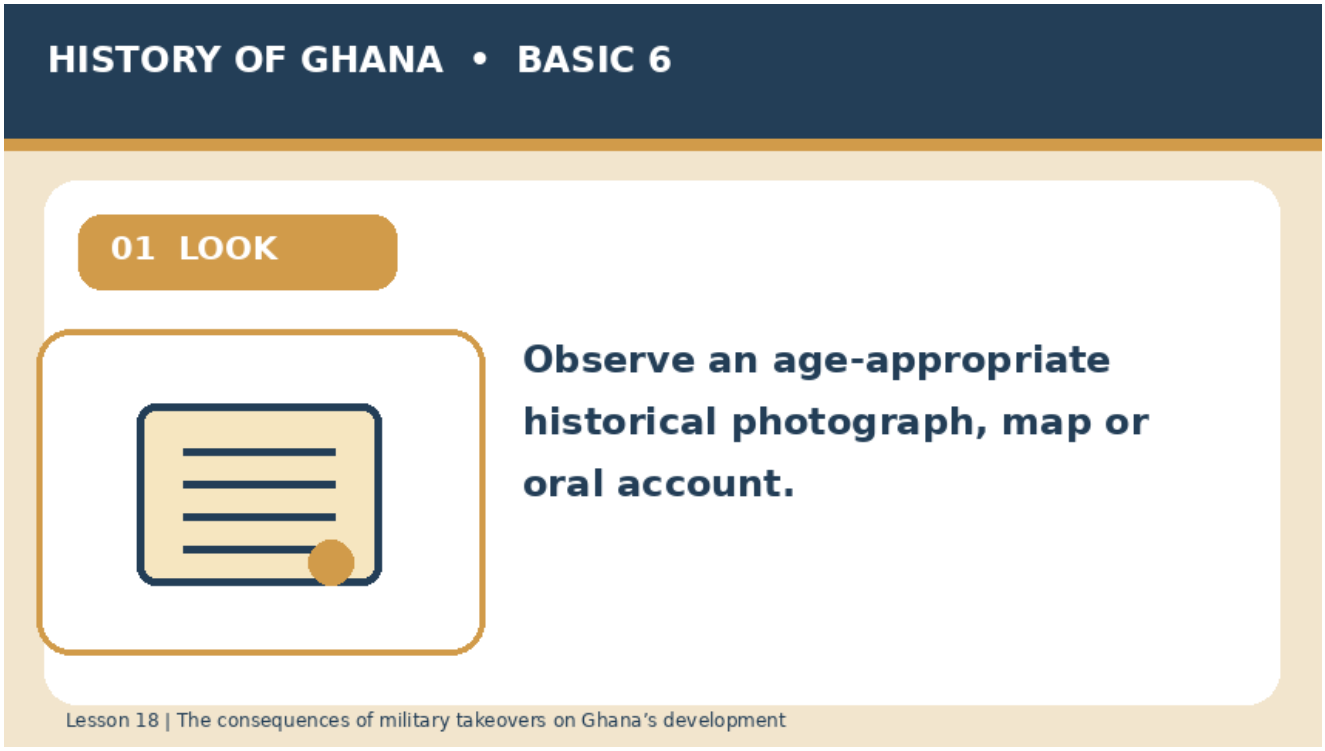

B. Use the topic to mislead others

C. Claim expertise without trying the skill

D. Avoid explaining how the skill could be used

LESSON 18: The consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development - Practise

Goal: Assess the consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development Exemplification

Learn it

Past events help explain present-day Ghana. Historians use timelines and evidence rather than guessing about the past.

Useful material: An age-appropriate historical photograph, map or oral account.

Do it in three steps

1. Observe an age-appropriate historical photograph, map or oral account.

2. Ask a question about: Assess the consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development Exemplification.

3. Identify a historical question and explain how evidence may answer it.

Safety / respect: Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

Try this: Identify a historical question and explain how evidence may answer it.

Show your learning: an evidence-based explanation. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

LESSON 18: Play + Challenge

Circle one answer for each question. Play = 1–5; Challenge = 6–15.

1. [Play] The consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development - Practise: What is this lesson mainly about?

A. Assess the consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development Exemplification

B. Discuss an unrelated modern topic without evidence

C. Ignore historical sources and decide from a guess

D. Treat every account as equally reliable without checking

2. [Play] The consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development - Practise: What useful learning material or support is listed?

A. An age-appropriate historical photograph, map or oral account.

B. guesses written without any source

C. only unsupported rumours without checking

D. an unrelated fictional story presented as a historical record

3. [Play] The consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development - Practise: Which action should come first?

A. Finish before looking at the instructions.

B. Ignore the main task and do something unrelated.

C. Observe an age-appropriate historical photograph, map or oral account.

D. Skip all practice and guess the result.

4. [Play] The consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development - Practise: Which setting does this grade use?

A. colonial rule, independence and republican government

B. a topic unrelated to the current class

C. an unrelated imagined city

D. only a future space colony

5. [Play] The consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development - Practise: What should learners produce or demonstrate?

A. a short, evidence-supported historical explanation

B. an unsupported claim with no classroom practice

C. an unrelated picture with no explanation

D. a response that does not show the lesson skill

6. [Challenge] The consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development - Practise: Which action comes after the opening step?

A. Skip to marking before learning

B. Only watch others without trying

C. Ask a question about: Assess the consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development Exemplification.

D. Change to an unrelated lesson immediately

7. [Challenge] The consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development - Practise: Which practice completes the three lesson stages?

A. Stop after reading the title

B. Give a guess without trying the activity

C. Identify a historical question and explain how evidence may answer it.

D. Leave the task unfinished without explaining

8. [Challenge] The consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development - Practise: What counts as good evidence of learning here?

A. a random answer with no supporting detail

B. an evidence-based explanation

C. an unrelated example that does not test the skill

D. an opinion without observation or practice

9. [Challenge] The consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development - Practise: Which safety or respect rule fits this lesson?

A. Ignore the teacher’s safety instructions.

B. Take unnecessary risks to finish first.

C. Do the activity without considering other people.

D. Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

10. [Challenge] The consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development - Practise: Which classroom activity helps apply the lesson?

A. Identify a historical question and explain how evidence may answer it.

B. Copy another learner’s response without trying

C. Complete a different lesson instead

D. Avoid the stated task and its materials

11. [Challenge] The consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development - Practise: Which explanation best supports this lesson?

A. Past events help explain present-day Ghana. Historians use timelines and evidence rather than guessing about the past.

B. Learning means only guessing and never checking

C. The topic can be completed without observing or practising

D. The lesson has no connection to life or skills

12. [Challenge] The consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development - Practise: What should a partner help you check?

A. Whether you can finish without showing your work

B. Whether you can ignore the agreed task

C. Whether your work demonstrates an evidence-based explanation.

D. Whether you can avoid answering questions

13. [Challenge] The consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development - Practise: Which follow-up deepens the learning?

A. Stop immediately without reflection

B. Make up results instead of practising

C. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

D. Repeat the same error without checking feedback

14. [Challenge] The consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development - Practise: How should a learner improve after feedback?

A. Revisit the steps and strengthen an evidence-based explanation.

B. Skip a difficult part without asking for help

C. Ignore all comments and leave the task incomplete

D. Change answers randomly without a reason

15. [Challenge] The consequences of military takeovers on Ghana’s development - Practise: Which choice would show responsible use of today’s skill?

A. Avoid explaining how the skill could be used

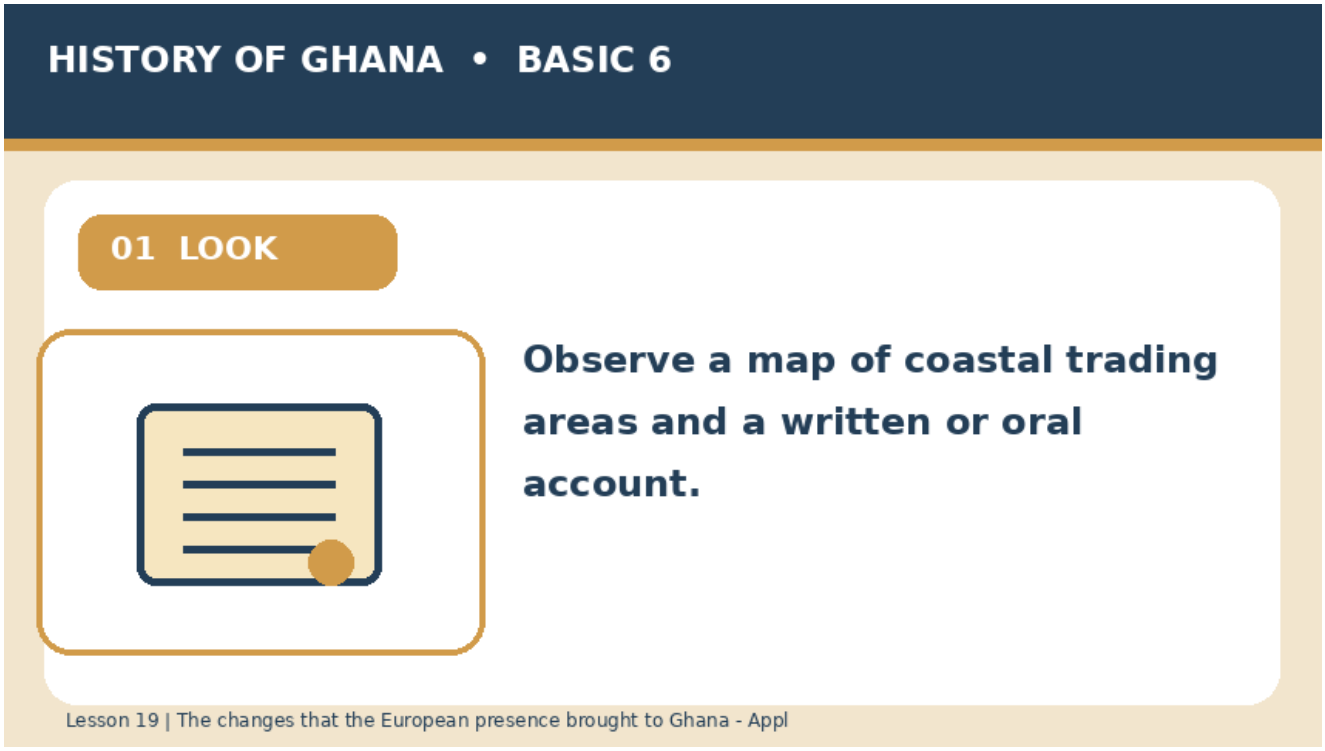

B. Apply the lesson about assess the consequences of military takeovers on ghana’s development exemplification to a suitable real-life situation.

C. Use the topic to mislead others

D. Claim expertise without trying the skill

LESSON 19: The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Apply

Goal: Assess the changes that the European presence brought to Ghana.

Learn it

Ghana’s coast had contacts with European visitors and traders. Different periods of contact brought changes that must be studied using evidence.

Useful material: A map of coastal trading areas and a written or oral account.

Do it in three steps

1. Observe a map of coastal trading areas and a written or oral account.

2. Ask a question about: Assess the changes that the European presence brought to Ghana.

3. Compare what two sources reveal about the period of European contact.

Safety / respect: Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

Try this: Compare what two sources reveal about the period of European contact.

Show your learning: two pieces of evidence. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

LESSON 19: Play + Challenge

Circle one answer for each question. Play = 1–5; Challenge = 6–15.

1. [Play] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Apply: What is this lesson mainly about?

A. Discuss an unrelated modern topic without evidence

B. Ignore historical sources and decide from a guess

C. Treat every account as equally reliable without checking

D. Assess the changes that the European presence brought to Ghana.

2. [Play] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Apply: What useful learning material or support is listed?

A. an unrelated fictional story presented as a historical record

B. A map of coastal trading areas and a written or oral account.

C. guesses written without any source

D. only unsupported rumours without checking

3. [Play] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Apply: Which action should come first?

A. Finish before looking at the instructions.

B. Skip all practice and guess the result.

C. Ignore the main task and do something unrelated.

D. Observe a map of coastal trading areas and a written or oral account.

4. [Play] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Apply: Which setting does this grade use?

A. an unrelated imagined city

B. only a future space colony

C. a topic unrelated to the current class

D. colonial rule, independence and republican government

5. [Play] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Apply: What should learners produce or demonstrate?

A. an unrelated picture with no explanation

B. a short, evidence-supported historical explanation

C. an unsupported claim with no classroom practice

D. a response that does not show the lesson skill

6. [Challenge] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Apply: Which action comes after the opening step?

A. Ask a question about: Assess the changes that the European presence brought to Ghana.

B. Change to an unrelated lesson immediately

C. Only watch others without trying

D. Skip to marking before learning

7. [Challenge] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Apply: Which practice completes the three lesson stages?

A. Compare what two sources reveal about the period of European contact.

B. Stop after reading the title

C. Give a guess without trying the activity

D. Leave the task unfinished without explaining

8. [Challenge] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Apply: What counts as good evidence of learning here?

A. an opinion without observation or practice

B. a random answer with no supporting detail

C. an unrelated example that does not test the skill

D. two pieces of evidence

9. [Challenge] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Apply: Which safety or respect rule fits this lesson?

A. Take unnecessary risks to finish first.

B. Ignore the teacher’s safety instructions.

C. Do the activity without considering other people.

D. Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

10. [Challenge] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Apply: Which classroom activity helps apply the lesson?

A. Complete a different lesson instead

B. Compare what two sources reveal about the period of European contact.

C. Copy another learner’s response without trying

D. Avoid the stated task and its materials

11. [Challenge] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Apply: Which explanation best supports this lesson?

A. The lesson has no connection to life or skills

B. The topic can be completed without observing or practising

C. Ghana’s coast had contacts with European visitors and traders. Different periods of contact brought changes that must be studied using evidence.

D. Learning means only guessing and never checking

12. [Challenge] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Apply: What should a partner help you check?

A. Whether your work demonstrates two pieces of evidence.

B. Whether you can finish without showing your work

C. Whether you can avoid answering questions

D. Whether you can ignore the agreed task

13. [Challenge] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Apply: Which follow-up deepens the learning?

A. Make up results instead of practising

B. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

C. Stop immediately without reflection

D. Repeat the same error without checking feedback

14. [Challenge] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Apply: How should a learner improve after feedback?

A. Skip a difficult part without asking for help

B. Change answers randomly without a reason

C. Revisit the steps and strengthen two pieces of evidence.

D. Ignore all comments and leave the task incomplete

15. [Challenge] The changes that the European presence brought to Ghana - Apply: Which choice would show responsible use of today’s skill?

A. Use the topic to mislead others

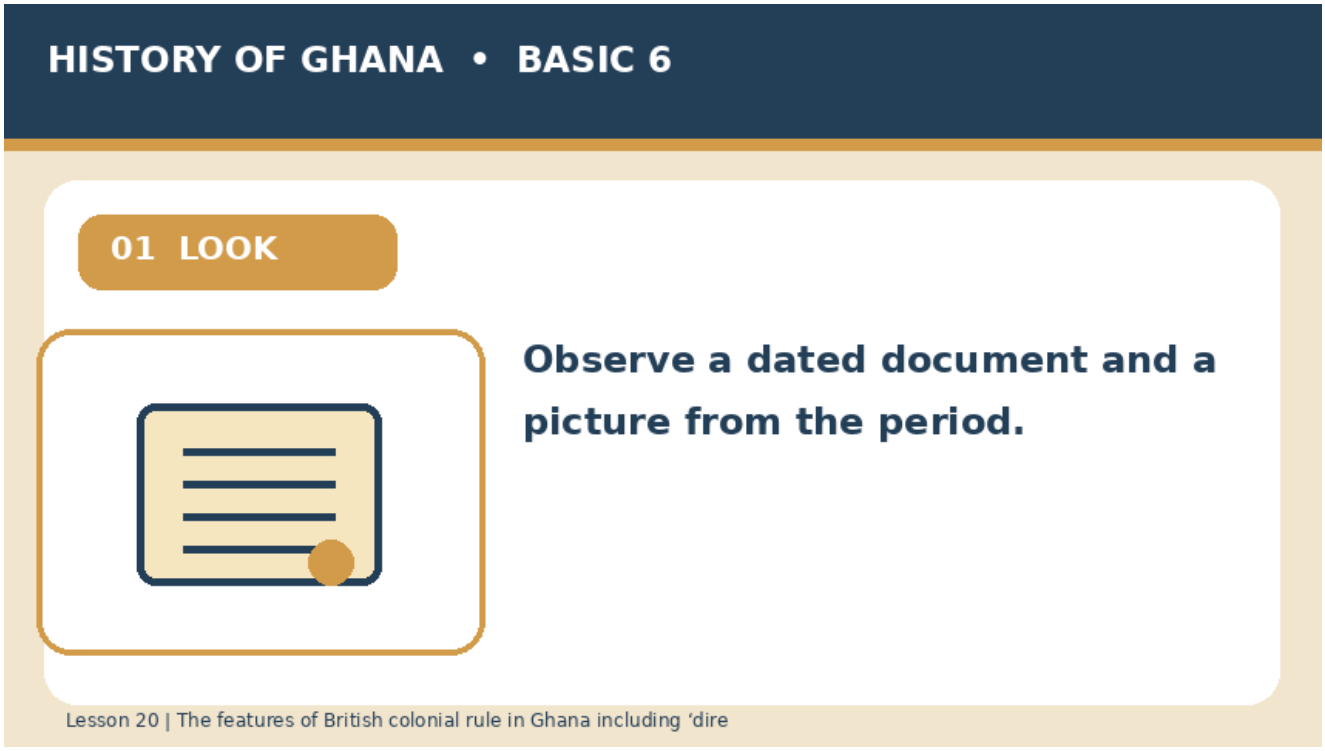

B. Avoid explaining how the skill could be used

C. Apply the lesson about assess the changes that the european presence brought to ghana to a suitable real-life situation.

D. Claim expertise without trying the skill

LESSON 20: The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Share

Goal: Describe the features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ and ‘indirect’ rule, 1874

Learn it

Colonial rule affected administration, trade and daily life. Historical accounts should consider experiences from more than one perspective.

Useful material: A dated document and a picture from the period.

Do it in three steps

1. Observe a dated document and a picture from the period.

2. Ask a question about: Describe the features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ and ‘indirect’ rule, 1874.

3. Describe a change and support it with a source rather than a guess.

Safety / respect: Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

Try this: Describe a change and support it with a source rather than a guess.

Show your learning: a before-and-after comparison. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

LESSON 20: Play + Challenge

Circle one answer for each question. Play = 1–5; Challenge = 6–15.

1. [Play] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Share: What is this lesson mainly about?

A. Describe the features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ and ‘indirect’ rule, 1874

B. Treat every account as equally reliable without checking

C. Discuss an unrelated modern topic without evidence

D. Ignore historical sources and decide from a guess

2. [Play] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Share: What useful learning material or support is listed?

A. A dated document and a picture from the period.

B. an unrelated fictional story presented as a historical record

C. guesses written without any source

D. only unsupported rumours without checking

3. [Play] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Share: Which action should come first?

A. Observe a dated document and a picture from the period.

B. Ignore the main task and do something unrelated.

C. Skip all practice and guess the result.

D. Finish before looking at the instructions.

4. [Play] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Share: Which setting does this grade use?

A. only a future space colony

B. a topic unrelated to the current class

C. an unrelated imagined city

D. colonial rule, independence and republican government

5. [Play] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Share: What should learners produce or demonstrate?

A. an unrelated picture with no explanation

B. a short, evidence-supported historical explanation

C. a response that does not show the lesson skill

D. an unsupported claim with no classroom practice

6. [Challenge] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Share: Which action comes after the opening step?

A. Ask a question about: Describe the features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ and ‘indirect’ rule, 1874.

B. Change to an unrelated lesson immediately

C. Only watch others without trying

D. Skip to marking before learning

7. [Challenge] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Share: Which practice completes the three lesson stages?

A. Leave the task unfinished without explaining

B. Stop after reading the title

C. Give a guess without trying the activity

D. Describe a change and support it with a source rather than a guess.

8. [Challenge] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Share: What counts as good evidence of learning here?

A. a before-and-after comparison

B. an unrelated example that does not test the skill

C. an opinion without observation or practice

D. a random answer with no supporting detail

9. [Challenge] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Share: Which safety or respect rule fits this lesson?

A. Handle historical artefacts carefully; respect different communities and distinguish facts from guesses.

B. Do the activity without considering other people.

C. Ignore the teacher’s safety instructions.

D. Take unnecessary risks to finish first.

10. [Challenge] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Share: Which classroom activity helps apply the lesson?

A. Copy another learner’s response without trying

B. Describe a change and support it with a source rather than a guess.

C. Avoid the stated task and its materials

D. Complete a different lesson instead

11. [Challenge] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Share: Which explanation best supports this lesson?

A. Colonial rule affected administration, trade and daily life. Historical accounts should consider experiences from more than one perspective.

B. The lesson has no connection to life or skills

C. Learning means only guessing and never checking

D. The topic can be completed without observing or practising

12. [Challenge] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Share: What should a partner help you check?

A. Whether you can finish without showing your work

B. Whether your work demonstrates a before-and-after comparison.

C. Whether you can ignore the agreed task

D. Whether you can avoid answering questions

13. [Challenge] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Share: Which follow-up deepens the learning?

A. Repeat the same error without checking feedback

B. Compare two sources; say how you know which details are reliable.

C. Stop immediately without reflection

D. Make up results instead of practising

14. [Challenge] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Share: How should a learner improve after feedback?

A. Skip a difficult part without asking for help

B. Ignore all comments and leave the task incomplete

C. Revisit the steps and strengthen a before-and-after comparison.

D. Change answers randomly without a reason

15. [Challenge] The features of British colonial rule in Ghana including ‘direct’ - Share: Which choice would show responsible use of today’s skill?

A. Apply the lesson about describe the features of british colonial rule in ghana including ‘direct’ and ‘indirect’ rule, 1874 to a suitable real-life situation.

B. Avoid explaining how the skill could be used

C. Use the topic to mislead others

D. Claim expertise without trying the skill

TEACHER ANSWER KEY

Lesson 01 — 1:A · 2:A · 3:B · 4:A · 5:D · 6:C · 7:D · 8:C · 9:A · 10:B · 11:B · 12:D · 13:C · 14:C · 15:C

Lesson 02 — 1:A · 2:B · 3:B · 4:D · 5:A · 6:A · 7:B · 8:C · 9:B · 10:C · 11:A · 12:A · 13:D · 14:B · 15:B

Lesson 03 — 1:D · 2:D · 3:A · 4:C · 5:A · 6:C · 7:A · 8:C · 9:C · 10:A · 11:C · 12:C · 13:C · 14:B · 15:B

Lesson 04 — 1:A · 2:B · 3:A · 4:A · 5:C · 6:A · 7:A · 8:A · 9:B · 10:D · 11:B · 12:A · 13:B · 14:B · 15:A

Lesson 05 — 1:C · 2:D · 3:D · 4:C · 5:B · 6:A · 7:A · 8:D · 9:A · 10:D · 11:D · 12:A · 13:A · 14:C · 15:A

Lesson 06 — 1:A · 2:D · 3:A · 4:B · 5:C · 6:B · 7:D · 8:B · 9:D · 10:A · 11:B · 12:B · 13:B · 14:C · 15:D

Lesson 07 — 1:D · 2:A · 3:D · 4:B · 5:A · 6:D · 7:A · 8:B · 9:D · 10:B · 11:A · 12:B · 13:D · 14:B · 15:C

Lesson 08 — 1:D · 2:A · 3:C · 4:D · 5:D · 6:C · 7:A · 8:D · 9:B · 10:C · 11:B · 12:C · 13:D · 14:A · 15:D

Lesson 09 — 1:D · 2:C · 3:A · 4:A · 5:D · 6:A · 7:C · 8:B · 9:B · 10:C · 11:C · 12:B · 13:B · 14:D · 15:C

Lesson 10 — 1:B · 2:C · 3:C · 4:B · 5:A · 6:B · 7:B · 8:C · 9:D · 10:A · 11:D · 12:D · 13:C · 14:A · 15:B

Lesson 11 — 1:C · 2:A · 3:B · 4:D · 5:B · 6:D · 7:D · 8:A · 9:D · 10:D · 11:B · 12:B · 13:C · 14:D · 15:B

Lesson 12 — 1:C · 2:D · 3:B · 4:D · 5:C · 6:C · 7:D · 8:D · 9:B · 10:B · 11:D · 12:C · 13:A · 14:B · 15:B

Lesson 13 — 1:C · 2:B · 3:D · 4:C · 5:C · 6:D · 7:C · 8:B · 9:A · 10:B · 11:B · 12:A · 13:B · 14:C · 15:A

Lesson 14 — 1:D · 2:C · 3:A · 4:D · 5:A · 6:B · 7:B · 8:B · 9:D · 10:A · 11:B · 12:A · 13:B · 14:A · 15:D

Lesson 15 — 1:C · 2:D · 3:B · 4:A · 5:D · 6:A · 7:B · 8:D · 9:D · 10:B · 11:C · 12:C · 13:A · 14:A · 15:B

Lesson 16 — 1:C · 2:B · 3:D · 4:A · 5:B · 6:C · 7:C · 8:D · 9:D · 10:B · 11:D · 12:B · 13:A · 14:C · 15:B

Lesson 17 — 1:B · 2:B · 3:D · 4:B · 5:B · 6:B · 7:C · 8:A · 9:D · 10:B · 11:D · 12:A · 13:C · 14:A · 15:A

Lesson 18 — 1:A · 2:A · 3:C · 4:A · 5:A · 6:C · 7:C · 8:B · 9:D · 10:A · 11:A · 12:C · 13:C · 14:A · 15:B

Lesson 19 — 1:D · 2:B · 3:D · 4:D · 5:B · 6:A · 7:A · 8:D · 9:D · 10:B · 11:C · 12:A · 13:B · 14:C · 15:C

Lesson 20 — 1:A · 2:A · 3:A · 4:D · 5:B · 6:A · 7:D · 8:A · 9:A · 10:B · 11:A · 12:B · 13:B · 14:C · 15:A